MINUTES,

ETC.

THE ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, met in the Third Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, on Thursday, May 16, 1895, at 11 o'clock A.M., and after devotional services, was opened with a sermon by the Moderator, the Rev. Samuel A. Mutchmore, D.D., LL.D., from Mark xiii. 34: "For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch."

After the sermon, the Assembly was constituted with prayer.

The Committee of Arrangements presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee of Arrangements beg leave to report to the One Hundred and Seventh Assembly, recommending that the Assembly meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock; that the regular hours of meeting daily be from 9 o'clock A.M. to 12 M.; and from 2.30 o'clock P.M. to 5 o'clock P.M.; that the first half hour of the morning sessions be spent in devotional services; that the popular meetings in the evening begin at 7.45 o'clock; and that the Lord's Supper be administered in the Assembly Church this evening, the Rev. S. A. Mutchmore, D.D., to preside; the Rev. W. H. Landon, D.D., to administer the Bread; and the Rev. Wm. O. Thompson, D.D., to administer the Wine; and that the following Ruling Elders assist in the administration of the Elements: The Bread—John P. Ammidon, of the Presbytery of Baltimore; Amos S. Synod of the Waldensian Church	Francesco Rostan.

The Assembly proceeded to the election of a Moderator.

Ruling Elders Isaac D. Fry, of the Presbytery of Cincinnati, and H. T. Nash, of the Presbytery of St. Louis, were appointed Tellers.

The Rev. Robert Russell Booth, D.D., LL.D., of the Presbytery of New York, was chosen Moderator, and the election was made unanimous.

On the nomination of the Stated and Permanent Clerks, the Rev. Wm. Greenough, of the Presbytery of Philadelphia; the Rev. John A. Ewalt, of the Presbytery of Columbus; the Rev. William P. Craig, of the Presbytery of Los Angeles; and Elder Charles J. Deacon, of the Presbytery of Cedar Rapids, were chosen Temporary Clerks.

The General Rules for Judicatories, appended to the Constitution, were adopted as the Rules of Business for this General Assembly.

The Docket of Business was presented by the Stated Clerk, was adopted and ordered to be printed.

It was made the first Order for to-morrow morning, to receive the Report of the Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries; and the second Order to receive the Report of the Special Committee on Sabbath Observance.

The Assembly adjourned until 9 A.M. to-morrow, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 16, 7.45 o'clock P.M.

The Communion of the Lord's Supper was celebrated in the order recommended by the Committee of Arrangements.

FRIDAY, May 17, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

An address of welcome to the Assembly was made by the Rev. William L. McEwan, D.D., pastor of the church in which the Assembly holds its sessions. Dr. McEwan also presented a gavel for the use of the Moderator made from woods procured in Palestine and Egypt. The Moderator responded in an appropriate address.

The following additional Commissioners were reported by the Committee of Commissions, and their names enrolled: Ministers—Mead Holmes, of the Presbytery of Freeport; Charles Leaman, of the Presbytery of Shanghai; William N. The Report of the Committee on Church Unity was made the first Order for this afternoon, and the Report of the Committee on the Assembly Herald was made the fourth Order for this morning.

The Special Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries presented its Report, which was read and accepted. The motion to adopt was made the Order for 3.30 o'clock this afternoon, and it was ordered that it have the precedence of all other business until its consideration shall be concluded.

The Special Committee to visit Lane Seminary (Minutes, 1894, p. 110) presented its Report, which was accepted, and the resolutions adopted. The Report is as follows:

At the last meeting of the General Assembly, the following action was taken touching Lane Theological Seminary (see pp. 110, 111 of the Minutes):

1. "The General Assembly would advise the Board of Trustees, as promptly and completely as possible, to reorganize the Seminary by introducing new and different men into the Board of Trustees and the corps of instructors, and this, not because of any question touching the integrity of purpose and purity of motive in the honored brethren now in charge, but simply because the differences of opinion and policy now prevailing among them seem to be irreconcilable, and to forbid the hope of settlement until other men are put in charge."

2. "That a Committee of five, three ministers and two elders, shall be appointed by this Assembly to visit the Seminary and confer with the Board of Trustees and to advise with them concerning all the interests of the institution, especially concerning the reorganization, as already indicated; this Committee to report to the next General Assembly."

The Assembly's Committee consisted of Drs. D. A. Cunningham, Charles A. Dickey and G. W. F. Birch, with Ruling Elders George E. Sterry and E. R. Perkins.

The specific instructions to the Committee were to visit the Seminary and confer with the Board of Trustees and to advise them concerning all the interests of the institution, especially concerning reorganization.

The mission was to be a friendly, helpful one: to visit, to confer with and to advise.

We report that the Committee appointed by the General Assembly to confer with the Board of Trustees of Lane Seminary, held a conference in Cincinnati, November 22, 1894. The Board of Trustees made their statement, each member setting forth his personal convictions regarding the condition and purposes of the Board. The meeting was continued through the day, was harmonious and satisfactory, and the interchange of views and opinions was most fraternal and cordial. Whatever "differences of opinion and polity" may have been and to some may have seemed "irreconcilable," they were not to be found when the Committee looked the brethren in the face and heard their words of conciliation and earnest expression of desire, harmoniously and unitedly, to promote the best interests of the Seminary and our Presbyterian Zion.

After hearing at length the detailed and explanatory statement of the Board of Trustees concerning the financial condition of the Seminary in the past and in the present, showing the receipts and disbursements, also the annual attendance of students from 1887 to 1895, and also the teaching force of the past and the present, and concerning the prospect of the future, the Assembly's Committee retired for a conference.

In the evening the conference of the Board of Trustees and the Committee was resumed, when the Assembly's Committee submitted to the Board of Trustees the conclusion upon which they appeared to agree, and which in their present light they were disposed to submit to the General Assembly. The Board of Trustees by a unanimous vote expressed their satisfaction with these suggestions of the Committee, which were substantially as follow:

1. Having heard the full statement of the Board and the satisfactory explanation in regard to the financial condition of the Seminary, with the hopeful outlook for the future, we advise the increase and completion of the Faculty in accordance with the recommendation of the General Assembly, as speedily as the income of the institution will allow.

2. We will report to the General Assembly that the full, clear financial statement submitted to the Committee seemed to us in a large measure to explain the present administration of the Board, and likewise promise an increase of the teaching force in the near future.

3. Having been informed that five vacancies exist in the Board of Trustees, we would take pleasure in reporting to the Assembly that it is the intention of the Board to fill these places, as soon as possible, with men known to be in sympathy with the Presbyterian Church and the Seminary in its relation to the General Assembly.

4. We will report to the Assembly that we found the Board of Trustees, clergymen and laymen, to be an intelligent body of earnest Christian men; united in the desire and purpose to do everything in their power to bring the Seminary into closer relations to the Church, and to ensure the hearty sympathy and support of the community and region in which the Seminary is located.

The Board took the following action:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Board of Trustees are hereby extended to the Assembly's Committee of Conference on Lane Seminary, for the patient and open-minded manner in which they have sought information, and also for the outline of opinion and conclusion submitted, in which the purpose and spirit of this Board are correctly interpreted.

Therefore your Committee recommend the Assembly to encourage the Board to continue making such efforts and devising such means, as will speedily and thoroughly reorganize and increase the teaching force, and thus secure for Lane Seminary the constant fostering care and approval of the Assembly, as well as the confidence, sympathy, and support of our beloved Presbyterian Zion.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee,

D. A. CUNNINGHAM, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Lane Seminary was ordered to be continued.

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance presented its Report, which was accepted and the resolutions adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance would respectfully emphasize the need of vigilance and united action on the part of those who value the Lord's day.

The antagonistic forces which tend to undermine the American Sabbath, both as a civil and religious institution, are insidious and active. Vigorous and organized attempts are being made to destroy the legal and moral safeguards of this sacred day. A secularizing Sunday literature invades our homes; Sunday traffic, Sunday excursions, Sunday concerts, Sunday social entertainments, and Sunday traveling for gain or pleasure in many places prevail. There is an alarming disposition to attack the sacred character of the day, and to regard its observance on religious grounds as indications of a narrow and pharisaic spirit. Even among professing Christians there are those who, while admitting that the physical, domestic and industrial interests of the people require the maintenance of the weekly rest day, do not seem to appreciate its religious obligations. The present situation is serious—demanding the immediate consideration of the patriot, the philanthropist and the Christian.

This is not a time for depression or inaction. The Sabbath is a sacred trust committed to our hands. It is the foundation of national prosperity, the safeguard of social order as well as of religious blessings, the friend of the wage-earner, and the visible sign of a Christian civilization. We are commissioned to defend this institution against all its foes, and to exemplify its spiritual significance by a consistent life.

In a review of the past year we find much to encourage continued effort in behalf of the Lord's Day. There are evidences of increased and growing interest in such efforts. Movements are in progress in many cities looking towards the enforcement of Sunday laws. Ministers are preaching on Sabbath observance, and attention is called to it in homes and Sabbath-schools. Young People's Societies have taken a marked interest in the different aspects of the question; the religious press has been pronounced in advocating Sabbath sentiment; Sabbath Associations have been exerting a wide influence for good, and the Christian pulpit—delivering messages of truth on the divine obligation of the Sabbath—has accomplished much in awakening the public conscience.

It is with pleasure that we allude to the formation—since the opening of the new year—of the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance, auxiliary to the American Sabbath Union; having for its only object "to arouse the women of America to a realization of existing perils which threaten the Christian Sabbath, and to enlist all women in definite efforts to counteract those perils, especially in the home and in social life." Over one hundred women well known in philanthropic and religious circles in New York City, Washington, D. C., and other cities, have pledged themselves "to resist whatever tends to undermine Sunday as a day of rest and worship, and to use their influence to create a right sentiment on all aspects of the Sunday question, especially in reference to traffic of every kind on that day." The Alliance proposes to form, as rapidly as possible, coöperating committees among women in every State, city and town. In an "Address to the Women of America," issued under the direction of the Alliance, the following words occur:

"We call upon the women of our beloved and favored land—the land towards which the eyes of all nations turn—to foster by every influence in their power: (1) A higher appreciation of civil laws, wisely administered, designed to preserve the Christian Sabbath as a day of rest and worship. (2) A better understanding of the harmony existing between the Sabbath Code, as revealed in God's word, and man's highest interests in all his relations, individual, social and civil. (3) A deeper sense of God's goodness in providing the Sabbath rest. (4) A firm conviction of the universal obligation of the human race to observe His command in the true spirit of the Great Teacher, who said, 'The Sabbath was made for man.'"

Your Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly hereby express their profound sense of the importance of inculcating Scriptural precepts in reference to the Sabbath, in the home, in the Sunday-school, and in all Young People's Associations.

Resolved, 2. That we deprecate the growing tendency in many places to make the Lord's Day a season of worldly entertainments, social visitations, and personal self-indulgence. We particularly enjoin upon the members of our own Church to see to it that they do nothing by example to increase the frightful desecration of the Lord's Day.

Resolved, 3. That we heartily commend all Sunday legislation designed to protect the Christian Sabbath as a day of rest and worship, and pledge ourselves to resist in every lawful way the effort to destroy its civil safeguards.

Resolved, 4. That we are deeply impressed with the responsibility of Christian ministers and elders in proclaiming the truth concerning the holy Sabbath, and in faithfully admonishing any under their care who entertain unscriptural views, or engage in practices inconsistent with the sacred duties of the day.

Resolved, 5. That the American Sabbath Union, a Christian, interdenominational, and National Society, having for its single object the preservation of the American Sabbath, has our continued sympathy and hearty coöperation. We also express our cordial approval of the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance, auxiliary to the American Sabbath Union, and recommend this organization especially to Christian women in all our communities.

Resolved, 6. That we recommend to our churches, that at least one prayer meeting service be set apart during the year, for the purpose of emphasizing and exalting the importance of the observance of the Sabbath Day; and that as many of our churches as possible unite in such a service on the last Wednesday of October.

Resolved, 7. That this General Assembly warn the ministers and members of the Church, against the evil and insidious influence of the Sunday newspapers, and urge them by word and action to do all they can to decrease their unwholesome power.

In behalf of the Committee,

WM. R. WORRALL, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance was continued, with the addition of the Rev. Martin D. Kneeland, D.D.

The Special Committee on the Management of the Temporalities of the Churches presented its Report, as follows:

The Compilation of Laws reported to the last General Assembly, and ordered then to be printed by the Board of Publication, was found to need further revision in order to make it thoroughly accurate, inasmuch as fourteen of the States and Territories had issued revised editions of their Statute Laws since the Compilation had been begun. The necessary corrections having been made, the work was duly delivered to the Board of Publication. It is still going through the printer's hands, about one-half of it being now in type. On account of this unforeseen delay, and quite contrary to the wish and expectation both of the compiler and the Committee, it has proved impossible to prepare the full Report contemplated by the last General Assembly in time for presentation to this Assembly. The Committee can therefore only report progress, and recommend:

1. That the Committee be continued to report fully to the next Assembly upon all matters referred to them.

2. That they be authorized to add to the volume now in press such additional matter as may be pertinent to the object of its publication.

3. That the Committee be authorized to have their Report printed in advance of its presentation to the next Assembly, in order to allow of its more intelligent consideration.

In behalf of the Committee,

JOHN FOX, Chairman.

The Report was accepted and adopted, and the Committee continued to complete its work.

The Managers and Editors of The Assembly Herald (Minutes, 1894, p. 156) presented their Report, which was accepted, as follows:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in session at Pittsburgh, May 16, 1895

Your Committee appointed to issue The Assembly Herald in the interest of the circulation of missionary literature in an inexpensive form, respectfully presents the following Financial Report:

Income from the Christian Steward,	$438 64
From extra supplements and papers,	2,710 55
" subscriptions,	9,675 33
" advertising,	6,960 40
Total income for the year,	$19,774 92

EXPENDITURES.

Paper,	$4,852 68
Printing and mailing and incidental expenses,	7,132 20
Total expenses,	$11,984 88

ASSETS.

Cash on hand,	$5,254 42
New type,	126 09
Mailing galleys,	161 02
Business accounts due Assembly Herald,	2,248 51
Assets,	$7,790 04

While reporting our assets as $7790.04, and all bills paid to date, it must be kept in mind we have unexpired subscriptions that must be supplied by future issues. Our present circulation is 125,000 copies, and 2300 churches have made more or less effort to place The Assembly Herald in their homes. If the churches which have not as yet done anything keep step with those that have, our circulation would quickly rise to 400,000 copies per month. During the past year we have sent The Assembly Herald to every Sabbath-school superintendent and elder whose address we could obtain, believing it to be good seed for the next year.

We have also sent sample copies whenever asked for in any quantity desired.

In the division of the space of the Assembly Herald, three pages were allotted to the Board of Home Missions, three pages to the Board of Foreign Missions, and one-half page to each of our other Mission Boards. In view of the close connection of the work of the Committee on Systematic Beneficence with all the Boards of the Church, it was decided that one-half page each month be allotted for the presentation of its work, the Committee subscribing for five thousand copies to be sent to the ministers. This was supplemented by a subscription of $130 from Hon. Horace B. Silliman, to pay the expense of sending the paper to all home missionaries.

The two thousand seven hundred and ten ($2710) dollars reported as received from the various sources simply met the expense of additional space taken. In return for this sum we furnished to the Church an amount of printed material equivalent to 91,122 volumes of 150 pages each, of the ordinary book page size—or to make it more definite, for every two and one-half cents received we have furnished one hundred and fifty pages of missionary information.

The subscription the first year of nearly ten thousand ($10,000) dollars, and of advertising of about seven thousand ($7000) dollars, tell their own story of the popular interest of the Church and the business people in this great movement. We trust that in the interests of the vast missionary work of the Presbyterian Church, that this General Assembly will adopt such measures as will most likely and promptly secure the placing of the Assembly Herald in every Presbyterian home.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

W. H. HUBBARD,
RUFUS S. GREEN,
Committee.

The Report was referred to a Special Committee of five, who were appointed as follows: Hon. James A. Beaver, M. D. Kneeland, D.D., W. W. McKinney, D.D., Alexander W. Dickson and Frank H. Clement.

It was Resolved, That the hearty thanks of the Assembly are hereby tendered to the editors of the Assembly Herald for their efficient work the past year.

The following fraternal telegram from the General Assembly in session at Dallas, Tex., was read by the Stated Clerk:

DALLAS, TEX., May 18, 1895.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, Pa.:

We salute you in the Lord, and pray that God's richest blessing may rest on you and all your deliberations, and on the great Church of which the Holy Ghost hath made you bishops.

C. R. HEMPHILL, Moderator,
JOSEPH R. WILSON, Stated Clerk.

The message was received and an appropriate reply was directed to be sent, signed by the Moderator and Stated Clerk.

The Stated Clerk reported the answers of one hundred and eighty-nine (189) of the Presbyteries to the Overture sent down to them by the General Assembly of 1894, in the matter of the addition to the Book of Discipline of a proposed new chapter. The Report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Stated Clerk respectfully reports to the General Assembly the answers of the Presbyteries to the Overture sent down to them by the last General Assembly, on the subject of an addition to the Book of Discipline to be entitled "Chapter XIV. On Differences between Judicatories." In accordance with the Act of the General Assembly of 1891, on the Method of Declaring Amendments to the Constitution, the Assembly is required to appoint a Committee of Canvass to receive the statement of the Clerk, and the answers from the Presbyteries. It is recommended, therefore, that such a Committee be appointed by the Moderator, to consist of three ministers and two elders.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Stated Clerk also reported the answers of two hundred and one (201) of the Presbyteries on the subject of the Federation of the Churches, recommending their reference to the Special Committee on Church Unity. The recommendation was adopted.

The consideration of the Report of the Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries was resumed; the question being on its adoption. The discussion was continued until the hour of recess.

The Committee of Arrangements reported that they had arranged for a carriage excursion for the Commissioners through Schenley Park, on Saturday afternoon, May 25, beginning at 2 P.M. The arrangement was approved, with the thanks of the Assembly.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 20, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Committee of Correspondence presented the following Report, which was adopted:

The Committee of Correspondence would respectfully report that in the year 1886, when the Assembly was in session in the city of Minneapolis, Minn., the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, then holding its quarter-centennial session at Augusta, Ga., addressed a fraternal letter to this Assembly, which was marked by expressions of affectionate regard and prayerful sympathy. Recalling this kindly act, your Committee would recommend that this Assembly, with responsive appreciation, send a fraternal letter from this, the quarter-centennial session of the General Assembly of our reunited Church, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church now in session in the city of Dallas, Tex.; and that said letter, together with the reply to the same, be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes of this Assembly. In behalf of the Committee,

HOWARD A. JOHNSTON, Chairman.

The following reply to the telegram received from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States was reported by the Moderator:

To the General Assembly in session at Dallas, Tex.:

The General Assembly in session at Pittsburgh, Pa., cordially reciprocates your fraternal greetings, and invokes upon you, in all your work, the blessing of the Triune God. See Ephesians, fourth chapter, verses four, five and six.

ROBERT R. BOOTH, Moderator.

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The consideration of the Report of the Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries was resumed, and continued until the debate was concluded. An additional resolution, viz., No. 4, was presented, and after modification was accepted by the Committee. The question being on the adoption of the Report, the four resolutions contained therein were voted on seriatim, and were adopted. The recommendations of the Report as to Princeton, Western, Danville, and the other Theological Seminaries, were adopted. The Report as a whole was adopted by a rising vote of 432 in the affirmative, and 98 (99)* in the negative.

The Report as adopted is as follows:

The Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries, appointed by the General Assembly of 1894, respectfully presents the following Report:

The Committee was constituted as follows: Ministers—William C. Young, D.D., Samuel A. Mutchmore, D.D., Charles T. Haley, D.D., Alexander G. Wilson, D.D., William A. Bartlett, D.D., George D. Baker, D.D., John Dixon, D.D., T. Ralston Smith, D.D., Richard S. Holmes, D.D.; Elders—Thomas McDougall, Samuel A. Bonner, John J. McCook, David Wills, George H. Shields, Charles Geddes, John Heebner.

During the year, Judge David Wills, of Gettysburg, Pa., departed this life. The Committee desires to express its appreciation of the services rendered by Judge Wills, and expresses its sincere sorrow for his death.

The Committee held two meetings, one at Saratoga, N. Y., in August, 1894, and one at Pittsburgh, Pa., May 14 and 15, 1895. By Sub committees it has held conferences with the following Seminaries: Two with the Princeton Boards, two with the McCormick Boards, and one with each of the following: Auburn, Western, Lane, Danville, San Francisco, Newark and Lincoln University. Immediately after the meeting of the Committee at Saratoga, it addressed a letter, through its Chairman, to each of the Boards of the Seminaries; and the answers received are appended to this Report.

At the said conferences, the Committee, in expressing the meaning and effect of the recommendations, said that "A," which is as follows:

"That all of their funds and property, subject to the terms and conditions of existing or specified trusts, shall be declared to be held by them in trust for the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, for the purposes of theological education according to the Standards of said Church, and that no part of the funds and property so held shall be used for any other purpose than for theological education in the doctrines set forth in the Standards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America,"— involved no change of title, trust, ownership, management or disposition of the property held by the various seminaries; conferred no trust, title, ownership or power on the General Assembly directly or indirectly, or to any of its agencies; and conferred no right of control, management or interference in any way, directly or indirectly, with any of the said seminaries. It was simply a declaration of the use and purpose for which the funds and property were held by the respective civil corporations holding the same; and its adoption was to make plain that the funds and property of the respective civil corporations were held by them, and them alone and exclusively, for no other purpose than for theological education according to the Standards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

As to "B," which is as follows:

"That the election of the trustees, directors or commissioners, or whatever the bodies governing the teaching or property shall be named, shall be subject to the approval of the next succeeding General Assembly, and that no election shall take effect until approved by the General Assembly; failure of the General Assembly, to which said elections are reported for approval, to act thereon, shall be regarded as approval of said elections."

The Committee stated that substantially the powers here sought to be conferred on the General Assembly are now possessed by it over a majority of the seminaries; and that the adoption of "B" simply made plain by charter provision, and effective by charter power, the right of the General Assembly to protect what it thus possesses.

It also stated that "B" did not confer on the General Assembly the right to elect any member of the various Boards, or the right to elect others in the place of those who might be disapproved by the General Assembly, or the right to fill any vacancy in any of the Boards; and that the entire power of election and selection of the various members of these Boards was left, by "B," in the Boards themselves, subject only to approval by the next succeeding General Assembly.

As to "C," which is as follows:

"That the election, appointment or transfer of all professors and teachers in all seminaries shall be submitted to the succeeding General Assembly for its approval, and that no such election, appointment or transfer shall take effect, nor shall any professor or teacher be inducted into office until his election, appointment or transfer shall have been approved by the said General Assembly; failure of the General Assembly, to which the said elections, appointments or transfers are reported for approval, to act thereon, shall be regarded as approval thereof, and that all of said professors and teachers shall be either ministers or members in good standing of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

The Committee stated that this was, in substance and in effect, what is known as the agreement of 1870. It was informed that two questions as to the legality of the agreement of 1870 had been raised—one as to the power of certain of the seminaries to make the agreement, and the other as to the power of the General Assembly, which is not a legal entity, to make any such agreement.

The Committee stated that there could be no doubt but that the Boards of the respective seminaries in 1870, in making that agreement giving to the General Assembly the right of approval or veto of the election of professors in the various seminaries, acted in good faith; and that it was believed at the time when the agreement was entered into by the respective Boards that they had the power to do what they did. It also stated that the adoption of "C," by making it a charter provision, would obviate these objections and make the agreement of 1870 valid and effective.

The Committee thinks that if seminary charters make the adoption of "C," which is in substance the agreement of 1870, of doubtful legal validity, it can only be because the charters, as viewed by the Boards holding this opinion, make the institutions undenominational and that they cannot legally be made Presbyterian, as it is eminently desirable and necessary that all the seminaries shall be.

As to "D," which is as follows:

"That in the event of the violation of any of the terms of said amendments, or the misuse or diversion of the funds or property held by them, then the General Assembly shall be empowered to provide against such violation of the provisions of said charters and for the enforcement of the same, and for the protection of the trusts on which said property and funds are held, in such manner, and in the name of such person or corporation, as it may direct by resolution certified by its clerk, in any civil court having jurisdiction over the corporations whose charters are so amended."

Your Committee stated that this conveys no title in the property, and vests no trust in the General Assembly; that it does not empower the Assembly directly or indirectly to interfere with the title to, or management, use and disposition of the funds and property of the respective seminaries. In the case of heretical teaching on the part of any professor, no valid action could be taken by the General Assembly, until that teaching had been adjudged heretical according to the Constitution of our Church. And in case of the violation of a charter, no sufficient remedy exists in the independent action of the civil authority, which has the right to interfere, but which cannot be compelled to do so.

In view of the answers of the seminaries, as published in the Appendix, the Committee reports that Omaha and Dubuque have adopted all of the recommendations of the General Assembly.

The Directors and Trustees of Princeton declare that they "do not antagonize, but, on the contrary, cordially acquiesce in and are in the fullest sympathy with the sentiment of the resolutions contained in the Report of the General Assembly's Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries, made to the General Assembly at its session in 1894, namely, 'That the Church should control the instruction given in its theological seminaries, and that the funds held for the purposes of theological instruction should be used only for such education in the doctrines set forth in the Standards of the Church.'"

The Directors and Trustees further say that they are advised by counsel learned in the law, and believe, that the charter of the seminary now embodies substantially all that the Assembly seeks to accomplish by its recommendations, and therefore deem the amendment of the charter by the insertion of the same unwise and unnecessary.

But they further say, "if the Assembly should still be of the opinion that such an amendment should be obtained, the Boards will endeavor to secure such action as will insure to the General Assembly the right to be represented in the courts and to enforce its proper control over the seminary and its property."

The Committee recommends the Assembly to reply to Princeton's offer, that while respecting the judgment of the Boards, and not prepared to say that it is incorrect, the Assembly is of the opinion that in order to put the matter beyond all possible question, it would be well for the Boards to do what they express their willingness to do, viz., to endeavor to secure such action as will insure to the General Assembly the right to be represented in the courts, and to enforce its proper control over the seminary and its property.

The Board of Directors of the Western Seminary, at Allegheny, "being satisfied that the seminary now stands in such close relation to the Presbyterian Church that both its teaching and its use of all its property can be controlled by the General Assembly, sees no reason to ask any change in existing relations to the Assembly." The Board of Trustees has declared its hearty agreement with the principles set forth in the action of the Assembly of 1894, and its readiness to secure the necessary legislation to enable the General Assembly to carry out said principles. The Committee recommends the General Assembly to request these Boards to take such action.

The Board of Directors of Danville has resolved to adopt the recommendations as to By-Laws, and as a part of their Constitution. The Board of Trustees states that it has an irrepealable charter which cannot be amended without danger of forfeiture. It declares its approval of the substance of the recommendations, and while not deeming the same necessary, in view of the control the Assembly now has over the funds of said corporation, expresses its willingness to give the General Assembly the approval of the election of the members of the Board.

The Committee recommends the Assembly to request the Board of Trustees at Danville to secure such legislation, not imperiling the charter, as will insure to the General Assembly the right to be represented in the courts, and to enforce its proper supervision over the seminary and its property.

San Francisco, being under Synodical care, has deemed it best to defer action on the recommendations until after the next meeting of the Synod.

In regard to the seminaries which have simply answered that action is not expedient, or the proposed amendments would be of doubtful validity, or the way is not clear to act, as at present informed, no opinion is expressed, inasmuch as these seminaries assigned no specific reasons for their action. The Assembly cannot, therefore, make any suggestions to these seminaries beyond the earnest request that they reconsider their action, since the adoption, substantially, of the Assembly's plan by all the seminaries will give assurance to every donor, and to all our members, that these institutions are amply secured to the Presbyterian Church.

RESOLUTIONS.

The Committee respectfully recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That it is the sense of this Assembly that the Assembly of 1894 did not intend to prepare the way for any change in the tenure or management of the property of the seminaries, or to do anything which can affect the autonomy of the seminaries, and that the said recommendations were intended to have the meaning and effect as recited in this Committee's Report. This Assembly, in reaffirming the resolution of the Assembly of 1894, does so with the avowed purpose of leaving the tenure and title to all property of the seminaries exactly where they are now, in the hands of the various Boards of Trustees, and with the further purpose of securing the veto power to the Assembly, as an effective force, by charter provision, and of safeguarding by charter declaration, the trusts held and to be held by Boards of Trustees against perversion or misuse.

2. That this General Assembly reaffirms the action of the Assembly of 1894, and in view of the progress made, and the importance of the interests involved, declares that in its judgment the effort should be continued to secure the adoption, in substance, of the Assembly's plan by all the seminaries.

3. That a Committee be appointed to have further charge of this matter, and to make report to the next General Assembly.

4. That this Committee be instructed that in the prosecution of its work, and its Report to the next General Assembly, it shall fully consider No. 9 of the Concurrent Declarations of the Reunion compact in relation to those seminaries now under Synodical or Presbyterial control.

Adopted unanimously, and respectfully submitted, in behalf of the Committee.

WILLIAM C. YOUNG, Chairman.

It was Resolved, That the Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries, appointed by the General Assembly of 1894, be continued and appointed as the Committee of Conference of this General Assembly with the said Theological Seminaries; and that the Committee be increased by the addition of three ministers and two elders, one of the ministers to be the Moderator of this General Assembly.

On the recommendation of the Stated Clerk, the Assembly adopted the following order of hearing the Special and Standing Committees: On Tuesday—(1) The Church at Home and Abroad; (2) Home Missions; (3) Ministerial Relief; (4) Freedmen; (5) Education. And it was further ordered that the Report of any one of these Committees which had not been reached or concluded should be taken up first on Wednesday afternoon. On Wednesday—(1) Foreign Missions; (2) Aid for Colleges; (3) Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

The following additional Commissioners were enrolled: Ministers—W. P. Kane, D.D., of the Presbytery of Bloomington; Thomas Parry, D.D., of the Presbytery of Crawfordsville.

A gavel was presented to the Assembly, through the Stated Clerk, with the following explanatory statement: "Biddle University asks the General Assembly to accept this gavel. It was made by a boy in our industrial department. The head is of pine from our first college building, the handle is walnut from our first organ." The gavel was accepted with the thanks of the Assembly.

The Permanent Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad presented its Report, and, after an address by the Chairman, the Rev. John S. MacIntosh, D.D., the Report was accepted, and its resolutions adopted, as follows:

The Committee charged with the publication and oversight of The Church at Home and Abroad would respectfully submit to the General Assembly the Annual Report for the year ending December, 1894.

In thus presenting our statement for the year, we are moved by two strong and contrasting feelings: the feeling of great satisfaction, and the feeling of sincere regret. Our satisfaction springs from the following sources. We have found that the magazine is beyond all question taking firmer hold than ever of its own regular and peculiar constituency; that emphatic and widening testimony has been borne to the ever-enlarging degree with which it is fulfilling the desire of its readers and students; that it is gaining more cordial praise from those who use it for special purposes, such as preparing for missionary meetings, and for conferences on Christian work. In no former year, since the institution of the consolidated magazine, have more letters of commendation and from a wider area of the Church come to the Chairman and the editors. We now very frequently receive requests for extra copies, or for special copies containing particular articles that have been found to be of great practical use or rich in suggestiveness.

Many of our regular subscribers now have their copies bound into volumes, as these careful readers have discovered that the magazine is gradually becoming a great repository or encyclopædia of the most valuable missionary intelligence, and therefore desire to be able to refer to it for materials. The volumes will prove themselves more and more serviceable in this very direction, so valuable and important because of the great care bestowed on the indexing of articles for several years past. No time need be lost in finding the immediate matter sought and desired. It must also be a source of great satisfaction to the friends of our periodical to know that with steadily-increasing frequency articles and clippings taken from our pages are to be found in the secular magazines and papers.

But over against our satisfaction stands regret. The year has been a hard one for us as for all other business enterprises. The stringency of the times has affected somewhat seriously our circulation. This fact we know positively from the express statements contained in the letters announcing to us the desire to discontinue. The mere fact that three or four hundred of our loyal and active church members are forced because of the hard times to give up the magazine they have learned to use and esteem is, apart altogether from our pecuniary loss, a distressful feature to us in our review. But to us the painfulness of the reflection is in some measure relieved by the great regret expressed by our correspondents because of the necessity laid on them to discontinue their subscriptions, and the declared purpose to resume at as early a date as possible, because, as not a few put it, they can so badly do without a journal they learned to prize.

And yet the total loss this year, so disastrous to all departments of business, is probably much less with us than in other sections of the publishing trade. Our greatest loss in subscribers took place in the second half of the year—from July to December. In December, 1893, we closed with a monthly circulation of 18,542; in December, 1894, we closed with 16,879 paying subscribers; that is, we had suffered a loss of 1663 subscribers, being a trifle over 11 per cent. Probably some of our business men would be very well pleased to have escaped in the crush of the bad times even so well.

THE TURN OF THE TIDE.

Happily with the new year of 1895 a change for the better set in. Just so soon as the new efforts made to increase the circulation of the magazine began to tell, and the special departments were opened, the change for the better began. New subscribers were slowly but steadily enrolled; and that too from quarters which promise future gains in still larger numbers, that is to say, among those who are finding out from experience that The Church at Home and Abroad is monthly furnishing them with information which they cannot find elsewhere, and cannot want if they would successfully prepare for and carry on their various missionary and evangelistic meetings. The new departments of the magazine, which are especially adapted to and prepared for the different Young People's Societies, are manifestly winning new supporters to the periodical; and the interest of these fresh subscribers is steadily growing. We may be permitted to state here that each month since January has shown a steady though as yet not very rapid increase. As this present report goes to the press, we are some four hundred in advance on the list of January, 1895.

THE OUTLOOK.

One subject has given your Committee serious thought; and that is, the value of the magazine, considered in itself, to the Church at large and to the missionary activities of our Church; and, flowing naturally out of this its inherent value to the Church fairly estimated, the importance of continuing the magazine apart altogether from the simple profit or loss of this undertaking in money returns. Or, putting the question in another shape, Does a great Church like ours call for and require a magazine like The Church at Home and Abroad because of the permanent and ever-growing missionary interests involved, apart from the mere pecuniary gain or loss resulting from such a publication? This question has been fairly and freely canvassed by us; and extensive correspondence has been conducted by your Chairman in relation thereto. The answer has been clear and emphatic in favor of continuing the publication because of the necessity to the Church. At a meeting of the Secretaries and officers of all our Boards, held at New York in the month of March, this very subject inter alia was considered with care. The following resolution, which was prepared, submitted and supported by a brother who, to say the very least, is second to none in his knowledge, experience and interest—the Rev. Dr. Ellinwood—was heartily endorsed and unanimously passed:

Resolved, That it be the sense of the Conference that The Church at Home and Abroad should not only be maintained but should be more widely extended throughout the Church. Whatever other agencies may be used for communicating intelligence and impulse to the churches, Sabbath-schools, women's boards and young people's societies, it is manifest that some organ representing the historic work of the Church should be maintained by a great denomination like that which we represent; a magazine which shall present broadly the policy, the methods, the fields and all the interests of this great work in permanent form. Without attempting to say just how these objects may best be secured, how the best economy in their management may be reached, we desire to express our profound sense of the importance of their presentation in a magazine that shall preserve the continuity of our past, present and future missionary history.

This decision of perhaps the ablest jury to which such a question could be submitted should be of the very greatest weight with the Assembly and the Church. And in that conclusion your Committee emphatically and unitedly agree. In view of all these facts, we recommend the continuous and hearty support of The Church at Home and Abroad. It has found its own place; it is more and more satisfactorily filling it; and it will grow in strength and popularity with the years. Our belief is that with returning prosperity, with the present fresh outburst of missionary intelligence and zeal, and because of special efforts now begun, and to be more earnestly and wisely continued to meet in our columns the demands and the wants of our young people's societies and similar organizations, and because of the popularity of our magazine with these societies, so distinctly and freely attested by their leaders and supporters, the circulation of The Church at Home and Abroad will, during this current and in succeeding years, steadily increase. We have faith in our future. We believe the publication should be continued. We fear not to ask for support and encouragement; we intend to deserve success; and we are satisfied that by this valuable missionary publication the intelligence of our Church will be enlarged, and the treasuries of our hard-pressed Boards will be helped in their undeserved straits.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. We recommend that the Committee be reappointed, with the same powers and instructions.

2. We recommend that the Assembly endorse the resolution above cited.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee.

JOHN S. MACINTOSH, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions presented its Report, which was read by the Chairman, the Rev. George Norcross, D.D., and accepted, and after addresses by Rev. William C. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., one of the Secretaries, and Rev. John Hall, D.D., LL.D, the President of the Board, was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee has carefully examined the Annual Report of Home Missions together with the minutes of the Board, and beg leave to report as follows:

The Board has given us an interesting résumé of its history for the last twenty-five years. We note that during this period its receipts have amounted to $13,805,260, that its working force has advanced from 1232 missionaries in 1871 to 1641 missionaries in 1895; that 3414 churches have been organized through its agency, and 340,229 persons have been added to the Church. These twenty-five years have witnessed many stirring scenes and many stupendous changes. They have been glorified by the godly lives of many saintly men and women. They were illuminated by the genius and the consecration of the great Secretaries, Dr. Cyrus Dickson and Dr. Henry Kendall, men whose splendid record is on high and whose works do follow them.

The Annual Report reminds us of the imperial dimensions of that field to which we are invited. In one sense this field is continually enlarging, for the wilderness and the desert are transformed before our eyes into populous regions. "Since the addition of Alaska to our domain, it has been as truly said of the United States, as of the dominion of the Queen of England, that the sun never sets on it. For before its evening rays disappear from the shores of Attu, the farthest island of the Aleutian group, its morning beams begin to fall upon the pines of Maine."

We can hardly exaggerate the spiritual demands and possibilities of such a magnificent empire. God in His providence has given us an opportunity never known in the world before. We are bewildered and almost overwhelmed with the cries for help which come to us from every side. We are constantly reminded that there remains very much land to be possessed. We take honest pride in the fact that our home missionaries are better paid than those of any other evangelical Church in the land, though it is not claimed that they are as well paid as they ought to be. The meagre support which is paid to our hard-working missionaries is a disgrace to our common Christianity. Most of these men are liberally educated, their wives have grown up in our best families, and the sacrifices to which they are subjected is not to our credit, though it may be to their glory. The whole Church should awake to the fact that the free-will offerings of our people for this cause ought to be greatly increased.

The trials through which our missionaries have passed during the last year have been neither few nor small. The pecuniary pressure has been unprecedented during this generation. Entire communities in Nebraska and Kansas, in Texas and South Dakota, have been impoverished by the drought. People who were already in debt have been brought to the verge of bankruptcy. In these regions the missionaries have felt the awful pressure which has affected all classes. And yet they have borne the storm "with a moral heroism worthy the martyrs of the early Church."

The year has not been without its roll of precious dead. We reverently record the names of these departed heroes who have fallen on the field of battle: Rev. Frederick C. Stoekle, Rev. William Hall, Rev. Samuel Dodd, Rev. George Pierson, Rev. James Stuart Reed and Rev. Benjamin Mills, D.D. But though these true and faithful men pass away, the work remains, and others close up the ranks and fill their places.

We are sorry to note that the debt is larger than ever before. It has reached the portentous amount in round numbers of $365,000. But the reasons for this are not far to seek. It is partly an inheritance from former years, and partly the result of a financial crisis, unprecedented in the history of this country. In reviewing the past few years, we find that for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1893, there was an accumulation of indebtedness amounting to $66,000. For the fiscal year ending March 31, 1894, there was a falling off in legacies amounting to over $100,000. The Board that year expended in its work the sum of $192,000 in excess of its receipts. For the fiscal year ending March 31, 1895, owing to the general depression of business prevailing all over the country, the Board was unable to reduce its appropriation to any great extent. While its receipts exceed those of last year, it still expended in excess of its receipts for current work, the sum of $107,000. This makes the accumulation of indebtedness for the past few years, as already stated, about $365,000. But we must not allow ourselves to be appalled with these figures. The debt is not beyond the power of our beloved Church. It calls for an increased effort, but it is not cause for discouragement. With the revival of business will come an increasing tide of consecrated giving, which will cheer the Board, and save the brave men and women who stand at the front.

Your Committee have carefully read the Annual Report of the Board, heard the statements of the Secretaries, listened to all the suggestions offered by members of the Assembly, studied the difficulties which naturally environ such an imperial work as the evangelization of a continent, and then comes the unanimous conclusion that the whole Church owes a debt of gratitude to the Board of business men in New York, who give their time and thought and labor to this cause of Home Missions. With them it is a labor of love, freely given to the cause of Christ, but the intelligence of the Church thoroughly appreciates their devotion, and the Master Himself will reward their sacrifices.

The whole Church needs to be aroused to the fact that we are in the midst of the greatest conflict with the powers of evil which the world has ever seen. This is not an age of darkness, but one of Satanic light. The god of this world has blinded the eyes of many so that they are deliberately choosing the devil's bribe. A battle has to be fought for every strategic point, and eternal vigilance is necessary that no man take our crown. Men are in earnest, desperately in earnest, but it is often in a bad cause. Too often the votary of a sacrifice falsely so-called strikes hands with the devotee of a hoary superstition in a bitter crusade against the truth of God and the cause of righteousness. The simple Gospel of God's dear Son is the only charm for the madness of the race. The light of the world is Jesus. The Home Missionary is the messenger of God. It has pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. Pity and patriotism alike call upon us to make the most strenuous efforts to win this land for Christ.

Too much praise cannot be given to our noble women for the splendid way in which they have pushed their part of this work. Their thorough organization is the surprise of the Church; their consecration and persistence, the admiration of men and angels. In very many of our churches their contributions for the school work among the exceptional populations of our country quite surpass the regular collection of the whole congregation for the Home Missions cause. Pastors and elders will have to wake up, or they will put us all to shame by their magnificent zeal for our country's redemption. We are confronted with many difficulties, it is true, but if God be for us, who can be against us? If the Gospel made its way and won success in the midst of all the abominations of the anti-Christ paganism, who can doubt its power to cope with all the spiritual evils which surround us? By God's help, the grand old Church of our fathers will take no backward step now. The memories of the sainted dead who laid the foundations of our Church in tears and blood, inspire us with a deathless purpose to stand firm in the day of disaster and trouble. The blood of the Huguenots of France, the Protestants of Germany and the Puritans of England is coursing in our veins, and our fathers and mothers would disown us if we flinched or faltered in the day of trial. By God's help we are not going to give this land to the Pope or the devil. We have a stake here for ourselves and our children, and we have not read history for nothing. We know that we must take care of these ignorant hordes which Papal lands have poured in upon us, or they will take care of us. But we know what our heritage has cost, and we do not propose to see it sold for a mess of pottage. The Inquisition quenched the light of the Gospel in Southern Europe in tears and blood, but thank God we have no Inquisition to fear in this land of the free and home of the brave. Every memory of the past, every hope of the future, inspires us to push the principles of our faith into every corner of the land. And God helping us, we will do it!

But, brethren, we have a better argument than this. It stirs our blood to be reminded that our fathers defended the walls of Londonderry and fought the battle of the Boyne; that they stood with Gustavus Adolphus and suffered from the Dragonnades of Louis XIV. But the deepest claim that ever laid hold of the human soul is the blood of Jesus Christ. Fathers and brethren, this is the argument with which we must meet the difficulties which now confront us in this land. The pride of race and ancestry, of party and of principles is for us quite legitimate. We cannot forget John Knox and the Lords of the Congregation; the stool of Jenny Geddes, and the Blue Flag of the Covenanters; the victims of Claverhouse, and the blood of the martyrs who died in the Grass Market. But all this is nothing to the blood of Jesus Christ. What were all the pains of the martyrs to His pains? What are all other arguments laid beside the blood of the Highest? This is the heavenly inspiration that must nerve us for the fight before us. This world of ours has been sprinkled with the blood of the Son of God. He has redeemed it with His dying groans, and, therefore, to Him every knee shall bow and every tongue shall confess to the glory of God the Father. This Western Continent is a large part of this sinful world for which He died, and God has promised that He shall see of the travail of His soul and that He shall be satisfied. Brethren, what are we willing to do to satisfy the soul of Him who loved us and gave Himself for us? Let us lay this argument to the great throbbing heart of our Church, and begin in earnest the great crusade of conquest which shall win the land for Christ.

In conclusion, your Committee would respectfully make the following recommendations:

1. That the following members of the Board whose terms of service expire with this meeting of the General Assembly be re-elected: Ministers—Rev. Thomas S. Hastings, D.D., Rev. Charles L. Thompson, D.D., Rev. James S. Ramsey, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Mr. John Crosby Brown, Mr. William H. Corbin, Mr. Walter M. Aikman, Mr. Robert Henderson; and Rev. Wilson Phraner, D.D., to fill the unexpired term of the late Rev. J. W. Teal, D.D.

2. That the records of the Board which we have examined and found to be in order be approved.

3. That the Assembly urge the Church to raise the sum of $1,250,000, as the least amount sufficient to pay the debt and carry on the work of the Board for the coming year.

4. That the Assembly express again its high appreciation of the faithful and efficient services of the officers and members of the Board, and urge upon all our people the duty of loyal coöperation and sympathy with them in their efforts to advance the interests of Home Missions throughout the land.

5. That pastors and Sessions are especially urged to make a liberal use of the cards, leaflets, envelopes and other helps which the Board furnishes free for taking the annual offerings of the people for this cause.

6. That in view of the accumulated debt of the Board, we call upon the Church to make a renewed effort to wipe out this obstacle to the onward progress of our beloved Church. It can be done; and what can be done for the glory of God and the advancement of His cause, ought to be done. To this end, we urge increased contributions from Sabbath-schools, Young People's Societies, individuals and churches.

7. That we urge upon the Presbyteries the importance of pushing churches on to self-support. The Church has a right to expect increasing relief from the stronger Synods in their plans for the support of their own dependent churches; from the Presbyteries in the wise grouping of weak churches, and from pastors in giving their people instructions about the work and needs of the Board.

8. We would urge that in the effort to push local Home Missions work, whether by Synodical sustentation or otherwise, nothing should be done which would distract the attention of our people from the grand national work of evangelizing the whole land, which has been committed to this Board.

9. That we recommend to the Woman's Executive Committee of Home Missions the work among the people of foreign tongues in the great cities, the mining regions of Pennsylvania and the West.

10. That the memorial from the Presbytery of Washington, with reference to numbering Reports of the Home Board, be referred to the Board with power to act.

11. That this Assembly would reaffirm the hearty commendations which former Assemblies have bestowed upon the Woman's Executive Committee. We recognize its ever-increasing usefulness in promoting Home Missionary interests among the children and youth of our Church. We congratulate them on the noble work they have done "in troublesome times," and bid them God-speed.

12. That the earnest spirit of the young people of our Church, manifested by their ever-increasing gifts and work for the cause of Home Missions, be heartily commended, and that each society and Sunday-school be urged to make at least an annual offering to the Board. That the Sunday-schools be recommended to set apart the Sunday following Washington's birthday as a special rally day in the interests of the Board, and that the first Sunday evening of each Assembly's sessions, be set apart for a missionary meeting in the interests of young people's work in behalf of the Board of Home and Foreign Missions.

13. That we recommend as a day for special offerings for the debt of the Board, when a concerted effort throughout the whole country be made for the wiping out of this reproach—the first Sabbath of July.*

14. We recommend that the Woman's Executive Committee be given the Sabbath preceding Thanksgiving Day, for a collection for their work from the Sabbath-schools.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GEO. NORCROSS, Chairman.

* On Friday, May 24, morning sesssion, this Resolution was withdrawn by unanimous consent, and the Assembly ordered that a general collection for the debts of all the Boards be made on July 7, and that $1,000,000 be raised during the year as a Quarter-Century Anniversary Reunion Fund.

The following financial statement in connection with the new Mission Building, corner of Twentieth street and Fifth avenue, New York, submitted to the Standing Committee on Home Missions, was ordered to be printed:

The following fraternal telegram was received:

MERIDIAN, MISS., May 21, 1895.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., in session at Pittsburgh:

The Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly sends greetings. Read Num. vi. 24–26.

WM. B. DEWITT, Moderator.
T. C. BLAKE, Stated Clerk.

PITTSBURGH, PA., May 21, 1895.

To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. reciprocates cordially your fraternal greeting. Read Heb. xiii. 20, 21.

ROBERT R. BOOTH, Moderator
W. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

* The building will probably cost $100,000 less than above.
† Conservative estimates place this at $125,000; already rented, $19,600.

TUESDAY, May 21, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after an address by the Chairman, the Rev. J. H. Forbes, Ph.D., and Rev. J. H. Mason Knox, D.D., and others, was adopted, as follows:

We have examined the minutes of the Board and find them kept with painstaking care and accuracy.

We have also reviewed the Treasurer's statement, which forms a part of the Report submitted to the General Assembly, and find it correct and properly audited. We commend the whole Report to the careful attention of all who are interested in the work and the welfare of our beloved Presbyterian Church.

Your Committee would emphasize the sacred nature and imperative obligation of the work committed to the Board of Ministerial Relief. It is the almoner of the churches in distributing to the necessities of saints. It is not by accident that it is placed first of all the Boards in the Calendar of the Assembly. The Church has not performed its duty until it has provided for every aged or disabled minister unable longer to serve in its ranks. "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt." In former years, the Church called these her choicest young men to the Gospel ministry. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, she separated them unto the work whereto God assigned them. She sent them to teach the Gospel, to warn sinners and comfort saints, at home and abroad, in the solitude of the far-away prairie, in the rush and roar of the busy metropolis, in the fever-laden jungles of India, or in the pestilential miasm of Africa. Now their earthly labors are nearly ended. Spent and worn in the service of the Church, they wait in patient resignation the voice summoning from the Church militant to the Church triumphant. Their ordination vows required them to keep themselves free from worldly cares and avocations. They have not been permitted to acquire fortunes, and because they have often listened to the cry of the needy, they have not saved from narrow incomes sufficient to provide their daily bread. Their hoary heads are a crown of honor because they are found in the way of righteousness. What shall be done for them? Shall they be left destitute, or compelled to seek bread from door to door? We know what this nation does for its way-worn and crippled soldiers, who volunteered to defend its flag. Shall we do less for the noble captains who marshaled and led the Lord's hosts in years gone by, and who have many saved souls to shine as stars in the crown of their rejoicing? Are not their widows and orphans as worthy of assistance as the wives and children of Union veterans? There can be but one answer to such questions. The Church wishes to care for them; she is willing to do for them. If there is any lack, your Committee believes it is owing to the fact that the churches are not informed of the need of these destitute ones. We therefore urge upon the pastors and especially upon the elders of all our churches to see that each congregation gives an annual contribution to our Board of Ministerial Relief. Three thousand four hundred and ninety-eight (3498) churches, nearly one-half our entire number, failed to send any offering to the treasury of this Board during the past year. We cannot believe that every member in any one of these churches, would have declined to give something if opportunity had been provided. Men, refusing to recognize other claims, admit the obligation of the Church to assist these needy servants of Christ. We enjoin the pastors and Sessions of all our churches, to see that an opportunity is given to all persons connected with their congregations to contribute to this Board. We plead for a contribution from every church, "not grudgingly or of necessity," but from the willing hearts of Christ's children, who cannot see their spiritual fathers suffering for lack of any good thing.

For the first time in many years the Board reports a debt. The willingness of God's people to give for Ministerial Relief, when reminded of their duty, was shown in the receipts from the churches, when special emphasis was given to this obligation, in connection with the raising of the Centenary Fund. The churches not only gave to this fund, but their offerings also, for current expenses, exceeded the expenditures of the Board, so that a balance accumulated. As the special interest died away, the returns from the churches grew less. Meanwhile the demands upon the Board increased: for it is natural that as the number of ministers upon the roll of the Church grows greater there will be an increased demand upon the treasury. To satisfy, even partially, the calls for assistance, the Board has been obliged to use, from time to time, a portion of its unexpended balance, until now, as will be seen by reference to the Report, this balance is exhausted, and there is a debt of nearly two thousand dollars ($2000). It is gratifying to your Committee to report increased contributions the past year of nearly $13,000 over those of 1893–1894. Despite this increase, the Board expended $6500 more than its entire receipts. Such a condition should not continue. It need not if every church contributed for this cause.

Your Committee desire to call attention to the first paragraph on page 9 of the Secretary's Report. In explanation the Assembly will bear in mind that the donations to those under the care of the Board are made either annually or semi-annually, in advance. The largest receipts from the churches reach the Treasurer during the closing months of the year. To enable him to remit promptly the amounts granted those assisted by the Board, there must be a large balance on hand, or the Board must do as others do, borrow money in anticipation of coming receipts. Instead of resorting to the bank, and borrowing money at 5 or 6 per cent., the Board has made temporary use of uninvested moneys belonging to its Permanent Fund, thereby effecting a saving in interest. In no case, however, has the Permanent Fund been impaired, as only those funds have been used which waited investment, and they have always been promptly returned to that account. To invest money properly demands care and requires time. Your Committee see no objection to this action of the Board, and advise its continuance, as a matter of economy, with the express understanding that funds so used temporarily, be returned to the proper account and invested, as soon as practicable, in order that the Permanent Fund be kept intact.

An examination of the Secretary's Report shows that 785 persons have been assisted during the past year, through appropriations aggregating $165,000. This is a little more than $200 average for each individual. The maximum amount given any family is $300, but it will be readily seen, with the average just mentioned, that it is seldom the Board is enabled to grant this amount. In view of the fact that this sum of $300 is the largest amount given to any servant of Christ worn out in the Master's cause, for the support of himself and family, no wonder the retiring Moderator, in his eloquent sermon, after describing the building erected by Napoleon for the honor and comfort of the sick and surviving members of the army of France, asks, "What shall be done with Christ's worn-out soldiers?" "Will they ever rise from pitiful pennies to a golden dome?" Our feeble brethren ask no golden dome, no palace of luxury. They desire only simple necessities. Would they live too luxuriously, if in cases of great necessity or of chronic sickness, the Board was enabled to grant a maximum support of $500? As yet the receipts of the Board do not warrant such an advance. Your Committee hope that this will be possible before many years.

In view of the facts herein mentioned, we offer the following recommendations:

Resolved, 1. That instead of asking our churches and individuals to contribute as hitherto the annual sum of $150,000 for the Board of Ministerial Relief, the General Assembly urge upon them the duty and privilege of giving $200,000 the coming year, that out of a full treasury, each beneficiary under the care of the Board may receive the whole amount recommended by his Presbytery.

Resolved, 2. That we again commend the work of this Board to all the churches, and urge the pastors and especially the ruling elders to show all needed diligence in its behalf.

Resolved, 3. That the Rev. Henry E. Niles, D.D., Rev. William M. Paden, George Junkin, Esq., and Charles Barclay, Esq., whose terms of service now expire, be reëlected for the ensuing three years.

Resolved, 4. That the minutes of the Board be approved.

Resolved, 5. That the ruling eldership are hereby requested to urge upon the churches and Presbyteries the claims of this Board, in order that its scope may be enlarged and its influence increased, and to the end that the reproach of poverty may be taken from our aged ministers.

In behalf of the Committee,

JESSE F. FORBES, Chairman.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented an additional Report, which was accepted and its recommendations adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully report the following papers, received from the Stated Clerk, for reference:

To the Standing Committee on Church Polity:

Overture No. 185, on the Baptism of Polygamous Converts, from the Synod of India.

The Standing Committee on Missions for Freedmen presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Rev.

John I. Blackburn, D.D., the Rev. E. P. Cowan, D.D., Secretary of the Board, and others, was adopted and is as follows:

We have examined with care the Thirtieth Annual Report of this Board and their minutes of last year, all of which have been put in our hands, and find with the Board cause for gratitude to God for what has been done, and are deeply impressed with the magnitude of the work intrusted to this agency of our Church. When we recall the fact that it has been just thirty years since the Presbyterian Church began separate and systematic work among the Freedmen, it seems natural to look back and note the progress made. It has really been very great. We began at the beginning, and have gone steadily on, slowly but surely. As to property, in 1865 we had nothing; we now have in churches and school buildings owned by the Board considerably over $500,000, and this does not include many churches and manses whose titles are not vested in the Board, but directly in the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and yet as truly belonging to this Board as that which this Board actually claims. At the beginning, our schools were of the simplest kind, only the primer and copy-book were in use as text-books, but now we have the higher schools, the academy, the seminary, the college, the university, with over ten thousand pupils in process of training, who are receiving a liberal education. Then we had literally no colored ministers; now we have at least two hundred,—one hundred and sixty-six in the active work of this Board. Then we had only a very few members in our Church, such as had been taught to believe in Christ by their masters and who sat in the galleries of our white churches; now we have a communicant membership of 17,083, with a Sabbath-school enrollment of 19,764. We have three hundred and six churches, with an equal number of Sabbath-schools. We have eighty-seven schools, with two hundred and fifty-seven teachers to do work in them. With all this we are not what we ought to be after thirty years, but we have every reason to rejoice and take courage and press on. Our work last year, notwithstanding there have been many things to hinder and discourage, has been along the line of real advancement. There has been a falling off in the amounts from legacies, but the Board are able to report advance in other receipts. The receipts from churches, Sabbath-schools, societies and individuals exceeded those of last year by $5270.27. This, together with their reduction of expenditures and careful financiering, enabled the Board to reduce their debt to the extent of $4246.06, leaving the debt now $22,351.56, as against a debt last year of $26,597.62. In order to do this and give us this showing, they have had to reduce the salaries of their teachers on an average of ten per cent. and discontinue a few schools. We cannot but commend them in their action, but greatly deplore that such reduction was found necessary, for in the face of the already too small salaries and the pressing need of the work, the necessity seemed to be almost cruel. We would state, however, that it is not the purpose or will of the Board to continue under this reduction of salaries one moment longer than will be necessary. Just as soon as they can see the means to do it with, they will restore the salaries of teachers to their former amount.

As an exception to the general rule of retrenchment, the Board are able to report to us the completed new dormitory, at Biddle University, known as Carter Hall, built with the money left to the Board by Miss Laura Carter, of Geneva, N. Y., and with $5000 supplied by the Board to complete the work. The structure is a substantial brick building, costing $15,000. It was built entirely by negro workmen under negro contractors; the students of Biddle University, under the supervision of the professors of the industrial department, doing most of the work.

Over against this, we have met with a serious loss in the burning of the Mary Holmes Seminary at Jackson, Miss., which took fire and was burned to the ground January 31 of this year. The entire plant, including all additions and improvements, cost the Board $27,000. The loss was total, save for the insurance, which is $15,000. The Board desire to rebuild this Seminary just as soon as sufficient money, in addition to the insurance, is in sight to justify them to enter upon the work. O! that some good man or woman would come to their rescue with the needed amount, for this Seminary, with the good work it was doing, should not be allowed to stop one moment longer than is necessary.

The entire amount of the receipts of the Board for the last year was $173,050.16. The corresponding receipts for last year were $187,822.15, a falling off, you will see, but the decrease has all been from legacies, and not from the contributions of our churches, Sabbath-schools, Woman's Societies and Young People's Societies; in all these there has been a considerable gain. The churches contributing to this cause, either directly or through their organized societies, last year, were 3415, 125 more than gave last year, but leaving 3972, more than half of our churches, to give nothing to this noble cause; 554 Sabbath-schools gave to the work, 326 of the Young People's Societies, and 1443 of the Women's Societies. The total expenditures for the year were $162,704.10, as against $192,322.40 last year.

The Board report the work of the past year among the churches as carried on in the midst of hardships and self-denial. They have had more churches and mission stations to care for than ever before, and less money with which to carry on the work. Still it has been a year of blessings: 1863 have been added to the Church on profession and examination, and the Gospel has been preached to many thousand souls, God's own have been built up, and many children are being educated, we trust, for Christ and for His Church.

Here now are some figures to which your Committee would call the special attention of Assembly. The colored people themselves gave to the support of their own work $63,385.29; this was $4477.32 more than last year, and more than they have ever given before, and in a year, too, which has been especially trying to them on account of the scarceness of labor and the exceptionally low price of cotton. Surely these figures speak volumes for the liberality and self-sacrifice of a race determined to avail itself of all the advantages of the Gospel and a Christian education, cost what it may. Surely we should be interested in such a people and do what we can to push forward this work.

The Field Secretary, who has been in the employ of the Board for ten years, reports a busy year. In the prosecution of his work during the last year, he says, "I have traveled 12,455 miles, attended two Synods and nine Presbyteries, inspected 22 schools, preached 92 sermons and made 75 addresses. As to the character of the work being done, he reports advancement all along the lines. The workmen are becoming more efficient and better acquainted with the work, and with the growth of the work there is an increase of those who are seeking to enter it. In the two leading colleges he reports 100 young men studying for the ministry. Among the Presbyteries he reports an increasing disposition to examine into the results of the work of their members, and a growth in the feeling of their individual responsibility.

The Freedmen's department of the woman's work report in like manner a good year with encouraging results. We were especially cheered to hear of the large number of conversions among the pupils in their schools, showing that while the teachers were doing literary work, they had not forgotten that they are to be veritable missionaries of the Cross of Christ.

The Committee think that, while the school work should not be allowed to abate in interest, special attention should be given to evangelistic work, and to the planting and building of small inexpensive churches as homes into which to gather this people and hold them for our Church. We would call the attention of the Board to the significant fact that in the border States, such as Kentucky, Tennessee and Missouri, where there is a large population of colored people, more intelligent and accessible in many respects than in other States, our Church is doing but very little if anything to gain a foothold among them. If Presbyterianism is a good thing for the colored people, they need it in these States as well as elsewhere.

Our recommendations are:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly heartily commends the Board of Missions for Freedmen for the faithful and efficient discharge of their duties during the past year, and that the Board be encouraged to continue their work with like wisdom and zeal.

Resolved, 2, That the churches be asked to increase their contributions so that the Board may have at least $250,000 to prosecute its work for the coming year.

Resolved, 3. That the Presbyteries be urgently requested to give special consideration to the work and claims of this Board at their fall meetings.

Resolved, 4. That all pastors and stated supplies be urged to instruct their congregations in the work among the Freedmen, and appeal to them for offerings to this cause.

Resolved, 5. That the minutes of the proceedings of the Board as submitted for our examination be approved.

Resolved, 6. That the following members of the Board, Messrs. Charles H. Riggs, George B. Logan and S. P. Harbison, with Rev. Samuel H. Moore, D.D., and Rev. David R. Breed, D.D., whose term of service expires with this Assembly, be reëlected.

In behalf of the Committee,

J. I. BLACKBURN, Chairman.

The Committee on Correspondence presented the following, which was adopted:

The Committee on Correspondence would respectfully report that the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America will convene in this city during the present week. The desire having been expressed for an exchange of fraternal courtesies, your Committee would recommend that a delegation be appointed to visit that Assembly at 3 o'clock, Thursday afternoon next; this delegation to consist of three ministers and two elders, as follows: The Vice-Moderator of the Assembly, the Hon. James A. Beaver, LL.D., of Pennsylvania; the Rev. Henry H. Jessup, D.D., of Syria; the Rev. Charles A. Stoddard, D.D., of New York; the Rev. Warren H. Landon, D.D., of California, and The Hon. Homer N. Hibbard, LL.D., of Illinois; and that Governor Beaver and Dr. Jessup speak for the delegation.

Respectfully submitted by the Committee,

HOWARD A. JOHNSTON, Chairman.

The Judicial Committee presented its Report on Judicial Case No. 2, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Judicial Case No. 2. The Judicial Committee have had placed in their hands an appeal from the Presbytery of Mattoon, against the action of the Synod of Illinois, in the case of I. H. Lish, in which it appears that he had asked for a letter of dismission from that Presbytery to another, and it had been refused until he should make apologies for un-Christian conduct in the presence of another Presbytery. And he having complained to the Synod against the action of the Presbytery, the Synod appointed a commission to investigate and issue the case, and this commission made the following report, which was adopted by the Synod: "The Judicial Commission in the matter of the complaint of Rev. I. H. Lish against the Presbytery of Mattoon find that the Presbytery of Mattoon erred in refusing to grant a letter of dismissal to the said Rev. I. H. Lish, except on condition that he should repair to the Presbytery of LaCrosse and make such apologies as would be satisfactory to that Presbytery, for the reason that such refusal was of the nature of a penalty without due process." Your Committee would respectfully report that we find the appeal in order; that while we find that the Synod erred in receiving and adopting a report of the Judicial Commission acting when there was no quorum present, yet since it appears that the said I. H. Lish has been tried and deposed from the ministry by the Presbytery of Mattoon, your Committee recommend that the action of the Synod in this case be confirmed.

In behalf of the Committee,

WM. N. PAGE, Chairman.

The Assembly adjourned until 9 o'clock A.M., May 22, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 21, 7.45 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting, in the interests of Home Missions, was held in the Third Presbyterian Church, at which the Rev. John Hall, D.D., President of the Board of Home Missions, presided.

WEDNESDAY, May 22, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The following appointments of Special Committees were announced by the Moderator:

Committee of Canvass of the Answers of the Presbyteries to the Assembly's Overture on the Addition of a New Chapter to the Book of Discipline: Ministers—Joseph Dunn Burrell, James T. Cooter, J. Scott King; Ruling Elders—W. R. Ballard, William B. Langsdorf.

Committee of Conference with Lane Seminary, in place of Rev. G. W. F. Birch, D.D., resigned, Rev. J. I. Blackburn, D.D.

Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries, additional members: Ministers—F. C. Monfort, D.D., William H. Hubbard; Ruling Elders—Hon. James A. Beaver, Hon. C. E. Vanderburg.

To fill vacancies in the same Committee: Rev. George W. F. Birch, D.D., with Ruling Elders, Robert H. Hinckley and Hon. Thomas Ewing.

The following resolution was referred, with power, to the Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries:

Resolved, That the Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries be requested to inquire into, and report to the next General Assembly, as to the rights of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in the property now held by The Union Theological Seminary in the city of New York; and to recommend what measures should be taken to enforce said rights.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work was made the second Order for Thursday, and the Report of the Special Committee on Church Unity the third Order for the same day.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Rev. John Gillespie, D.D., Secretary of the Board, the Rev. Henry H. Jessup, D.D., of Syria, and others, was unanimously adopted, and is as follows:

Your Standing Committee on Foreign Missions beg leave to present the following Report, viz.:

The Records of the Board for the year have been examined and found in order, and we recommend their approval. The Annual Report of the Board, printed copies of which are now in your hands, has been read with interest and profound gratitude to the great Head of the Church who has given us such a noble band of laborers in foreign fields, and such an undeserved measure of success in the great work of the world's evangelization. It has seemed to your Committee fitting, that on this Twenty-fifth Anniversary of Reunion, and in this place where that glorious event was so happily consummated, this Report should embody a brief comparison of the work of our church in foreign fields as it was then, and as it is now. Especially is this appropriate in view of the fact that one of the convincing arguments for Reunion was the impetus it was believed it would give to this cause ever nearest to the heart of our apostolic Presbyterian Church.

In turning to the Minutes of the General Assembly for 1870, it was a gratifying coincidence, to find that the Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Missions, for that Assembly, was Rev. R. R. Booth, D.D., the honored Moderator of this Assembly. It is gratifying also, to quote from the Report of that Committee such golden and prophetic words as these:

"Having in view the prospect of the coöperation of our whole Church in the work of Foreign Missions, and confidently expecting therefrom a large increase of personal and material means for carrying forward the work, your Committee feel fully authorized to call the attention of the Assembly to the importance of a bold and forward movement in discharge of the duty which we as a Church owe to our Lord, and to the millions who are perishing in ignorance of the Gospel. The heathen world is Christ's charge, not to the Board of Missions, but to the whole Church, and to each particular member of it."

It is interesting to notice also, that in that Report the Committee were constrained to say, that owing to the large number of non-contributing churches and members, the Board had been compelled to report a debt in five consecutive years, and had found it "practically impossible to send forth to the field the men and women who were ready to engage in the work."

We venture also to condense the fifth resolution adopted by that Assembly, viz.: "That the Assembly regard with satisfaction the purpose lately avowed by the Board, of increasing the staff of female missionaries, where women can be reached only by those of their own sex, and the Board is requested to consider the policy of seeking out and commissioning women who may have qualified themselves to practice medicine."

But in May, 1870, the former New School branch of the Church had not yet transferred its part of the work of Foreign Missions to our own Board, nor had the missionaries chiefly sustained by it been given into our care by the American Board The Board was organized in its new form as the Board of the Reunited Church on the 13th of June, 1870. We, adopt, therefore, as one term of our comparison, the reports made to the General Assembly at Chicago in 1871. In that year the Board reported 111 ordained evangelists, 5 missionary physicians, 2 superintendents of schools, and 119 female laborers, a total of 237 foreign laborers in the mission field. They also reported 378 native helpers, 400 converts for the year, and a total membership in mission churches of 3500, with 10,000 scholars in mission schools. Now compare these figures with those in the summary of the Report made to this Assembly, viz.: Ordained missionaries, 213; medical missionaries, 37 male, 19 female; missionary women, including wives of missionaries, 376; a total of 656 foreign laborers. Besides these there are reported 188 ordained natives, 230 licentiates, 1525 native teachers and helpers, a total of 1943 native converts laboring for the evangelization of their own race and kindred. There are now 391 churches reported on heathen soil with 31,888 communicants, of whom 3635 were added during the year. There are also (and this is a fact most noteworthy) 109 students for the ministry among the converts. There are 30,452 boys and girls in the schools. There are also thirty-three hospitals and dispensaries, almost all the creation of the past twenty-five years, in which, during the past year, 256,514 suffering human beings have received the skilled care of Christian physicians and nurses, ministering not merely to the ailments of the body, but to the greater needs of benighted souls. And most significant is the fact that these heathen converts have contributed $65,828 during this year to the support of the work among themselves and their people. And this they did out of a poverty far greater than anything known in Christian lands. Are these facts such as to justify the pessimistic utterances sometimes heard concerning the failure of Foreign Missions?

In these twenty-five years, the number of foreign laborers in the mission fields of our Church has been considerably more than doubled, but the number of native workers has been increased fivefold, and the number of converts annually nearly tenfold. The additions to our mission churches the past year were nearly twelve per cent. of the whole number of communicants. Will the statistical reports to this Assembly show an equal ratio of increase in the home churches? And with the raising up of a native ministry, self-supporting churches on heathen soil become practicable, and are already in some cases a realized fact.

Turning our faces now in the other direction, let us glance at the progress of the cause in the interest and support of the Church. It is instructive here to notice that in the report of Dr. Logan, as Chairman of the Standing Committee at Chicago in 1871, it is said: "The Assembly also recognize with gratitude to God the effort to organize the women of the Presbyterian Church for the purpose of sustaining the work of the Board of Foreign Missions." "Early in the past year the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was organized in the city of Philadelphia." . . . . "The organization in Philadelphia," the Report proceeds to say, "was followed by the enlargement of the organization of the Ladies' Board of Missions in New York and the Woman's Presbyterian Board of the Northwest in Chicago." The organized work of women for the support of Foreign Missions is just twenty-five years old. What has it to show? The receipts of the Board from this source the past year were $326,328.44, and this was over $8000 less than last year. In 1871 the Board reported a total of contributions for the past, from all sources, of $330,550.39. The average annual contributions of the Woman's Boards then, during the past two years, have nearly equaled the whole income of the Board in 1870.

But we may not carry these comparisons farther. Enough, certainly, has been pointed out to show that we have special reason for gratitude to God for this anniversary, so far as the great work of Foreign Missions is concerned, and much to stimulate increased prayer and effort in the future.

Turning now to the great field as it is to-day, and to the work of the past year, it is not possible for your Committee to give more than a mere outline of the interesting and valuable contents of the Board's Report—referring you for fuller information to the Report itself, and especially to the admirable summary contained in the introduction of that Report.

China—that great empire comprehending in its limits one-fourth of the human race—has attracted especial attention by reason of the war with Japan, and the great plague which visited the regions of Canton during the year. Notwithstanding these untoward events, the work has gone steadily on at almost all the stations, even those nearest the seat of war. Most of the missionaries have remained at their posts, and, notwithstanding the increased excitement and hostility to foreigners, the lives and property of the missionaries have by the divine blessing been preserved. Two facts may be referred to in illustration of the general statement of the continued and increasing prosperity of our work in that empire—though not contained in the Reports officially submitted to your Committee, viz.:

(a) The Statistical Report of the Presbytery of Shantung, forwarded to this Assembly, and which will appear in the Annual Report of the Board for next year, shows that in that province, in which Wei Hai Wei, one of the great fortresses captured by the Japanese, is located, and Tung Chow, the seat of our college, was bombarded, the number of converts the past year was 471, 33 per cent. greater than the previous year, and (b) one group of churches has become self-supporting, settling a native pastor whose salary is entirely paid by the people.

Japan has suffered from the distraction incident to the excited state of the country, but on the other hand the patriotism of the native Christians and the Christian work done in the army and the hospitals have made a favorable impression upon the Government and the people. Restrictions to free intercourse with the interior have been removed, and the door for an evangelistic work among all classes has been opened wider than ever.

Corea is to be no longer the hermit nation, and the missionary work, interrupted by the opening events of the war, is going on with increased efficiency and success.

Of Siam and the Laos we can only say that the work goes on prosperously, notwithstanding the powerful opposition of Buddhism, and remind you that this great field is, in a peculiar sense, ours, having been wholly committed by other denominations to the care of the Presbyterian Church.

India is the synonym of Foreign Missions in many Christian minds and hearts. The Lodiana Mission, in the North, has been blest as never in any previous year of its history. More than five hundred souls have been baptized in the Christian Church of our faith during the past year. The Furrukhabad and Western India Missions have also pushed the work with vigor and success.

Persia and Syria celebrate the quarter-centennial of their official connection with our Board. In this period they have experienced remarkable expansion. Our Syrian Mission is meeting with pronounced hostility from the Turks and the tyrannical censorship of our Mission Press by the Turkish government. Mosul still waits and prays for a missionary physician. The recent murderous persecutions of the remnant of Ancient Christians in the Turkish empire, and the apparent determination to extirpate the Christian villages, called for and have received the indignant protest of the world. Shall we not pray more earnestly, and labor more indefatigably than ever, for the lands sacred in all the past history of the Bible and the Church?

The little band of missionaries in the African field have had to contend against many discouragements. Restrictions laid upon them by the French Government have greatly hindered their labors, yet these hindrances promise to turn out for the furtherance of the Gospel; persecuted in one place, they have fled to another, and a line of missions has been begun which it is hoped will be extended to the heart of the continent. The Lord has richly blessed the laborers in that field in results, adding one-fourth to the previous number of communicants during the past year.

The missionaries to Roman Catholic countries on our own continent all report encouraging progress. In Mexico, a Home Mission Board has been organized. The following testimony of Dr. D. S. Johnson, of Springfield, Mo., is quoted with approbation in the Board's Report: "Of all the surprises of that strange land, the greatest to us was the Mexico Mission of the Presbyterian Church. In its strong personnel, in the reports of work accomplished last year, in the carefully and prayerfully considered plans for the coming year's campaign, in the high courage and far-reaching faith, and above all the spirit of consecration evinced throughout all the sessions, the Mexico Mission elicited our wonder, love and praise." In Guatemala and the South American States, mission work has been somewhat hindered by wars so characteristic of that region, but progress has been achieved in numbers and strength of the churches. The missions to the Chinese and Japanese in the United States have been effective and successfully conducted in San Francisco, Oakland, Portland and New York.

No figures of speech, no words, however well chosen, can enhance the impression which even such a superficial and fragmentary view of our Mission field must make upon a thoughtful Christian if only he will pause and ponder the object lesson. Our field is indeed the world. We hold strategic points on all the great continents. Yonder at the front is a band of men and women richly endowed, consecrated and courageous. They are hand to hand with the hosts of darkness on Satan's vantage ground, and they are fighting a winning battle against fearful odds. The same Divine Leader at whose command they have been sent forth is manifestly going before them. He is Head over all things, and makes even the wrath of man to praise Him. What in this crisis of the Lord's great battle shall we say to our chosen ones at the front? What shall we say to the eager reinforcements now asking to be sent out? What shall we say to their Lord and our Lord who is now opening the doors and leading this noble band in the campaign against heathenism? Will this Assembly—will the great Presbyterian Church which we represent, say to them and to Him, "Times are hard." "Money is scarce." "Fall back to your base of supplies." "Intrench the strong points and hold them as well as you can." "We can't maintain the war on such a large scale." "We can't send out reinforcements this year." "Wait till we find a more convenient season." Surely we cannot so answer our Lord and King. He speaks to us plainly in His Providence as He has done in His Word. "Say unto the people that they go forward." This is not Manassas—it is Gettysburg—possibly it is Appomatox. The opportunity is here—the men and women for immediate service are here—the Almighty Spirit of God is here and working on all the mission fields as seldom or never before. What is lacking? The consecrated gifts of a consecrated Church.

Let us turn our faces then for a few moments to the Church at home. What have we done for this cause the past year? What are we doing? What do we propose to do? The Financial Statement of the Board shows that the receipts this past year were:

From Churches,	$286,392 89
" Women's Boards,	309,751 11
" Sabbath-schools,	38,031 00
" Y. P. S.,	18,908 49
" Legacies,	119,231 62
" Individuals and Miscellany,	93,394 26
Total Receipts,	$865,709 37
The appropriations for the same period,	$976,102 80
Less appropriations unused in the field,	38,220 68

leaving a deficit of $174,770.54, of which $102,597.79 was carried over from the previous year.

A careful examination of the financial exhibits of the Report has convinced your Committee that the Board has exercised wisdom and economy in the administration of the work. Less than six per cent. of the total amount of money handled is chargeable to the expense of administration. The Board has kept considerably within the limits of the order of the last Assembly in the amount of appropriations. The Board is in no degree responsible for the debt. You simply ordered more to be done than you furnished money to do. And yet you did not order too much to be done, and the Board did not undertake too much.

Before we criticise the expense of this department of our work, let us reflect that this Board carries on in the foreign fields the work of almost all the other Boards of the Church in the home field—Church Erection, Education, Publication and Sabbath-school Work, Aid for Colleges and Schools, and, to some extent, Ministerial Relief. And most of this is done in foreign lands and remote parts of the world. The responsibility of an adequate income for the work of Foreign Missions rests upon the Church. Let there be no non-contributing churches, and no non-contributing members, and there will be no debt. Let there be more faithful instruction of pastors, more helpful coöperation of elders and leaders in the Church, more watchful oversight by Presbytery and Synods, and there will be no debt. Let there be more consecration in the body of Christ's Church to the great end of her high calling of God—the world's evangelization—and there will be no debt. Let there be better methods of benevolence, more gathering up of the fragments and the littles for this cause, and there will be no debt. Brethren, we believe that this is the highest form of Christian beneficence. "The Word of God applied by the Spirit of God is the sovereign remedy for the ills of mankind." "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel" is the last and crowning command of our ascended Lord. And He has said, "Lo, I am with you." Pray for that presence. Pray for that promised Spirit. Pray "Thy kingdom come," and He will hear, and the people will be made willing—and the world will hear the glad shout—the kingdoms of the world are become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ.

We cannot close this Report without calling over the roll of the heroes who have fallen in the battle during the past year:

Rev. W. J. McKee, after sixteen years of service in China, died in this country, July 21, 1894; Rev. Charles W. Forman, D.D., died at Kasanti, India, August 28, 1894, after forty-seven years of eminent service in the cause of India's redemption to Christ; Miss Mary Hesser entered into rest September 1, 1894, after ten years of labor in Japan; Mrs. C. J. Laffin died of African fever at Batanga, November 3, 1894, her last words being, "Lord, tell the Church to send more missionaries to Africa." December 13, she was followed by Rev. A. C. Good, Ph.D., a man greatly admired and beloved especially in this region of which he was a native. Rev. Stanley K. Phraner, one of our devoted young missionaries to the Laos, died on his way home, at Singapore, January 15, 1895. Mrs. J. P. Cochrane, co-laborer with her husband, Dr. Cochrane, in the medical work in Persia for seventeen years, died at Oroomiah, March 21, 1895. A cablegram to the Board from Persia announces the death, on April 12, of Rev. J. H. Shedd, D.D., whose name is in all the churches. To this list we must also add two names of men most widely known and revered of all friends of Foreign Missions, the scholarly Rev. W. M. Thompson, D.D., of Syria, who died April 8, 1894, and the pioneer in the Canton Mission, who went out from the vicinity of this city to China, a half century ago, Rev. A. P. Happer, D.D., October 7, 1894. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them."

Your Committee recommend the following resolutions for adoption by this Assembly, viz.:

1. That the following members of the Board whose term of service expires June 1, 1895, be reëlected, viz.: Ministers—Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D., Rev. John D. Wells, D.D., Rev. John Balcom Shaw, D.D., and Rev. David Gregg, D.D.; Laymen—William A. Booth, E. M. Kingsley and Alexander Maitland, and that Elbert A. Brinckerhoff, of the Presbytery of Jersey City, be elected to fill the vacancy in the class of 1897, created by the retirement of George S. Coe, after a faithful service of fifteen years.

2. That the Assembly heartily approves the election of Rev.

Arthur J. Brown, D.D., to the Secretaryship rendered vacant by the death of Dr. Arthur Mitchell.

3. That the Assembly records its grateful appreciation of the services rendered to the cause by the members of the Board, several of whom have acted in this capacity for twenty-five years or more, and also the industry and fidelity of its salaried officers, including the Field Secretary, and our gratitude to God that He has added another year to the honored and useful life of Secretary Emeritus Dr. John C. Lowrie.

4. Whilst the Assembly approves the action of the Board in curtailing appropriations by reason of reduced contributions, yet it records its solemn conviction that the Church owes it as a sacred obligation and proof of loyalty to Christ our King, not only to sustain the work already undertaken and the laborers in the field, but by larger and more universal liberality to extend the work where God is opening wide and effectual doors, and especially to send out every approved and qualified missionary that offers himself for this service.

5. As possible helps to the large increase of contributions for the future the Assembly would offer and recommend to the prayerful consideration of ministers and people the following suggestions:

Cannot something effective be done to induce the more than two thousand non-contributing churches and the many thousand non-contributing members to take some part, however small, in this great work?

Cannot our people be made to feel more deeply their individual personal obligation for the world's conversion, that the Church is an agency instituted of Christ for this end, that we have received the gift of salvation that we may impart it to others, that we are not merely to have missionary organizations in the Church, but that the Church itself is a divine missionary organization? And to make this idea effective ought not Church Sessions to coöperate, acting with the pastors in stimulating missionary interest and large liberality?

Have Synodical and Presbyterial committees done their full duty when they have prepared and presented their Annual Reports? Should they not also exercise a judicious oversight of the work throughout the year, coöperate with pastors and Sabbath-school officers and see that vacant churches have the opportunity of contributing to this cause?

6. It is our profound conviction, in view of the prominence given in the New Testament and in our Lord's express command to this work of the world's evangelization, that a single annual contribution is not sufficient to discharge our responsibility, and in view of the great importance of method in developing the fullest liberality of the Church and reaching the largest number of givers, we cordially commend what is known as the Board's plan of taking offerings.

7. That the Assembly recognizes with devout gratitude to God the continued interest and increasing efficiency of our Women's Societies and their steady loyalty to the Board, also their earnest efforts to organize our children and youth and train them in the systematic support of missions. In the judgment of the Assembly, the gradual reduction of special objects and the concentration of prayer and effort on special departments of the work or on the work in its entirety, is a policy to be commended to the Women's Societies and to all friends of the cause.

8. That the increased offerings of Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies to this cause, are not only helpful for present needs but hopeful for the future. We recommend that the Christmas offering be repeated and enlarged this year. And inasmuch as the average gift of one cent each week from each Sabbath-school scholar would amount in one year to the magnificent sum of $450,000, we urge that they be encouraged and enabled to contribute frequently. We also commend the plan of enlisting groups of Young People's Societies in the same Presbytery for the support of a missionary.

9. In order that the Board may be enabled to carry on its current work and provide for such enlargement as is demanded by the developments of Providence in our mission fields, it is recommended that our churches aim at an offering at least twenty per cent. in advance of the amount contributed the past year.

10. In order that current receipts may be used for current expenses, the Board is authorized and recommended to devise such means as it may deem wise for liquidating the debt.*

11. Inasmuch as prayer is a condition of success in the work of Foreign Missions and the Lord's appointed means for securing laborers for His harvest, the Assembly urges the maintenance of the monthly concert in all the churches, that more prominence be given to this subject in the week of prayer for the world's conversion and in public and private devotions, and that the week beginning April 7 next be appointed as a special season of prayer for missions in the church and family.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE W. CHALFANT, Chairman.

During the consideration of the Report on Foreign Missions it was announced that the Board was unable to send out to Africa the successor of Rev. Dr. Goode, deceased. Whereupon freewill offerings to the amount of $2168 were gathered for the purpose, $558 in cash, and $1610 in subscriptions.

A resolution concerning the increase of the salary of the Permanent Clerk was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Assembly took recess until 2.30 P.M., and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 22, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

A resolution in relation to women's work in connection with Home Missions was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Standing Committee on Education presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Chairman, the Rev. M. D. Kneeland, D.D., Rev. Edward B. Hodge, D.D., Secretary of the Board, and others, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Education respectfully presents the following Report to the General Assembly:

We cannot forbear, as an introduction, to express our gratitude to Almighty God, that He has spared so long our beloved father, the former Secretary, Rev. D. W. Poor, D.D., whose face, we understand, is still seen at the rooms of the Board.

In studying carefully the Report of the Board, and conversing freely with its Secretary and Treasurer, we are struck with its wise foresight and the efficient management of its important interests. It trimmed its sails to the wind, and adjusted its ballast at the very beginning of the year. Although your Committee of last year recommended that the sum of $150,000 be raised for its work, the Board made up its estimates and grants on the basis of a much smaller income. In this, as results have proved, they acted wisely. They did not venture to promise more than $80 to college and seminary students, and $70 to preparatory students. This caused some disappointment and criticism; yet their actions saved them much greater disappointment, criticism, and censure, which must have resulted if they had continued to make the larger grants of the previous year. We do not wish to be understood, in commending their foresight and business sagacity, to commend the negligence of so many of our churches which made such reduction necessary, but rather that wise action which enlarged the number of those whom they were able to assist, without seriously and unjustifiably crippling their resources or involving themselves in a disastrous debt.

The Board found it necessary also to limit the number of candidates to 900. This seemed, at first glance, unwise. When, however, we find that 131 more candidates were assisted than the 900 to whom aid was promised, and that this was partly done through the generosity of members of the Board and kind-hearted friends whom they interested in individual cases, and that not one worthy applicant coming within the rules of the Board was turned away empty-handed, our criticism becomes commendation. This increases as we examine the situation more minutely. What do we find? 1031 candidates aided. Some $51,000, all told, received from the churches. Of course, legacies, special contributions and receipts from other sources have increased this amount, else such a large work could not possibly have been done. More than a full regiment of God's young soldiers have been helped onward a whole year towards the Christian ministry, by a paltry sum. Compare it with the amounts expended by our Government on the same number of West Point and Annapolis students, and it seems insignificant indeed. In one instance it is no more a matter of charity than in the other. Such management evidences a strict and rigid economy in the performance of large and responsible duties. We must remember that this Board does more than merely receive and pay out money. It exercises a wise and kindly oversight over 1000 men distributed over the whole country.

Right here we would commend one instance of liberality because of its unique features and as an encouragement to other stewards of God's money. Mr. John S. Newberry, of Detroit, Mich., left by will, to this Board, a scholarship yielding about $500 a year. The seminaries are to receive its advantages in rotation. The best student, elected by competitive examination, enjoys full leisure for study and a postgraduate course. This is an encouragement to high and accurate scholarship, which is in the line of Presbyterian history, and we need more such encouragements. Our danger is not in the line of overeducation, although we stand in the forefront in this matter, but from the letting down of a high standard of ministerial qualifications. By means of such scholarships, the ranks of our professors may be, from time to time, recruited, and our most exacting churches supplied.

Still we recognize in extraordinary cases the importance of an abbreviated course of study, in some of our seminaries at least, whereby young men, who are not able to take a full college and seminary course, may still have the privilege of presenting the Gospel of Jesus Christ, as ordained ministers, evangelists or licentiates. Many fields are open, and more and more will be opened to such workers with large possibilities of usefulness.

This brings us to a movement of great importance, viz., that of the practical training of our students. We notice that the Report of the Board suggests that the time may be near at hand when a plan might be adopted, providing for the appointment of all the graduates of our seminaries, to at least one year of missionary work immediately after their graduation. This postgraduate training would prepare the young men for their life-work and their great responsibilities, under the wise oversight of the respective Presbyteries. Such a plan would insure every one a field of immediate work and teach him how to endure hardness for the Master. It, of course, presents difficulties, and in the arrangement of its details, careful and wise planning and preparation are needed, but it is certainly worthy the calm consideration of this Assembly.

The Treasurer's books have been examined carefully, and the following report by the Chairman of the Subcommittee, Rev. Dr. Charles J. Young, is presented:

Cash from churches, Sabbath-schools and C. E. Societies,	$50,901 29
Cash from legacies,	33,366 08
Interest from investments:
On special deposit,	7,886 53
From miscellaneous sources,	2,608 20
Special contribution,	1,500 00
Moneys refunded,	1,016 34
Balance from previous year,	701 53
Total,	$97,979 97

This Report shows that the entire work of this Board for the past year has been accomplished on less than $100,000. If the $150,000 voted by last year's Assembly had been raised by the churches, it would not have been necessary to cut down the grants to our students, and such curtailment should not have been forced on our Board. The large number of churches which gave nothing to this important cause are largely responsible for this condition of affairs. If they had given on an average five dollars each, one hundred dollars could have been granted to every candidate for the ministry, without an increase of debt. When we consider that the young men who go to our seminaries, are in many instances denying themselves most heroically for the Master and His Church, and that if the pittance granted them be curtailed even a little, it not unfrequently causes privation and suffering, we unhesitatingly emphasize the plea of the treasury of the Board for larger contributions.

May we not suggest to the ministers, many of whom have been blessed in temporal affairs, that a contribution to the "Gratitude Fund" of this Board would be most appropriate and acceptable? If any are not able to give some portion of their income, as an expression of their sense of obligation to this Board, to which they owe so much, they can certainly urge upon their congregations larger gifts and more earnest prayers. While we find that the number of students has increased largely, the fund has not increased in anything like the same proportion. The past year, however, has shown an advance of some two thousand dollars in contributions from churches and Sabbath-schools over the previous year. This is an excellent report, when we consider the financial conditions under which all the Boards have suffered. The debt of this Board is only some $3500, and that to its own Permanent Fund. We note with regret that 4140 churches, i.e., 487 more than one-half of our churches (the Synods of China and India are not included), did not give anything to the Board of Education during the year. On the other hand, there is an encouragement in the fact that the number of contributing churches has risen from 3145 to 3165, an increase of twenty.

Dear brethren, members of the One Hundred and Seventh Assembly of our Church, we commend to you most heartily this, the strategic Board of the list—strategic, because if it is left to suffer or starve, all other Boards must suffer or starve with it. Without educated ministers, the Church of Christ must soon cease to perform its mission and even to exist. In order to obtain educated ministers, the Church must educate them, as the Government educates its soldiers and sailors.

The Committee recommends the adoption of the following:

1. That the minutes of the Board for the year be approved, including the reëlection of the officers of last year, and that we express our appreciation of their services, and especially of the earnest and generous work of the Corresponding Secretary of the Board, the Rev. Edward B. Hodge, D.D. He has proven himself, during the first year of his incumbency, eminently fitted for the responsible trusts committed into his hands.

2. That we commend the wise curtailment of the annual grant to the students, while we regret its necessity, and hope that it will never occur again.

3. That we commend the proposed fourth year for practical training and experience to the consideration of the whole Church, and recommend that the Board of Education consult with the respective Presbyteries, the Synodical Superintendents and the various seminaries of our Church, and submit any plan it may formulate to the next meeting of the General Assembly.

4. That we commend to every Presbytery of our Church the growing importance and requirements of this Board: the need of donations and legacies for its support, and the necessity that every church contribute its portion, even though the amount be very small.

5. That we recommend that $150,000 be raised the current year to meet the demands made upon the Board.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

MARTIN D. KNEELAND, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Education also presented an answer to the Overture referred to it by the Assembly, being Overture No. 138, from the Presbytery of Chicago, on the subject of Aid to Candidates from the Foreign Field. The answer was adopted, and is as follows:

In answer to an Overture to General Assembly as to the aid to be given by the Board of Education to candidates from the foreign field, who have come upon their own responsibility to the United States, and have entered our theological and academical institutions to complete their education, your Committee respectfully report that, in their judgment, no action is necessary, since the whole matter was adjudicated by the General Assembly of 1885 and incorporated into the rules of the Board of Education. The action reads as follows:

"Resolved, That the Board will not henceforth give aid to any student from the foreign field unless he has been recommended by our foreign missionaries abroad, or has come to study in this country by a special invitation given from this Board upon the request of other duly recognized Church authorities, or missionaries resident on the fields from which these students come."

The following suggestions, presented by Hon. E. E. White, were referred to the Board of Education for its consideration, with the direction to the Board that it report next year to the General Assembly:

It is suggested that instead of aiding students preparing for the Gospel ministry by gifts of money, that the assistance be in the form of loans to be paid for in service in the ministry for a prescribed number of years, say seven years; and that when this service is faithfully rendered, the said loan be promptly canceled in such manner as the Board may devise, this compensation not taking the place of salaries paid by the churches or by the Boards of the Church, but in addition thereto.

It was also Resolved, That the following members of the Board of Education, whose term of service expires this year, be reëlected for the term of three years, viz.: Ministers—John S. MacIntosh, D.D., Irwin P. McCurdy, D.D., Hughes O. Gibbons, D.D.; Laymen—John W. Patton, Esq., George H. Stuart, Jr., and Rudolph S. Walton.

The Judicial Committee reported as follows:

Judicial Case No. 3, being the complaint of the Rev. George W. F. Birch, D.D., against the Synod of New York. Your Committee would report that they have examined the papers in the complaint of Dr. Birch against the action of the Synod of New York and have found them in order. In view of the fact that at the time the minutes of the Presbytery of North River were reviewed by the Synod of New York, the case of the candidate for admission had not been completed, and inasmuch as the case will come before the Synod at its next meeting upon the review of the subsequent action of Presbytery, the complainant agrees to withdraw the complaint. Your Committee therefore recommends that this action be approved. Adopted.

Judicial Case No. 1, entitled A Complaint of the Rev. R. R. Marquis and others of the Presbytery of Kansas City against the Synod of Missouri. The Committee would report that the complainants ask leave to withdraw the complaint and recommend that the request be granted. Adopted.

Judicial Case No. 5, the Complaint of Rev. J. D. Robertson against the Synod of Pennsylvania. The Committee recommend that the complainant, having asked leave to withdraw his papers, be allowed to do so. Adopted.

In behalf of the Committee,

W. N. PAGE, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Aid for Colleges and Academies presented its Report, which, after addresses by the Chairman, W. H. Landon, D.D., and Edward C. Ray, D.D., the Corresponding Secretary of the Board, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Aid for Colleges and Academies would respectfully report as follows:

We have examined with deep interest the Twelfth Annual Report of the Board. It is full of interesting and suggestive facts, briefly but clearly stated, and interspersed with pictures to illustrate the facts. The Board is to be commended for the condensed and attractive form in which it has placed before the Church the record of its work, and some of the needs of the fields in which it works.

We observe first the wide reach of its influence and helpfulness in the department of Christian Education. It gives aid to colleges and academies in nearly every State and Territory west of the Mississippi river, and in many States east of it.

We observe also and commend the fidelity with which it has administered the trust committed to it by the Church, and carried out the instructions given by the General Assembly. The conviction of the Church, as expressed in its Assemblies, has been very clear upon one point—the Board's conviction has been equally clear upon this point—namely, that institutions aided by it shall not incur indebtedness. It is one of the rules of the Board that no institution receiving its aid shall incur any indebtedness whatever without the written consent of the Board. In enforcing this rule the past year, it has dropped from the list of its beneficiaries three institutions that have violated it. It is a wise rule wisely enforced. Institutions receiving the assistance of the Church should not be allowed to endanger their prospects, their existence, by incurring any debt, by indulging in any supplies, however necessary, that are beyond their ability and that of their friends to provide for. We observe also, that the Board is steadily insisting that in all institutions aided the Bible should be the chief text-book. All but three of the schools aided have obeyed the instructions on this subject. Of these three, which have been duly warned, the Report says, with emphasis, "they will be brought into line or dropped." This certainly will receive the hearty approval of the Church. The Church gives its aid in building and maintaining academies and colleges, throughout the land, not for the glory of the section in which they are located, but for the glory of our Lord and the extension of His kingdom through educating and preparing youth for work in that kingdom. It is becoming that in such schools the Bible should be exalted above all other books, even as a text-book. Doubtless, in most of the institutions presided over by devoted Christian men and women, many of them making great sacrifices for the sake of this work, it is their delight to make the Bible the first of books. We would naturally expect rich results from the labors of such schools where the Bible is taught and its teachings are pressed home to the hearts of students, and where all work is begun, continued, and ended in prayer. The results, as they are given in the Annual Report, do not disappoint us. We learn that about one-half of all the pupils in these schools are now professing Christians, and that the number of converts the past year was 250. In some of these schools every student is a Christian. We are not surprised after hearing such facts as these, to hear also that in such a Christian atmosphere, where so many souls are annually born again, many young men are called of God to the ministry of the Gospel. Because of the healthful Christian atmosphere, and the positive Christian instructions in these institutions, it will be said for years to come that "this and that man was born there," and that this and that man there heard the call of God to preach the glorious Gospel.

This Assembly needs not to be told that the past year has been one of financial depression. The work of this Board has suffered from it, as has all other work. In some sections where aid is given there has been suffering from drought; in some places suffering for the necessaries of life. Economy has been practiced everywhere. Money has been scarce to pay the moderate cost of an education in our Christian schools. At such times young people are tempted to turn to State institutions which charge no tuition. Under such circumstances as these we would expect quite a decrease in the number of students in attendance upon our schools, as well as a marked decrease in the amount of contributions for the support of such schools.

But upon these points the Annual Report is very encouraging. In the 35 institutions aided, having an attendance of over 3400 students, there has been a falling off in attendance of only 33, or, in other words, the number has been only one per cent. less than the preceding year. When we turn to the Financial Report, we find, instead of a decrease, an increase in the income of the Board from all sources of more than $19,000.

This is something to be devoutly grateful for. While we recognize the good hand of God in this, and the loyalty of many to the interests of Christian education shown by increased gifts to this Board, it should be remembered that this increase is owing in part, at least, to most arduous efforts on the part of the officers of the Board. Realizing the danger they faced a year ago, they made corresponding arrangements, redoubled their efforts, and under the blessing of God saw their income increase from a little over $100,000 last year to nearly $120,000 this year.

But while we are grateful for this increase, $120,000 from all sources, from churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals, can hardly be the measure of the interest of the Presbyterian Church in the Christian education of the great West. It was the opinion of the last General Assembly that the contributions of the churches for this purpose for the past year ought to be $150,000. Less than $120,000 were contributed from all sources for all purposes. The $150,000 for College Aid is needed, greatly needed. Every institution aided by this Board needs more aid in order to do the efficient work this Church wishes them to do. Several institutions are now imperiled because of the terrible drought their regions have suffered. They are in peril through no fault of their own. They have tried to keep the ordinances of God and the requirements of the Church. But suffering and peril have come through the sufferings and perils of their constituencies. God only knows why. May it not be that a special blessing may come to the Church, and to individual givers in the Church, through their coming to the relief of these institutions? "Man's extremity is God's opportunity." But God's opportunity is the Church's opportunity. May the opportunity be improved, and the Church, through this Board, or directly, come to the aid of these suffering institutions.

Not the least of the benefits that have accrued and are to accrue to the Church from the work of the Board is that which it renders by hindering. It is of the utmost importance that our Christian colleges and academies should be started at the right time, in the right place and under the right circumstances. Many rash educational enterprises are suggested by pastors and laymen in our sometimes overzealous West. They ought to be hindered by this Board, with all the energy of the Church behind it. To such important business as this, in consultation with wise men in the field, this Board gives diligent attention.

We are confident that this Board affords the best channel for the gifts of individual Christians and churches to Western institutions, or at all events the best medium of information. It understands the needs of the whole field, visiting it from time to time, and making it a daily study. It would be well, therefore, for the Church to give careful attention to the following modest suggestion of the Board, namely, that "The Board stands modestly ready to inform givers regarding Western Presbyterian institutions for which their gifts are solicited, and to do this without prejudice in favor of those which happen to be among its beneficiaries, regarding the interest of our great Church as paramount."

The saddest fact reported to us by this Board is that over 4400 churches, or about three-fifths of all our churches, made no contribution to this cause the past year. Can it be that so large a proportion of our Church has not a dollar's interest in the Christian education of very large and needy sections of our land?

At the beginning of its Report the Board expresses gratitude for the privilege of serving the Church in what it calls "a work of paramount importance and of growing interest and promise." After examining the facts before us, we believe they have not used too strong language. The work is of paramount importance and of great promise, and therefore deserves the prayers and coöperation, and, in so far as possible, the offerings of every church.

Your Committee would offer the following resolutions:

1. That in the opinion of the General Assembly it is the duty of the Church to take a deeper and more widespread interest in the education of its youth, and that not less than $150,000 should be contributed by churches and Sabbath-schools the ensuing year for the work which this Board has under its supervision.

2. That a Sabbath near the Day of Prayer for Colleges be observed by churches, Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies as Education Day, when the subject of Christian education and the Bible in education shall be considered.*

3. That this Assembly heartily commends the officers and members of this Board for the fidelity, wisdom and success with which they have administered their trust during this year of financial depression.

4. That the Assembly expresses its appreciation of the labors of Christian teachers in the institutions under the care of this Board, and expresses its sympathy for them in the sacrifices they have made and the hardships they have endured out of devotion to the cause of Christian education and the Master whom they serve therein.

5. That the minutes of the Board, so far as written, be approved.

6. That the following members of the Board whose terms of office expire at this time be reëlected, namely: Ministers—Herrick Johnson, D.D., LL.D., William O. Ruston, D.D., W. P. Kane, D.D., and John L. Withrow, D.D.; Laymen—Thomas Kane, Hon. Homer N. Hibbard, L.L.D., Hon. Robert H. MacClellan and W. H. Swift. And that the vacancy in the Board caused by the resignation of Rev. David R. Breed, D.D., be filled by the election of Rev. W. S. Plumer Bryan, D.D.

In behalf of the Committee,

WARREN H. LANDON, Chairman.

The Assembly adjourned to 9 A.M., to-morrow, and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 22, 7.45 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in the interests of Foreign Missions, in the Third Presbyterian Church, in accordance with arrangements duly announced.

THURSDAY, May 23, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

*See Supplementary Report, Saturday, May 25, A.M.

It was made the Order for Friday at 3 o'clock P.M. to hear delegates from Corresponding Bodies.

A telegram was received from the Presbyterian Alliance of Milwaukee, to which an appropriate answer, signed by the Moderator and Stated Clerk, was directed to be sent.

It was made the first Order for Friday A.M., to hear the Report of the Standing Committee on Temperance, and the second Order, to hear the Report of the Standing Committee on Church Polity.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report on the Reference of Papers, which was accepted, and its recommendations adopted, as follows:

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures report that they have received from the Stated Clerk, Papers Nos. 189–201, which they recommend for reference as follows:

To the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures:

Overture No. 196, being a Memorial from the Presbytery of Monmouth, with reference to the Commemoration of the Ordination of the Rev. John Boyd, in 1705.

Overture No. 198, being a Memorial from Mr. W. P. Schryver on Young People's Societies.

To the Standing Committee on Finance:

Overture No. 189, being a Memorial from the Ecclesiastical Peace Conference on Arbitration.

Overture No. 200, being the Report of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System for the year ending May 1, 1895.

Overture No. 201, being a Memorial with reference to Loans to the Farmers of Nebraska, from the Presbytery of Hastings.

To the Standing Committee on Temperance:

Overture No. 191, being a Memorial from J. H. Stevenson against the Appointment to Office of Persons of Intemperate Habits.

Overture No. 197, being a Memorial on Government Licenses for the Sale of Liquor.

To the Standing Committee on Home Missions:

Overture No. 199, being a Memorial from the Woman's Executive Committee of Home Missions on a Popular Meeting.

To the Standing Committee on Correspondence:

Overture No. 193, being a Communication from the Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches, on the Sixth General Council of the Alliance.

Overture No. 195, being a Memorial from the Franco-American Committee of Evangelization on the Evangelization of France.

To the Standing Committee on Aid for Colleges:

Overture No. 194, being a Memorial from the Trustees of Albany Collegiate Institute on the Transfer of the Institution.

To the Special Committee on Church Unity:

Overture No. 192, being a Memorial from the General Committee on Federation on the Plan of Federation.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures further reported on the Overtures referred to them by the Assembly, as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully report:

Overtures Nos. 1–45, on Minutes to all Elders and Sessions, from certain Presbyteries.* It is recommended that no action be taken for the following reasons:

1. Because of the great expense which would be involved.

2. Because the object to be attained, the increase of intelligent interest in and the efficiency of church work, can be better accomplished by the circulation of the Assembly Herald. Adopted.

Overture No. 46, on Reduced Representation in General Assembly, from the Presbytery of Allegheny. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 130, from the Presbytery of Geneva, on the reception by Presbytery of the Rev. J. Jones Lawrence, a foreign minister. It is recommended that the request be granted, to take effect at the close of the customary year of probation. Adopted.

Overture No. 134, from the Presbytery of Platte, asking, "When a licentiate has passed his examination for ordination before a stated meeting of Presbytery, regularly opened with a sermon, and is to be ordained at that meeting, is it necessary that another and special sermon be preached 'by a member of Presbytery' at the immediate hour of ordination?" It is recommended that the matter be left to the judgment of Presbyteries. Adopted.

Overture No. 135, on a Special Presbyterian Day, from the Presbytery of West Chester. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 136, on Individual Communion Cups, from the Presbytery of Winona. The following answer is recommended:

The General Assembly sees no sufficient reason to change the primitive and historic method of administering the Lord's Supper, by the introduction of what is known as "the individual communion cup," and urges upon its churches not to make this change. Adopted.

Overture No. 140, on the Recognition of the Salvation Army as a Church, from the Presbytery of Denver. It is recommended that the Assembly recognize with thankfulness the work done by the Salvation Army. But as they make no claim to be a Church, no action is necessary. Adopted.

* See for names of Presbyteries, p. 35.

Overtures Nos. 147 and 172, on Monthly Payment of Salaries of Home Missionaries, from the Presbytery of Utah and the Synod of Illinois. It is recommended that the request be granted. Adopted.

By vote of the Assembly it was ordered that the salaries of teachers in the employ of the Home Mission Board be also paid monthly.

Overture No. 142, on Standing Rules for Presbyteries and Sessions, from the Presbytery of Olympia. It is recommended that the Overture be referred to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly to report to the next Assembly. Adopted.

Overture No. 145, on Mission Work by Students under the care of the Board of Education, from the Presbytery of Lake Superior. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 150, on the Day of Prayer for Colleges, from the Presbytery of New Brunswick.

Upon examination of the facts, your Committee finds the following to be true:

1. The Day of Prayer, as it is now, the third Thursday of January, falls in the midst of the midyear examinations of many colleges.

2. Churches have their midweek meetings on different evenings, and therefore it is impossible to have a uniform observance of the day.

3. At the Eastern Presidential Congress of the Y. M. C. A. College Department, there were representatives of Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Amherst, Williams, Wesleyan, Brown, Dartmouth, Columbia, Cornell, Hamilton, Colgate, Rochester, Syracuse, Union and others present. It was unanimously voted that the present day was inopportune and unadvisable. A vote taken on which was the best day resulted as follows:

First week of March,	1 vote.
Second Thursday of January,	6 votes.
Second Sunday of January,	20 votes.

4. Dr. Ray, Secretary of the Board of Aid for Colleges, approves of a change.

5. Only one of the faculties of these colleges have had an opportunity to endorse the change, namely Princeton. The vote upon the question by the clerical members of the faculty was unanimous for the second Sunday in January.

We recommend that the Overture be answered by the Assembly changing the Day of Prayer for Colleges to the second Sabbath of January. Adopted.

Overture No. 152, from the Presbytery of New York, on the duty of Presbytery in the case of certain theological students, viz.:

"The Presbytery of New York overtures the General Assembly to instruct it in its relation to its duty towards students applying to be taken under its care, who are pursuing or purpose to pursue their studies in theological seminaries respecting whose teaching the General Assembly disavows responsibility."

The Committee recommend that the following answer be given:

We recognize the general principle that a young man should stand on his merits, as revealed by examination, for entrance into the Presbyterian ministry, yet:

1. It is the genius of the whole Presbyterian system to educate its ministers through careful training and Presbyterial supervision, "and to make effectual provision that all who are admitted as teachers be sound in the faith" (Form of Gov., Sec. 5, Chap. I).

2. Our book requires that, "except in extraordinary cases," before licensure the candidate "shall have studied divinity at least two years under some approved divine or professor of theology" (Form of Gov., Sec. 6, Chap. xiv).

3. The General Assembly of 1806 recommended every Presbytery under their care "to inspect the education of these youth (those preparing for the ministry), during the course of both their academic and theological studies, choosing for them such schools, seminaries and teachers, as they may judge most proper and advantageous; so as eventually to bring them into the ministry well furnished for their work" (Baird's Digest, p. 398).

4. The General Assembly of 1894 affirmed, that it is the privilege of the Presbytery to direct "the education of their students within reasonable limits, in schools approved by the General Assembly, and to prohibit their attendance at institutions disapproved by the same" (Minutes, 1894, p. 195).

Therefore, inasmuch as obedience to the Constitution of the Church is obligatory on all Presbyteries, we recommend that, in accordance with the provisions of the Form of Government above cited, the Presbytery of New York be instructed and enjoined not to receive under its care for licensure, students who are pursuing or purpose to pursue their studies in theological seminaries respecting whose teaching the General Assembly disavows responsibility. Adopted.

Overture No. 154, from the Presbytery of West Jersey, which asks that Secretaries of the Boards, and the officers of the Assembly who are receiving regular salaries from the General Assembly, shall not become Stated Supplies of pastorless churches, or receive remuneration for their services from the churches. The Committee recommend that no action be taken on this Overture. The reasons are:

So long as these officers are ministers of the Gospel and called of God to proclaim the message of salvation, and are in good standing in the Church, no human power, either civil or ecclesiastical, should be exerted to restrain them. Their employment as Secretaries and officers of this Assembly ought rather to be an additional incentive to them to preach the Word on the Sabbath, because their daily work is so intertwined and connected with the Gospel message, that they would naturally and easily fall into the efficient preaching of the Gospel on the Sabbath. If they preach, what good reason can be given for their not receiving compensation? The Scriptures abound in admonitions that those who preach the Gospel shall live by it. Adopted.

Overture No. 155, on the Reduction of the Expenses of the Boards, from the Presbytery of Westchester. It is recommended, that since the facts stated in the Overture are confessedly not accurate, no action be taken. Adopted.

Overtures Nos. 102, 158–161, 173 and 174, from the Presbyteries of Omaha, Hudson, Jersey City, Lima, Maumee, Minnewaukon, and the Synod of North Dakota, asking that the Salary of the Stated Clerk shall be reduced, one Overture fixing it at $1000 and expenses, the others simply asking for a reduction.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures report that no action be taken on any of these Overtures, for the reasons that—

The Stated Clerk is really the administrative arm of the Church, and is in a peculiar sense the officer of the General Assembly. To him all correspondence is now addressed during the whole church year. The amount of work he does is beyond computation in mere dollars and cents, because, in his peculiar work, peculiar gifts are required to make a successful Stated Clerk. The Minutes of the Assembly must be arranged and published promptly, the correspondence of the Church carried on effectively, the place of meeting of the Assembly must be arranged for, and plans of transportation, price of tickets, entertainment provided, and the money collected and disbursed to pay for all these things.

For many years the Assembly was handicapped as to place of meeting, number of Commissioners and length of sessions, because of want of money, and sometimes the Assembly adjourned in debt. Of late years matters have changed. The Stated Clerk, by his arrangements with the railroads, gains every year thousands of dollars to the Assembly, yet carries the Commissioners to the place of meeting and home again with safety and comfort. In this particular he more than saves his present salary.

The work he does in correspondence would take the labor of an ordinary man, whose time alone would be worth $1200 a year, but add to this question of mere time, the peculiar adaptedness to the work, inborn ability to do it effectively and properly, and the result is you get the time and the talented services of a man for whom $3000 is a small compensation. The General Assembly, we take it, wants its work done, but done effectively, and when we get a Stated Clerk who can fill the position and do the work as we want it done, especially when in the way in which he does it he saves more than his salary, why should he not receive the market price for his work and skill?

Moreover, the Stated Clerk is an officer of the General Assembly, and the Assembly must determine for itself what is a fair compensation for his services, in view of the responsibilities of his position and the work which the Assembly demands that he shall perform. Adopted.

Overtures Nos. 162 and 165–167, asking for a Column in the Statistical Reports, etc., for Young People's Societies, from the Presbyteries of Iowa, Spokane, New Castle and Fargo. It is recommended that, while recognizing the importance of the work of these societies, owing to the expense which would be involved in granting the request, no action be taken. Adopted.

Overtures Nos. 163 and 164, with reference to Contributions to the Work of the Boards, by the Young People's Societies, asking that the Boards, with the exception of the Home and Foreign Mission Boards, be instructed that such contributions should be made through the ordinary congregational channels. It is recommended, that the matter be left to the judgment of the sessions of the particular churches. Adopted.

The Committee further recommend, in view of the several propositions submitted relative to Young People's Societies, that the Moderator of the General Assembly appoint a Special Committee of eleven members, seven of whom shall be ministers, to consider the whole subject of Young People's Societies and their relations to the Church, and report to the next General Assembly. Adopted.

Overture No. 168, on the Disastrous Freeze in Florida, from the Presbytery of East Florida. It is recommended that the Assembly express its sympathy for those who have suffered by this calamity, but that the way is not clear to propose action for practical relief. Adopted.

Overture No. 186, asking for an Amendment to the Form of Government with a view to the Abolition of the Latin Exegesis required of Candidates for Licensure, from the Presbytery of New Albany. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 188, on a Change of Boundary Lines, from the Synod of North Dakota. It is recommended that the following action be taken:

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly, this twenty-third day of May, 1895, that the north line of the South Dakota Synod and the south line of the North Dakota Synod shall be the seventh standard parallel, so making the lines of these two Synods coterminous with the lines of the States within which they are located. Adopted.

In behalf of the Committee,

S. A. MUTCHMORE, Chairman.

The Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the Overtures on the Reduction of the Annual Apportionments for the Expenses of the Assembly was made the second Order for Friday A.M., and their Report on the Overtures on Biennial and Triennial Sessions of the Assembly, the fourth Order for the same day.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Church Erection was made the third Order for this afternoon.

It was Resolved, That the addresses of Chairmen of Committees be hereafter limited to fifteen minutes, and of Commissioners to five minutes.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Benevolence was presented and accepted, and, after addresses by the Chairman of the Standing Committee, Rev. Henry H. Jessup, D.D., the Chairman of the Permanent Committee, Rufus S. Green, D.D., and others, was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Standing Committee on Benevolence have read with deep interest the Sixteenth Annual Report of the Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence, presented to this Assembly, and would beg leave to call attention to its salient points, as affecting the entire benevolent work of the Church.

1. The Report alludes to the death of one of its members, the Rev. Charles S. Pomeroy, D.D., who was for seven years its Chairman. During that period the benevolence of the Church increased from $10,169,401, in 1884, to $13,961,211, in 1891, and the average gift per member increased from $16.51 to $17.30.

All who knew Dr. Pomeroy will cordially concur in the sentiment, that "the Committee desires to record its profound sense of loss in the removal of so efficient a co-worker, and its heartiest appreciation of the work he did in leading the Church towards a true, because a Biblical beneficence."

2. The Report calls attention to a decrease in the total gifts of the Church to benevolent objects, for the first time since the organization of the Systematic Beneficence Committee in 1879. The apparent decrease is $44,829.

Four of the Boards record gains, viz.:

Home Missions,	$31,570 00
Foreign Missions,	23,566 00
Sabbath-school Work,	8,036 00
Aid for Colleges, etc.,	60,478 00
Total,		$123,650 00

Four report losses, viz.:

Education,	24,937 00
Church Erection,	128,116 00
Ministerial Relief,	8,471 00
Freedmen,	6,955 00
Total,		168,479 00
Net loss,		$44,829 00

But it should be borne in mind that the Board of Church Erection received in legacies last year the sum of $228,143.77, and this year only $70,000, a difference in favor of last year of $158,143.77. Except for this difference in legacies we should be able to report this year an increase of more than $100,000 in the total receipts of the Boards. It speaks well for the Church and for the power of a living Christianity that such a record has been made during a year unparalleled for a generation in its financial distress.

3. The Report then turns to the receipts from the Living Church, which show a decided improvement.

A Pittsburgh pastor recently remarked to his congregation, that in view of the large proportion of legacies of the dead as compared with gifts of the living received by our Boards, it might ere long become necessary to pray that the Lord would call to Himself more of His servants, that their property might be available to the Church and the world, and that it might sometimes be true that "a dead Presbyterian would be more profitable than a living one."

It is gratifying, therefore, to observe that the living members have increased their gifts, to five of the Boards, by the sum of $99,741, viz.:

Foreign Missions,	$75,758 00
Ministerial Relief,	12,422 00
Aid for Colleges,	4,011 00
Sabbath-school Work,	3,956 00
Education,	3,594 00
Total,		$99,741 00
Home Missions loses,	$28,446 00
Church Erection loses,	8,772 00
Freedmen loses,	717 00
Net increase,		$61,806 00

4. It is most gratifying also to notice that the number of contributing churches has largely increased. There is a gain in every Board excepting the Board of Education, which has lost ninety-three collections. The total gain in the number of contributions is 1577, less 93, leaving a net gain of 1484.

The non-contributing churches (p. 4) are:

For Home Missions,	1236	increase	12
" Foreign Missions,	2000
" Education,	3771
" Sabbath-school Work,	2439	increase	127
" Church Erection,	3358	"	101
" Ministerial Relief,	3302	"	390
" Freedmen,	3042	"	125
" Aid for Colleges,	3112	"	822
	22,260		1577
Decrease, Education,			93
Net Increase,			1484

Total churches,	6947
Giving to Foreign Missions,	4947	not,	2000
" " Home Missions,	5711	"	1236

5. We cannot emphasize too strongly the "fundamental principles of Biblical beneficence" as urged in this Report. The divine plan in all things is the safest and most efficient. It is that we give as stewards of the Lord, regularly, systematically, honestly and proportionately. "System in giving has received of late years much emphasis, and with great advantage to the treasury of the Church. We need now to advance a step and lay a holy stress upon proportion." The New Testament rule is, "as God has prospered." "A man who gives a cent a week where he ought to give a dollar is systematic, but he is cheating the Lord weekly out of ninety-nine cents. Giving systematically less than we ought is not true systematic giving. Here the rich and the poor stand on a level. The measure of giving is 'as God has prospered us.' Let us free our minds from the bondage of amounts and look to the percentage or proportion given. This high principle should be guided by the support of habit. Weekly giving on the Lord's day is the God-given plan for the Church of Christ. Let the whole Church adopt this the divine method of beneficence, and there will be no further need of special means and devices for the purpose of raising needed funds."

The plan already adopted in so many of our churches of fully recognizing offerings as a part of divine worship, and the use of special prayer of thanksgiving to God in connection with the receiving of offerings, is one of the most impressive parts of public worship, and is calculated to elevate and hallow this part of divine service as a privilege and a benediction. The recommendation by the last General Assembly of a week of special self-denial, possibly in imitation of the heroic yet spasmodic offerings of the Salvation Army, who have in this way, out of their poverty, raised extraordinary sums of money, is as it were an admission that we as a Church have not reached the standard of our high calling of God, in the matter of regular, proportionate, constant offerings to the Lord. Whatever may have resulted from the self-denial week last month, it is truly observed by the Report that "what the Church needs most is not one week of special self-denial but fifty-two weeks in every year; not self-denial that consists in omitting certain articles of diet or raiment for a brief period, but that self-denial which so shapes the life as a whole and continually, that the whole tithe is regularly brought to the Lord's treasury. If the provisions of Chap. vi of our Directory for Worship could be introduced into every church, if sessions and congregations would adopt the divine method of giving 'upon the first day of the week as God has prospered,' then the treasuries of the Boards would be full."

6. We come now to the final practical recommendation of the Report, which, if faithfully carried out by the whole Church in connection with proportionate and systematic giving all along the line, would speedily fill the treasury of the Lord, and end forever our periodic embarrassments and reverses.

It is the plan of apportionment of the sum total needed for all our benevolent missionary work at home and abroad among the several churches, by the Presbyteries. This is in no sense an assessment. The late Dr. Pomeroy and the Assembly's Special Committee have reiterated the fact that an assessment was neither intended nor desired.

The plan was clearly stated by the Assembly's Standing Committee on Benevolence last year as follows: "General Assembly expects each of its Synods, Presbyteries and churches to give its just share of the funds needed to prosecute the work of the Boards of the Church." No Christian man, or church, or Presbytery, or Synod would be satisfied with doing less than its just share. Our churches would be glad to know, and ought to know, what is, approximately at least, their fair and just share in the benevolent offerings of the Church. Many churches are not doing their just share. The blanks in the statistical columns show that many are doing nothing. "The deficits in the treasuries of our Boards are due to the failure of so many to recognize the manly, to say nothing of the Christian, principle of doing one's 'just share.'" This failure, your Committee is convinced, would cease to exist, if each pastor with the approval of his Session would say to his people (see A on p. 6 of Report): "The practical difficulty lies in the proper determination of what is the 'just share' of each Presbytery, and the apportionment of that share among its several churches." It has been proposed that the valuation of church property as per the Census of 1890 (reported in the Minutes of 1892, pp. 751–754) be taken as a reasonably fair basis of estimate. But this valuation is constantly changing, and the amount expended in congregational expenses which can be known from year to year is suggested as a better basis on which to reckon. We cordially commend the suggestion of the Committee, "That the wisest course would be to place the responsibility of making an apportionment for itself and its churches upon each Presbytery. Certainly this course would remove the objection that General Assembly is purposing to make an assessment."

The principle of apportionment, besides being endorsed by General Assembly, has received the approval of fourteen Synods, and possibly others. They are Baltimore, California, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Missouri, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania and Washington. The Committee would also state that they have examined the accounts of the Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence, and found them correct, with a balance on hand of $71.06. We recommend the Assembly to adopt the following resolutions, viz.:

Resolved, 1. That the Rev. W. H. Hubbard, take the second place on the Assembly's Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence, rendered vacant by the death of Dr. C. S. Pomeroy, and that the Rev. R. F. Coyle, D.D., of Oakland, California, be added to the Committee.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly heartily endorse the Assembly Herald, to whose wide distribution, moderate cost, and efficient management, is undoubtedly owing the fact of an increase of 1484 to the number of contributing churches to the Boards of the Church during the past year.

We would, therefore, recommend, that the Committees on Systematic Beneficence in the Synods and Presbyteries be requested to promote the distribution of the Assembly Herald in all the churches, as information is the basis of all systematic giving to our Boards.

Resolved, 3. That the same sum as last year, viz., $1000, be appropriated for the work of the Assembly's Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence for the coming year.

We regard this appropriation as a very moderate one, in view of the fact that the Committee has sent out during the year about 50,000 of its printed documents, and proposes, during the coming year, to issue monthly documents at a merely nominal cost, which it is hoped will prove a great stimulus to the churches, and a considerable help to the Boards.

Resolved, 4. That General Assembly would repeat its resolution of last year, viz., that it "expects each of its Synods, Presbyteries and churches to give its just share of the funds needed to prosecute the work of the Boards of the Church," and accordingly directs the Assembly's Committee on Systematic Beneficence to make an apportionment to the different Presbyteries of the various amounts recommended by this Assembly, including all the combined agencies of the Church.

This apportionment shall be based upon the average percentage of the congregational expenses and total offerings made by the Presbyteries during the past two years, less all bequests, and shall be forwarded to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery; and that each Presbytery, through its Committee on Systematic Beneficence, or in such other way as in its wisdom it may deem best, undertake the raising within its bounds for the Boards of the Church, such a sum as it considers, in view of its ability and their needs, its fair share of the whole amount required; and that each church be informed by Presbytery of the sum requested from it for each Board; it being understood that this is a minimum, and that the wealthier churches, by their additional free-will offerings, be encouraged to supplement what may be lacking through the failure of remote and feeble churches, to contribute to the general treasury of the Church.

In behalf of the Committee,

HENRY H. JESSUP, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Benevolence also reported on Overture No. 141, on Contributions to the Boards, from the Presbytery of Athens, recommending that no action be taken. The Report was adopted.

The Committee also reported on Overture No. 139 from the Presbytery of Chicago, on Proportionate Giving, as follows:

The Presbytery of Chicago, having sent an Overture to this Assembly, and the same having been referred to the Standing Committee, in which the Assembly is asked to recommend to Synods and Presbyteries a "Plan of Systematic and Proportionate Giving" (already recommended by the Presbytery of Chicago and the Synod of Illinois for the furtherance of their own beneficence) a copy of which accompanies the Overture (published by P. Sinclair, 387 S. Leavitt St., Chicago). We would recommend that all our ministers and elders examine carefully this admirable Plan.

The Committee was further directed to report to the Assembly in the matter of the apportionment of undesignated contributions.

It was Resolved, That the ministers of such churches as do not take collections for the Boards of the Church be called on by their Presbyteries to give their reasons therefor.

The Judicial Committee reported as follows:

Judicial Case No. 4, being the appeal of J. A. Cooper against a decision of the Synod of Pennsylvania. The Committee would recommend that the Synod of Pennsylvania be sustained in refusing to entertain the appeal of one J. A. Cooper vs. Presbytery of Erie, on the ground that there is no evidence to show that Synod was incorrect in its statements (see p. 30, Minutes, Synod Penna.). Adopted.

Judicial Case No. 6, in the matter of the appeal of the Rev. J. C. Bose, against an action of the Synod of India, your Committee would respectfully report that we have examined all the papers placed in our hands, and do not find the appeal in order. It does not appear that written notice of an appeal, with a specification of the errors alleged, was given within ten days after the judgment had been rendered to the Clerk of the Judicatory appealed from. Your Committee, therefore, would recommend that no action be taken. Adopted.

The Assembly took recess until 2 o'clock P.M., and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 23, 2 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The following Special Committee on Young People's Societies was announced:

Ministers—David R. Breed, D.D., Maitland Alexander, W. S.

P. Bryan, D.D., William L. McEwan, D.D., J. M. Barkley, Loyal Y. Graham, D.D., J. P. Fowler, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Henry T. Nash, Richard P. Ernst, James Yereance and H. M. Rossiter.

The Report of the Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work was presented, and, after addresses by J. C. McClintock, D.D., Chairman of the Committee, E. R. Craven, D.D., Secretary, and Robert N. Willson, President of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, was adopted as follows:

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work respectfully reports as follows:

1. We record with sorrow the decease of the senior member of the Board, Mr. Archibald McIntyre, on the 16th of November, 1894. For fifty-four years Mr. McIntyre was an active and efficient member of the Board. He was the last surviving corporate member of the original Board of Trustees, incorporated in 1847. It is justly due his memory that we record this affectionate tribute to the sterling integrity, the Christian courtesy, and the long and valuable services of this faithful servant of the Church.

2. The Board has submitted to the Committee the records of the proceedings of the three departments, under which its work has been conducted since its reorganization in 1887, together with the minutes of the monthly and called meetings of the Board, its printed Annual Report and balance sheet. These records exhibit, in detail, all the transactions of the Board in its Missionary, Editorial, and Business departments. They are clear, explicit, full, admirably arranged and kept. It is with the liveliest satisfaction that your Committee has inspected the evidence here afforded of the careful business methods, the economy of administration, the close oversight of all parts of the work, and the laborious attention given to the management of the great trust which the Assembly has put into the hands of this Board. It deserves and should have the fullest confidence of the whole Church. Here is a remarkable exhibit—a missionary and benevolent agency of the Church, which not only takes charge of the funds collected from the churches, and donated by individuals, and puts them to work in one of the grandest and most fruitful of all missionary enterprises, but absolutely pays its own way in doing so. Without taking a single dollar from the contributions of little child or wealthy donor, for running expenses, it not only puts dollar for dollar into the work, but makes every dollar you give larger by thirteen cents, out of the profits of its own labors. We think all the Church ought to know that here is a Missionary Board that, while nobly serving the Church, is paying its own current expenses and blessing God for the opportunity and privilege of doing so.

3. The Missionary Department.—The contributions to the Missionary department of the Board for the past year from all sources, including interest on permanent funds, aggregate $129,- 989.58, an increase over last year of $5202.28. Of this amount $25,183.16 have been turned over to the Missionary department by the Business or Publishing department—two-thirds of the profits for the year. The increase in the contributions of Sabbath-schools over the previous year is $9188.69; but we regret to record that the church collections fell off $5394.18. This, in the opinion of your Committee, would not have happened had our ministers and elders taken pains to inform themselves and their churches of the actual needs and magnificent opportunities and results of this work. Although more was given to this cause last year than ever before, yet the amount fell $70,000 short of what the Assembly of former years approved, as the amount the Church ought to put into this work, as the least sum adequate to the present pressing needs. The devotion, zeal, and wise management of the Board in this part of its work appear, when we remember that it is the growth of only eight years. From nothing it has developed in that short time, under the supervision of the Board, to its present splendid proportions; and we gladly recognize here the earnestness, fidelity, and self-sacrificing spirit of the Synodical and Presbyterial missionaries who have carried out the plans of work in the field. The fruits of their labors are their best praise. During the year 95 missionaries have been employed—12 temporarily, and 83 permanently. From April 1, 1894, to April 1, 1895, these missionaries organized 1084 new schools and reorganized 254, with 44,004 scholars and 5455 teachers. That this work is abiding in its results appears from the fact that of the 870 schools organized the previous year, 756 reported this year, or 87 per cent. Fifty churches were organized out of this work, in which the harvest of the Sabbath-school sowing has been garnered.

The distribution of religious literature, house-to-house visitation, and evangelistic work have been actively carried on. The missionaries have visited 82,348 families and distributed 17,357,726 pages of tracts and periodicals, and 38,958 volumes of books. Much has also been accomplished for the improvement of the instruction given in our Sabbath-schools through the organization of normal classes, and Synodical and Presbyterial Sabbath-school Institutes conducted by trained and experienced workers, to the success of which Dr. Worden has contributed invaluable assistance. We recommend the continuance of such efforts to promote a higher grade of teaching in our schools. What has been accomplished in the limited field occupied, and by the small band of missionaries engaged, only shows what can be done when our Church enters fully into this open door of opportunity. A Sabbath-school missionary for every Presbytery would not be in excess of the need; and in many of our large cities more than one might be profitably employed. We do not disparage what has been done by other agencies in the field: God bless them and prosper their work. But we submit that it is better to work through the agency of the Church, which can take care of the results of the work, gather them into permanent organizations, and exercise over them continued and loving care—impossible to the undenominational or union work. There is no force in the plea for non-denominational work as being better adapted to reach the masses. People will love the agency that cares for them; they will love the Presbyterian Church, and come into it gladly, if the Presbyterian Church proves that she loves them and seeks their good. So we urge our people to stand loyally by their own Church agency for this work, and to give what they have for this cause through our own Board, assuring them that this is not only right and wise, but that it is also the most fruitful use they can make of their means.

From various sources it comes to the knowledge of your Committee that many of our Sabbath-schools are not being trained in the matter of systematic giving for the benevolent work of the Church. Many of our schools are left by the particular churches to which they belong, without any proper provision for their support. The schools are left to provide the funds for their current expenses; and instead of the intelligent interest and affection of the children being centred upon the need of a perishing world, all is centred in self-care. No more should parents expect their little children to pay for their own bread, clothes, and school-books than should the Church expect them to bear the expense of their instruction in the Sabbath-school. We plead with our Presbyterian Church to make the Sabbath-school a training school in methods and objects of Christian benevolence, to the end that our young people may understand the work, and love the great Boards of our Church—not part, but all of them.

4. The Editorial Department.—The periodicals and Lesson Helps prepared and published under the supervision of this department of the Board are fully described in the printed report which has been presented to the Assembly. In the matter of Lesson Helps there is little to be desired. Our Church is to be congratulated on the possession of the best. There is nothing now in the complaint, so often heard in former years, that Presbyterian Lesson Helps are too expensive. A careful comparison with the price of the "Helps" published by the leading houses in this business, shows that our Board is furnishing better goods for less cost; and if this were not enough, it is giving free of all cost, supplies to needy schools. There is no shadow of justification, or even excuse, for patronizing irresponsible concerns whose supplies would be dear at any price. We therefore earnestly recommend the use in all our schools of our own Presbyterian Lesson Helps and periodicals. Two other matters we beg to bring to the careful consideration of the Board: namely, first, the call for some periodical to meet the needs of such organizations as the Young People's Societies, Boys' Brigades, Men's Leagues and Brotherhoods, and kindred branches of Christian activity, which have of late developed with such possibilities for service in the kingdom. These organizations need to be guided in safe paths, and in their formative period kept in closest sympathy with the Church. It is ruinous to ignore these movements of our times, or to neglect them. The Church must lead and direct them or suffer the consequences. Might not the monthly, Forward, which the Board is preparing to enlarge and publish as a weekly after January 1, 1896, be utilized for this purpose? The second matter which seems to us to demand the careful consideration of the Board is the increase of the number of new books suitable for Sabbath-school libraries, to the end that our schools may be supplied with a literature which has passed the inspection and received the approval of competent judges loyal to Presbyterianism.

The new Hymnal, which has been in course of preparation for two years past, is now so far advanced that its publication is promised in a few months. Sample pages of the hymns and tunes are in the hands of the Assembly, from which a good idea of the style and quality of the work can be gained. The proof sheets of the whole book, except the last nine pages, have been submitted to your Committee, and have been examined by us with great interest and with growing satisfaction. The Committee in charge of its preparation, consisting of Judge Willson, President of the Board; Dr. Craven, the Secretary; Mr. Franklin L. Sheppard, Chairman of the Business Committee, and the Rev. L. F. Benson, have aimed to make this Hymnal perfect in its kind. It has been with them a labor of love, to the performance of which they have brought rare qualifications, and upon which they have bestowed conscientious and unmeasured care. From our examination of the book we are convinced that it will at once and easily take rank with the best books of praise ever offered to the Christian public; and we feel that the Assembly and the Church owe a debt of gratitude to these gentlemen for the service they have done so well.

5. The Business Department.—Your Committee has already referred to the careful and efficient management, the approved business methods, perfect system, and satisfactory results of the Business department of the Board. The only additional matter to which we desire to call the attention of the Assembly is the purchase of a site for a new Publication House, a forward step made imperative by the increase of business, to accommodate which the present quarters are inadequate. One of the best business locations in the city of Philadelphia has been purchased; and the funds realized from the sale of the old property will, with funds the Board now has on hand, amply suffice to put up a building suited to the uses of the Board, and also furnishing accommodations to the other Boards located in Philadelphia. This will all be accomplished at a very modest cost, and without the creation of any permanent debt. Your Committee having examined with care the full report on this subject in the minutes of the Board, heartily recommend the approval of the same.

6. Recommendations.—We offer the following recommendations for adoption by the Assembly:

(1) That Ruling Elder George Hale, M.D., be elected as a member of the class of 1897, in the place of Mr. Archibald McIntyre, deceased; and the Rev. Benjamin L. Agnew, D.D., in the place of Rev. William P. Merrill, resigned, of the class whose term will expire June, 1895. Also the reëlection of the following members of the Board whose term of office expires in June, 1895: Ministers—Charles A. Dickey, D.D., Robert M. Patterson, D.D., LL.D., Louis F. Benson, Benjamin L. Agnew, D.D.; Elders—Robert H. Hinckley, John H. Watt, William H. Scott, Charles H. Biles.

(2) In view of the urgent calls for Sabbath-school missionaries, from many Presbyteries where the necessity of this work is being realized, and of the pressing need of fields as yet untouched and which cannot be entered until the resources of the Board are increased, the Assembly recommends our churches and schools to contribute at least $200,000 to this work for the ensuing year.

(3) We approve the various agencies employed in the Sabbath-school department, and commend the same to our churches for generous and prayerful support; and authorize the Board to perfect its organized efforts to increase still further contributions to this work.

(4) That the attention of the Church is again directed to the observance of the second Sabbath of June as Children's Day, and our schools are reminded that a blessed part of the services of this day, is the presentation of offerings to carry on the work of Sabbath-school missions throughout our land.

(5) That the Board be requested to consider the propriety and feasibility of publishing a larger number of fresh, popular, timely books for Sabbath-school libraries; and also to take into consideration the publication of a periodical adapted to the needs of Young People's Societies, Men's Leagues, and kindred organizations for Christian work.

(6) That we heartily recommend the new Hymnal, now approaching completion, to our churches, and express the earnest hope for the general adoption of this collection as the book of praise throughout our Church; and that we record our grateful appreciation of the labors of the Committee in charge of its preparation.

(7) That the minutes of the Board be approved.

J. C. McClintock, Chairman.

The consideration of the Report of the Special Committee on Church Unity was resumed. The Rev. R. M. Patterson, D.D., and the Rev. Joseph T. Smith, D.D., addressed the Assembly. The Report was recommitted, and the Committee continued.

A Memorial on Uniformity of Service in our Churches, presented by Mr. John H. Dey, was referred to the Committee on Polity.

The Standing Committee on Church Erection presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Rev. Samuel W. Boardman, D.D., Chairman of the Committee, and the Rev. Erskine N. White, D.D., Secretary of the Board, was adopted, and is as follows:

It is with deep sorrow that we report the death of the late President of the Board of Church Erection, Rev. Samuel D. Alexander, D.D., which occurred October 26, 1894. Dr. Alexander became a member of the Board in 1872, and its President in 1888. Punctual and regular in his attendance upon its meetings, he presided with dignity, impartiality and courtesy. His tact, wisdom and good judgment as a counselor were highly valued by his associates. His memory is cherished with affectionate respect by all who knew him in the generation which he served so long and so well according to the will of God. Upon November 26, 1894, Rev. David Magee, D.D., for twenty years a member of the Board, was elected President to succeed Dr. Alexander. The history of the Board of Church Erection affords an admirable example of the growth and progress of the Christian Church, in accordance with the injunction, "Lengthen thy cords and strengthen thy stakes." For more than fifty years the Presbyterian Church has extended its work in this direction, and strengthened its modes of business procedure. It has added, from time to time, to the number of the objects which it aids; and has introduced new and more perfect security for the best use of the funds which it administers. Is Christianity declining or the Gospel losing its hold upon the masses, when within the United States for every day in the year, more than twenty new houses of worship are dedicated to the service of Him, whose dominion shall be from sea to sea and from the river unto the end of the earth? Of this vast number of Christian sanctuaries, erected by the different denominations to the glory of their conquering Redeemer, about two for every three days are erected by our own branch of the Church. The Presbyterian Church became, in 1844, in the Old School Branch, under the leadership of that illustrious man, President Eliphalet Nott, the originator of this kind of benevolent work in America. It has continued according to its numbers at the head of this most fruitful benevolence. Up to 1893 it had aided 5264 churches in forty-five States. The total sum granted had amounted to $3,136,628, and the value of church property held by these churches was estimated at $10,397,205. At first by both branches of the Church, and afterward by the united Church, assistance was afforded only for the erection of church edifices. In 1880, however, a new branch of the Board work was inaugurated, in accordance with action taken by the Assembly of 1879, to aid in building chapels in advance of the organization of churches in Utah, New Mexico and Alaska, in connection with the Home Board and Woman's Executive Committee. The charter was amended so as to include this new departure, and six years later still further amended, so that the work might be extended to include the establishment of schools and chapels among the exceptional populations of Mormons, Indians and Spanish-speaking people of the United States (May 10, 1886).

In the same amendment, a clause was inserted to allow the Board to enter in 1886 upon still another department of the work, viz., the erection of manses. Further, a loan fund was inaugurated by the Assembly of 1891, and some new recommendations in respect to the repayment in certain cases, by regular installments, of grants made by the Board, were adopted by the Assembly of 1893. Thus the work has been one of continuous but cautious advancement.

The work of church erection has this peculiar advantage, that it secures a vastly larger amount than it directly administers. About threefold is the usual proportion at first, but afterward the gain often amounts to far more. It awakens hope, it stimulates exertion, it encourages self-denial and liberality. Church erection grants seed for a large harvest; it lays deep foundations on which are to be erected enduring edifices. The harvest returns are often a hundredfold. A church edifice in a new community is a light-house; it throws its illuminating beams far around. It is a bulwark against every evil, and a strong tower for everything good. It preaches the Gospel to every passer-by. Its spire points the whole population to Heaven. The goodly edifice wins men to worship; it forbids Sabbath desecration; it rebukes profanity it pleads for temperance, and purity, and honesty, and every virtue. When school children pass by the churches, however humble, they think of God and of eternity. It is sound doctrine embodied; it is the way of life; it is the gate of heaven.

The infant church, especially in a new community, can scarcely survive without a church edifice. Generally, its erection calls out much self-sacrificing love and prayer, and is followed by a reviving of religion and an ingathering of souls. Almost from the first it begins to be recorded "that this and that man was born there." The little church edifice, whose first record was, perhaps, on the books of this Board, soon has another record on high, which shall be held in everlasting remembrance. It is to the honor of this Board that it does not bring before the Assembly and the Church which it represents much which is new or startling from year to year. It is the same good work conducted on the same well-established principles, only increasing in extent and fruitfulness.

Owing to the financial depression of the last two years, there has been a small decrease in the number of applications to the Board for aid; especially among the stronger churches which apply for loans rather than grants. They have, apparently, in many instances postponed the attempt to build until a more prosperous season. There are indications, however, that many of these churches will soon apply for assistance. There has been, also, doubtless from this same financial depression, a small but noticeable shrinkage in the contributions of the churches. The number of contributing churches, however, is a little larger than last year. Nothing but the receipt, during the final month, of one or two unexpected legacies which could be turned into the General Fund, enabled the Board to complete its year without a score of churches uncared for

The Board received during the year 225 applications, of which 178 were for church buildings and 47 for manses. This number is eleven greater than last year, but as fewer large sums have been asked for as loans, the aggregate amount asked is somewhat smaller.

Appropriations from the several Funds of the Board have been made during the year as follows:

1. The General Fund.—This Fund is derived from the contributions of churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals; from interest on invested funds, and from some other sources. Appropriations from this Fund have been made to 155 churches to the aggregate amount of $79,585. Of these 119, amounting to $59,265, were actual grants; and 41, amounting to $20,320, were loans to be repaid according to the arrangement recommended by the Assembly of 1893, in the regular annual contributions to the Board and without interest. This arrangement will obviously tend to a speedier return of loans to the treasury, and also stimulate systematic contributions. These appropriations have been distributed among 29 Synods, 95 Presbyteries, and 37 States and Territories. Minnesota received 16 of these appropriations, Michigan and Nebraska 10 each, Pennsylvania 8, Wisconsin and Washington 7 each. Among the Southern States, North Carolina received 6 and Virginia 4. Special gifts have also been made to 24 churches, amounting to $2683.24.

2. The Loan Fund.—This fund is now established at $245,000, of which $86,225 is represented by mortgages upon church property to which loans have been made. If the whole amount shall be loaned in the same way it is estimated that the annual returns of installments upon the loan will permit of an annual output, in the form of new loans, of about $40,000. The Board has thought it wise, however, to act conservatively, and the average loans for the first three years, since the fund was provided, chiefly by the Stuart legacy, have been only about $35,000 annually. Upon the earlier loans repayments are coming in with a good deal of regularity. During the past year 13 loans, aggregating $26,075 have been made. Of these 3 have been in California, 2 in Oregon and Minnesota, and 1 each in Pennsylvania, Nebraska, Iowa, West Virginia, Maryland and New York.

3. The Manse Fund.—This fund has been increased by an addition of $20,000 from the Stuart legacy and now amounts to about $90,000; sufficient perhaps to meet the demands of this most beneficent work for the present. Forty-one loans aggregating $16,891, and four grants amounting to $600, have been made. The average amount, less than $400, shows how strictly the work is confined to the small churches, so as to provide homes for self-sacrificing pastors, who in many cases would, without such assistance, literally have no place where to lay their heads. These loans have been distributed as follows: Iowa, 7; Kansas and Minnesota, 4 each; North Dakota and Wisconsin, 3 each; Colorado, Indian Territory, Michigan, Nebraska, New York, Ohio and South Dakota, 2 each, and 1 each in Alaska, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Oklahoma, Oregon, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia. Last year more than half the loans were east of the Mississippi. This year thirty-four out of forty-five are west of the river. In the nine years since the inauguration of this work, $138,000 have been loaned or given for the erection of 357 manses. This noble fund, originated by Christian women, has brought inestimable comfort and joy to the families of hundreds of ministers in needy fields and added largely to the efficiency and stability of the pastorate. The whole number of churches reached in the different departments of the Board's work is 257, and the aggregate amount appropriated $125,981. The Board presents with its Annual Report a map of the entire field occupied, exhibiting the exact location of the churches assisted, with appended explanatory tables, alphabetical and Synodical. During the year there have been reported to the Board as completed through its aid, without debt, 182 churches and manses—the total value of which is nearly $560,000. By direction of the General Assembly mortgages are taken as security for every grant and loan. They are in several forms adapted to the several varieties of grants or loans, and now amount to nearly 4000 in number. Also these mortgages are protected by insurance policies, of which the Board now has the oversight of more than 3000, aggregating $1,750,000.

The Standing Committee would again call attention to the valuable pamphlet of designs for church buildings and manses which the Board furnishes at the nominal price of twenty-five cents; also to the drawings and specifications furnished at a very low cost.

In looking forward to the coming year there is reason to believe that the demands upon the Board will be materially increased. There is now a general conviction that the present year will be one of returning prosperity. If so, the young churches will doubtless resolve to arise and build, and most of them will appeal to the Board for assistance. In view of this probability there is some occasion for anxiety. The receipts for the General Fund from which all grants are made have not increased during the last five years in accordance with the growth and strength of the Church at large; although the number of contributing churches has increased about 15 per cent. The danger of an insufficient provision for new and feeble churches on the frontier and in rural districts, arises in large part from the extraordinary demands made upon the older and stronger Synods and Presbyteries for rapid church extension within their own boundaries, since the larger part of the growth of our population is now in towns and cities. While this pressing work in the cities is of immense importance and should not be neglected, yet it should be remembered that the demands in other parts of the country are constantly increasing. The field now extends to every State and Territory, from the North to the South, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The Indian, the Mexican, the Freedman, the Alaskan, the Canadian in New England, call for aid. The German and Bohemian, Italian and Spanish, Scandinavian and Slav, now pouring into the country, all turn to this Board for help. Will not the stronger Synods, though heavily taxed with their city missions and church extension work at home, yet remember the regions beyond and at least not ask more than they contribute to it—from this Board? Will not the thousands which now contribute nothing to this noble object, awake to its urgent claims? It is believed that double the amount now contributed by the churches could soon be profitably employed in this great beneficence. The desolated portions of Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas, should be especially remembered. The Committee would notice with commendation the great service rendered by the Church at Home and Abroad, and also by The Assembly Herald to this as well as to all the Boards. It is hoped that the Herald may reach every Presbyterian family.

In conclusion, the Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly heartily approve the work of the Board of Church Erection under its present administration.

Resolved, 2. That Synods and Presbyteries be urged to secure, if possible, an annual contribution to this cause from every church under their care.

Resolved, 3. That pastors and Sessions be reminded of their solemn obligations to be faithful to this and to all the Boards of the Church.

Resolved, 4. That in the judgment of this Assembly, not less than $150,000 should be provided for this work during the coming year.

Resolved, 5. That it should be the aim of the larger and stronger Synods to contribute annually to this Board more than they ask from its treasury.

Resolved, 6. That churches making special contributions to particular churches be advised to send such contributions through this Board.

Resolved, 7. That our Sabbath-schools be urged to make contributions to this Board among their annual gifts; these donations to be employed for the erection of chapels for Sabbath-school work on our Home Missionary field.

Resolved, 8. That the Assembly has great satisfaction in the provisions made by the Christian women of the Church to erect manses and secure homes for the families of our ministers. It commends the especial efforts of the kind-hearted women in many of our parishes to secure and pay for such manses, and expresses the hope that their example will be followed in many other churches.

Resolved, 9. That the records of the Board, which have been examined, be approved so far as written.

Resolved, 10. That the Committee recommends that the following members of the Board, whose term of office now expires, be reëlected:

Ministers—Rev. Nathaniel W. Conklin, D.D., Rev. John Hall, D.D., Rev. William A. Holliday, D.D.; Elders—Frederick G. Burnham, E. Francis Hyde, John Sinclair; that Daniel J. Holden be elected to fill the place of Joseph L. Munn, whose engagements prevent his attendance on the meetings of the Board; and that Rev. Charles J. Young, D.D., be elected to fill the unexpired term of Rev. Samuel D. Alexander, D.D., deceased.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

SAMUEL W. BOARDMAN, Chairman.

The Chairman of the Mileage Committee was authorized to pay the traveling expenses of Commissioners, and also to pay to the Stated Clerk the Entertainment and Contingent Funds.

The Asssembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 23, 7.45 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met in accordance with the recommendation of the Committee of Arrangements, to celebrate the quarter-century Anniversary of the Reunion of the Old and New School Branches of the Presbyterian Church, November 12, 1869, in this city. The Moderator of the Assembly presided, aided by the Rev. S. A. Mutchmore, DD., LL.D. Ten ex-Moderators were present as the guests of the Assembly.

Addresses were delivered as follows:

By the Rev. Francis L. Patton, D.D., LL.D., on the "Fundamental Doctrines of the Presbyterian System;" by the Rev. Henry M. Booth, D.D., LL.D., on "The Influence of the Presbyterian Churches on Other Denominations," and by the Rev. William Henry Roberts, D.D., LL.D., on "The Growth and Future of the Reunited Church."

An overflow meeting was held for the same purpose in the First Presbyterian Church; was presided over by the Rev. W. M. Paxton, D.D., LL.D., and was addressed by the above-named speakers in a reverse order.

FRIDAY, May 24, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The following resolutions connected with the Quarter-century Anniversary Fund were presented, and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, 1. That we request of Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., a copy of his admirable address on the "Growth of Presbyterianism During the Past Twenty-five Years," for publication. That the same be issued as a supplement of the Assembly Herald for general distribution throughout our entire Church.

Resolved, 2. That we heartily endorse the suggestion made in the address, that an immediate effort be made to raise one million dollars as an Anniversary Reunion Fund.

Resolved, 3. That as our Church has contributed during these twenty-five years, forty-seven millions of dollars to the missionary work of our Church, and at the present time there remains an indebtedness on this work of about six hundred thousand dollars, that the first contributions that are made to this fund shall go to liquidate this debt, and shall be divided pro rata among the Boards of our Church according to their indebtedness. And that whatever sum is raised over and above this debt, shall be divided among the various Boards according to the established system of apportionment.

Resolved, 4. That a Committee consisting of eighteen ministers and twelve elders shall be appointed by the Moderator to carry out the provisions of the above resolution.

Resolved, 5. That the Rev W. H. Roberts, D.D., be requested to act as Treasurer of the Fund, and be authorized to employ such clerical help as may most efficiently accomplish the desired purpose. And that any expenses, either of the Committee or of Dr. Roberts, shall be borne by the Fund.

Resolved, 6. That acknowledgment of all contributions made to this Fund shall be made through the columns of the Assembly Herald.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures reported, recommending that Overture No. 190, being the application of an African prince for a missionary, be referred to the Board of Foreign Missions. Adopted.

The Standing Committee on Temperance presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Chairman, Rev. Ezra B. Newcomb, Mr. George Irwin, the Recording Secretary of the Permanent Committee, and others, was amended, adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Temperance respectfully reports to the General Assembly that it has carefully examined such reports and papers as have come to its consideration, including the minutes of the Permanent Committee and its current report reviewing its work for the year and the general condition of the temperance cause in the land.

The work of the Permanent Committee has been prosecuted along the lines defined by the past history and deliverances of the Church. Its efforts within the Church have been chiefly through the distribution of printed matter. One new tract has been issued and a beginning has been made in the preparation of tracts in the German language. The work has been hindered by the lack of money. The contributions of churches and individuals have reached but the small total of $1358.38, of which a balance of $49.34 remained on hand, May 1, 1895. Let us be glad that one of the Church agencies reports no debt.

Its efforts have not been confined to work within the Church. It has endeavored, through Presbyteries and Synods, to promote legislation for securing laws requiring temperance instruction in the public schools, particularly in Tennessee and Indiana, the latter being a year ago the only Northern State, and one of the few States in the nation, which had no law on this subject. Within the year such a law has been enacted, and the State no longer occupies "that bad eminence." South Carolina has also recently enacted a law requiring temperance instruction in the schools. In New York, the Synod, through a competent committee, assisted in securing a strengthening amendment of an existing law on this subject by adding a mandatory clause. This amendment is now under consideration by the Governor of that State. It is earnestly hoped that these efforts will result in the completion of this legislation by executive signature and approval. It is a matter of congratulation that the national Government has initiated an investigation into the economic aspects of the liquor problem. Advanced legislation in restraint of the liquor traffic has been enacted in some of the States, notably in Indiana. In some other States the efforts of the liquor interest to secure favorable legislation have been successfully resisted. In this connection we note with pleasure the active and efficient part taken by ministers and members of our Church, especially in the great cities, towards overturning the iniquitous rule of corrupt municipal rings whose chief strength lay, and ever must lie, in an unholy but perfectly natural alliance with the liquor power.

We commend the efforts of the Permanent Committee to secure a better enforcement of liquor laws among the Corn Planter Indians, wards of the national Government, within the Synod of New York, and the endeavor of the Synod of Baltimore to abate the shame of liquor selling within the walls of the national Capitol Building at Washington. We note the correspondence of the Permanent Committee with temperance and religious organizations on the question of a world-wide observance of a "Temperance Sabbath," as inaugurated by our Church, and we recommend further correspondence with these and similar bodies, looking towards more united interest and labor in the common cause. And we would urge our churches to cordially coöperate in the celebration of a "Temperance Sabbath," and suggest for convenience the fourth Sabbath of November.

We commend the work of the Presbyterian Woman's Temperance Association, whose report is submitted in connection with the Permanent Committee's Report.

A general survey of the field shows marked advance in some places, with halts, if not retreats, elsewhere. But the balance of gain is greatest. We are doubtless facing eastward, and the light is increasing toward the perfect day. There is growth, neither so great nor so rapid as desired, but yet growth. It is coming to be the settled conviction of good citizens that the organized liquor interests cannot be successfully fought by skirmishers and sharpshooters, nor by organizations working at cross purposes. The differences of temperance workers and warriors have been the disgrace of the cause. The time has come when such differences of detail must be subordinated to unity of desire and purpose. Those who believe in the broad principle of the abstinence of the individual and the suppression of the traffic must use their combined power to redeem this young nation from this old sin and curse.

When political economists are repeating with no dissenting voice the conclusion that intemperance is the prolific mother of individual and national poverty, of municipal corruption, of crime, of shame, of sorrow, of suffering, of physical, mental and moral decrepitude and degradation; when it is not an open question as to the effect of intemperance upon the body physical and the body politic; when prisons are crowded with the wretched wreckage of manhood and womanhood because of drink, and juvenile reformatories are not enough to care for the blighted offspring of drunken and criminal parents; when any man who knows enough to know that he knows anything knows these things—is it not high time for all who call themselves patriots or Christians to unite in the work of destroying the curse of drink and rescuing its victims? Is it not high time for all who love the country or the Christ to do their honest best against this great iniquity, and if they are Christians to say: "I will oppose the liquor traffic and all its multiform evils with the energy of an earnest manhood which gets its inspiration from on high?"

Christianity must be in the forefront of this war, and thoroughly interested in this work. The blood of Jesus Christ alone can make men clean; the truth of Jesus Christ alone can make men free; the Spirit of Jesus Christ alone can make men strong; and the Church of Jesus Christ, if dominated by His command and intent on His service, is the best temperance society the world has ever seen.

In addition to the recommendations hereinbefore contained, it is recommended;

1. That the following be reëlected members of the Permanent Committee on Temperance, their terms having expired, viz.: Revs. R. D. Wilson, D.D., and C. W. Wycoff, and Elder George F. Irwin; that Elder W. C. Lilly be elected to succeed Elder R. C. Totten, and Rev. W. L. McEwan, D.D., to succeed Rev. J. B. Turner, resigned.

2. That the Permanent Committee arrange, if possible, for a regular presentation of this cause in The Assembly Herald.

3. That the minutes and Report of the Permanent Committee be approved, and it be commended to the churches as deserving a more cordial financial and moral support.

4. That we reaffirm the temperance deliverances of the Assemblies, which in unbroken line for more than eighty years have spoken, with no uncertain sound, the convictions of the Church in favor of total abstinence for the individual and the abolition of the traffic in intoxicants.

5. That while not abating efforts to secure more efficient repressive legislation, there should be increased endeavor to secure by election and appointment to official position men of "clean hands and pure heart, who have not lifted up their soul unto vanity nor sworn deceitfully," and to sustain them in the faithful discharge of their duties. Cordial approval is given to all proper efforts to secure such legislation as will prevent the appointment of any man of known intemperate habits to official position under national, State or municipal authority.

6. Believing that in seeking a legislative panacea for present ills, due consideration is not given to preventive measures, it is urged that the children and youth be instructed more diligently on this subject; that the Church give increased attention to it by teaching and preaching, and by effecting temperance organizations within its own congregations, and subject to its own administration; that education be emphasized as, even more than legislation, an immediate need of the temperance cause, remembering always that the Gospel of Jesus Christ is the power of God unto salvation from this as from all other sins. Presbyteries and Synods are urged to renewed and increased activity along the lines of education and organization.

7. Resolved, That in the judgment of this Assembly, the time has come when Christian men should make their influence felt directly and with power at the ballot box; and that all voters connected with our communion are urged to vote against the granting of licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors.

8. Resolved, That we earnestly urge upon our people the desirability of demanding the enforcement of the liquor laws throughout the land.

9. Resolved, Whereas, it is the duty of the Church of Jesus Christ to avoid even the appearance of evil, and whereas there is a well-grounded belief that danger lies in the use of fermented wine at the communion table, therefore it is the sense of this Assembly that unfermented fruit of the vine fulfills every condition in the celebration of the sacrament.

10. Resolved, That this Assembly request the Permanent Committee on Temperance to publish the address delivered in connection with the presentation of this Report, by Elder George Irwin, and place the same in the hands of the ministers and elders of the Presbyterian Church.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

EZRA B. NEWCOMB, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on the Polity of the Church presented a Report, which was accepted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Church Polity respectfully report on the Overtures referred to them as follows:

Overture No. 143, from the Presbytery of Monroe, asking for a deliverance "as to whether candidates temporarily licensed, e. g., for six months or a year, should be considered and reported as candidates or licentiates, and as to the expediency of adding a constitutional rule for the temporary licensure of candidates for the ministry."

Answer. 1. There is no such thing as the "temporary license" of candidates for the Gospel ministry provided for by the Form of Government, save only as a regular license is temporary, in that it expires at the end of four years (Moore's Digest, p. 401), if not previously ended by the ordination of a licentiate. That which is commonly described by the term "temporary license" is merely an informal permission for a candidate to exercise his gifts, by conducting religious services, for a limited period of time. Therefore, candidates not regularly licensed according to the provisions of the Form of Government, cannot be recorded as licentiates. 2. On the request for an additional constitutional rule, it is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 148, from the Presbytery of Chester, asking whether the Stated Clerk of a Synod who changes his Presbyterial and Synodical connection, terminates thereby his official connection with the Synod as Stated Clerk; and, if so, into whose hands the books, papers and other property of the Synod are to be delivered.

Answer. While the Stated Clerk, whether a member of the Judicatory or not, is only its servant, his official relation therewith terminates by his removal beyond its bounds, and the records, books, etc., should go into the hands of the Permanent Clerk, till a successor is elected, and if there be no Permanent Clerk, then into the hands of the Moderator. Adopted.

Overture No. 149, from the Presbytery of Philadelphia, asking that the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work be instructed to prepare a Manual of Worship and Service, and submit the same for consideration to the Assembly of 1896. Also a paper upon the same subject referred by the Assembly to the Committee.

Answer. It is recommended that no action be taken.

Overture No. 153, from the Presbytery of Bloomington, asking an answer to the following questions: 1. What is a stated supply? 2. What is a vacant church?

Answer. Question 1. The official title "stated supply" is unknown to our system (Moore's Digest, p. 113). Inasmuch, however, as the growing evil has been recognized by the Assembly, in so far as to adopt a rule for the record of stated supplies in its Minutes (see Minutes, 1894, p. 35, Item 5), it is recommended that the Assembly reply to the Overture, that a stated supply is a minister employed by a church, with the authority of Presbytery, for a definite time or period of service.

Answer. Question 2. "Every congregation or church is vacant which has not a pastor duly installed" (Moore's Digest," p. 139). Adopted.

Overture No. 159, from the Presbytery of Los Angeles, asking for such change in our Form of Government as will authorize "The Stated Clerk and Moderator of any Presbytery, to change the time and place of any meeting of Presbytery, when it is impracticable to meet at the time and place to which it stands adjourned.

Answer. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 170, from the Presbytery of Elizabeth, requesting that there be added to Rule 2 for the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries (p. 350, Minutes of General Assembly, 1894) the following words: "Save that where a church has two or more associate pastors, or a pastor with one or more assistants who are members of Presbytery, the Stated Clerk may so deviate from the order of ministerial age as to bring the names of such ministers in immediate succession in his Statistical Report."

Answer. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

In behalf of the Committee,

ROBERT N. ADAMS, Chairman.

It was made the Order for 10 o'clock Saturday morning to hear the Report of the Special Committee on The Assembly Herald.

It was made the second Order for the same day to hear the Report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

The Standing Committee on Benevolence presented a Supplemental Report on the readjustment of the schedule of apportionments, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Benevolence respectfully reports on the subject of a readjustment of the schedule which has heretofore fixed the ratio of distribution of undesignated balances in the offerings of the churches.

After conference with representatives of several of the Boards of the Church, the Committee recommends:

1. That the schedule of distribution of the offerings of the churches be hereafter applied to the entire contributions of the Church, and not as heretofore confined to the undesignated balances.

2. That the schedule be fixed as follows:

Foreign Missions, 33 per cent., as before; Home Missions, 31 per cent., as before; and that the remaining 36 per cent. be divided equally among the other six Boards, 6 per cent. to each.

The changes thus effected will result as follows:

Church Erection,	Old schedule,	8,	New schedule,	6.
Sabbath-school Work,	"	"	3,	"	"	6.
Freedmen,	"	"	5,	"	"	6.
Education,	"	"	5,	"	"	6.
Ministerial Relief,	"	"	9,	"	"	6.
Aid for Colleges,	"	"	6,	"	"	6.

3. The Committee would state that under this new schedule of equal division among six of the Boards, leaving Home and Foreign Missions as they are at thirty-one and thirty-three per cent., the following will be the result on a basis of $3,000,000 to be raised for all the Boards, during the coming year, not including legacies:

	Actual Receipts, 1894–5.	Distribution under new Apportionment.
Home Missions,	$934,260	$930,000
Foreign Missions,	866,378	990,000

In behalf of the Committee,
H. H. JESSUP, Chairman.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 24, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions presented a supplemental Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Home Missions would respectfully offer the following additional recommendations:

1. In answer to Overture No. 199, from the Woman's Executive Committee, it is recommended that the popular meeting under the auspices of the said Executive Committee, to be addressed by Synodical missionaries and other speakers, shall be held each year on the first Sabbath afternoon of the meeting of the General Assembly.

2. That this General Assembly authorize the Board of Home Missions, through the Woman's Executive Committee, at their discretion, to commission women, other than teachers, to do missionary work in the homes of the mountain people of the South, and wherever similar work is demanded.

3. That we would cordially endorse the Assembly Herald, and urge especially upon the churches under the care of this Board the circulation of this cheap paper freighted with the most important news respecting all the work of our Church.

4. That we would respectfully suggest to the General Assembly the reconsideration of the resolution in our former report calling for a special collection to pay the debt of the Board of Home Missions. This is done that a more general and concerted effort may be made to pay the debts of all the Boards.

The urgency for immediate action is so great, especially in the case of the Home Board, that we urge prompt action on the part of our churches, and suggest that they begin this effort at once and avail themselves of all the patriotic sentiments which cluster around the Fourth of July.

The Order of the Day, the Report of the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures, on Overtures Nos. 46, 107 and 131–133, from the Presbyteries of Allegheny, Petoskey, Lackawanna, Freeport, and Philadelphia, on the Subjects of Reduced Representation, Biennial and Triennial Assemblies, was taken up. The answer of the Committee was presented and adopted, as follows:

The Committee, after careful consideration, do not deem it advisable to make any of the proposed changes.

The Committee on Correspondence presented the Delegates from Corresponding Bodies, as follows:

The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America:

Rev. John McNaugher, D.D., Allegheny, Pa.
Rev. Prof. W. G. Morehead, D.D., Xenia, Ohio.
Rev. J. C. Taggart, East Liverpool, Ohio.
Rev. Joseph Kyle, D.D.
Rev. D. R. McDonald, of the Assembly's Com. of Conference.
Mr. William Neely, New York City.
W. B. Gillespie, M.D., Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Waldensian Church of Italy:

Rev. Francesco Rostan.

The General Synod of the Reformed Church in the U. S.:

Rev. John A. Peters, D.D.

The General Synod of the Reformed Episcopal Church:

Rev. William T. Sabine, D.D.

The Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System:
Rev. George D. Mathews, D.D.

After addresses by the Corresponding Delegates, the Moderator responded thereto, and bade the delegates convey to their respective bodies the assurance of the high regard of the Assembly, and its prayers for the blessing of the Head of the Church upon them all.

The Assembly adjourned until 9 o'clock A.M. Saturday, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 24, 7.45 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting in the interest of Temperance was held in the Third Presbyterian Church.

SATURDAY, May 25, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Moderator announced the Rev. William L. McEwan, D.D., Pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., as the Chairman of the Committee of Thirty on the Reunion Anniversary Fund.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures presented an additional Report, which was accepted, as follows:

Overture No. 196, on the Commemoration of the Ordination of John Boyd, which took place at the church on Free Hill, Monmouth county, N. J., in 1705. The Committee recommend the adoption of the following:

That the General Assembly regard with profound satisfaction the celebration of the first ordination by Presbytery of a Presbyterian minister within the present bounds of the United States, and that we do hereby extend our sympathy and congratulations to both the Synod of New Jersey and the Presbytery of Monmouth, on the occasion of the great gathering in commemoration of this event, on June 4, 1895. We also request the Moderator and other officers of this Assembly to grace the occasion by their presence and coöperation; and request the Commissioners to accept, so far as possible, the kind invitation of the Presbytery of Monmouth to be present. Adopted.

Overture No. 144, on the Desecration of the Sabbath by Congress. The Committee recommend the following answer: The One Hundred and Seventh General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in session at Pittsburgh,

May 16, 1895, do hereby cordially endorse all that has been expressed in the Overture of the Presbytery of Iowa, on the subject of the flagrant violation of the Lord's day by the Congress of the United States at its last session. We desire by this deliverance to put on record the protest of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, of which this Assembly is the highest judicatory, against the violation of the law of God by the legislative branch of the Government of this people, by meeting or continuing in session on the Sabbath day. No possible plea, in our opinion, can be urged, under ordinary circumstances, in defense of any such defiance of one of the fundamental laws of the Creator of the universe, established for the benefit of the whole human race and of universal obligation. Adopted.

Overture No. 187, on Mileage, from the Presbytery of Corning. The Committee recommend no action. Adopted.

Overture No. 175, on a Presbytery's approving the Minutes of a Session prohibiting Dancing, from the Presbytery of Portsmouth. The Committee recommend the following answer: The Presbytery of Portsmouth is referred to the action of the General Assembly (Moore's Digest, p. 587) on the subject of dancing, which action, while disapproving of the practice of promiscuous dancing, yet leaves the whole subject of dancing to the Sessions of our churches. While the power of disciplining for dancing is thus clearly in the hands of the Session, yet it was not the intention of the Assembly to authorize the Sessions of our churches to enact laws, which may be construed as creating new and unscriptural conditions of church membership, and we would recommend the Presbytery so to advise the Session of the church referred to in the Overture. Adopted.

In behalf of the Committee,
S. A. MUTCHMORE, Chairman.

The Committee on Canvass of the Answers of the Presbyteries to the Overture sent down by the last Assembly, in the matter of the addition of a new chapter to the Book of Discipline, presented its Report which was accepted and adopted, as follows:

The Committee on Canvass of the Answers of the Presbyteries to the Overture on the subject of "Differences between Judicatories," sent down by the General Assembly of 1894, respectfully report as follows:

The following Presbyteries have answered in the affirmative, viz.:

Albany, Allegheny, Alton, Athens, Baltimore, Bellefontaine, Benicia, Binghamton, Bismarck, Black Hills, Blairsville, Boisé, Boston, Boulder, Box Butte, Butte, Cape Fear, Central Dakota, Champlain, Chemung, Chester, Chicago, Choctaw, Cimarron, Cincinnati, Columbia, Corning, Council Bluffs, Dakota, Dayton, Denver, Des Moines, Dubuque, Duluth, East Florida, East Oregon, Elizabeth, Emporia, Erie, Genesee, Grand Rapids, Great Falls, Gunnison, Helena, Highland, Holston, Huntingdon, Huron, Iowa, Iowa City, Jersey City, Kearney, Kendall, Kingston, Lackawanna, La Crosse, Lansing, Larned, Lima, Madison, Marion, Mattoon, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Minnewaukon, Monmouth, Monroe, Morris and Orange, Muncie, Nebraska City, Neosho, New Albany, New Brunswick, New Castle, Newton, New York, Niobrara, Northumberland, Oklahoma, Olympia, Osborne, Parkersburg, Peking, Pembina, Peoria, Philadelphia, Philadelphia North, Pittsburgh, Platte, Portland, Portsmouth, Pueblo, Puget Sound, Redstone, Rock River, Sacramento, St. Clairsville, St. Lawrence, St. Louis, San Francisco, San José, Schuyler, Sequoyah, Siam, Sioux City, Solomon, South Florida, Spokane, Stockton, Syracuse, Topeka, Transylvania, Trinity, Utah, Walla Walla, Washington City, Waterloo, Westchester, West Jersey, White River, Willamette, Winona, Wooster, Yadkin, Zanesville.—125.

The following Presbyteries have answered in the negative, viz.:

Aberdeen, Bloomington, Cairo, Carlisle, Catawba, Cayuga, Chillicothe, Chippewa, Clarion, Cleveland, Columbus, Detroit, Ebenezer, Geneva, Hudson, Indianapolis, Lake Superior, Lehigh, Logansport, Long Island, Lyons, McClelland, Newark, North River, North Texas, Oakland, Otsego, Palmyra, Rochester, St. Cloud, Southern Oregon, Steubenville, Wellsborough, Winnebago. —34.

Two Presbyteries, Crawfordsville and Louisville, laid the Overture on the table.

The Presbytery of Rio Grande adopted it, but with a proposed amendment.

Westminster Presbytery adopted part only of the Overture.

The following Presbyteries report no action taken, viz.:

Arizona, Austin, Buffalo, Butler, Cedar Rapids, Fort Dodge, Fort Wayne, Freeport, Kalamazoo, Kansas City, Kittanning, Kolhapur, Los Angeles, Mexico, Niagara, Omaha, Ottawa, Ozark, Red River, Saginaw, St. Paul, Santa Fé, Shenango, Southern Dakota, Springfield, Steuben, Troy, Union, Utica.—29.

Such were the answers received from 189 Presbyteries, 36 sending no reply.

Therefore, in accordance with the Form of Government, Chap. xxiii, Secs. 1 and 6, since a majority of the 224 Presbyteries now enrolled have formally approved the Overture, the following resolutions are proposed for adoption, in compliance with the act of the Assembly of 1891 (p. 142):

Resolved, 1. That by virtue of the authority conferred upon it by the Form of Government, Chap. xxiii, Sec. 6, this General Assembly hereby declares the Overture on Differences between Judicatories, sent down by the General Assembly of 1894, to have been adopted, and to be a part of the Constitution.

Resolved, 2. That the Overture having been adopted, it be added to the Book of Discipline as Chap. xiv, Secs. 121, 122 and 123 of the said Book, in the words following:

"CHAP. XIV.—OF DIFFERENCES BETWEEN JUDICATORIES.

"121. Any judicatory deeming itself aggrieved by the action of any other judicatory of the same rank, may present a memorial to the judicatory immediately superior to the judicatory charged with the grievance and to which the latter judicatory is subject, after the manner prescribed in the subchapter on Complaints (Secs. 83–93, Book of Discipline), save only that with regard to the limitation of time, notice of said memorial shall be lodged with the Stated Clerks, both of the judicatory charged with the grievance and of its next superior judicatory, within one year from the commission of the said alleged grievance.

"122. When any judicatory deems itself aggrieved by another judicatory, and determines to present a memorial as provided for in the preceding section, it shall appoint a Committee to conduct the case in all its stages, in whatever judicatory, until the final issue be reached.

"123. The judicatory with which the memorial is lodged, if it sustain the same, may reverse in whole or in part the matter of grievance, and shall direct the lower judicatory how to dispose of the case, and may enforce its orders. Either party may appeal to the next higher judicatory, except as limited by Chap. xi, Sec. 4, of the Form of Government." (Minutes, 1894, pp. 163, 164.)

Resolved, 3. That the Stated Clerk be directed and empowered to make the changes in the Book of Discipline above ordered.

In behalf of the Committee,

JOSEPH DUNN BURRELL, Chairman.

The Committee on Finance presented its Report, which was accepted, and its recommendations adopted, as follows:

The Standing Committee on Finance present the following Report:

The following accounts have been submitted and have been carefully examined by us:

1. The account of Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., as Treasurer of the General Assembly, for the year ending May 11, 1895, shows:

A balance on hand May 9, 1894,	$35,784 73
Receipts during the year,	59,247 66
		$95,032 39
Disbursements made,	$51,994 09
Balance on hand May 11, 1895,	43,038 30
		$95,032 39

We have carefully examined the vouchers for said disbursements, have audited the accounts, and now recommend their approval. We find said accounts have been carefully and accurately kept in every particular. The funds of the General Assembly were deposited by the Treasurer so as to realize the sum of $1696.74 as interest thereon during the last year.

2. We have also examined the accounts of said Treasurer for the publishing and distribution of the Reports of the various Boards of the Church for the last fiscal year. It appears therefrom that the total cost of said Reports was $2356.66, which was charged to and collected from the said Boards in proportion to the number of pages occupied by each; as appears in the respective Reports of the various Boards.

3. Your Committee have also examined the statement of the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly, of their receipts and disbursements for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1895, and the Report of said time. No vouchers were submitted with said statements and reports, but there were appended thereto the certificates of the Committee on Finance of said Board and of the Auditing Committee, to the effect that they had examined the Treasurer's account and the securities mentioned in the same and had found them to be correct.

The total amount of principal in the hands of Trustees is $672,560.56, which is invested as follows:

Mortgages, being first liens on property, . . .	$623,275 00
Stocks, bonds and other securities, ...	27,163 74
Balance of cash on hand, uninvested, March 31, 1895,	22,121 82
	$672,560 56
Amount of cash balance on hand on income account is	7,745 08
Making a grand total, ...	$680,305 64

An interesting and gratifying feature of the Report of the Trustees of the Assembly which calls for special thanksgiving is that during the past year they have received bequests amounting to $151,895.46, the income of which is to be devoted to the several Boards and beneficiaries as they are defined in the bequests.

Of these bequests one is from the late Phineas M. Barber, amounting to $113,000, the income from which is to be "used for the erection of churches and maintaining of needy ministers of the Presbyterian congregations of colored people in the United States of America, as seems best in the judgment of the General Assembly aforenamed." To which the executors inform us there will be a further sum of about $100,000 when the estate is finally divided. Inasmuch as this Assembly has no one Board through which this income can be administered as prescribed, and furthermore as the colored pastors who are to be the beneficiaries are not to be confined to any particular section of the country, the Committee recommend:

1. That the income of the Barber Fund be applied as follows:

a. One-half to the Board of Freedmen to be divided equally in the erection of churches for Presbyterian colored congregations and for the needy ministers of the Presbyterian colored congregations in their field.

b. One-quarter to the Board of Home Missions, for needy ministers of Presbyterian colored congregations in the fields outside of the Freedmen's Board.

c. One-quarter to the Board of Church Erection, for church buildings for Presbyterian colored congregations in the field outside of the Freedmen's Board.

2. That the thanks of the General Assembly are due and are hereby tendered to the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America for their faithful care of the accumulated assets of the Assembly.

3. That Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., Treasurer of the General Assembly, be authorized to invest so much of the funds of the General Assembly as shall remain in his hands after the adjournment of the Assembly as may seem to him advisable, and in securities concerning whose value there can be no doubt, for a term not exceeding one year.

4. That the accounts of the Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., Treasurer of the General Assembly, be approved.

5. That the thanks of the General Assembly are due and are hereby tendered to the Treasurer for his able and efficient services, as well as for the clearness and accuracy of his various accounts.

6. That in the place of Barker Gummere, LL.D., deceased, Hon. Edward T. Green, of Trenton, N. J., be elected a member of the Board of Trustees.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JAMES YEREANCE, Chairman.

The Special Committee on the Assembly Herald presented its Report, which, after an address by the Hon. James A. Beaver, Chairman of the Committee, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on the Assembly Herald respectfully report the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly continue the publication of the Assembly Herald.

Resolved, 2. That the various Boards of the Church be directed to furnish material, and assume pro rata any deficit that may be incurred, and that any surplus shall be reserved until such time as General Assembly orders a division among the various Boards.

Resolved, 3. That the Rev. W. H. Hubbard and the Rev. Rufus S. Green, D.D., be continued as managers and editors, without financial compensation, and make full report to the next Assembly.

Resolved, 4. Recognizing the dependence of intelligent and generous giving upon the dissemination of information, the General Assembly recommends that each church, in the way of its own choosing, subscribe for a sufficient number of copies, to place the paper in every one of its families, not making such circulation conditioned upon individual subscriptions, any more than in the case of Sabbath-school Lesson Helps and papers.

Resolved, 5. That a column be given, if the way be clear, in the statistical tables of the Minutes of the General Assembly to the circulation of the Assembly Herald in our churches, and that the column shall precede those given to the Boards of the Church, and that the blanks which are sent to the churches for the collection of the year's statistics, shall be printed in accordance with the above provision.

Resolved, 6. That the Assembly Herald be sent, at the expense of the Boards of the Church, to all pastors, superintendents and elders, who do not subscribe directly for themselves.

Resolved, 7. That the managers of the Assembly Herald are authorized to send sample copies from time to time to the non-subscribing churches, and that the expense of the same shall be borne by the Boards of the Church pro rata; Provided, that the copies thus becoming a charge on the Boards by Resolutions 6 and 7 shall not exceed one hundred thousand copies per month.

It was also Resolved, That the General Assembly heartily commend the faithful and unsalaried labors of Rev. W. H. Hubbard and Rev. Rufus S. Green, D.D., in the interests of the Boards of the Church and of the Church at large. They have paid out the past year some twelve thousand dollars for paper, printing and other expenses, and have distributed throughout the Church printed matter equivalent to twenty-three million pages or six hundred thousand octavo volumes of one hundred and fifty pages each. In this large business venture they have shown a rare business sagacity and enterprise, as they have not only received, through subscriptions and advertising, sufficient funds to meet all obligations, but have some five thousand dollars in the bank and hold some two thousand dollars more in bills and furnishings. This record of the past year is certainly unexampled in our Church, and promises much larger and much broader possibilities for the future under the same efficient and enthusiastic management. In view of these possibilities, this Assembly pledges its hearty coöperation in securing through Presbyterial and church action, a circulation for the ensuing year of a quarter of a million copies.

In behalf of the Committee,

JAMES A. BEAVER, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries presented its Report, which, after an address by the Chairman, the Rev. F. C. Monfort, D.D., was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries reports that in discharging the duty assigned to it, of examining the reports of the various seminaries of the Church, it has found abundant reason for encouragement and little reason for discouragement as to the condition and prospects of these institutions.

Nearly all the seminaries report increased attendance and resources. Nearly all refer to the high character, the evangelistic spirit and the missionary zeal of their students.

Princeton, the oldest upon the list, reports an attendance greater than ever before, with the prospect of still further increase next year. The enrollment is 264. Of these 115 are reported as new students, 78 were in the Senior Class, 67 received certificates of graduation, and 11 have applied to the Foreign Board to be sent as missionaries to the foreign fields. The Directors have authorized the Faculty to establish a course of lectures on Missions, thus meeting in advance a question brought before your Committee by Overtures from various Presbyteries and made the subject of special recommendation in this report. An elective course in Comparative Religions is provided for. The total property of the institution is $1,845,676, the income for the year is $85,566.20, and the expenditure $85,332.99. The Directors of the class of 1895 have all been reëlected. The Rev. Maitland Alexander has been elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. McCosh, and Judge William M. Lanning to fill that caused by the death of Barker Gummere, LL.D.

Auburn Seminary reports 60 new students, 19 graduates and a total attendance of 112. It has a full Faculty and provides several courses of lectures, including a course by Rev. James S. Dennis, D.D., of Beirut, Syria, on the "Sociological Aspects and Results of Foreign Missions." The Willard Memorial Chapel was dedicated October 24. The total property, including real estate, is $924,583.48. Donations amounting to $14,935.30 have been received during the year. Lists of Commissioners, Trustees and Professors are reported. No election of Professors is reported.

The Western Seminary at Allegheny reports 100 students enrolled, 31 graduates and 33 newly matriculated. Three Directors have been removed by death: Rev. Charles S. Pomeroy, D.D., Rev. Robert D. Mowry, D.D., and Mr. David Robinson. There have been three resignations. The following Directors have been elected: Rev. A. A. E. Taylor, D.D., H. R. Beatty, M.D., Mr. John C. Stevenson, Mr. Robert Pitcairn, Rev. David R. Breed, D.D., and Rev. H. D. Lindsey. Three Trustees have been removed by death, Mr. David Robinson, Rev. I. N. Hays, D.D., and Mr. J. W. Alexander. There have been elected to fill these vacancies, Mr. David McKinney Lloyd, Mr. J. I. Buchanan, and Mr. J. M. F. Carpenter. The Directors of the Class of 1895 have been re-elected.

Lane Seminary, at Cincinnati, reports 39 students and 7 graduates. The endowment and special funds aggregate $491,767.94. The year closes with a cash balance on hand. The instruction during the year has been efficient and satisfactory, as is evidenced by the report of the Examining Committee, representing two Synods and eleven Presbyteries. Five Trustees have been elected: Prof. Thomas H. Norton, Ph.D., Rev. Charles Little, D.D., Mr. E. R. Perkins, Mr. Hugh Hanna and Mr. Samuel W. Davies.

Instruction has been given by one professor and three resident teachers, covering the usual theological course. Courses of lectures have been given by men eminent in various departments of learning. Rev. E. D. Morris, D.D., LL.D., for twenty-eight years a professor, first of Church History and afterwards of Systematic Theology, has resigned, and his resignation has been accepted to take effect when his successor is appointed, it being arranged that when this shall be done, he shall become Emeritus Professor with a salary of $1500. In view of Dr. Morris' retirement, the Assembly expresses its appreciation of his eminent attainments and faithful service, and the hope that his remaining days may be days of comfort and honor.

Danville Seminary reports twenty-four students. The funds, including real estate, amount to $238,399.80. The income from all sources is $14,260.63, and the expenditure $13,756.71. The Directors whose term expired at the last annual meeting have been reëlected, except that Mr. J. T. Dwelly and Mr. H. C. Baker, have been chosen, the former in place of Mr. L. T. Chiles and the latter in place of Dr. J. C. Maxwell. Rev. C. R. Crawford, who has for six years acted as Assistant in the Department of Biblical Literature and Exegetical Theology, has been formally appointed Instructor in the Department of Old Testament Languages and Exegesis and Biblical Antiquities. For the last two years he has had entire charge of the Hebrew instruction. The Chair of New Testament Literature and Exegesis has been assigned to Dr. Yerkes. Dr. John M. Worrall will hereafter give his entire time to the Seminary. We recommend that these changes in the Faculty be approved.

Blackburn University is required by its charter to maintain a Theological Department, but no report has been received. None was received last year. We recommend that the Stated Clerk be instructed to call the attention of the governing Board to this omission.

McCormick Seminary, Chicago. The Report shows that the last year has been one of great prosperity. Two hundred and eight students have been in attendance, of whom eighty-five were new; sixty have been graduated; 2550 volumes have been added to the library, of which 1488 are a gift from the library of the late Dr. E. C. Bissell, and 288 are the hymnological collection of the late Dr. R. W. Patterson, a donation from Mrs. Patterson. Prof. A. C. Zenos has been inaugurated in the Department of Biblical Theology, and Rev. A. H. Huizinga, Ph.D., has been elected Adjunct Professor of Hebrew. We recommend that these elections be approved. Total valuation of property is $1,276,441.61. A considerable deficit in the Expense and Scholarship Funds has been temporarily provided for. The Directors of the Class of 1895 have been reëlected, as have Directors to fill vacancies as shown in the Report.

San Francisco Seminary reports full Boards of Directors and Trustees, five professors and two instructors. Four professors who have occupied Chairs for some years were formally installed during the late Commencement: Rev. Robert McKenzie, D.D., Apologetics and Missions; the Rev. Thomas F. Day, A.M., Hebrew and Greek Exegesis; Rev. H. C. Minton, D.D., Systematic Theology, and Rev. Warren H. Landon, D.D., Practical Theology. Rev. W. B. Noble, D.D., has been elected Temporary Instructor in New Testament and Greek Exegesis. We recommend that this election be approved. Thirty-one students have been in attendance, an increase of 50 per cent. over the previous year. Six graduate certificates were granted. The total amount of property, including real estate and buildings, is $590,000. Total income, $31,734.42; total expenditures, $34,493.41.

The German Theological School of the Northwest, Dubuque, Ia., reports thirty-nine students preparing for the ministry, five of whom received diplomas. Prof. Cornelius Bayless has been elected a Director to fill the vacancy caused by the death of George L. Forbert, and Prof. Nicholas Martin Steffins has been called to the VanVleit Chair of Theology, made vacant by the death of Dr. A. Vander Lippe. We recommend that these elections be approved. This institution is doing an excellent work on small capital, having but $52,000 endowment, including buildings, and is worthy of the generous support of the Church. We recommend that the Assembly renew the action of the Assembly of 1894, commending it for $50,000 additional endowment. Directors of the Class of 1898 have been elected as shown in the Report. We recommend that these elections be approved.

The German Theological School of Newark, N. J., reports sixty-one students, of whom forty-eight are Germans, twenty being in the Theological Department, and six graduates. No changes are reported in the Faculty or Board of Directors. The endowment and real estate amount to $83,396.40. The Directors ask the prayers and support of the Church. The Directors of the Class of 1898 have been elected as shown in the Report. We recommend that these elections be approved.

Lincoln University (for colored students), reports that the Rev. Samuel A. Martin, D.D., Professor of Sacred Rhetoric, has resigned his Chair, having accepted the Presidency of Wilson College. Rev. William Deas Kerswill, A.M., has been inaugurated as Professor of Hebrew and Church History. There are forty students in the Theological Department, of whom five have received the degree of S.T.B. Three others received certificates of confidence. Two have offered themselves to the Foreign Board, asking to be sent to Africa. The land, buildings, and endowment amount to $606,800. About $10,000 has been contributed by friends. The institution is free of debt.

Biddle University, Charlotte, N. C. (for colored students). The number of students enrolled is two hundred and sixty, of whom seventy-six have the ministry in view, and nineteen are in the Theological Department. In the University twenty-three students have made their profession of religion this year. Carter Hall has been completed, with accommodations for one hundred and sixty-four students. Special pains are taken to train the students to self-support. Their earnings for the year have been $11,241.34. The total number of graduates since the institution was established is three hundred and five, of whom sixty-two are from the Theological Department, and fifty-one are active ministers in the South and one at the North, five are College Professors, one is a Superintendent of Instruction, one a Foreign Missionary in Africa, and one a Bishop in the African Methodist Episcopal Church. Besides these theological graduates there are twenty-seven principals and teachers in high schools, and scores of teachers in common schools. President Sanders makes a strong appeal for financial aid. One argument for endowing the institution is that by so doing $15,000 per year will be released to become available in the general work for Freedmen.

Omaha, the youngest of our seminaries, reports a prosperous year. Through the generosity of friends a building has been provided for its use and leased to it for five years free of rent. Since the last report it has been incorporated under the laws of Nebraska, and has in its charter the provisions of the plan of seminary supervision recommended by the Assembly of 1894. It reports to the Assembly a complete list of Directors and members of the Faculty as elected by the incorporated Board, and asks the Assembly, pro forma, to approve them. The lists will be found in the report of the Board. The Committee recommends their approval. The Board of Directors has established the Chairs of "Apologetics" and "English Bible," and elected Rev. Alexander G. Wilson, D.D., to the former, and Rev. J. M. Wilson, D.D., to the latter. These brethren were elected last year and their names reported to the Assembly by the Board, but through some oversight did not come before the Assembly. The Directors therefore ask that the Assembly now approve them, and we recommend that this be done. Seventeen new students are reported and a total attendance of thirty-two, including eight seniors. The income for the year has been $6192.05 and the expenditure $7166.40. Owing to extraordinary financial conditions prevailing throughout the country, it has been found impossible to secure funds towards the endowment recommended by the last General Assembly. A good beginning has been made in publishing the needs and claims of the institution. Your Committee recommends that the Assembly renew the recommendation of Omaha Theological Seminary to the Church in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars. It also recommends that the Assembly appoint a Special Committee of three, to serve without cost to the Assembly, to coöperate with the representatives of the seminary in securing the sum named. Omaha is the centre of a vast and growing field. The future is full of promise. The great need is an endowment. The Seminary is in full harmony with the Church, and is entitled to its cordial sympathy and support.

The whole number of students in attendance at all the seminaries which have reported is nine hundred and nineteen, an increase of sixty-four over last year. Two hundred and fifteen have been graduated, an increase of nine. The number of new students reported is three hundred and fifty-seven, a decrease of twenty. Four seminaries have not reported the number of new students. When these are heard from this deficiency will probably be more than overcome.

Overtures have been received, No. 156, from the Presbytery of Sequoyah, and No. 151, from the Presbytery of Syracuse, asking that "no change be made in the present relations between the Assembly and the Seminaries," and No. 57, from the Presbytery of Chillicothe, asking that such relations be established "as will secure sound instruction and the safety of property." In view of action already taken by the Assembly, your Committee recommends no further action.

A number of Presbyteries have overtured the Assembly as to the importance of providing special courses of instruction in the seminaries of the Church for students proposing to devote their lives to the work of Foreign Missions. Overture No. 137, from the Presbytery of Lackawanna, refers to the great increase in the number of candidates for work in the foreign field; No. 169, from the Presbytery of Baltimore, urges the importance of instructing all candidates for the ministry in the present status of foreign work; and No. 184, from the Presbytery of Ottawa, sets forth the command of our risen Lord to His disciples to "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature," emphasizing the fact that this work is specially committed to ministers trained in our theological seminaries, and that these cannot fully understand the power and scope of the Gospel, unless they are taught specifically its application to all classes and conditions of men, including idolaters, Mohammedans and other adherents of false religions. We rejoice to know that a number of seminaries have already taken action in the direction indicated, and recommend the Assembly to commend this subject to all our seminaries, urging that, where it is not already done, students be instructed as to the missionary character and work of the Church; that appropriate courses be provided for candidates for mission fields, and that so soon as possible special Chairs for such instruction be established.

A number of seminaries, while reporting very fully their condition and work, have failed to fill out and forward the carefully prepared blank sent for their use. The Assembly directs its Stated Clerk, to call the attention of the authorities of each seminary to the importance of using this blank and filling as far as possible all its spaces.

The statistical report required by the rule of the Assembly has been prepared and is herewith submitted for approval, with the understanding that the Stated Clerk shall have power to make additions and alterations in order to include reports or corrections which may be received from seminaries, before the Minutes of the Assembly are put in press.

All of which is respectfully submitted, by order of the Committee.

F. C. MONFORT, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Finance presented a supplemental Report, which was accepted and adopted, as follows:

The Standing Committee on Finance respectfully report on the Overtures referred to them, viz.:

Overture No. 189, being a Memorial from the Ecclesiastical Peace Conference on International Arbitration, requesting an appropriation for the carrying on of its work. The Committee recommend that, as this Assembly was one of the petitioners for an Ecclesiastical Peace Conference on Arbitration, that this request for an appropriation of $100 be granted, but not to be construed as establishing a precedent for future requests of the Conference of a similar character. Adopted.

Overture No. 200, being the Annual Report of the "Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System," requesting the customary annual appropriation for its expenses. The Committee being informed that the Assembly is committed to pay this amount each year, for their 51 delegates at $15 each, have no alternative but to recommend that this request for an appropriation of $765 be complied with, and that the Treasurer be authorized to pay the same. Adopted.

Overture No. 201, being a Memorial with reference to Loans to the Farmers of Nebraska, from the Presbytery of Hastings. It is recommended that the Assembly reply that it is inexpedient to comply with this request, and thus change the character of the Assembly's investments. Adopted.

In behalf of the Committee,

JAMES YEREANCE, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies presented a supplemental Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on the Board of Aid for Colleges ask permission of the Assembly to change the second resolution in their Report already adopted. This request is made on account of certain action taken by the Assembly subsequent to the adoption of said Report. The second resolution was as follows:

"That a Sabbath near the Day of Prayer for Colleges be observed by churches, Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies as Education Day, when the subject of Christian Education and the Bible in Education shall be considered."

As the Day of Prayer for Colleges has been changed from the last Thursday of January to the second Sabbath in January, we beg leave to change the above resolution so as to make it read as follows:

"That the Day of Prayer for Colleges, namely, the second Sabbath of January, be observed as Education Day, when the subject of Christian Education and the Bible in Education shall be considered."

The Committee also report on Overture No. 194, being a Memorial from the Trustees of Albany Collegiate Institute, Oregon, concerning the transfer of the institution. We recommend the adoption of the resolutions following:

1. The General Assembly rejoices in the good work of this institution for twenty-eight years past, and in the considerable gifts of local donors, and of friends in Portland and elsewhere; commends the self-sacrificing toil of its successive presidents and instructors; and takes pleasure in the lively interest in its welfare shown by the Oregon Presbyteries, and in the valuable results of its work. We believe the maintenance and growth of this institution to be demanded by the necessities of Presbyterianism in Oregon, and integral to the progress of our work there. The Assembly expresses the devout hope that temporary difficulties may, by the blessing of God, be met through the wise management of the Trustees, and the generous gifts of God's people, and suggests that such gifts may well be made to the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies for the saving, enlargement and endowment of the school.

2. That it is not legally in the power of the General Assembly to grant the request preferred in the Memorial.

3. That the Memorial be referred to the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies, with the direction to consider carefully the needs of the institution, and to do whatever is found to be both possible and wise towards meeting at once its present needs, and towards fostering its growth.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

WARREN H. LANDON, Chairman.

The unfinished business being the reply of the Committee on Bills and Overtures to the Overtures on Reduced Apportionments for Assembly Expenses was taken up. The recommendation of the Committee was recommitted, with the direction that the Committee formulate the reasons for their decision.

It was Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to prepare an annual year book containing an account of the proceedings of the General Assembly, the work of the Boards, etc., not to contain more than one hundred pages, and not to cost more than ten cents per copy.

A motion to reconsider the action of the Assembly in adopting the Report of the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures on the Overture from the Presbytery of New York, in relation to Control of Theological Students, was laid on the table.

The Standing Committee on Church Polity presented a Report on the Memorial from the Synod of India on the baptism of polygamous converts, which was made the first Order for Monday morning. It was made the second Order for the same day to hear the Report of the Standing Committees on the Records of the Synods.

The Assembly adjourned until Monday, May 27, at 9 A.M., and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 27, 9.30 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of Saturday's sessions were read and approved.

The Moderator announced the following Special Committees:

Committee on Omaha Theological Seminary: Ministers—S. A. Mutchmore, D.D., John Dixon, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Hon. James A. Beaver, James Yereance and Elisha H. Perkins.

A communication was received from the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, as follows:

DARLINGTON, PA., May 22, 1895.

The General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America, meeting in Darlington, Pa., sends Christian greetings to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America: "The Lord bless and keep thee; the Lord make his face to shine upon thee and be gracious unto thee; the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee and give thee peace." Grace be to you, and peace from God the Father and from our Lord Jesus Christ.

By order of the General Synod,
JAMES D. STEELE, Moderator.
JAMES Y. BOICE, Stated Clerk.

A reply was directed to be sent in the name of the Assembly by the Moderator and Stated Clerk, and is as follows:

To the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America, Darlington, Pa.:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, cordially reciprocates your fraternal greetings. "Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen."

ROBERT R. BOOTH, Moderator.
WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

A letter of response from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, to the letter sent by this Assembly, was received, by a rising vote, read and directed to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly.

A communication was received from the Chairmen of Committees on a metrical version of the Book of Psalms, of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, and of the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, as follows:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, now in session in Pittsburgh:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN: The undersigned beg leave to state that they are Chairmen of Committees appointed by the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, now in this city, and by the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, respectively, for the purpose of securing a metrical version of the Book of Psalms, which will be correct and elegant, and conform to the present canons of literary taste in the English tongue. The object proposed is not to commit any body of Christians to the use of such book, in whole or in part, when completed, but to secure, if possible, a metrical translation of the Psalter of such excellence as will commend it to the taste and judgment of all who may desire to use the Psalms in praise, and as will secure it a place in the hymnody of all the churches.

It is believed that the material for such a version is already in hand, and is to be found in the many versions and the many manuals of the churches, as also in many separate individual renderings. Thus, while new renderings would not be excluded from consideration, the proposed work would be chiefly that of collation, selection and compilation of metrical translations now in existence.

We are instructed by the bodies which we represent to solicit the coöperation in this revision of other bodies of Christians which have authorized in their Standards the use of the Psalms in praise. We therefore request this General Assembly, representing the largest and most influential of the Presbyterian bodies, to consider this proposal favorably, and to appoint a Committee to coöperate in this work, being assured that your example in so doing would be readily followed by all the Reformed Churches.

W. J. ROBINSON,
Chairman, Committee General Assembly United Presbyterian Church.

W. J. COLEMAN,
Chairman, Committee Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church.

The General Assembly assented to the proposition, and the following Committee was appointed: Ministers—Howard Duffield, D.D., Elijah R. Craven, D.D., LL.D., and Ruling Elder—George Junkin, LL.D.

The Standing Committee on Correspondence presented their Report, which was accepted, approved, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Correspondence would respectfully report that a cordial response to the fraternal letter sent by this Assembly, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States has been received.

Fraternal salutations have been received from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, through their delegate, the Rev. David James Burrell, D.D., who has been prevented from being present in person. We recommend that this communication be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Overture No. 195, being a Memorial from the Franco-American Committee of Evangelization was referred to this Committee by the Assembly. This Committee renders assistance to the Huguenot churches of France, Switzerland and Belgium, in their efforts to advance a genuine Protestantism among the peoples of those countries. It is their purpose to authorize a chosen representative to present their cause in this country, thus relieving interested givers from indiscriminate solicitors. In this work they seek the sympathetic recognition and encouragement of this Assembly. In reply, the Assembly would express genuine pleasure in the blessings with which God has crowned the labors of these devoted people, and great confidence in the present management of the work. We reiterate the action of the Assembly of 1893, in assuring the French Protestants of our cordial sympathy in their efforts to throw off the yoke of the papacy, and restore the freedom of a pure Christianity; and in recommending to our pastors and churches the propriety of celebrating the two hundred and tenth anniversary of the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes by services appropriate to such a memorable event, on the third Sunday of October, 1895. This would be an appropriate time for the churches so desiring to make an offering for the advancement of this cause.

Your Committee would recommend that the Rev. W. S. Plumer Bryan, D.D., of Chicago, be appointed the delegate of this Assembly to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, which convenes in Grand Rapids, Mich., June 5 prox.; and that the Rev. Leonidas H. Davis, D.D., of Grand Rapids, be his alternate.

We also recommend that the Rev. William O. Thompson, D.D., President of Miami University, be appointed the delegate of this Assembly to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States, which convenes in Dayton, Ohio, May 27, 1896; and that the Rev. William Greenough, of Philadelphia, be his alternate.

We recommend further that the Rev. Samuel A. Mutchmore, D.D., of Philadelphia, be appointed the delegate of this Assembly to the Annual Synod of the Waldensian Church in Italy, which will convene in the month of September, 1896.

We recommend, lastly, that the Rev. Robert Russell Booth, D.D., of New York, be appointed the delegate of this Assembly to the Triennial Conference of the Reformed Episcopal Church in America, which will convene in the city of New York, in the month of May, 1897; and that the Rev. James Chambers, D.D., of New York, be his alternate.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

HOWARD AGNEW JOHNSTON, Chairman.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church presented an answer to the memorial of the Synod of India, on the subject of the baptism of polygamous heathen converts, which had been recommitted to it. After full consideration the memorial, on recommendation of the Committee, was referred to a Special Committee of two ministers and one ruling elder, to report to the next Assembly. The Committee is as follows: Ministers—E. R. Craven, D.D., LL.D., John D. Wells, D.D.; Ruling Elder—George Junkin, LL.D.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented its answer to the overtures on decreased assessments which had been recommitted to it. The answer of the Committee was adopted, with one vote in the negative, and is as follows:

In answer to Overtures Nos. 47 to 129, on Reduced Apportionments for Assembly Expenses, the Committee, after careful consideration, recommend that the reduction be not made at this present time, for the following, among other reasons:

1. There has been a misapprehension in regard to the surplus. The largest part of it has accumulated from gifts which the hosts of the Assembly have left in its treasury, and from interest on invested funds. Without these the surplus would be quite insignificant.

2. If at any time all the railroads should decline to grant reduced rates, as has been the case with all of them West of Chicago this year, the Assembly would need a reserve fund to draw upon, since seven cents per communicant would not then be sufficient.

3. It is desirable to have a surplus sufficiently large to enable the Assembly to hold its sessions in any part of the country, as the interests of the Church may demand. A reduction to six cents per communicant would confine the meetings of the Assembly to localities east of the Mississippi river. Your Committee do not deem it wise thus to restrict the Assembly in its choice of places of meeting.

4. Taking a series of years together, the excess of assessments over expenditures has been between two and three thousand dollars a year, and since a reduction to six cents per communicant would decrease the annual income by nine thousand dollars, it is evident that the Assembly would in a few years be confronted with a debt on that basis. To raise the rate again would not be so easy as it would be to lower it.

5. Lastly, the Overture asking for a reduction was sent to all the two hundred and five home Presbyteries, and only eighty-five have signified a desire for this change, three have opposed it by definite action, while one hundred and seventeen do not desire it enough to ask for it. It may therefore be taken for granted that the great majority of the Presbyteries are satisfied with the present arrangement. For these reasons, your Committee do not think best to recommend the change at the present time.

In behalf of the Committee,

SAMUEL A. MUTCHMORE, Chairman.

The Stated Clerk was authorized to make inquiries as to the possibilities of the Assembly's going to the Pacific Coast, or some other point west of Chicago, in the not distant future.

The following resolution was adopted as a supplement to the Report of the Committee on Temperance:

Resolved, That the General Assembly hereby declares its hearty sympathy with the effort now being put forth by the people of Pennsylvania for the restriction of the liquor traffic, and for securing for each community the right of local veto.

The Standing Committees on the Records of the Synods reported, and on their recommendation the Records of the following Synods were respectively approved, viz.: Baltimore, California, Catawba, Colorado, Illinois, India, Indiana, Indian Territory, Iowa, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Texas, Utah, Washington and Wisconsin.

The Records of the Synod of Kansas were approved with the following exceptions:

1. That in three places, viz., on pp. 346 and 347, it is stated that the report of a certain Committee was adopted, but the report itself is not given either in form or substance.

2. That the roll was not called prior to the adjournment of the Synod, whereas it should have been called, and the names of absentees unexcused recorded, if there were any such, and if not, that fact recorded.

The Minutes of the Synod of New York were approved with the accompanying statement, that whereas the exception of the Synod to the Records of the Presbytery of North River (p. 46), respecting the recording of a "certain statement of theological belief" by a certain candidate, raised an issue about which there is considerable difference of opinion; and whereas the merits of the case are not sufficiently stated in the Synod's Records; and whereas the case is still under adjudication by the lower Court, and on this account the Assembly has granted the complainant leave to withdraw his complaint against the Synod's action; and whereas the entire question will once more come before the Synod of New York at the next meeting, therefore, this Assembly does not deem it advisable to pass judgment either of approval or disapproval upon the action of the Synod, at the present time.

The Records of the Synod of North Dakota for 1893 and 1894 were approved, with the following exceptions:

Minutes of 1893: 1. That the written Reports of the Committees are not attached to the Minutes, and that the resolutions and recommendations of the same are not written up and embodied in the Minutes.

2. That the Report of the Synodical Missionary referred to on p. 6 as filed under N, does not appear in the Minutes, nor on the file.

3. That the exceptions of the Synod's Committee on the Minutes of the Presbytery of Bismarck (see p. 6) do not appear in the Minutes of the Synod, and are not clearly written up on the file.

Minutes of 1894: That the Treasurer's report, p. 18, is neither attached to the minutes nor on file.

The Records of the Synod of Ohio were approved, but the attention of the Synod is called to the fact that the names of a Permanent Committee of the Synod are not recorded in the written or official Minutes, but are simply referred to in the accompanying printed Minutes, which are not official.

The Records of the Synod of Tennessee were approved, with the exceptions:

1. That on p. 160 a minister was invited to sit as a corresponding member from the "Holston Conference," no denominational designation being given to the Conference.

2. That the attention of the Synod is called to the unhappy wording of a Resolution on the Inspiration of the Scriptures found on p. 223, and the Synod is directed to expunge the second clause of said resolution, beginning with the words, "and if there are any errors."

The Standing Committee on Mileage presented its Report, which was accepted and the recommendations adopted, as follows:

The Mileage Committee respectfully submit the following Report:

RECEIPTS.

From Apportionment, Mileage Fund,	$34,074 17
" " Entertainment Fund,	12,623 29
" " Contingent Fund,	12,981 03
Total,	$59,678 49

DISBURSEMENTS.

Bills of Commissioners for Mileage,	$23,220 96
Entertainment Fund, paid to the Stated Clerk,	12,623 29
Contingent Fund, paid to Stated Clerk,	12,981 03
Clerk hire,	50 00
Balance Mileage Fund, paid to Stated Clerk,	10,803 21
Total,	$59,678 49

There are two hundred and twenty-four Presbyteries upon the Roll, an increase of one during the year. Two hundred and twenty of these are represented in this body by six hundred and four Commissioners, being twenty-three more Commissioners than were present at the last General Assembly. Thirty Presbyteries, being the Foreign Mission, Indian and Freedmen Presbyteries, are exempt from payment, but many of these, viz., Atlantic, Cape Fear, Catawba, Fairfield, Knox, Sequoyah and Yadkin, have contributed liberally to the funds of the Assembly.

With few exceptions, the Presbyteries have paid the full Apportionment, those not having paid in full are as follows: The Presbytery of Bellefontaine has contributed only to the Contingent Fund. The Presbytery of Clarion has contributed to the Contingent and Mileage Funds. The Presbyteries of Shenango and White Water have paid the Contingent and Mileage Fund in full and made partial payment on account of the Entertainment Fund. The Presbyteries of Bellefontaine, Clarion and Pittsburgh have not drawn anything from the Mileage Fund.

The total Mileage receipts have been $1383.47 more, and the total Mileage payments $4722.80 less, than those of the preceding year. The net surplus of the Mileage Fund for the year is $10,803.21.

The Committee make the following recommendations:

1. That the Assembly again urge all the Presbyteries to contribute in full to the Mileage, Entertainment and Contingent Funds.

2. That the Apportionment for next year be fixed at seven cents for each communicant, to be distributed as follows:

To the Mileage Fund, four cents; to the Entertainment Fund, one and one-half cents, and to the Contingent Fund, one and one-half cents.

3. That the Stated Clerk be authorized at his discretion to pay Commissioners any further sums that he may consider justly due them, by reason of their having underestimated railroad charges or other necessary expenses in returning home. Also to settle with Mr. J. J. Warne, Commissioner to the last General Assembly, for additional expenses amounting to $14.69 incurred by him.

4. That the General Assembly extend its thanks to such railroads and other transportation companies as have carried Commissioners at reduced rates, also to the Stated Clerk for efficient services in this connection.

5. That the Presbyteries be urged to forward the amount of their apportionments to the Stated Clerk at least two weeks prior to the meeting of the General Assembly.

6. That the Chairman of the Mileage Committee be directed to pay over to the Stated Clerk the $10,803.21, balance of the Mileage Funds now in his hands.

Respectfully submitted,
HENRY T. NASH, Chairman.

In connection with the Mileage Report, it was Resolved, That the hearty thanks of this General Assembly be and hereby are tendered to the Chairman and other members of the Mileage Committee for their arduous and generous services.

The Committee on Statistical Blanks presented its Report, which was accepted.

Part one, on the increase of the columns of the Statistical Reports of Presbyteries to Assembly was recommitted to the Committee, with directions to report to the next General Assembly, among other matters, on a new form of said Statistical Report.

Part two, on the Congregational Narrative, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on Statistical Blanks respectfully report to the General Assembly that the subject of the Congregational Narrative received close and full attention from the Committee. The blank hitherto used has been largely recast; the number of questions having been increased from 24 to 35, and the headings having been rearranged. The amended Narrative Blank, as recommended for adoption, is as follows:

28. Is proper provision made for the poor of the church?

VII. Family Religion.

29. Are Christian parents faithful in presenting their children for baptism, and are they well instructed in respect to this duty?

30. Are the obligations of family worship and the Christian training of children urged in public and private instruction?

31. Is the Session faithful in its care of "children born within the pale of the visible Church and dedicated to God in baptism," and does it inform them, "when they come to years of discretion," that "it is their duty and their privilege to come to the Lord's Supper?" (Directory for Worship, Chap. x).

VIII. Miscellaneous.

32. Are the financial obligations of the congregation met with fidelity?

33. Are the temporalities managed by the deacons or by Boards of Trustees?

34. Is any work done for the judicious advancement, by Christian methods, of legitimate measures of moral reform?

35. Does the Session exercise due supervision over the Sabbath-school and all the societies referred to above?

In behalf of the Committee,

William Henry Roberts, Chairman.

The Committee on the New Digest reported its proposed plan for the work, which was approved, and is as follows:

The Committee on the New Edition of the Digest (Minutes, 1894, p. 89), to be prepared by the Board of Publication, under the supervision of the Stated Clerk and the Secretary of the Board of Publication, with Rev. William E. Moore as editor, propose the following plan of the Digest and ask the approval of the Assembly, viz.:

1. To print as the first part of the book the Confession of Faith, giving under the appropriate chapters and sections the doctrinal deliverances and decisions of the Assembly.

2. To print the Form of Government, Book of Discipline and Directory for Worship in the same form as in the present Digest, marking the acts and deliverances of the two Assemblies during the period of the separation, which do not come under the terms of the concurrent Resolution No. 4, Digest (86). p. 92, as reëstablished in the united body, with the letters O. S. and N. S.

3. That the Assembly grant to your Committee full discretion to omit such acts and deliverances as in their judgment are trivial, purely personal, obsolete or contradictory, or that have been superseded by amendments of the Form of Government, Book of Discipline and Directory for Worship.

Respectfully submitted, William H. Roberts,
E. R. Craven,
William E. Moore.

The Committee on the Consensus Creed presented its Report, which was approved and the Committee continued. The report is as follows:

The Special Committee on a Consensus Creed respectfully state that at our last Report, Minutes of 1894, p. 169, we were in conference with Committees appointed by the General Synods of the Reformed Church in America, the Reformed Church in the United States, and the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Since our Report to the last Assembly we have had no conference with any of the Committees of the various Churches associated in the Presbyterian Alliance. But in view of the approaching meeting of the Council at Glasgow in 1896, and the fact that the correspondence was initiated by our Assembly, inasmuch as the work is not yet completed, we ask that the Committee be continued at least for the present year.

WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Secretary.

The United Christian Commission presented their Annual Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The United Christian Commission respectfully report to the General Assembly, that since the organization of the Commission they have addressed their efforts chiefly to these things—to secure an increase in the number and efficiency of chaplains in the army, greater privacy and freedom from degrading association to the soldiers in the barracks, and also for these latter protection from temptations to vicious indulgences. The Commission has recommended and tried to procure the adoption of means which seemed to them best adapted to secure these ends. During the past year there has been no occasion for their meeting, as nothing occurred to call for any additional action on their part. They are in constant communication with chaplains and other persons familiar with the needs of the army, and are ready at any time to act as circumstances may require. The present members of the Commission are Rev. Joseph T. Smith, D.D., Rev. W. A. Bartlett, D.D., Rev. William H. Roberts, D D., and Ruling Elder George H. Beatson. The reappointment of these members is recommended.

In behalf of the Commission,
JOSEPH T. SMITH, President.

The Special Committee on the Reprinting of the Minutes reported progress, and was continued.

The Stated Clerk, by unanimous consent, was authorized to cast, and did cast, the ballot of the Assembly for the following persons, already nominated for the office of Trustees of the Board of the Church Erection Fund, viz.: Ministers—Nathaniel W. Conklin, D.D., John Hall, D.D., LL.D., William A. Holliday, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Frederick G. Burnham, E. Francis Hyde, John Sinclair; also Ruling Elder Daniel J. Holden to fill the place of Joseph L. Munn, and Rev. Charles J. Young, D.D., to fill the unexpired term of Rev. Samuel D. Alexander, D.D., deceased.

The Stated Clerk was further authorized, by unanimous vote, to cast, and did cast, the ballot of the Assembly for the Hon. Edward T. Green, of Trenton, N. J., as Trustee of the General Assembly.

The Special Committee appointed by the last General Assembly, to designate, in addition to themselves, the other delegates of the General Assembly to the Sixth General Council of the "Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System," presented its Report, which was approved, and ordered to be recorded. The Report is as follows:

The Special Committee appointed to designate delegates, in addition to themselves, to attend the Sixth General Council of the "Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System," at Glasgow, Scotland, June 17, 1896, respectfully report as follows:

The Committee have to state that they have been guided in the distribution of appointments by two general principles, one geographical, the other having in view past appointments. An endeavor has been made to secure the representation in the delegation to the Council of all sections of the Church, and few persons have been appointed by the Committee who have been actually present at previous Councils. The appointees, both principals and alternates, are as follows, the arrangement being by Synods:

To represent the Board of Foreign Missions, Rev. Arthur J. Brown, D.D., with Rev. F. F. Ellinwood, as alternate.

The Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Moderator for the time being, with the Stated and Permanent Clerks, be a Committee with power to fill vacancies occurring in the list of delegates.

In behalf of the Committee,

S. A. MUTCHMORE, Chairman.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 27, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of this morning's session were read and approved.

The following resolutions, presented by Rev. W. L. McEwan, D.D., Chairman, in connection with the work of the Committee on the Anniversary Reunion Fund, were adopted:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly request the Board of Foreign Missions, if the way be clear, to assign the Rev. Arthur J. Brown, D.D., to service in aid of the work of this Committee for the term of six months, provided that such assignment is agreeable to Dr. Brown.

Resolved, 2. That the members of the Committee present in Pittsburgh be authorized by the Assembly to proceed at once to the organization of the work.

Resolved, 3. That the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work be directed and authorized to publish in volume form the addresses delivered on the twenty-fifth anniversary of reunion.

Resolved, 4. That the expense of publications made in The Assembly Herald in connection with the Anniversary Reunion Fund be paid by the Treasurer of the Fund, and that the expense of so much of the June supplement as may be devoted to the interests of the Fund be paid, if necessary, by the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

The Permanent Committee on Editions of the Constitution presented a Report, which was accepted and adopted, as follows:

The Permanent Committee on Editions of the Constitution respectfully report requesting authority to exercise discretion in the matter of the publication of certain proof-texts, after consultation with the Rev. S. T. Lowrie, D.D. They also report that the new edition of the Constitution is in course of preparation and will be issued during the coming year.

WILLIAM H. ROBERTS,
WILLIAM E. MOORE,
E. R. CRAVEN.

The Stated Clerk presented a Report, which was accepted and adopted, as follows:

The Stated Clerk would respectfully report to the General Assembly that the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, in accordance with the request and direction of the last General Assembly, have set apart two rooms for his use as office quarters in the Presbyterian House, 1334 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, and that no charge is or will be made for the same. It is recommended that the thanks of the Assembly be returned to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work for this assignment of rooms, and that the Stated Clerk be authorized to purchase a safe for the preservation of the valuable papers and documents of the Assembly, and also other articles for his office.

The Narrative was presented and read by the Chairman of the Committee on that subject, the Rev. William H. Cooke, D.D. The Necrology for the year ending April 30, 1895, was read by the Stated Clerk. The Narrative, together with the Necrology, were ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes, and the Assembly was then led in prayer by the Rev. W. N. Page, D.D.

The following Resolutions were severally adopted:

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be directed, as usual, to publish the Minutes of the Assembly.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to furnish the Minutes to such Presbyteries only as have paid in full their quotas to the Contingent Fund.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk forward a copy each of the Minutes and Reports to the Ruling Elders who are Commissioners to this Assembly; provided the Ruling Elders forward to the Clerk their Post-office addresses, and that the Presbyteries which they represent have paid their full quotas to the Mileage and Contingent Funds.

Resolved, That the Moderator be authorized to fill, by appointment, any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to pay the usual bills and salaries, and settle all accounts connected with the entertainment of the Assembly.

The Stated Clerk made Report to the Assembly concerning the binding and distribution of the Annual Reports of the Boards, which was accepted, adopted, and is as follows:

The Stated Clerk respectfully reports to the General Assembly on the binding and distributing of the Annual Reports of the Boards as follows:

1. The Reports for the year 1894 were distributed in accordance with the directions of the General Assembly, and a statement of the expense involved is herewith submitted.

2. It is recommended that the Annual Reports of the Boards for the year 1895 be printed and distributed as heretofore, under the direction of the Stated Clerk, the expenses to be borne by the several Boards in proportion to the space occupied by each Report in the bound volume, the weight of the separate Reports to be also taken into consideration in the matter of postage charges.

3. It is recommended that the Boards be requested and urged to transmit their Reports to the Stated Clerk on or before June 20, 1895. Unless this be done the Stated Clerk cannot distribute the Reports prior to August 1.

The Stated Clerk was authorized to correct the Minutes of 1894, p. 185, by recording in the Minutes of 1895, the presence at final roll call in the last Assembly of Mr. Samuel Buchanan, of the Presbytery of Alton, incorrectly entered as absent without leave.

The Clerks were authorized to insert in the Minutes for 1895, the following action of the last General Assembly, omitted from the Minutes of 1894:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully report on Overture No. 37, on "Who may be Clerk of Session?" from the Presbytery of New Castle, to wit:

"WHEREAS, The Clerk of the Synod of Baltimore has refused to record Harold Sudell as Clerk of the Session of New Castle Church, he not being a member of the Court; and

"WHEREAS, The Session of New Castle Church has appealed to the Presbytery of New Castle, and Presbytery being in doubt as to the legality of their having a Clerk of Session who was not a member of the Court;

"Resolved, That the Presbytery of New Castle overtures the General Assembly to make a clear interpretation of the law concerning the eligibility of a male member of the Church who is not an ordained Elder for election as Clerk of Session."

The following answer is recommended:

This Assembly adopts and reaffirms the action upon this subject of the New School General Assembly of 1861 (see Minutes, p. 457), as quoted in Moore's Digest, p. 461, Chap. xx, to wit: "As far as the provision of the Book is involved, it is plain that a judicatory may select any convenient person, though not a member, to record its transactions and discharge all other duties pertaining to a clerk." Adopted.

The Permanent Committee on the Next Place of Meeting presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted, as follows:

The Permanent Committee on the Next Place of Meeting respectfully report that they have received invitations from the First Presbyterian Church, of Seattle, Wash.; from the citizens of Dallas, Tex., and from the First Presbyterian Church of Saratoga Springs, N. Y. The Committee recommend that the Assembly record its high appreciation of the invitations from Seattle and from Dallas, but state also that it cannot at present see the way clear to accept either. The invitation from Saratoga is accompanied with the guarantee of entertainment for Commissioners at the rate of $1 per day. The Committee, therefore, recommend the following resolutions for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the next General Assembly meet in the First Presbyterian Church, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

Resolved, 2. That the Pastor and Elders of the First Church, Saratoga, N. Y., with the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, be the Committee of Arrangements, with power to add to their number, the pastor of the Church to be the Chairman of the Committee.

In behalf of the Committee,

WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Secretary.

The minutes of to day's sessions were read and approved.

The following resolution of thanks was unanimously adopted by a rising vote, the motion being put by the Vice-Moderator:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly are due, and are hereby tendered, to the Moderator, the Rev. Robert Russell Booth, D.D., for the grace, dignity, ability and uniform fairness with which he has presided over the deliberations of this body.

The following additional resolutions of thanks were unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved, 1. That the thanks of the Assembly are tendered to the Vice-Moderator and Stated Clerk, also to the Permanent and Temporary Clerks, for the faithful and efficient manner in which they have discharged the duties of their offices.

Resolved, 2. That the thanks of the Assembly are due, and are hereby specially tendered, to the Rev. W. L. McEwan, D.D., Chairman, and all others associated with him on the Committee of Arrangements and on its numerous Subcommittees, for the liberal provision made for the entertainment and comfort of the members of the Assembly; also to the Rev. E. P. Donehoo, D.D., Chairman of the Information Bureau; Col. William A. Herron, Chairman of the Reception Committee, and Henry A. Breed, Secretary of the Committee of Arrangements; to the Trustees and members of the Third Presbyterian Church, for the use of their church edifice and other special courtesies extended; to the choirs and organists of the churches for their aid in the services of song; to the ushers for their courteous attentions during the sessions of the Assembly; to the pages for the promptness of their service; to the Committee who provided flowers for the sanctuary in which we have met; to the Post-office officials for efficient service in providing a Post-office in the chapel; to the Western Union Telegraph Company, and Telephone Company, for introducing their plants in the building for the convenience of the Assembly; to the Daugherty Typewriter Company for typewriters and stenographers, located in the building for the use of the Assembly, free of charge; to the Fourth Avenue Baptist Church for the use of their building and furniture for the lunches given to the Commissioners; and to all other congregations in the city for the hospitality and courtesy extended to the members of the Assembly.

Resolved, 3. That thanks are due and are tendered to the Press, secular and religious, for notices of the sessions, and for their generally full and accurate reports of our proceedings.

Resolved, 4. That the thanks of the Assembly are due and are tendered to H. P. Frick, Esq., for passes through and courtesies at the Homestead Steel Works, and to the Committee on Excursions, who provided the Commissioners of the Assembly with the delightful drive through Schenley and Highland Parks, and for the entertainment provided at the Casino; especially do we recognize the extreme courtesy and kindness manifested by those gentlemen who, while furnishing their horses and carriages for the excursion, also drove their teams and gave much desired information to the Commissioners regarding the points of interest in and about the drive; also, to the authorities of the city who afforded facilities in the use of the Casino, and otherwise promoted the pleasure of the drive through the parks.

Resolved, 5. That the thanks of the Assembly are given to the First National Bank for the courtesies so freely extended to the Mileage Committee, and to the members of the Assembly; also to the Railroad Corporations which have made concessions to the Assembly in the matter of rates of fare, and especially to the officers of the railroads centering in this city, for their courtesy and liberality.

Resolved 6, That we render devout and heartfelt thanks to God for His Fatherly care, by which serious illness or afflictive providences have been averted from the members of the Assembly.

Resolved 7, That in bidding farewell to the good people of Pittsburgh, who have by their continued attendance at the sessions of this Assembly manifested their devoted attachment for and interest in the cause of Presbyterianism, we earnestly pray that as the hills encircle their thriving city, so the continued guardian care of our covenant-keeping God may surround, protect and bless them and theirs: and that grace, mercy and peace may dwell with them always, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, Rev. W. L. McEwan, D.D., acknowledged the resolutions of thanks for himself and others, and made a farewell address to the Assembly. To this address the Moderator responded in the name of the Assembly.

After solemn praise and thanksgiving, the business of the Assembly having been completed, and the vote taken for the dissolution, the Moderator dissolved the Assembly, saying, "By virtue of the authority delegated to me by the Church, let this General Assembly be dissolved, and I do hereby dissolve it, and require another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., on the third Thursday of May, 1896."

The sessions were closed with singing, prayer and the apostolic benediction.

WILLIAM EVES MOORE, Permanent Clerk.

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

APPENDIX.

I. Narrative, Necrology, Correspondence, etc.

NARRATIVE

OF THE STATE OF RELIGION WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR THE YEAR ENDING APRIL 30, 1895.

The Committee on the Narrative of Religion respectfully reports:

The past year of religious history in our Church has necessarily given impetus and direction to the course of events in their onward flow towards the future. Each member has contributed his share to the success or failure of the year, as he has fulfilled or neglected or misused the opportunities of his stewardship. We must look to personal piety with its source in God and its fruit unto holiness and tending by the law of spiritual gravitation heavenward, to effect any true results in the Church of our Master. This individual, sanctified life of the believer, has, during the past year, been found everywhere among our people in greater or lesser degrees of intensity; showing itself in a true faith, in spiritual worship, and in the habits of holy living. As a consequence, the local churches with their worship, government, and recognized office as witnesses for God to man, have been conserved.

The reports from the Presbyteries indicate a year's work that would have been impossible, had not the Spirit kept alive in the souls of the members a life hid with Christ in God. In every part of the land our people received grace to meet the emergencies of life, and the requirements of the kingdom, as those to whom the Lord has committed a great trust; and, who use it in holiness, justice, goodness and truth.

Evidently, from sea to sea, Presbyterians study to be Christians in character and act. Herein lie the possibilities and hopes of the future, as well as the greatness of the present. During the past year the Master has been carrying on the work of grace in His purchased people, who have, during this period, been worshiping God in the Spirit, rejoicing in Christ Jesus, and striving to forsake all confidence in the flesh.

Family worship, we fear, although largely respected, has not the common usage its claims demand. A family altar, hallowing the home life, in this precious usage of domestic piety, is a sweet illustration, albeit in narrow bounds, of the fellowship of saints in the household of believing parents, and should bless the daily life with a power of impulse, restraint and endurance possible to those who honor God, and are, in return, honored by Him.

In many places the baptized children do not seem to be watched over with any special care. The questions, What profit is there in baptism? or,

What advantage has the child of God's children? seem to not even have an empty echo for an answer. This neglect confuses those who receive with those who do not receive this seal of the covenant. The great majority of reports, however, indicate the fidelity of parents to this ordinance.

The absence of children from the church services is frequently mentioned. The early establishment of the habit of attendance; the firm, but kind pressure of parental authority; the shortening of the time of religious services, or making the separate parts of service briefer, together with special attention given to the children's capacity for praise, prayer and preaching, are suggested as possible means of increasing the attendance of the young.

As a rule, the condition of the Sabbath-schools is regarded as encouraging, and through them many members are added each year unto the church. Reports vary greatly in reference to the teaching of the Shorter Catechism. In some Sabbath-schools it is either neglected, or only the single answer to the question stated in the lesson for the day is required of the scholar. In the majority of the schools the Catechism is taught.

While nothing is said of the attendance of the scholars upon the services of the church, a number of the reports tell of the increased attendance of the youth upon the evening services, when the Y. P. S. C. E. holds its meetings either before or after this service. The suggestion is made to teach the children to contribute to all the Boards of the Church by having the school make contributions to them all. Instruction about the benevolence of the Church, the names of the Boards and their objects, are no drier than many things that they are required to learn in schools sacred or secular. The amounts contributed would, in many cases, be small, but the education would be valuable and the aggregate of the littles would be great. We plead for a most intimate connection between the school and the life, services and work of the church of which it is a part.

There is generous mention of the benefits derived from the various societies of young people, which carry on their special work for social worship or of benevolence, with results of great value to the cause of Christ. While in some instances complaint is made that their organizations are difficult to control, and the attendance upon them is often preferred to attendance upon the regular worship, still, wisdom and regard for the ways of youth, and the thought that everything human has its flaws and difficulties, may teach the lessons that patience and long suffering and cautious kindness, may overcome many of the evils that the clinched fist of authority might only aggravate.

Wherever there is an organized church there is public worship. Presbyterians are faithful in keeping open church throughout the land.

Additions to the roll of membership are everywhere the rule; here and there during the year large accessions have blessed particular churches; the Lord has not forsaken His heritage, and the foolishness of preaching saves them that believe. Varied organizations for the varied departments of church work exist and multiply. Division of religious labor tends to run to seed. Distinction of the sexes, differences of ages, diversity of occupation, are used to furnish the occasion for special societies. A wise discretion here is needed by pastors and sessions. A good rule would seem to be to vitalize and use vigorously what we have in hand, and know by experience to be good, rather than hastily to multiply new agencies from an impulse of sentimentality, or, the rivalry of mere imitation.

But while we have efficient and sufficient organization of women and children and youth, the call is to be made for the organization of men. The men of our Church, as a class, are falling to the rear of the great host of God in both service and benevolence. This occurs largely because they are not organized into associations as the women are. We call attention to this matter and hope it will receive consideration. As statistics show, the probability is that the proportion of males to females, in the American Protestant churches, as a whole, is about two to one—i. e., the males constitute about one-third of the membership. The number of unconverted males within the reach of our Church is, therefore, very great. Any ordinary congregation shows the preponderance of females attending upon public worship. To evangelize men, to pray and labor for their salvation, is the need of the hour second to no other call of duty in the sphere of Christian work.

The financial blight has, as we are well aware, affected our material resources. But the distress has called out, in very many persons and churches, a spirit of self-denial and self-sacrifice, and earnest prayer for God's help in the time of great need, so that we will soon see and hear of sanctified prosperity coming into the lot of God's people, and blessing the agencies through which they work for their King and their God.

There are serious obstacles in the way of the progress of the Gospel. Some of these are: The common vices that prey upon society. The attacks upon the foundations of social order. The ever-new and protean forms of evil emerging in the guise of angels of light from the cave of error, and pleading their cause in the varied names of expediency, or advanced thought; or wider liberty of conscience or action; or the necessities of a new civilization; or the comforts and conveniences of a modern life; or a naturalism that, unable to find God, ignores Him; or a butterfly life that hardens its votaries, gradually but inevitably, against all religious impressions, and leaves the soul with only an earthly horizon; or a secularity converting business into an occupation whereunto all else becomes secondary. But Christ our Lord says, according to your faith, be it done unto you; so that, by and in the power, and in the vision of faith these mountains can be removed also.

The outlook—The wheat and tares go together, but the wheat persists and the tares perish. The prayers of the Church are heard; and her alms have gone up for a memorial before God. In troublous times she not only endured but prospered; and now an open road stretches out into the distance before her. The benediction of grace, mercy and power fills her with the fullness of God. The Master bids her take up the cross and follow Him. With this command in her ears, she obeys cheerfully, with a solemn joy, and a purpose not born of earth, to follow, both here and in the hereafter, the Lamb, whithersoever He goeth.

In behalf of the Committee,

WILLIAM H. COOKE, Chairman.

WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

LETTERS FROM THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION OF THE ALLIANCE OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES HOLDING THE PRESBYTERIAN SYSTEM.

LONDON, ENG., March, 1895.

To Rev. William Henry Roberts, D.D., Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

DEAR BROTHER:—The Sixth General Council of the "Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System," will meet in St. Andrew's Hall, Berkeley street, Glasgow, Scotland, on Wednesday, June 17, 1896.

At the London Council of 1888, it was agreed "That the representation in the Council shall be: For each hundred congregations or less, two delegates up to 1000 congregations; above 1000 congregations, one delegate for each additional 100 up to 2000 congregations; above 2000 congregations, one delegate for each additional 250 congregations."

In the case of union of churches represented in the Alliance, it is recommended that the number of delegates remain as previous to union, till the following meeting of the Council, when, on the union being reported to the Council, the future number of delegates shall be determined (Vol. of Proceed., 1888, p. 308).

At the Toronto Council of 1892, it was farther agreed, "That in order to advance the interests in Coöperation in Mission Fields, each of the churches represented in this Alliance be invited to send to the meetings of Council a Representative of its Foreign Mission Board or Committee, and such representative shall be entitled to act as a Corresponding Member" (Vol. of Proceed., 1892, p. 280).

Will you have the goodness to communicate this letter to the Supreme Court of your Church at its approaching meeting, and secure the appointment of delegates to the Council. It will be of great service to the Glasgow Local Committee if you send me the names and addresses of the delegates as soon as these have been appointed by your Church.

Yours fraternally,
G. D. MATHEWS, General Secretary.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 8, 1895.

The above letter of the General Secretary of the Alliance, in accordance with the regulations duly adopted by the Council, is hereby subscribed by the officers of the Western Section of the Executive Commission.

TALBOT W. CHAMBERS, Chairman.
WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Secretary.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 22, 1895.

To the Venerable, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

DEAR BRETHREN:—The Western Section of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System, respectfully report to your venerable body that the work of the Commission has progressed favorably throughout the year. Notification respecting the meeting of the Sixth General Council of the Alliance was forwarded last year, and is repeated this year in a communication from the General Secretary. The Commission respectfully request that you authorize your Treasurer to pay the customary annual apportionment towards the expenses, viz., $765.

Very truly yours,
WM. HENRY ROBERTS,
Secretary Western or American Section.

FRATERNAL LETTER TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES, IN SESSION AT DALLAS, TEXAS.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in session at Dallas, Texas:

DEAR BRETHREN IN THE LORD JESUS CHRIST:—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, now holding its quarter-centennial session as a reunited Church, in the city of Pittsburgh, Pa., recalls with cordial pleasure and hearty appreciation your fraternal letter addressed to this Assembly in the year 1886, at the quarter-centennial session of your body. With responsive affection we extend to you our most cordial fraternal greetings. We are brethren having one ancestry and one faith. We have ever rejoiced in your progress and prosperity in the blessed service of our Lord and Master, Jesus Christ, and earnestly pray that His blessings may crown your labors in ever-increasing measure.

We would stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance touching the attitude which we have steadily maintained for years towards that organic reunion which would make us one in fact as well as in faith. While we do not purpose to press this thought unduly upon your minds and hearts, we do desire again to assure you of our readiness to reciprocate any advances which you may be led to make in this direction, under the guidance of the Spirit of Christ, who prayed that we may be one.

We rejoice in that great opportunity which God has given you to spread the blessings of the Gospel of His Son among the freedmen of the South; and we shall gladly coöperate, in all feasible ways, to advance the evangelization of these people.

"May the Lord bless you and keep you. May the Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you. May the Lord lift up His countenance upon you, and give you peace."

In behalf of the Assembly,

ROBERT RUSSELL BOOTH, Moderator.
WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.
WM. E. MOORE, Permanent Clerk.

ANSWER TO THE FRATERNAL LETTER.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., now in session at Pittsburgh, Pa.:

DEAR BRETHREN IN THE LORD:—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, now in session at Dallas, Tex., thank you heartily for your fraternal letter and assure you that we appreciate it most highly. As evidence of this appreciation, we have ordered it to be printed in the Appendix of our Minutes for the use of our churches and future Assemblies. We congratulate you upon attaining the twenty-fifth anniversary of your reunited Church, under many signal tokens of God's presence with you We pray that the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, and in Him the God and Father of both you and us may bless you continually "with all spiritual blessing in heavenly places in Christ according as He hath chosen us in Him before the foundation of the world that we should be holy and without blemish before Him in love."

We are fully one with you in all the fundamental constituents of the Holy Catholic Church. Most especially, brethren beloved, we thank you for that truly fraternal spirit and delicate appreciation of our position, which make your letter so very precious and so very fragrant to us. Let us walk together in full fraternity of love and sympathy in all the great and numberless things in which we are agreed, and thus be encouraged to pray and hope that if in anything we differ, God may reveal even that unto us, and take away every blemish.

And now may the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you and us perfect in every good work, to do His will, working in you and us that which is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

C. R. HEMPHILL, Moderator.
JOSEPH R. WILSON, Stated Clerk.
ROBERT P. FARRIS, Permanent Clerk.

LETTER FROM THE DELEGATE OF THE GENERAL SYNOD OF THE REFORMED CHURCH IN AMERICA.

To the Moderator and Brethren of the Presbyterian Church in General Assembly:

It is my pleasant duty, by appointment of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, to convey to you our fraternal salutations.

This is made doubly easy by the fact of our close kinship, and the further fact that there are no unpleasant memories of past disagreements between us.

We stand, as you do, for "Christ's crown and covenant." The Divine Sovereignty—which finds its most glorious illustration on the cross—is the centre and standpoint of the Reformed system. "Christ first, Christ last, Christ midst, Christ all in all."

We stand, as you do, for the integrity of the Scriptures as God's infallible rule of faith and practice. "We receive the Books of the Old and New Testaments, and these only, as holy and canonical, for the foundation of our faith, believing without doubt all things contained in them."

We stand, as you do, for the fundamentals of Christian morality. With respect to the temperance reform, personal purity, political righteousness, the sanctions of the Sabbath and kindred questions, the deliverances of our General Synod, like those of the General Assembly, have never had an uncertain sound.

We stand with you, also, for the great propaganda. In our own country the Reformed Church has taken thirty years to double its membership. But in the broader field of Foreign Missions we point with humble, grateful pride to a record which has scarcely a parallel in recent history. It is surpassed by the Moravian Church alone. In all these things "we be brethren."

"Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares."

It is our desire, as a denomination, to stand abreast of progress. But in the interest of a true conservatism we hold, as you do, that there are some things—such as air, sunlight and spring water—which time cannot impair nor science improve. The truths which centre in God are, like Himself, the same yesterday, to-day and forever.

It is scarcely to be wondered at that a Church born amid the sufferings of the Spanish Fury and cradled in persecution, should be strenuous in the defense of the faith of its fathers.

We incline to liberalism, but we agree with you that there is no rational liberalism for God's people except such as recognizes the ultimate authority of God's Word. We aim to be, like yourselves, no broader than the Law and no more liberal than the Gospel. We dare not shrink from the narrowness of the way that leadeth to life.

In this substantial oneness of faith and practice we greet you. The Presbyterian Church has a glorious past, and, please God, a still more glorious future.

"It is guid to be honest and wise,
It is guid to be upright and true,
It is guid to defend Caledonia's cause
And bide by the bonnets o' blue."

The Lord's blessing be upon you in your General Assembly, in your various churches, in your work upon the frontiers of America and in the regions beyond. The Lord make His face to shine upon you always and everywhere, for His name's sake.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,
DAVID JAMES BURRELL.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES.

The Answers of the Board of Directors and Trustees of the Theological Seminaries to the Proposals of the General Assembly Contemplating Changes in their Charters; Being the Appendix to the Report of the Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries.

PRINCETON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

BOARDS OF DIRECTORS AND TRUSTEES.

The Committee appointed to take into consideration the resolution of the General Assembly respecting the relations of the Assembly to the Seminaries, and report their recommendations thereon, respectfully submit the following paper:

The General Assembly, at its last session, in May, 1894, adopted a resolution in which it "requested" that each and all of the "Seminaries of the Church" should "secure, at the earliest moment practicable, such changes in their charters, or amendments thereto," as would accomplish four results, specified as a, b, c and d.

It also appointed a Committee of Conference "to confer with the various Seminaries, with a view to securing their approval of said resolutions and their consent to said changes in their charters, and for the purpose of aiding them, by counsel and otherwise, in securing the necessary changes and amendments to the respective charters herein recommended;" and this Conference Committee was directed to report to the next Assembly "for final action on the whole subject by the Assembly."

The Boards of Directors and Trustees have had several joint conferences with the Conference Committee of the General Assembly; and, subsequently, the two Boards jointly conferred.

It is evident from this action of the General Assembly, as well as from what the Committee stated, that the General Assembly's action was not final, but that it desired the views of the various local Boards of the Seminaries, to whom had been committed the immediate management of the Seminaries, as to all the proposed changes and amendments, before taking "final action upon the whole subject."

The Boards of Directors and Trustees, in separate session, have since carefully considered the matter thus sent to them by the General Assembly for their "approval" and "consent;" which terms necessarily imply that the Assembly desired the general views of these Boards as to the wisdom and feasibility of the proposed "changes" and "amendments" in the charter.

Indeed, the Chairman of the Conference Committee in his letter expressly states that he was directed to communicate with the Boards to ascertain their views with reference to carrying out the recommendations of the General Assembly.

These Boards do not understand that the Assembly expects or desires absolute uniformity in the charters and administration of the Seminaries, but that what is desired is:

1. That the property of the Seminaries should be absolutely and irrevocably secured to the Presbyterian Church and its Faith and Government.

2. That the actual workings and teachings of the Seminaries should be in true accord with the Standards of our Church: and,

3. That the Assembly shall possess some distinct and feasible mode of enforcing its control in case of any violation of duty by those to whom has been committed the immediate administration of these sacred trusts.

The Directors and Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church at Princeton do not antagonize, but, on the contrary, cordially acquiesce in, and are in fullest sympathy with, the sentiment of the resolutions contained in the Report of the General Assembly's Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries, made to the General Assembly at its session in 1894, namely: That the Church should control the instruction given in its Theological Seminaries, and that the funds held for the purpose of theological instruction should be used only for such education in the doctrines set forth in the Standards of the Church.

I. As to Item a, relating to the funds and property:

The General Assembly, in May, 1811, adopted the "Plan of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, located at Princeton, N. J.," which had been reported to it by a committee appointed by the previous Assembly in 1810.

In the Introduction to that Plan it stated: "Influenced by the views and considerations now recited, the General Assembly, after mature deliberation, have resolved, in reliance on the patronage and blessing of the Great Head of the Church, to establish a new institution, consecrated solely to the education of men for the Gospel ministry, to be denominated 'The Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.' And to the intent that the true design of the founders of this institution may be known to the public, both now and in time to come, and especially that this design may, at all times, be distinctly viewed and sacredly regarded, both by the teachers and the pupils of the Seminary, it is judged proper to make a summary and explicit statement of it.

"It is to form men for the Gospel ministry who shall truly believe and cordially love, and therefore endeavor to propagate and defend, in its genuineness, simplicity and fullness, that system of religious belief and practice which is set forth in the Confession of Faith, Catechisms, and Plan of Government and Discipline of the Presbyterian Church, and thus to perpetuate and extend the influence of true evangelical piety and Gospel order.

"It is to provide for the Church men who shall be able to defend her faith against infidels and her doctrines against heretics.

"It is to preserve the unity of our Church by educating her ministers in an enlightened attachment not only to the same doctrines, but to the same plan of government."

(That the quotations hereinabove made from the Introduction to the Plan may have their full force, the whole Introduction is hereto annexed as an Appendix.)

After thus founding the Seminary and publishing this Plan to the public, the General Assembly proceeded to collect funds to endow and build the Seminary.

In 1815, with some of these moneys it purchased the six acres of ground upon which the main Seminary building was erected; and subsequently the other buildings, or most of them, were built thereon. The title was held by individual Trustees for the Seminary, as ordered by the General Assembly.

In 1821 it directed a Charter to be obtained for the Seminary. This was procured in 1822 and submitted to the General Assembly in 1823 and was disapproved by it. An amendment was procured, and in 1824 the Charter and amendment were submitted to and accepted by the General Assembly, which at the same session adopted rules as to the election by it of the Trustees of this corporation. It also directed the individual Trustees to convey the real estate in Princeton to the corporation, which was done.

This corporation was called "Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church." It was authorized to receive all real and personal estate given to or acquired by it "for use of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, located at Princeton, in the State of New Jersey, or any other person or persons, to the use of the said Seminary, or in trust for the same."

The concluding paragraphs of Section i of the Charter are: "And further, that the said corporation and their successors may take and receive any sum or sums of money, and any portion of goods and chattels that have been given to and for the use of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, or to the Directors thereof, or to any other person or persons, body politic or corporate, in trust or for the use of the said Seminary, or that hereafter shall be given, sold, leased or bequeathed to the said corporation by any person or persons, bodies politic or corporate; that is able or capable to make a gift, sale, bequest or other disposal of the same; such money, goods or chattels to be laid out and disposed of for the use and benefit of the aforesaid corporation agreeably to the intention of the donors, and according to the objects, articles and conditions of this act."

Such objects clearly are, and forever must be held to be, the objects set forth in the Introduction to the Plan of this Seminary. They and they only are the objects for which the act of incorporation was procured, at the instance and desire of the General Assembly; and with the view and for the purpose of effectually and forever securing the funds of the Seminary for theological instruction according to the Standards of our Church. It is for such purpose, under the terms of the Charter itself, all funds given to this institution without any specific trust named by the donor, must be held. And to such use and application the courts would certainly and strictly hold the Trustees.

By the sixth section, the General Assembly was authorized to change, at its annual meeting, one-third of the twenty-one Trustees of which the corporation was to consist, "in such manner as to the said General Assembly shall seem proper." And the corporation was empowered to manage and dispose of the property "committed to their care and trust by the said General Assembly; but in cases where special instructions for the management and disposal thereof shall be given by the said General Assembly in writing under the hand of their Clerk, it shall be the duty of said corporation to act according to such instructions."

The ninth section directed that the corporation should "once in a year exhibit to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, an exact state of the accounts and funds of said corporation."

This history has been given in order to show how singularly careful the General Assembly and the men who founded this Seminary were, so to lay its foundations that then and in all time to come, or, to quote the exact words, "now and in time to come"—that the "public" and "the teachers and the pupils of the Seminary" might know that it was established solely for the education of men for the Gospel ministry, "who shall truly believe and cordially love, and therefore endeavor to propagate and defend, in its genuineness, simplicity and fullness, that system of religious belief and practice which is set forth in the Confession of Faith, Catechisms, and Plan of Government and Discipline of the Presbyterian Church."

As these Boards understand this history and the Charter of the Seminary, all the property of every kind given to the General Assembly, either directly or to its corporation since 1811, and now held in any way for this Seminary, is sacredly and absolutely devoted to the education of men for the Gospel ministry, according to the Standards of our Presbyterian Church; and that no property thus held, or that may hereafter be given to the Seminary, or for it, can be used for any other purpose.

This, also, we are instructed by those learned in the law, is their opinion upon the subject.

These facts now recited are so inseparably interwoven into the history of our Church and of this Seminary, and are so susceptible of easy proof, that it is not necessary, in the opinion of these Boards, to make any amendment to the Charter of the corporation. Even if the proposed amendment was inserted in the Charter, it would not make it more effective than it now is.

It is respectfully submitted that the words used in the Plan of this Seminary, and already quoted, are fuller, stronger and more explicit for the purposes sought to be attained by the Assembly, than those used in Item a. And, as they are so ineffaceably engraved upon the foundation stones of the Seminary, it is believed by these Boards that it is unnecessary and unwise to endeavor to add to them.

II. As to Item b, relating to the election of Trustees, Directors or Commissioners:

In so far as this proposed amendment relates to this Seminary, practically the mode suggested is in substantial accordance with the mode of election now in force. These Boards are distinctly of opinion, and have been for many years, that local Boards of Directors and Trustees are best suited to the proper government and control of the educational and fiscal affairs of the Seminaries. As at present constituted, the General Assembly can change both Boards in the course of a little over one year.

But, if amendments are to be made, we suggest one substantially as follows, viz.:

That the election and filling of vacancies in the Boards of Trustees, Directors, Commissioners, or whatever the bodies governing the teaching or property are named, shall be made by such Trustees, Directors, Commissioners or bodies; and this provision shall be in lieu of any power of election or change of said Trustees, Directors, or the like, now vested in the General Assembly. Such elections, or filling of vacancies, however, shall be valid until the session of the General Assembly next succeeding, to which the same shall be reported, but shall not take effect as absolute elections unless approved by such General Assembly; failure of the General Assembly to act thereon shall be regarded as an approval of said elections. Should the General Assembly disapprove such elections, other persons shall be elected to fill the vacancies.

III. As to Item c, relating to the election of Professors in the Seminary:

Virtually the amendment proposed is in accordance with the mode of procedure now existing, with the exception that in the Plan of the Seminary the only limit to the qualifications of professors is in Article iii, Sec. 2, viz.: "No person shall be inducted into the office of Professor of Divinity but an ordained minister of the Gospel."

If any amendment is to be made like that contemplated, it would seem that c should contain at least a proviso that the Directors should have the power to provide such instruction as they may deem necessary, till the next succeeding meeting of the General Assembly.

IV. As to Item d, relating to the mode of enforcing the views of the Assembly in case of a supposed violation of their duties by the Board of Directors or Trustees:

This Seminary is the creation of the General Assembly, and it is right that it should have a complete mode of enforcing its control of the Boards to whom has been committed the actual management of the educational and financial affairs of the Seminary.

Should the case arise, that the General Assembly was of opinion that the Directors or Trustees were not performing their duties aright, it could, in a short time, redress the supposed wrong by turning out of office all the Directors and Trustees. This amendment would strip the Assembly of this power and limit it to an appeal to an impartial court of justice, which would decide as to the alleged violation of duty.

If the Assembly should still be of opinion that such an amendment should be obtained, the Boards will endeavor to secure such action as will insure to the General Assembly the right to be represented in the courts, and to enforce its proper control over the Seminary and its property.

The foregoing expresses the views of these Boards in regard to the proposed amendments.

The General Assembly, however, has appointed the Committee of Conference, in order to secure the "approval" and "consent" of these Boards to these amendments. This necessarily implies their hearty "approval" and "consent." The Boards, therefore, feel justified in expressing most respectfully their judgment, that, so far as the proposed amendments apply to this Seminary, they are not necessary, and it is better that they should not be made, and for the following reasons:

First. As has already been fully shown, all of the property now held by the Seminary corporation, or that may be hereafter acquired by it in any way, is distinctly and ineffaceably dedicated to the education of men for the Gospel ministry who shall truly believe and cordially love "in its genuineness, simplicity and fullness, that system of religious belief and practice which is set forth in the Confession of Faith, Catechisms, and Plan of Government and Discipline of the Presbyterian Church;" and can be used for no other purpose.

This has already been so fully stated that no more need be added.

Second. The proposed amendments as to the election of Directors and Trustees and Professors are substantially what now exist, and have been successfully in operation during the last twenty-five years.

Third. As to the control of the General Assembly over both Boards, the proposed amendments lessen rather than increase the power of the Assembly.

Under the Plan of the Seminary as now existing, the Assembly can, by a unanimous vote at any of its sessions, change the plan, and abolish the whole Board of Directors, and commit the educational control of the Seminary to others; and if no unanimous vote can then be procured, at its next session it can accomplish this result. This is a more speedy and efficient remedy than any court of justice can supply.

Fourth. As to the control over the Trustees, the Assembly now has the power, in the opinion of learned counsel, to give them special instructions for the management and disposal of the property of the Seminary, which they are bound to obey, if not repugnant to law or to the provisions of any specific trust.

In addition, it can, at any of its sessions, turn out one-third of the number, and put in an equal number of its own selection, which might give the Assembly at once a majority of the Trustees. And if did not, then at the next annual meeting of the Assembly it could turn out another third and appoint others in their places, and thus secure an undoubted majority in but little over a year. This is a more speedy and effective remedy than any which any court of justice could supply.

Fifth. Should the Directors and Trustees still refuse to obey the Assembly, and to give place to the Directors or Trustees thus elected by the Assembly, we believe that a court of justice would furnish the General Assembly a proper remedy.

Lastly. During nearly eighty-four years the General Assembly has been in complete harmony with the Board of Directors. During nearly seventy-one years precisely the same relations have existed between the General Assembly and the Board of Trustees. There has been no jar with either Board. During these eighty and more years, the Board of Directors and the Board of Trustees, under the wise supervision of the General Assembly, have so managed the educational and financial affairs of the Seminary that it has wonderfully prospered; and a great army of ministers of the Gospel have been educated and sent forth, all of whom, with but few exceptions, have cordially loved and sincerely believed "the system of religious belief and practice which is set forth in the Confession of Faith, Catechisms, and Plan of Government and Discipline of the Presbyterian Church."

In all of these years the Professors and Teachers in this Seminary have taught and maintained, faithfully and unswervingly, the same beloved Standards of the Presbyterian Church.

And at no time in all its history has the fidelity of the Seminary, its Professors, Teachers, Directors and Trustees, to the entire Standards of the Church been more clear, absolute and pronounced than at this very time. And never before has its list of pupils been so great as at the present session.

Is it not the wisest thing to do to let the Plan and the Charter—both venerable in years—stand untouched? They have been tried and have not been found wanting.

For the reasons herein above fully set forth, the Trustees and Directors of Princeton Theological Seminary very earnestly express the hope and desire that the Committee of Conference, in making their report to the General Assembly, will concur with them in the belief that as to the Charter of this Seminary no further legislation is needed or desirable to secure the purposes declared in the Committee's Report adopted by the General Assembly, or to secure the application of the funds and property now held in furtherance of the theological education contemplated by the original founders of the Seminary.

APPENDIX TO PRINCETON REPORT.

Inasmuch as the obtaining of salvation through Jesus Christ our Lord, to the glory of the eternal God, is the chief object which claims the attention of man; and considering that in the attainment of this object the dispensation of the Gospel is principally instrumental, it is manifestly of the highest importance that the best means be used to insure the faithful preaching of the Gospel and the pure administration of all its ordinances. With this view, therefore, institutions for the education of youth intended for the holy ministry have been established in all Christian countries, and have been found by long experience most eminently conducive to the prosperity of the Church. Hence the founders of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America did, from its very origin, exert themselves with peculiar zeal to establish and endow colleges, academies and schools for the education of the youth for the Gospel ministry. So rapid, however, has been the extension of this work and so disproportionate, of late, has been the number of ministers educated, to the call which has been made for ministerial service, that some additional and vigorous efforts to increase the supply are loudly and affectingly demanded. Circumstances also do imperiously dictate not only that the laborers in the vineyard of the Lord should be multiplied, but that they should be more thoroughly furnished than they have ordinarily been for the arduous work to which they must be called. Influenced by the views and considerations now recited, the General Assembly after mature deliberation have resolved, in reliance on the patronage and blessing of the Great Head of the Church, to establish a new institution consecrated solely to the education of men for the Gospel ministry, and to be denominated The Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. And to the intent that the true design of the founders of this institution may be known to the public, both now and in time to come, and especially that this design may at all times be distinctly viewed and sacredly regarded both by the teachers and the pupils of the Seminary, it is judged proper to make a summary and explicit statement of it.

It is to form men for the Gospel ministry who shall truly believe and cordially love, and therefore endeavor to propagate and defend, in its genuineness, simplicity and fullness, that system of religious belief and practice which is set forth in the Confession of Faith, Catechisms, and Plan of Government and Discipline of the Presbyterian Church, and thus to perpetuate and extend the influence of true evangelical piety and Gospel order.

It is to provide for the Church an adequate supply and succession of able and faithful ministers of the New Testament—workmen that need not be ashamed, being qualified rightly to divide the word of truth.

It is to unite in those who shall sustain the ministerial office, religion and literature; that piety of the heart which is the fruit only of the renewing and sanctifying grace of God, with solid learning, believing that religion without learning, or learning without religion, in the ministers of the Gospel, must ultimately prove injurious to the Church.

It is to afford more advantages than have hitherto been usually possessed by the ministers of religion in our country to cultivate both piety and literature in their preparatory course; piety, by placing it in circumstances favorable to its growth, and by cherishing and regulating its ardor; literature, by affording favorable opportunities for its attainment and by making its possession indispensable.

It is to provide for the Church men who shall be able to defend her faith against infidels and her doctrines against heretics.

It is to furnish our congregations with enlightened, humble, zealous, laborious pastors, who shall truly watch for the good of souls, and consider it as their highest honor and happiness to win them to the Saviour, and to build up their several charges in holiness and peace.

It is to promote harmony and unity of sentiment among the ministers of our Church, by educating a large body of them under the same teachers and in the same course of study.

It is to lay the foundation of early and lasting friendship, productive of confidence and mutual assistance in after life among the ministers of religion, which experience shows to be conducive not only to personal happiness but to the perfecting of inquiries, researches and publications advantageous to religion.

It is to preserve the unity of our Church by educating her ministers in an enlightened attachment not only to the same doctrines, but to the same plan of government.

It is to bring to the service of the Church genius and talent, when united with piety, however poor or obscure may be their possessor, by furnishing, as far as possible, the means of education and support without expense to the student.

It is to found a nursery for missionaries to the heathen, and to such as are destitute of the stated preaching of the Gospel; in which youth may receive that appropriate training which may lay a foundation for their ultimately becoming eminently qualified for missionary work.

It is, finally, to endeavor to raise up a succession of men at once qualified for and thoroughly devoted to the work of the Gospel ministry, who, with various endowments suiting them to different stations in the Church of Christ, may all possess a portion of the spirit of the primitive propagators of the Gospel, prepared to make every sacrifice, to endure every hardship, and to render every service which the promotion of pure and undefiled religion may require.

AUBURN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS.

The Board of Commissioners of the Theological Seminary of Auburn, in the State of New York, being met in their annual session on this 9th day of May, 1895, express their gratification that several members of the General Assembly's Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries have accepted the invitation to meet and confer with them at this time.

The Commissioners have listened with interest and pleasure to the explanations given by these gentlemen of the various changes in the Charters and methods of control of the Theological Seminaries recommended by the Assembly of 1894; and express the sincere trust that this cordial conference, with its frank interchange of opinion, has resulted in a better mutual understanding of both the views and purposes of the Assembly, and of the peculiar and advantageous position occupied by this Seminary.

The Board desires to remind the Committee of Conference, and through them the General Assembly, that the Theological Seminary of Auburn is, by its Charter, under the direct and efficient control of eighteen adjacent Presbyteries within the State of New York. With these Presbyteries rests the absolute and exclusive right to elect from their own number the members of this Board of Commissioners, by whom in turn the Trustees and Professors of the Seminary are selected.

This constitutes a method of direct ecclesiastical control by which this Seminary was already, within the meaning of Article ix, of the concurrent declarations of 1868 of the Reunion compact, under Synodical supervision; and which, we believe, must afford a more effective safeguard against any possible perversion of funds or franchises than restraint by the General Assembly could possibly secure. This method has also approved and commended itself by its successful and harmonious operation for three-quarters of a century.

In view of these facts, whereby the Charter and government of Auburn Theological Seminary seem already to secure all these substantial ends desired by the General Assembly, and in view also of the difficulties and dangers unavoidably attendant upon any attempt to modify a venerable Charter, this Board is constrained to reaffirm its judgment, as expressed in November last, that it is inexpedient to take any action which may have in view any changes in the Charter, relations or methods of control of this Seminary.

FREDERICK W. PALMER,
Stated Clerk of Board of Commissioners.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

I am directed by the Trustees of Auburn Theological Seminary to transmit the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted at our annual meeting, May 9:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this Board that it is not expedient to consent to any change in the custody and care of the funds of this institution, or in the mode of the election of members of this Board."

LEVI PARSONS, President.

WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

The Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, being satisfied that the Seminary now stands in such close relation to the Presbyterian Church that both its teachings and its use of all its property can be controlled by the General Assembly, subject only to a reasonable lapse of time and such legal restrictions set forth in the Charter as have not hitherto called out objections, sees no reasons to ask in behalf of this Seminary any change in existing relations to the General Assembly. The Board is not averse to an effort having as its chief end the bringing of all our theological seminaries into closer relations of sympathy and confidence with the Church at large, but it is the opinion of this Board that this cannot be accomplished successfully except through some plan which is acceptable to all the seminaries now approved by the General Assembly, and it deprecates a division of these seminaries into different classes as regards their relations to the General Assembly.

EDWARD P. COWAN, Secretary.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

The Board of Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary, at its annual meeting in Pittsburgh, May 10, took the following action:

"The Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary, after a careful consideration of the suggestions of the Committee of the General Assembly on Theological Seminaries, would affirm their hearty agreement with the principles when this Committee was appointed, and the end sought, as both the Committee of the General Assembly and the Trustees of this Seminary are agreed that the Charter of the Seminary is one of the strongest that could be framed to secure the property to the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and that substantially the only way in which the purposes of the Committee can be secured is in the way of general legislation, by the Legislature of Pennsylvania authorizing various denominations and associations of men in case of threatened or actual malfeasance in trust, to appear in court through their proper officers or representatives in order to enforce the execution of trusts created for their benefit, in pledging ourselves to cordially unite in efforts to secure such general legislation."

S. J. FISHER, Secretary.

LANE SEMINARY.

At the meeting of the Board of Trustees, May 1, 1895, it was

"Resolved, That while this Board desires in all proper ways to show its loyalty to the Presbyterian Church, and has an earnest wish to maintain the most cordial and harmonious relations with the General Assembly, in view of the legal and other complications which might result from the proposed amendments, and the doubtful validity of such if enacted, we feel constrained to decline to take any steps to effect such changes as are contemplated in the resolutions of the last General Assembly regarding Theological Seminaries."

R. FOLSOM, Secretary.

UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

"WHEREAS, The General Assembly's Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries, through its Chairman, the Rev. William C. Young, D.D., has, under date of September 1, 1894, requested the Board of Directors of Union Theological Seminary to adopt the recommendations of the General Assembly with reference to the amendment of our Charter, and in case of our unwillingness to do so, has asked us to arrange for a conference, therefore,

"Resolved, That the Board of Directors of Union Theological Seminary respectfully declines to accede to the recommendation of the General Assembly to seek the amendment of our Charter, and hence considers a conference unnecessary."

E. M. KINGSLEY, Secretary.

DANVILLE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

The following paper was unanimously adopted November 8, 1894:

"Being advised that, under our present Charter, the Board of Directors has the legal power, by the adoption of by-laws, to accomplish the purpose contemplated by the General Assembly of 1894, in its Plan for the Government of the Theological Seminaries, and it being suggested that there are grave legal difficulties in effecting an amendment of the Charter itself, therefore,

"Resolved, That the four propositions a, b, c and d of the first resolution, found on pages 65 and 66 of the Minutes of 1894, be, and the same are hereby accepted by this Board as by-laws and ordinances for the government of the Directors of the Danville Theological Seminary, under the care of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, so far as the funds of the Seminary are not devoted by the donors thereof to some special purpose, or are not beyond the control of this body."

STEPHEN YERKES, Secretary.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

Resolved, 1. That this Board is in full sympathy with the action of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as appears by their adoption of the Report of the Committee of Fifteen on Conference with Theological Seminaries, and the Board believes that the General Assembly of our Church should have and retain the fullest and broadest control over its Theological Seminaries, the Professors who instruct therein and the course of instruction adopted.

Resolved, 2. By reason of the fact that this Board deems it inexpedient to ask from the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, any amendment of its Charter granted by said General Assembly of Kentucky in 1854, and which incorporated this Board of Trustees, for the reason that, under the existing conditions of affairs, this said Charter is not subject to amendment, alteration or repeal by said Legislature, but, under the provisions of the present Constitution of Kentucky, if any amendment of said Charter be sought, then the Legislature will have the power to make, at any time, any amendment or alteration that it may deem wise and proper, the Board must decline to ask for such amendments as would give it power to comply with some of the requests of the General Assembly.

By reason of the limitations on the power of this Board under its said Act of Incorporation, it has no authority over or control of the election, appointment or transfer of professors or teachers in its Seminary, and therefore the Board takes no action on that point.

Further, under this Charter, this Board feels compelled to retain control of the funds and property of said Seminary in its hands, subject to the terms of said Charter, but the Board expresses the confident belief that at no time will these funds be applied to any purpose or use opposed to the direction and wishes of our General Assembly.

By Section 12 of said Act of Incorporation, this Board is compelled to provide, out of the estate, funds or income in their keeping, and control the payment, from time to time, of such salaries and compensation of professors and other teachers and officers of said Seminary as shall be allowed, directed and established by the General Assembly at any of its annual meetings, and heretofore these payments have been made in accordance with the direction of the Board of Directors of this Seminary, which Board is merely an agent of the General Assembly.

While this Board believes that, in accordance with the Charter under which it was created and exists, it cannot divest itself of, or transfer to, any other body the right of electing its members, yet, as evincing in the strongest possible manner, its desire to comply with the plan proposed by the Assembly, the Board unanimously decides that all elections to fill vacancies in its body shall not be by itself regarded as a complete and final election until those elected have been approved by the General Assembly.

G. W. WELSH, Secretary.

McCORMICK THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

"Resolved, That the Board of Directors recognizes with pleasure the close relations which this Seminary must, under its Constitution and Charter, sustain towards the General Assembly—relations which the Seminary desires to maintain in their full integrity as to teaching and all other particulars, and yet, regretting the necessity of declining any request of the Assembly, in reply to the proposal of the General Assembly, does not think it advisable or expedient to make the changes in our Charter proposed by the General Assembly."

A. W. RINGLAND, Secretary.

Chicago, May 2, 1895.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

In answer to your inquiry, I beg to say that inasmuch as the Board of Trustees of the McCormick Seminary is elected by the Board of Directors, we felt that the answer made by the Directors would be sufficient for your Committee in making its Report to the General Assembly.

We feel that our Constitution and Charter already express the closest relation to the General Assembly, and that the funds and property for which we are Trustees, are amply safeguarded.

The resolution of the Board of Directors above quoted expresses the sentiment also of the Trustees.

HENRY W. KING,
President of the Board of Trustees.

SAN FRANCISCO THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

I am authorized to inform the Committee that for want of time to give the matter due consideration at present, and because of the Seminary's peculiar relation to the Synod, the Board is unable to make a satisfactory answer just now, but that at its Fall meeting the subject would be taken up, and considered in such a way as to secure an expression from Synod, when Report would be made to your honorable Committee.

R. J. TRUMBULL,
Secretary Board of Directors.

BLACKBURN UNIVERSITY.

No communication from this institution has been received by the Committee.

GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF THE NORTHWEST, DUBUQUE.

It was unanimously resolved by the Board of Directors at a meeting held April 25, 1895, that the recommendations of the Assembly be adopted without change.

J. M. WILSON, Secretary.

GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF NEWARK.

After the conference meeting between the Committee of the General Assembly and the Directors of the German Theological School of Newark, held April 9, the Board considered the subject of the conference for two hours, and postponed action to the stated meeting of the Board held yesterday, when the following resolution was adopted: "This Board, having duly considered the arguments so admirably presented by the General Assembly's Committee, would respectfully report that it still does not see its way clear to accept the changes proposed."

SAML. L. PINNEO, Secretary.

LINCOLN UNIVERSITY.

The Board of Trustees of Lincoln University, after a full consideration of their relation with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and of the trusts of which they are guardians, respectfully present to the Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries appointed by the General Assembly, the following statement and resolutions embodying the views of the Board:

Lincoln University is one indivisible, corporate person, constituted by its Charter for the scientific and classical as well as the theological education of colored youth of the male sex. It would be a violation of their trust to apply its undesignated and otherwise designated funds exclusively to the purpose of theological education.

The Theological Department has an undivided share in the use of these funds, as a feature of the Higher Education; but not an exclusive right to the whole benefit.

Our colored brethren have need that we should continue and enlarge the courses which prepare for distinctive theological studies. The General Assembly has many times approved our whole work as heretofore conducted, and have recommended it to the favor of the churches.

Other Educational Charities, Industrial Schools and State Systems of Education exclude the negro from the classical training which the Presbyterian Church requires of her candidates.

Lincoln University has from its beginning given to the negro the same education which his white neighbor holds to be important as a qualification of the Gospel ministry, and for the highest success in the liberal professions.

The General Assembly has now the control of all theological instruction, and thereby of the use of all theological funds; not by the annual consent of the Board of Trustees, but by the Charter of the University, which cannot be changed by the Board of Trustees.

But the property of the University specially devoted by the donors to theological education, is not by itself sufficient to provide an adequate course of theological studies.

We have been able to maintain the Theological Department in its present efficiency, only by making its undivided share of our income large enough for the purpose.

To separate it distinctively from our other work, according to the plan presented by the Committee of Conference, would require a very large accession of specially designated funds.

Resolved, 1. Therefore, in view of the unique character of our institution and the fact that our funds are held largely in undivided interests, we do not see our way clear to take steps in the direction indicated by the General Assembly in respect to finances.

2. As the right of the Assembly to veto the election of Professors is provided for by our Charter, we profoundly believe that the rights of the Assembly are at present secured. We understand the Assembly's right to cover all transfers and appointments as well as original elections.

3. We are perfectly willing for the time to come to declare a trust to be held for the Presbyterian Church in case of all funds for theological education when donors so designate.

W. R. BINGHAM, President.

OMAHA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

I have the honor and pleasure of enclosing a certified copy of the Articles of Incorporation, as adopted by the Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Omaha. We trust the same will meet with the approval of the Committee.

ASA LEARD, Secretary.

Articles of Incorporation.

In order that the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America may have and exercise proper control over the teachings in, and property of, "The Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Omaha," it is hereby provided as follows:

A. All funds and property of every name and nature, which may at any time belong to or be held by the said "The Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Omaha," shall be held by it in trust for the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and be used only for theological education in the faith and doctrine set forth in the Standards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as now or hereafter interpreted by its General Assembly, and for no other purpose; and this provision governing all said funds or property shall be irrevocable and inviolable.

B. The election of each and every Director, and the appointment or transfer of every instructor or professor in said Seminary, shall be subject to the approval of the next succeeding General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America; and no election, appointment or transfer shall take effect until so approved. The failure of the General Assembly, to which said elections, appointments or transfers are reported, to act thereon, shall be regarded as approval of said elections. No professor, instructor or teacher shall be inducted into office until his election, appointment or transfer is approved as herein provided, and each and every one of said teachers, instructors or professors shall be ministers or members in good standing of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

C. Power and authority are hereby given and granted to the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America to provide through and by its General Assembly, at any meeting thereof, such manner and means as said General Assembly may deem wise and prudent for the enforcement of the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, and may do so in the name of such person or corporation as it may direct by resolution certified by its clerk in any civil court having jurisdiction over this corporation or its property.

ASA LEARD, Secretary.

Of these matriculating students, there were enrolled as resident graduates, William John Hinke, a graduate of Ursinus Seminary; William Erskine McIlwain and Charles O'Neale Martindale, Jr., graduates of Columbia Theological Seminary; John Carpenter Palmer and Emmet Wollen Rankin, graduates of McCormick Theological Seminary; Robert Livingston Rudolph, a graduate of the Reformed Episcopal Seminary, and Gerrit Wielanga, a graduate of Kampen Seminary, in Holland.

The matriculants who were admitted to the Senior class comprise Charles Brasee Boving, Vernon Clyde Byers, Charles Dalzell, Loyal Young Graham, Jr., and William Main Schall, each of whom had completed two years in McCormick Theological Seminary: Richard Franklin Chambers, who had completed two years in Bangor Theological Seminary; William Hildrup Davis, who had taken two years in Queen's Divinity School, Kingston; John Morris Gillette, who had taken his Junior year in San Francisco Theological Seminary and his Middle year in Auburn Theological Seminary; John William Innes, who had taken two years in Allegheny Theological Seminary; William Archibald Littell, a graduate of Xenia Theological Seminary; Wolter Wagter Smith, who had done the equivalent of two years' work in the Theological School at Kampen, Holland, and David Nathaniel Yarbro, who had completed the first two years in the Theological School of the Southwestern Presbyterian University.

The following matriculants were enrolled in the Middle class, each of whom had completed one year in the institutions named. Alfred Hamilton Barr, in the Western Theological Seminary; Oliver Crawford and Samuel Currie, in New College, Edinburgh; John Donaldson and John Thompson, in Assembly's College, Belfast; Robert Reed Gailey, William Mestrezat Hudson, Theodore Vincent Kelly, William Maclaughlin and William Luther Schmalhorst, in McCormick Theological Seminary; Frederick Atherton Hamilton, in Louisville Theological Seminary; William Charles Hogg and Hugh Gage Moody, in Magee College; Franklin Cornwell Jennings, in Columbia Theological Seminary; Albert Emerson Stuart, in Union Theological Seminary, New York city, and John Thomas Westbrook Tillar, in the Theological School at Lebanon, Tenn.; also John Moffatt Mecklin and James Pattison, who had completed two years at Union Theological Seminary, Virginia, and Divinity Hall, Brisbane, respectively. John Tathem Dunn, William Hallock Johnson and Norman Clifford Shirey were also admitted to the Middle class although they had not completed the work of Junior year at any Theological Seminary, their studies having been interrupted from various causes.

Of the twenty matriculants recorded as non-graduates, ten have taken a regular course of study at either Mount Hermon, Divinity Hall, Brisbane, Magee College, Londonderry, Queen's College, Belfast, or a European Gymnasium; institutions where the students do not technically graduate.

The enrollment during the year just closed has been:

Fellows,	3
Resident Graduates,	17
Seniors,	78
Middlers,	84
Juniors,	77
Special Students,	5
Total,	264

Five special courses of lectures, including those on the Stone and the Students' Foundations, were delivered in accordance with the announcement in the annual catalogue. In addition to these courses, Dr. Henry C. McCook, of Philadelphia, delivered three lectures on scientific subjects less closely related to Biblical studies.

As Foreign Missions will receive prominent mention in the course of this Report, it may be said here that various phases of Home Missions were effectively presented at the Monthly Concert and at the Sabbath afternoon Conference, by Dr. Worden, Dr. William H. Roberts, and Dr. Sheldon Jackson; that a number of the members of the graduating class are under appointment to labor in connection with the Board of Home Missions, and that one of our special students, who is completing a term of three years of study and whose qualifications as a Sabbath-school missionary became so signally conspicuous two years ago that he virtually received his commission for the work then, goes out under the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

Evangelistic work has been carried on by the students in outlying districts as usual. At one of the stations where prayer-meetings are regularly held, a revival has resulted from these labors under God's blessing, and a number of additions on confession of faith have been made to one of the churches of the Presbytery. During the Christmas vacation also, the labors of a member of the Senior class who was at work in a neighboring State were so blessed as to result in a religious awakening.

With the sanction of the Presbytery of New Brunswick, our students addressed special missionary meetings in many of the churches within the Presbyterial bounds; and on invitation of the pastors, twelve men spoke on Missions, in Philadelphia, on April 7.

Of our seventeen resident graduates, one is under appointment to the foreign field; and two others, who are Japanese, will, on completing their studies, return to their native land.

The Senior class numbers seventy-four. Eleven of these have applied, or shortly will apply, to the Board to be sent to the foreign field. Five more have decided to offer themselves eventually, but are hindered from doing so now. The Board has accepted three of these applicants, holds two applications under advisement, and has rejected two of the candidates on physical grounds. It is understood, however, that these two men will labor under the direction of the Board in the foreign field at their own charges. The four men under appointment are, of course, subject to the recent decision of the Board not to send out any new workers until the financial embarrassment is relieved, unless the appointees themselves secure the funds to defray the cost of equipment, travel and support for one year. This rule affects four of our men, as just stated. One of these has raised the sum necessary for himself and his colleague, and they expect to start for Siam in August. The remaining two, who are under appointment to Africa, believe that they have fair prospects of securing the money needed to send them to that continent. In addition to the men enumerated, one other Senior, an Armenian by birth, returns to Turkey to engage in labor in that country.

The Middle class numbers eighty-three members. Fourteen of these fully expect to go to the foreign field on graduation; and three of them have already been approved by the Board.

To meet to some degree the needs of those students who look to the regions beyond as the field of their life work, the Faculty has provided an elective course of study in Comparative Religion. But it is felt that the time is ripe for the introduction of the study of Missions into the curriculum of the Seminary, assigning to it equal rank with the other branches of theological learning, and aiming to send forth our graduates into the home pastorate impressed with the supreme importance of Missions, awake alike to the obligation imposed by the Master's last command, and to the solemn trust committed by the Lord and His Apostles to the Church, and intellectually equipped for indoctrinating the people. The Board of Directors has accordingly given to the Faculty full authority to establish a course of lectures on Missions, in which will be treated the philosophy, the Biblical basis, the history, and the Scriptural norm of Missions. Instruction will also be given upon the pastor's methods of conducting the Foreign Mission work which devolves upon his church at home. The plan, so far as yet matured, comprehends four lectures by Dr. W. B. Greene, Jr., on "The Place of Missions in Comparative Religion;" four lectures by Dr. Vos, on "Biblical Theology and Missions;" six by Dr. DeWitt, on "The History of Missions from the Close of the Apostolic Period Until the Evangelical Revival of the Eighteenth Century;" six lectures by Mr. Martin, on "The History, Methods and Results of Protestant Missions," and four lectures by Dr. Paxton, on "The Practical Theology of Modern Missions."

The Board of Directors has initiated measures to enable the Seminary to confer the degree of Bachelor of Divinity upon those students who secure approval in the examinations of the enlarged course.

The Board gratefully acknowledges the generous gift of $1500 by Mrs. Elliot F. Shepard, of New York city, which secures the continued services of the Rev. Chalmers Martin for another Seminary year.

The George S. Green Fellowship in Hebrew has been awarded to William McDougald Jack, and the Alumni Fellowship and Archibald Robertson Scholarship in New Testament Studies to William Edward Biederwolf.

The prizes offered to members of the Senior class have been awarded as follows: The first Carter prize to Frank Dos Passos Hickman; the first Scribner prize to Rufus Luther Barackman, the second to Frank Dos Passos Hickman. Of the prizes open to the Middle class, the Stanton prize has been awarded to George Johnson; the first Maitland prize to John Moffatt Mecklin, and the second to Thomas Franklin Barrier, with honorable mention of Fred Earl Andrews and Luther Davis. Nine theses were presented in competition for the Maitland prizes. These four were of an unusually high order of merit.

Since the date of the last Report, certificates of graduation have been given to sixty-seven persons. Two other certificates for good work done by them have also been granted to Edward Payson Berry and Howard Milton Wright, making sixty-nine in all. All these sixty-nine young men were members of the Senior class recently graduated. The following is a list of them, except the two already named:

—69 in all.

It is here gratefully acknowledged that the past year has been full of signal blessing and encouragement to our Seminary. Our Professors' Chairs are all once more filled by able, learned, earnest and most acceptable professors. The instructions given were never broader, deeper, more valuable, more blessed of God than now. The number of students was never before so large as now; while there is a prospect of a still larger number next year. The whole tone and influence of the institution have been unusually good, and there have been many cheering indications that the Holy Spirit has been present in this honored school of the prophets.

The class of Directors whose terms would have expired in May, 1895, have all been reëlected. They are:

William C. Cattell, D.D., LL.D., Philadelphia.
Elijah R. Craven, D.D., LL.D, Philadelphia.
William E. Schenck, D.D., Philadelphia.
John Hall, D.D, LL.D., New York City.
William Irvin, D.D., New York City.
James T. Leftwich, D.D., Baltimore, Md.
Samuel T. Lowrie, D.D., Philadelphia.
George Junkin, LL.D., Philadelphia.
Silas B. Brownell, LL.D., New York City.
Hugh H. Hamill, Esq., Trenton, N. J.

The Rev. Maitland Alexander, of Long Branch, N. J., has been elected to fill the vacancy caused by the lamented death of the Rev. James McCosh, D.D., LL.D., whose term as a Director would have expired in May, 1896.

Judge William M. Lanning, of Trenton, N. J., has also been elected to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of Barker Gummere, LL.D., whose term would also have expired in May, 1896.

All of which, by order of the Board, is respectfully reported.

III. WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

Annual Report of the Directors.

The Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny, Pa., present to the General Assembly the following as their Sixty-eighth Annual Report. Since the last Annual Report, the following students have been matriculated:

Robert Louis Barr,
Julius Writer Brockway,
Robert Scott Calder,
James DaCosta Chisholm,
James Francis Elder,
Samuel E. Foote,
George Louis Guichard,
James White Harvey,
Jasper Jay Kuhn,
Charles Albert McCrea,
James Presley McDonald,
William Franklin Reber,
John Addison Rodgers,
George Edward Sehlbrede,
George Jones Timblin,
Walter Lowrie Wilson,
Alexander Boyd Young,
Charles Otis Bemies,
Nathan L. Brown,
Cummings Waldo Cherry,
George McCune Donehoo,
Harry D. Ewing,
W. P. Herman Frederick,
Otis Harter,
Winfield Scott Kreger,
John O. C. McCracken,
Harry Sylvester McCutcheon,
John Milton Oliver,
James Franklin Record,
Oliver Lee Seward,
Francis Bacon Stevenson,
DeWitt White,
Thomas Richard Yates.

Of these, twenty-nine entered the Junior class. Messrs. Otis Harter and F. B. Stevenson entered the Senior class, the former coming from Princeton Theological Seminary, and the latter from Oberlin Theological Seminary. Mr. G. E. Sehlbrede entered the Middle class, coming from McCormick Theological Seminary. Mr. DeWitt White, a graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary, entered as a post-graduate.

The whole number of students enrolled for the year is one hundred. Of this number three were resident graduates; thirty-two were Seniors; thirty-five were members of the Middle class; thirty-three were Juniors.

Of the number enrolled, over ninety per cent. are College graduates, and the rest have taken either a partial College course or studies in Normal schools. All are pursuing the full Seminary course. It is the purpose and effort of the Faculty to maintain a high grade of scholarships.

The Missionary Society of the students has met weekly, and has been addressed by the following persons: Rev. W. J. P. Morrison, India; Rev. W. H. Lester, Chile; Rev. Robert H. Milligan, Africa; Rev. S. A. Hunter, LL.D., formerly of India, and Mr. James E. Adams, of the Inter-Seminary Missionary Alliance.

The Thursday Morning Conference has been conducted through the year mainly by the members of the Faculty who have given addresses. In addition the Conference has also been addressed with great acceptance by the following persons: Rev. Samuel G. Wilson, Tabriz, Persia; Rev. Sheldon Jackson, D.D., Alaska; Rev. Charles H. Bradshaw, Hoboken, Pa.; Rev. George W. Dowkontt and Mr. Pitkin, of the Students' Volunteer Movement.

The following students completed the full course of study, and received, in the regular way, from the Board of Directors the usual diploma after having passed the required examinations:

Robert Campbell Aukerman,
Joseph A. A. Craig,
Clayton Wesley Eldredge,
Allen Gilbert Gaunt,
Ulysses Sherman Greves,
Otis Harter,
Otis Howell,
Michael Wilson Keith,
Marshall Bell Leneer,
Charles Jessie McCracken,
Samuel Willis McFadden,
Uriah Watson McMillen,
Eugene Augustus Mitchell,
John Duncan Paul,
Francis Bacon Stevenson,
James Martyn Wilson,
Daniel Brownlee,
Joseph Wallace Dunbar,
William Robert Farmer,
Paul De LaVinne Gardner,
John T. Hackett,
David E. Helper,
William Caldwell Johnson,
Elsworth E. Lapsley,
Melzar D. McClelland,
Alexander David McCulloch,
George W. McIntyre,
Charles P. Marshall,
W. Loveridge Oliver,
Paul Jones Slonaker,
Curtis R. Stewart.

The department of Elocution, under the care of Prof. George M. Sleeth, has been conducted by him with faithfulness and earnest effort for the instruction of the young men. He reports an increased interest and a larger attendance of the students.

The Librarian, Mr. James Wilson, of the Senior class, has been prompt and faithful in the duties of his position; and has earned the high regard of the Faculty. Mr. James A. Kelso has been chosen his successor for the coming year.

The health of the students has been remarkably good, so that attendance on Seminary duties has been excellent. Good order has prevailed, and no occasion has arisen for any word of admonition from the Faculty.

During the latter half of the year, the illness of Prof. Robinson prevented his attendance upon his class work. His place was happily and successfully filled by Rev. Henry T. McClelland, D.D., a former professor in the Seminary, to whom the Board of Directors is under great obligation for his faithful and excellent work.

The closing exercises this year were held in conjunction with the triennial meeting of the Alumni Association of the Institution. On Wednesday evening, May 8, Rev. Dr. Behrends, of the Congregational church, addressed the graduating class in the First Presbyterian Church, in Allegheny; and with the delivering of the diplomas, a reunion of the former graduates was held in the First Presbyterian Church, on Thursday evening, May 9, in connection with an entertainment given by the Presbyterian Union, of Pittsburgh and Allegheny.

During the year three members of the Board were removed by death, namely: Rev. Charles S. Pomeroy, D.D., Robert D. Mowry, M D., and Mr. David Robinson. The place made vacant by the death of Rev. Dr. Pomeroy has been filled by the election of Rev. A. A. E. Taylor, D.D; the place made vacant by the death of Dr. Mowry has been filled by the election of H. K. Beatty, M.D., and the place made vacant by the death of Mr. David Robinson has been filled by the election of Mr. John G. Stephenson. Mr. Robert Pitcairn was also elected as a member of the Board in the place of Mr. George A. Berry, who resigned on account of health. Rev. David R. Breed, D.D., was elected to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of Rev. John F. Patterson, and Rev. H. D. Lindsay was elected to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of Rev. Samuel B. McCormick. Mr. Patterson resigned on account of his removal to Orange, N. J., and Mr. McCormick resigned on account of his removal to Omaha, Neb.

The outgoing class of Directors of 1895 was reëlected and made the class of 1899.

During the year the Board has met with a severe loss by the death of David Robinson, our late Treasurer. His deep interest in the spiritual and temporal welfare of the Seminary, his unfailing devotion to its interests, his inestimable services in the care of its finances and his large and stimulating generosity to its funds should always be remembered by the friends of the Seminary. The Board placed upon its records a minute also of its sorrow over the death of two others of its members—the late W. J. Alexander, of Monongahela City, and the late I. N. Hays, D.D. Mr. J. I. Buchanan was chosen Trustee to fill the vacancy made by the death of Rev. I. N. Hays, D.D., and Mr. J. M. F. Carpenter to fill that occasioned by the death of Mr. Alexander, and Mr. W. A. Robinson to fill that occasioned by the death of David Robinson.

Mr. David McKinney Lloyd was elected Treasurer.

Library expenses (Library Fund),		393 04
Total,			$19,855 32
Cash on hand April 1, 1895,			$4,536 46

The balance on hand April 1, 1895, includes $1564.67 endowment money and $1250 scholarship money, both sums to be invested as permanent funds.

It is seen that $7306.71 was expended last year for taxes, interest and insurance and repairs, i. e., for the care of the Seminary property, and that only $9628.90 was paid for running expenses.

VI. WORK OF THE YEAR.

It is the belief of the Board that the instruction provided the past year, though provisional in some of its features, was most efficient and satisfactory; and, as supporting evidence of this belief, it submits herewith the Report of the examiners appointed on the invitation of the Faculty, by the Synods of Ohio and Indiana and eleven Presbyteries.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

CINCINNATI, O., May 1, 1895.

To the Board of Trustees of Lane Theological Seminary:

The Examining Committee appointed by the Presbyteries and Synods to hear the examinations of the students in Lane Seminary have attended to their duty, and submit to your honorable body the following report:

The Committee consists of representatives from two Synods and eleven Presbyteries, as follows: Synod of Ohio, Rev. J. G. Galbreath; Synod of Indiana, Rev. C. T. White, who represents also the Presbytery of Whitewater; Chillicothe Presbytery, Rev. W. J. McSurely; Dayton Presbytery, Rev. D. E. Brice and Rev. T. M. Hillman; Cincinnati Presbytery, Rev. J. S. Thomas and Rev. W. F. Gowdy; New Albany Presbytery, Rev. W. S. Barnes; Portsmouth Presbytery, Rev. Park W. Taylor; Bellefontaine Presbytery, Rev. J. H. Whistler; Lima Presbytery, Rev. John Todd; Athens Presbytery, Rev. William A. Powell and Rev. Thomas Turnbull; Huron Presbytery, Rev. Clement G. Martin; Columbus Presbytery, Rev. William H. Fishburn.

The examinations have given us unusual satisfaction. In the department of Systematic Theology, in addition to the questions put by Dr. E. D. Morris, many questions were asked by different members of the Committee, all of which were answered readily and in such manner as to assure us that the young men were familiar not only with the usual text-books on the subject, but also with the current discussions in the reviews and magazines. The doctrine of Inspiration has been carefully taught, and the students gave evidence of having clear and pronounced views, wholly in accord with the Standards of our Church

In the History of Christian Doctrine we were convinced that the classes had passed over the ground very carefully and their replies were mature and well balanced. In the department of Church History, Prof. Hulbert has succeeded admirably, making the story of Christian progress a vital thing. His classes answered questions with an eagerness that indicated a love for this branch of study.

Prof. Hulbert has divided the periods of history by "cleavages and stadia," thus affording his students a row of mile posts on which they may mark the epochs.

Mr. Kemper Fullerton's Hebrew and Greek disciples passed an examination that can hardly be too highly praised. Along with the grammar he very happily combines exegetical and theological instruction, thus relieving this study of its dryness and making it an inspiration.

This is the day of specialists in every branch of science, and the general information of the classes has been greatly amplified by a novel system of instruction, and one that might profitably be adopted more largely by other institutions of learning, viz., a series of special lectures on special subjects by specially competent men.

In the Biblical Department, Rev. A. B. Riggs, D.D., of Cincinnati, has lectured on "The Exegeses of Galatians and Hebrews;" Rev. George S. Burroughs, D.D., of Crawfordsville, Ind., on "The New Testament Introduction," and Rev. Talbot W. Chambers, D.D., LL.D., of New York city, on "The Decalogue."

In the Department of Practical Theology there have been five special lecturers.

Rev. W. E. Moore, D.D., LL.D., of Columbus, has delivered twenty-four lectures on "Presbyterian Polity and Government and Pastoral Theology;" Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D., LL.D., of Chicago, has given seven lectures on "Sermonizing;" Rev. Charles A. Dickey, D.D., of Philadelphia, Pa., five lectures on "Preachers and Preaching;" Rev. Thomas Fullerton, D.D., of Cincinnati, has lectured once each week during the second term on "The Composition and Delivery of Sermons," and Prof. J. M. Chapman, of Crawfordsville, Ind., has given twenty lessons on pulpit oratory.

This system of instruction commends itself to your Committee. We feel that by this method students are brought more directly into touch with the real problems of to-day than they could be through the study of text-books alone, as these lecturers, in living contact with their subjects, are able to impress a deep personality upon what they impart.

Our confidence and interest in Lane Seminary have been confirmed as we have heard these examinations, and we commend this historical institution to the esteem and patronage of the Synods and Presbyteries which gave us our commission.

Respectfully, for the Committee,

W. J. McSURELY, Chairman,
WILLIAM H. FISHBURN, Secretary,
WILLIAM A. POWELL.

VII. RESIGNATION OF PROF. E. D. MORRIS, D.D., LL.D.

At the Annual Meeting of the Board, on May 1, Dr. Morris presented a communication reviewing his long connection with the Seminary, and resigning the position which he has filled with such eminent ability and success, and closing as follows:

"A strong reason for such withdrawal lies in the fact that the Seminary has now reached a point in its history where an enlargement of resources, an increase in the teaching force, and a general advance in all its appointments, are becoming necessary to its progress towards the larger prosperity and influence which we all agree in desiring. To such progress it is not likely that at this stage of my life I could make any special contribution. I am rather impressed with the hope that my retirement at this juncture might enable this Board with greater freedom to undertake the complex and difficult process of reconstruction—the way being thus opened more widely for whatsoever steps or projects may seem to the Board desirable. And I may add that it will be a joy to me if I can thus contribute, at whatever immediate cost to myself, to a result in which I would rejoice not only in this life, but even in the life to come.

"But another cogent reason for my retirement at an early date lies in the fact that, having now reached the seventieth year of life, and being apprehensive that I might break down entirely, and perhaps at some very inopportune moment, if I should attempt to carry much further the same amount of care and strain which has been upon me for the past two or three years, I feel it my duty as well as my privilege to pause at this point, and to seek by such retirement the relief and rest which a tired body and a still more tired mind and soul are craving I am sure that I have carried this sacred weight about as long and as far as I can carry it with safety to myself and to the Seminary, and therefore not without pain and with a sad sense of failure at many points, I ask you at the earliest practicable date to remove this weight, and to lay it as God may guide you on younger and stronger shoulders. I am not concerned about specific questions of time or circumstance or condition, confiding entirely in your judgment on such matters of detail—being anxious most of all that no detriment should come to the Seminary through my withdrawal from its service. And in thus resigning my place, it is right for me to say that I take this step in no mood of disaffection, with no disposition to harbor hostility towards any, but in peace and good will towards all men, and especially with a deep sense of gratitude to this Board for all the kindness and confidence manifested towards me in the passing years. And my daily prayer while life lasts shall be that Lane Seminary under your wise guidance shall continue to stand in its past and present position as representative of a free and liberal orthodoxy, and of a true, devout evangelism, and under that banner shall grow, generation after generation, in resources and numbers, and in power to instruct and bless the world.

"Respectfully submitted,

"EDWARD D. MORRIS.

"Lane Seminary, May 1, 1895."

On the recommendation of a Committee appointed to confer with Dr. Morris, the Board of Trustees, with deep regret, accepted his resignation, the same to take effect when his successor is chosen and is ready to enter upon his duties, with the request that meanwhile he continue his instruction, and, in connection with the Executive Committee, employ such additional instructors and lecturers as may be needed for efficient instruction during the next Seminary year.

In view of his long and distinguished service in the Seminary, the Board provides for his retirement, when this occurs, as Professor Emeritus of Systematic Theology, at an annual salary of $1500; and, as a further evidence of its high appreciation and esteem, unanimously adopted and put on record the following minutes:

"In accepting the resignation of Rev. Edward D. Morris, D.D., LL.D., of his office of Professor of Systematic Theology in this institution, the Board of Trustees desires to put on record, for a perpetual memorial, its expression of high and sincere regard for him. For thirty-two years he has sustained relations of trust and responsibility to the Seminary. In 1863 he was elected a Trustee and served until his election to the chair of Church History in 1867. In 1870 he was again elected a Trustee in order to act in an emergency as Treasurer and Superintendent, for which duties his admirable business qualifications gave him peculiar fitness.

"In 1874 Dr. Morris was transferred from the chair of Church History to that of Systematic Theology. In all his various relations to the Seminary he has always held the highest regard and confidence of the Trustees and of the community. The many and hearty testimonials given to him on fitting occasions show the warm and sincere esteem in which he has always been held by the alumni of Lane, and by his fellows in the ministry and by the Church.

"His work for the Church at large has been conspicuous. As a pastor he learned how to train pastors; as a preacher he learned how to guide preachers. As a theologian he has stood, in the culmination of his strength, among the first of the living theologians of the Reformed churches in our own and in other lands. He has been honored by our beloved Church with the highest office in its gift, and intrusted with the duty of representing it on many occasions of public import. He was one of the Assembly's Committee on the Revision of the Confession of Faith and one of the most influential of its members. A man of untiring industry, he has done much to sustain by his pen the reputation of Lane Seminary for sound scholarship and wide literary attainment.

"This Board would also record its special obligation to Dr. Morris for the signal service which he has rendered the Seminary during the past two years, the most trying years in its history. His heroic and wise efforts to preserve the continuous life of the imperiled institution have been, in important respects, the most valuable in his long official service, and we rejoice with him, not only in the remarkable success of these extraordinary efforts, but also in the promise, thus assured, of coming prosperity to the rescued Seminary. Nor would we fail to put on record our high appreciation of that devoted loyalty to the Seminary, which at all times has caused Dr. Morris to make every danger that has seemed to menace its usefulness and reputation a matter of personal concern, and our hearty commendation of that strong sense of duty which has impelled him to defend its policy and administration against all influences which have seemed hostile to its best interests. It is our belief that the Church, which he has so faithfully served in all these years, will not fail to give him due honor for his masterly advocacy of the interests of the Seminary in what seemed to him and this Board occasions of special peril. There are times in the history of institutions when proposed changes in their policy have to be met not only by a searching inquiry as to the grounds of such action, but. if need be, by a firm resistance to every threatened invasion of compact and charter rights, and, whatever of infelicity may attend such defenses of imperiled interests, will surely be overlooked when the conscientious and noble purpose that inspired them stands out in the clear light of history.

"In accepting with deep regret his resignation, tendered by reason of advancing years, and the monition of Providence, 'the night cometh,' we wish to put on our permanent records this expression of our appreciation of Prof. Morris as a Christian man, a scholar, a teacher and a most faithful colleague."

PLANS FOR THE YEAR 1895-96.

Dr. Morris' willingness to continue his services as professor until his successor is ready to enter upon his duties relieved the Board of serious embarrassment in making satisfactory arrangements, necessarily provisional, for the next Seminary year. Dr. Morris continues in general charge and will give his closing instruction in Systematic Theology. Prof. Henry W. Hulbert is continued as instructor in Church History; Rev. Kemper Fullerton, as instructor in the Hebrew Scriptures and Junior Greek; and Rev. A. B. Riggs, D.D., as instructor (two lessons a week) in New Testament Greek for the Middle and Senior Classes. Special courses of lectures will be provided in Church Polity, Pastoral Theology, and other departments of instruction. Full assurance is thus given that the students who attend Lane Seminary next year will have superior advantages.

Lane Seminary has the same ecclesiastical standing as the other Seminaries connected with the Presbyterian Church, and its students receive the same aid from the Board of Education. It is the earnest desire of the Board of Trustees and the Faculty to make the institution a still more efficient agency for the preparation of young men for the Gospel ministry, and, to this end, it earnestly solicits the generous confidence of the General Assembly. Its alumni have served the Presbyterian Church with marked efficiency and usefulness.

In behalf of the Board of Trustees,

Most respectfully submitted,

EMERSON E. WHITE,

President Board of Trustees.

ALEXANDER B. RIGGS, Secretary.

V. UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

["The Assembly disavows all responsibility for the teaching of Union Seminary, and declines to receive any Report from its Board until satisfactory relations are established."—Minutes, 1893, p. 161.]

VI. DANVILLE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

1. Annual Report of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors of the Danville Theological Seminary respectfully presents to the General Assembly the following as its Forty-second Annual Report.

I. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

The class of Directors whose term of service expires at this meeting of the Board has been elected for another term of three years, with the exception of Mr. L. T. Chiles, who has never attended. Mr. J. T. Dwelly, of Ludlow, Ky., has been put in the place of Mr. Chiles; and Mr. H. C. Baker, of Columbia, Ky., in place of Dr. J. C. Maxwell, deceased, of the class whose term expires in 1897. At the time of his decease, Dr. Maxwell, with possibly one exception, had been longer in this service than any other member of the Board. He offered his resignation at our last annual meeting, but consented, at the request of his brethren, to continue in office. He died during the week preceding our present meeting.

The officers and members of the Board at the present time are as follows:

Rev. James T. Lapsley, D.D., President.
Rev. William C. Condit, D.D., First Vice-President.
Prof. A. B. Nelson, M.D., Second Vice-President.
Rev. Stephen Yerkes, D.D., Secretary.

Ministers.	Elders.
Term expires in May, 1885:
H. H. Allen, D.D.,	G. E. Wiseman,
W. C. Condit, D.D.,	W. H. Wherritt,
Maurice Waller, D.D.,	Andrew M. J. Cochran,
J. H. Herbener, D.D.,	John B. Minnis,
R. R. Sutherland, D.D.,	J. T. Dwelly.
Term expires in May, 1896:
J. T. Lapsley, D.D.,	D. J. Curry,
L. F. Walker, D.D.,	A. B. Nelson, M.D.,
W. S. Fulton, D.D.,	H. V. Loving,
W. C. Young, D.D., LL.D.,	L. B. Todd, M.D.,
S. W. Boardman, D.D., LL.D.,	John A. Simpson.
Term expires in May, 1897:
J. P. Hendrick, D.D.,	A. J. Grundy,
W. O. Goodloe, D.D.,	F. B. Trussell, Esq.,
J. R. Collier, D.D.,	E. W. C. Humphrey, Esq.,
J. W. C. Willoughby, D.D.,	Kilburn W. Smith,
W. J. Trimble, D.D.,	H. C. Baker.

II. FACULTY.

Stephen Yerkes, D.D., New Testament Literature and Exegesis.
John M. Worrall, D.D., Biblical and Ecclesiastical History and Church Government.

CLAUDE B. H. MARTIN, D.D., Systematic Theology and Study of the English Bible.
JOHN L. MCKEE, D.D., Elocution and Mission Work.
WILLIAM C. YOUNG, D.D., LL.D.. Homiletics and Pastoral Theology.
CLARENCE K. CRAWFORD, A.M., Old Testament Languages and Exegesis and Biblical Antiquities.

No change has been made in the corps of teachers since our last report, nor in the distribution of the work; but the Rev. Mr. Crawford has been formally appointed as an instructor in the department of Old Testament Languages and Exegesis and Biblical Antiquities. For six years he has acted as an assistant in the department of Biblical Literature and Exegetical Theology, which was assigned to Prof. Yerkes by the General Assembly of 1869, in the rearrangement of the chairs at that time; and for the last two years he has had entire charge of the instruction on the Hebrew side of that chair. He is now put directly in charge of it by the Board, and the chair of New Testament Literature and Exegesis has been assigned to Dr. Yerkes. This alone is the department of instruction for which the latter is responsible in the future. Mr. Crawford has been recently ordained by the Presbytery of Transylvania and is now absent in Europe and the East.

Ever since his connection with the Seminary, Prof. Worrall has given instruction to the Junior and Senior classes in the College for four hours a week. This arrangement will terminate at the close of this collegiate year and his whole time will be devoted hereafter to the service of the Seminary.

The Executive Committee was also authorized, if it shall be thought at any time advisable, to have one or more brief courses of lectures delivered to the students by persons not members of the Faculty.

III. STUDENTS.

Since the date of our last report the following eleven students have been matriculated:

Daniel J. Becker,
Henry G. Blish,
Albert M. Buchanan,
Maurice J. Doak,
William B. McBride,
John S. Martin,
Lucian D. Noel.
William S. Smalley,
Richard Spetnagle,
J. Frank Walton,
Alonzo P. Wilkinson.

One of these entered the Senior class, but took only a part of the course, not intending to apply for the certificate of the Seminary. Three entered the Middle class and three the Junior class. The remaining four have been taking a part of the studies of the Junior year and reciting at the same time in some of the classes of Centre College, and are not registered in our catalogue as members of any of the three regular classes, but as irregulars. The whole number of students has been 24: Resident Graduates, 2; Seniors, 3; Middlers, 9; Juniors, 6; irregulars, 4. Two members of the Junior class have not prosecuted the study of Hebrew during the year, but will take it up next session.

One of the members of the Senior class has been referred to above as not aiming to take the entire course; another left about the middle of the year to engage in preaching in the mountain region of Kentucky, under the direction of the Synodical missionary of the State, but with the purpose of returning hereafter to complete the course. The remaining one, Mr. Noah W. Dunn, alone, has finished the three years' curriculum.

Most, if not all, the students have been engaged during the session in some form of Christian work on the Lord's day—in preaching or in Sabbath-school instruction—in Danville or its vicinity. On the whole, though the number of students has not been as large this session as we had been led to anticipate, we still trust a brighter day has dawned upon the Seminary.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS.

The library has been enlarged but little the past year, only a few volumes and pamphlets being added by donation. The Seminary has no distinct fund set apart for the increase of the library. This is one of the two special wants of the institution at the present time, the other being an increase of the Scholarship Fund. Our library in its present condition is very valuable and of considerable extent, but is deficient in the more modern publications. In view of this fact the Board determined, a year ago, to appropriate a small sum annually from the General Fund to supply in some measure this want; and at this meeting measures have been initiated looking to a refitting of the new and commodious library-rooms, which, when completed, will be very helpful to all who use the library.

The report of the Board of Trustees will acquaint the General Assembly with the financial condition of the Seminary and with the income and expenditures of the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES T. LAPSLEY, President.

STEPHEN YERKES, Secretary.

Danville, Ky., May 1, 1895.

4. Library.

Volumes added this year, ... 2550

The following gifts should be especially noted:

The late Prof. E. C. Bissell by the terms of his will left us his very valuable library of 1488 volumes. This library is very rich in works on Biblical Criticism and allied subjects. By special request, these books are kept in a collection by themselves.

The widow of the late Prof. R. W. Patterson has given us his very valuable library of hymnological literature, consisting of two hundred and eighty-eight volumes. This, together with a large number of other works on hymnology, purchased by the Special Fund, forms an exceedingly valuable collection.

The Mission Band of Seminary Students has purchased and contributed to the library ten volumes.

The total number of volumes now in the library is about 18,000.

The new Library Building, erected by the generosity of Mrs. McCormick and her son, Cyrus H. McCormick, is almost completed, and arrangements for dedication will be made by the Executive Committee.

OFFICERS OF THE FACULTY FOR 1894-95.

Rev. ROBERT MACKENZIE, D.D., Chairman.
Rev. THOMAS F. DAY, Clerk.

3. GENERAL STATEMENT.

The Seminary has just closed a very successful year. Classes have been conducted with great regularity, and the general health of the students and professors has been unusually good.

It was thought advisable during the year to arrange for additional instruction in the department of New Testament Literature and Greek Exegesis, and pursuant to the arrangement, the Board called the Rev. W. B. Noble, D.D., to the work as temporary instructor, which position he has filled with much credit and success.

The Board has had the utmost satisfaction in installing four professors in the chairs which they have occupied for some years past, viz.:

Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D., Apologetics and Missions.
Rev. Thomas F. Day, A.M., Hebrew and Greek Exegesis.
Rev. Henry C. Minton, D.D., Systematic Theology.
Rev. Warren H. Landon, D.D., Practical Theology.

The exercises of installation, having been held in connection with the Annual Commencement, were interesting and instructive in the extreme, and were participated in by a vast concourse of the friends of the Seminary.

The President of the Board of Directors presided, and propounded the questions.

The Rev. Heber A. Ketchum, D.D., of Berkeley, and Rev. George D. B. Stewart, of San Francisco, conducted the devotional exercises. The Rev. Robert F. Coyle, D.D., of Oakland, offered the installing prayer, and the Rev. John W. Dinsmore, D.D., of San José, gave the "charge" to the professors-elect.

A new scholarship has been added during the year by Mrs. R. D. Stevens, of Oakland, Cal., to be called the "George W. Stevens Scholarship," in memory of her late husband, and the library has been replenished by handsome gifts of books from Miss Annie L. Tindall and others. The Montgomery Memorial Chapel is nearing completion, and the whole estate is in process of settlement, so that in the near future, the Directors hope to be able to mature plans which will add materially to the efficiency of the Seminary.

The Directors and Faculty desire to express grateful thanks to God for His goodness during the year.

4. Students.

The following students have been in attendance during the year:

A certificate of post-graduation was granted to Joseph K. Inazawa, of Japan, and graduate certificates to all the members of the Senior class.

5. Location.

The Seminary is located at Sunnyside, San Anselmo, an hour's ride from San Francisco.

The situation is peculiarly romantic and beautiful, close to the ocean, in the midst of the mountains, one of the most charming spots, as regards scenery and health, in the world.

The landed property consists of fourteen acres of ground, on which are located the Seminary buildings, Professors' houses, and Montgomery Memorial Chapel. The Seminary buildings and chapel are of brown stone, and will compare favorably with those of similar institutions.

6. Library.

The Library has over 18,000 volumes, comprising a valuable collection of standard works on theology, exegesis, ecclesiology, history, and allied subjects. During the year maps and books to the amount of about $100 have been added to personal gifts.

2. General Statement.

Thirty-nine (39) students have been in attendance during the past year. Each member of that class denominated "seventh year" in this Report received the diploma of the institution. All of these have taken the full course except Mr. August Peterson, who was partial in Arts and Sciences, but regular in the Theological Course. All our graduates for the year have already been licensed by their respective Presbyteries, and are in active work. Thus promptly are the finished products of this school in demand in the great field open to us.

Amid forbidding financial conditions, God has given favor to our Fiscal Agent, the Rev. Charles E. Schaible, in his efforts to endow the School, as approved by former Assemblies. We beg the continued and increasing favor of the Church at large in this important undertaking, and call renewed attention to the true German economy exercised in the administration of this School. We especially solicit the kindly remembrance of those who purpose making contributions to theological education to remember this cause, and its importance.

We would mention with affectionate remembrance the Rev. A. Van der Lippe, D.D., whom God took suddenly from the Chair of Theology, in July last, whose death made it necessary to supply his department until a successor could be regularly chosen. The Rev. Dr. William O. Ruston has performed these duties in part, giving instruction in English. Other vacant departments were filled by the Rev. E. Schuette, D.D., and the Rev. Elliott W. Brown, all of Dubuque, Ia. The Rev. Nicholas Martin Steffens, D.D., a member of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, has been unanimously called by the Board of Directors of this School to the VanVleit Chair of Theology. The approval of this election is respectfully asked of the General Assembly.

Death has removed from the Board of Directors an esteemed and valuable member, George L. Torbert, Esq., whose counsel uniformly stood fast in all matters of finance. The Board of Directors respectfully asks the Assembly's approval of Prof. Cornelius Bayless, as a Director, in the place of George L. Torbert, Esq.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Directors, April 24–25, 1895, the recommendations a, b, c, and d, of the Assembly's Special Committee, as recorded, Minutes of General Assembly, New Series, Vol. xvii, A.D. 1894, pp. 65, 66, were unanimously adopted, and order taken to secure the conformity of our Charter to said recommendations.

In behalf of the Board,

Respectfully submitted,
ADAM W. RINGLAND, President.

Rev. Frederick Ernst Hausser, Ph.D., Professor of Hebrew Exegesis and Church History.
Rev. Karl Frederick Hagenmeyer, Tutor in the Academic Department.

3. The Students.

There have been in attendance during the year fifty-nine students and two hospitants, making sixty-one in all: twenty in the Theological Department, twenty-eight in the Academic, eleven in the Special Course, one hospitant in the Theological Department, and one hospitant in the Academic Department.

The number of the graduating class in June, 1894, was six. Five students are in the present Senior class. A beginning has been made in the Fourth Theological year, or "The Pastoral Year," in which there has been one student in full attendance and three others, members of other classes, in partial attendance.

Three students have been promoted from the Academic to the Theological Department, one Theological hospitant has become a regular student, one student has been received into the Junior Theological class, one student has pursued semi-Theological and semi Academic studies, and one German student, born in Italy, who is engaged in Italian mission work in Newark, has attended German Theological lectures as a hospitant.

Ten students and one hospitant have been admitted into the regular Academic Course.

One Italian has been dismissed to the Drew Theological Seminary. Two Italians and four Bohemians have been received, and two young Italians deficient in education have been received as exceptional cases, for preparatory training. Six Bohemians and five Italians, including the young Italians mentioned, now constitute the Special Course.

The fifty-nine students comprise forty-eight Germans, six Bohemians and five Italians.

5. General Statements.

The year has been unfavorable to the prosecution of plans for Endowment, and only a few hundred dollars have been added to the permanent funds.

Each year renders our need of larger endowment more urgent. The present Professorships are inadequately maintained. The increase of students and the development of departments render an increase in the teaching force most necessary. The present building is entirely insufficient for the accommodation of the students and for their instruction.

The Special Course, which is a tentative course, has been expanded during the year, and promises a further growth so soon as means can be provided, in Bohemian and Italian houses, in Bohemian and Italian instructors and special funds, for these needy students. Both Bohemian and Italian evangelization are making progress under earnest ministers and laymen in various parts of our Presbyterian Church. It needs but good pastors and missionaries speaking to these people in their vernacular, to increase largely the number of those who will enter the liberty wherewith Christ makes free.

The Pastoral Year, which is designed to train our highest class in city mission work among the great metropolitan population in which the Seminary is located, as well as to give practical class-room instruction in subjects which lie intermediate between theory and life, should be gradually developed into a powerful spiritual discipline and into systematic results.

Our German Course is making a constant advance in numbers. The indications promise larger numbers in the future, as our Alumni increase the number of German churches and develop the young life of Christian families. The attractions of the institution and the facilities for instruction should keep pace with like institutions in America, which stand before the eyes of intelligent and Christian German people; the sharp edge of the physical and mental distress should be lifted from the students who are needy; and the Faculty should be relieved from financial cares and avocations for the Seminary, so that they can give more ample time to the spiritual development of the young men.

The year has been an inspiring one, although the financial depression has not suffered our income to keep pace with our growth.

Vernacular preaching to the foreign masses has just now an urgent importance. The whole problem of municipal reform depends largely on holding these people to political and patriotic virtue. "Undigested foreign material has much to do with moral depravity, while such unassimilated matter is the politician's opportunity." The Church of Rome is a polyglot Church, and is ready with a minister prepared in the vernacular, for every nationality that comes to America. The cessation of immigration is but an ebb tide for a reflow when the expected prosperity beams upon the waters. The Protestant Church and the Presbyterian Church cannot act too promptly in forming the internal thinking and feeling of these people to American and Christian conditions. What they need is an American and Christian mind and heart, and not simply a language like our own.

We can hardly overstate the issues which portend so much in the immediate future.

We appeal to Christian benefactors to give us a place in their last will and testament, and to sustain us before the solemn event which puts that testament in force. The opportunity opens before us of developing our Seminary into a noble far-reaching institution.

That the institution may be instinct with a Christ-like spiritual life, we invoke the fervent effectual prayers of the Church.

For the Board of Directors,
CHARLES E. KNOX, President.

Number of students, 40.

The academical year began on the 20th of September, 1894, and closed on the 16th of April, 1895.

The opening address was delivered by Rev. Samuel A. Martin, D D.; the annual sermon was preached by Rev. William P. Swartz, D.D., Wilmington, Del., on Sabbath, the 14th of April, 1895: John xvii. 18, "As thou hast sent me into the world, even so send I them into the world;" John xx. 21, "As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you." The preacher's appeal to the candidates for the ministry to cherish an unreserved consecration, an unwavering faith and a glowing love, as essential qualifications for their sacred mission, will long be remembered.

The degree of S. T. B. was conferred on Messrs. Collier, Jason, Miller, Tucker and Woolridge, in token of the satisfaction of the Board of Trustees and Faculty with their faithfulness and success as students.

Certificates of their attendance, and of our approval and confidence, were awarded to Messrs. Coverdale, Amos P. M. Johnson and Ephraim A. Johnson.

The Presbytery of Chester set the seal of its approval upon our work by ordaining, to the work of evangelists, after a thorough examination, Messrs. Collier, Miller, Tucker, Woolridge and Amos P. Johnson. Two of these young men offered themselves to the Board of Foreign Missions, hoping to be sent to Africa. They have been deferred for the present, awaiting the relief of the Board from its financial embarrassment.

Being nearly six per cent. on the entire investment.

The friends of the University have contributed about $10,000 to its current expenses. The Faculty closes the year without debt.

5. Inauguration of Professor William Deas Kerswill.

The General Assembly having approved the election of Rev. William Deas Kerswill, A.M., to the chair of Hebrew and Church History, the 16th day of April, 1895, was appointed as the time for his inauguration. At the time appointed, in the presence of the Board of Trustees, and Faculty, and students, and a large assemblage of friends of the institution, Professor Kerswill subscribed the following pledge:

"In the presence of God and of the Trustees of this University, I do solemnly and ex animo adopt, receive, and subscribe the Confession of Faith and Catechisms of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America as the confession of my faith, or as a summary and just exhibition of that system of doctrine and religious belief which is contained in Holy Scripture, and therein revealed by God to man for his salvation; and I do solemnly and ex animo profess to receive the form of government of said Church as agreeable to the inspired oracles; and I do solemnly promise and engage not to inculcate, teach, or insinuate anything which shall appear to me to contradict, or contravene, either directly or impliedly, anything taught in the said Confession of Faith or Catechisms; nor to oppose any of the fundamental principles of Presbyterian Church Government while I shall continue a Professor in this University."

The charge to Prof. Kerswill was delivered by Rev. George T. Purves, D.D., LL.D.

A copy of both the charge to the Professor and of his inaugural address will be sent to the officers of the Assembly as soon as they shall be published.

Lincoln University has experienced another grievous loss in its Faculty of Theology. Rev. Samuel A. Martin, D.D., has resigned the chair of Sacred Rhetoric, and has accepted the Presidency of Wilson College, at Chambersburg, Pa. Dr. Martin has been with us for ten years; and during that time our students have profited by his mature and varied scholarship, by his unusual aptness in teaching, and by his special skill and power in the exact and copious expression of thought. He has imparted to his students something of his own facility of utterance and correctness of critical judgment; and has habituated them to bring all departments of knowledge into contribution to the office of preaching. As a co-worker in the Faculty, we take pleasure in acknowledging our indebtedness to his assiduousness, both in the work of his own chair, and in the endless and nameless labor of making over to the students all the literary and sacred treasures of our Church.

Grateful for the benefit and blessing of his association with us for a few years, we reciprocate his kindness and courtesy in the manner of his going to a sister institution, with our hearty Godspeed to his new responsibilities; and we pray that the favor of God may make his administration at Wilson a greater blessing to that institution, which deserves his devotion and the good-will of the Presbyterian Church.

The Board of Trustees has taken preliminary measures to secure a successor to Dr. Martin; and we hope to present the name of a candidate acceptable to the General Assembly at its next annual meeting.

The Board of Trustees has made known to the Committee of the Assembly on Theological Seminaries the peculiar relation of our theological work to our general work of higher education. This permits the Theological Department to share in the general prosperity of the institution. Apart from this supplementary share we could not, in the present state of our Theological Endowment, conduct our educational work upon the scale required by the Constitution of the Church. We had hoped and still believe that our necessities suggest a solution of the vexed question of seminary supervision by the General Assembly. A veto power made effectual by restraining the use of the income of endowment held for the instruction involved in the veto would seem to provide fully against persistent teaching not according to the Standards of the Church.

The Rev. William R. Bingham, D.D., has given instruction during the past year.

We still hope and wait for the complete and separate endowment of the Theological Department.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Faculty,

ISAAC N. RENDALL,
President of Lincoln University.

The special favor of God is still being shown in the work of Christian higher education in Biddle University. The closing year has been as fruitful as any of its predecessors, with enlarged opportunity and greater efficiency in training candidates for the ministry.

The closing exercises of the School of Theology will take place June 5, and the Commencement of the School of Arts and Sciences the same day. The number of students in the School of Theology is nineteen—one more than last year—and with five exceptions all have taken a regular course of training. The growth of the School is quite marked in all respects, and the indications point to an increased number of students next year.

Preparation for the work of the Christian ministry is maintained as the leading feature of the work at Biddle. In all there are seventy-six students in the institution who have the ministry in view, and nearly all the Presbyterian ministry.

There have been twenty-three professions of religion among the students within the past year, and now only a few remain who are not professing Christians.

The total enrollment in the University this year is 260—a decrease of seventeen from last year; but as the lowest class in the Preparatory School has been eliminated since the last Report, there has been an actual increase of thirty-three in the classes remaining.

It is fully recognized that industrial education as one of the essentials in solving the problem of industrial emancipation for the negroes of the South should be encouraged, and so it is desired to enlarge the facilities in that department of the work.

Biddle now rejoices in the realization of the hope of enlarged dormitory accommodations. "Carter Hall," a commodious and well-appointed brick structure, 60 x 130 feet, four stories high, with eighty-four rooms, ample for housing one hundred and sixty-four students, two to a room, now stands upon the campus ready for use, an ornament to the institution, and a monument to the generous, Christian sympathy of the late Miss Laura Carter, of Geneva, N. Y., whose legacy provided that the work might be done, and whose name it very appropriately bears.

Special care is being taken to educate the students up to the condition of self-support. Their total earnings for the twelve months ending October 1, 1894, was $11.241.34.

The total graduates number 305, distributed as follows: Theological, 62; School of Arts and Sciences, 96; Normal and Preparatory School, 147. Fifty-one are active ministers, serving colored Presbyterian churches in the South, and one is at work in the North. Six are serving at Biddle University—five as Professors and one as Superintendent of the Home Department. One is a foreign missionary in Africa and Professor of Latin and Greek in Liberia College. One is a Bishop in the A. M. E. Zion Church. A number are lawyers and physicians. Twenty-seven are principals and teachers in Normal and High Schools, and scores of others are teachers in the Public Schools. The above leaves out of consideration hundreds of students who failed to reach graduation from one and other causes, and have entered the ordinary walks of life to exert an influence for good.

Thus it appears how the ever-deepening and widening power of usefulness of Biddle is taking hold of and uplifting the people.

Those in immediate contact with the work are greatly encouraged by the evidences of a growing interest in the institution and its mission among the colored people of the South. The General Assembly at Washington recommended that steps be taken to endow Biddle University. The recent financial depression has retarded progress in that matter. It is proper to call attention here to what endowments will do. They will:

1. Permit an enlargement of the facilities and usefulness of the School of Industries and other necessary improvements.

2. Enable Biddle to cope with the demand for scholarship aid, supplementary or as a whole, to indigent, worthy students.

3. Place Biddle University upon a secure foundation, where the Presbyterian Church stands pledged to place it, by what the Master has enabled her to do through this institution for the highest emancipation of the negro in the South and by the more promising future, under the Divine blessing.

4. Endow Biddle, and $15,000 of the current income of the Freedmen's Board from the churches will become available for the general work. Thus to endow Biddle will be to furnish means for greatly enlarging our whole work in the South, and the reproach of non-aggressiveness in reaching out and occupying needy fields will be taken away.

In Biddle University the Presbyterian Church has its most powerful instrument for reaching out and uplifting the negro. May she avail herself of the grand opportunity.

Respectfully submitted,

D. J. SANDERS, President.

2. Faculty.

Rev. William W. Harsha, D.D., LL.D., Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology.
Rev. Stephen Phelps, D.D., Professor of Ecclesiastical, Homiletical and Pastoral Theology.
Rev. John Gordon. D.D., Professor of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History.
Rev. Matthew B. Lowrie, D.D., Professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis.
Rev. Charles Sterling, Ph.D., Professor of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis.
Rev. Alexander G. Wilson, D.D., Professor of Apologetics.
Rev. James M. Wilson, D.D., Professor of English Bible.

The Board of Directors at the annual meeting, April 4, 1894, established the Chairs of "Apologetics" and "The English Bible," and elected Rev. Alexander G. Wilson, D.D., to the former, and Rev. J. M. Wilson, D.D., to the latter. This fact was embodied in the Seminary's Report to the General Assembly in 1894, together with the request that the Assembly approve the election of these professors.

From what was doubtless an oversight on the part of the Assembly Committee on Theological Seminaries, the matter was not brought to the notice of the Assembly.

We therefore renew the request that the Assembly approve the election of these professors.

3. Students.

The number of new students is seventeen, as follows, received on matriculation:

To pursue Graduate Studies:

Rev. Henry Kirke White, a graduate of Lane Seminary.

To the Senior Class:

John R. Jones, from the Seminary of the Reformed Church at Holland, Mich.

To the Middle Class:

Harrison Scott Condit, from McCormick Seminary.
Theodore S. Hawley, from McCormick Seminary.
John K. Sawyer, from Lane Seminary.

To the Junior Class:

Alfred N. Coe, from Pierre University.
Larimore Conover Denise, from Princeton College.
R. E. Lee Hayes, from Del Norte College.

Walter T. Matson, from Franklin College.

Henry E. Nicklen, from Reading High School, England.
William H. Parker, from Blackburn University.
William E. Reed, from Dartmouth College.
William Regneuer, from Newark German Theological School.
Elias J. Witte, from College of Emporia.
Knox Boude, not a graduate.

Post-graduate,	1
Senior,	8
Middlers,	11
Juniors,	12
	32

4. Finances.

Cash received during the year,	$8,692 05
Expenditures,	7,164 40
Balance on hand,	$1,527 65

Part of the $8,692.05 receipts is proceeds of a note for $2500, which the Seminary still owes.

The Seminary has total assets amounting to $9500.

BUILDING.

Through the generosity of friends of the Seminary, a building has been provided for its use, and leased to it for a term of five years, free of rent. The building is in every way comfortable and commodious, furnishing dormitory and class-room accommodations sufficient for one hundred students.

INCORPORATION.

Since our last Report, the Seminary, having become furnished with the means to comply with the requirements of the statutes of Nebraska, in regard to educational institutions, has become incorporated. Under the law the Board of Directors as incorporated alone has power to elect to membership, in the Board, and to elect and fix the compensation of professors. In view of this fact, the Board has thought wise to formally reëlect all members and professors coming under this provision; and we herewith report to the General Assembly, a complete list of our Directors and the members of the Faculty, as now elected by the incorporated Board, and ask the General Assembly, in order to avoid any possible legal difficulty, again to approve, pro forma, the complete Board and Faculty, as herein reported.

A copy of the Articles of Incorporation is herewith attached. The By-Laws are identical with the Constitution and By-Laws under which the Seminary was received by the General Assembly, barring such verbal changes as were made necessary by the Articles of Incorporation.

Last year the Assembly very generously recommended the Seminary to the liberality of the Church, for the sum of one hundred thousand dollars.

We at once put one of our number into the field, to present the claims and needs of the institution. Owing, however, to the financial stringency of the times, the results in this direction have been somewhat limited.

Moreover, with the yearly increase in the number of students in attendance, the demands of the Seminary have been increasing. Especially have these demands fallen heavily upon the Faculty, all of whom, with one exception, have been bearing the responsibilities of the pastorate, together with their Seminary duties, without additional compensation. Under this double strain, one of the number has already been prostrated. We feel that the Presbyterian Church cannot afford such a sacrifice of men.

It must thus be very clear, that the greatest need of this institution to-day is, endowments for the Professorships. In view of the above, we would therefore request the Assembly to renew its recommendation of the past year for $100,000. And furthermore, that a special committee be raised up. to act in connection with the representatives of the Seminary, in presenting its claims to the Church, and in securing the desired endowments. Said committee to serve without expense to the Assembly.

The past year has been one of great prosperity to the Seminary. A larger number of students has been in attendance than during any previous year. A larger teaching force has been engaged than heretofore. The graduating class has been larger than that of last year, being eight in number, as follows:

Harry Austin Carnahan,
Usef Elias Fattoosh,
John Rees Jones,
David Oastler,
Charles Edwin Rice,
George Thomas Noyce,
Alvin Modestus Hendee,
Frederick Tonge.

The Seminary has become more widely known and received more general support than ever before.

ABSTRACT OF THE NINETY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Home Missions begs leave to present to the General Assembly its Twenty-fifth Annual Report, the ninety-third year since the organization of Home Mission work by the General Assembly. With gratitude to the Great Head of the Church it can be truly stated that in spite of agitations in Church and State nothing has occurred during the year to disturb the peace or diminish the efficiency of the Board. Its members have never been more prompt in their attendance, nor more careful in their attention to the work intrusted to them by the Church. One of the clerical members, the Rev. John W. Teal, D.D., of Elizabeth, N. J., passed to his heavenly rest on the 30th of June, 1894. He was a most valuable member—wise in counsel, discriminating in the distribution of the Church's funds, yet sympathetic and kind towards the hard-working missionaries in the field. His death was almost a translation from earth to heaven.

Brief Review of a Quarter of a Century.

It is deemed wise in corporations, as well as in individuals, to count the leagues passed over in their onward progress, in order to correct mistakes and gain courage for new and nobler efforts. Acting on this principle, the Board of Home Missions would invite the reader to take a glance at the progress made in the evangelization of our land since the Reunion. Only a brief résumé can here be given of each of the years which have elapsed since that time. (See Annual Report, 1895.)

The Field of Home Missions.

The field of Home Missions is the entire territory of the United States. Prior to the Louisiana Purchase, in 1803, its area was only 820,680 square miles. In fifty years it had grown by further purchase, cession and war to nearly 3,000,000, and to-day it embraces 3,600,000 square miles—an area larger than the whole of Europe, including the islands of Great Britain, Ireland, Iceland and the Azores in the Atlantic; and the Balearics, Corsica, Sardinia, Sicily and Candia in the Mediterranean.

The population of the United States has kept pace with its rapid increase in square miles. In the year 1800 its inhabitants were only 5,308,000; in 1850 they numbered 23,191,876; and at the present time they are in the neighborhood of 70,000,000. How great is our country already, whether it be considered in the light of the extent of its territory, or in the number of its inhabitants. Its progress in both directions has been so rapid that it causes no little solicitude to the Christian, the statesman and the patriot alike.

The Board has confined itself in this Report to a brief account of the seven States recently admitted into the Union, together with the Territories of Arizona, New Mexico, Indian and Oklahoma, and the District of Alaska. The great States admitted within about five years into the Union embrace more square miles than the Empire of Germany, the Republic of France, and the Kingdoms of England, Belgium and Holland combined. They are not only large in their extent of territory, but have yet to lay the foundations of their governments, their laws, their educational system, and their eleemosynary, charitable, reformatory and religious institutions. The importance of the work to be done during this formative period is beyond all computation. (See detailed description of each of the seven States, Annual Report, 1895.)

The Territories of Arizona, New Mexico, Indian and Oklahoma, with the District of Alaska, have an area of 883,420 square miles, which is equal in extent to the seven States recently admitted into the Union, with a margin left equal to five New Yorks and a Connecticut. Their area is larger than that of the whole of the United States in 1803, plus the six States of New England. As yet their resources are almost untouched. But the presumption is that, with the exception of Alaska, they compare favorably in this regard with any of the mountain States. They will, in the near future, sustain many millions of American citizens.

The Missionaries.

Under the above heading are included all the men connected with the Home Board who, during the last year, were engaged in pushing forward the work of our country's evangelization.

THEIR NUMBER.

Owing to many causes, the number of those who toiled last year in connection with the Board was smaller than that of some preceding years. Theological students who had not completed their studies were not employed. This was not owing to any want of appreciation of the work done in former years by the same class of energetic and warm-hearted men, but solely to the lack of funds. It was thought that the men of families already settled in the field had a prior right to the sympathy and support of the Board, if any discrimination had to be made. At the Board's request, and from a sincere desire to do their utmost to relieve its financial embarrassment, a number of Presbyteries grouped under one missionary two or more weak and contiguous churches, and put, in a few cases, a considerable territory under the care of a pastor-at-large, thus diminishing still further the missionary force. This may not be the best plan for developing Home Missions, nevertheless it has been thought to be the wisest in view of the Board's financial embarrassment. Besides, some of the Synods, particularly those of California and North Dakota, resolved to discontinue the services of their Synodical missionaries for one-half the year. All these causes combined reduced the number of laborers to 1731, divided as follows: Synodical missionaries, twenty-one, located in California, Colorado, Indian Territory, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Mexico, New York, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Washington and Wisconsin. The home missionaries are distributed among the States and Territories as follows:

THEIR SALARIES.

It affords the Board much pleasure to state that the missionaries under its care are, as far as can be ascertained, the best paid of any of the missionaries of our evangelical Churches. It is not to be understood by this that, in the judgment of the Board, they are as well paid as they ought to be. Far from it. Our common Christianity is disgraced by the pittance paid its hard-working and devoted missionaries. Most of these men are liberally educated, and are the peers of their brethren who receive large salaries in our wealthy towns and cities. It should, therefore, be the aim of a Church possessing the wealth of ours to furnish more liberal support to those who minister at her altars. Feeling that the aid given was inadequate, even in prosperous times, the Board did not last year cut down, except in rare cases, and for good reasons, any applications below those of the preceding year. Strict business principles would no doubt have demanded either the lessening of the force or the reduction of the salaries until the receipts would equal the disbursements, but there were two insuperable barriers in the way. First, the force, as already mentioned, had been reduced by the Presbyteries to its lowest point, and further, reduction of salaries would have been tantamount to compelling the missionaries to pay the Board's debt. Neither would have been right or practicable. It has been sometimes suggested by contributors and friends of the missionaries that the Board reduce their number and pay better salaries to those retained. That is not practicable. Happily the Board is not required to perform the delicate duty of deciding who shall be employed. There are no fewer than two hundred and twenty-four parties interested in this matter. According to the Constitution of the Church, the Presbyteries are to determine the number of missionaries needed to carry on the work in their respective fields. Therefore the proposition to reduce the force and pay better salaries to a favored few cannot be carried out. The only solution of the salary question is to get the Church to furnish the Board with sufficient funds to pay a good salary to every one in the service.

THE SUPPLEMENTARY AIDS.

Many of our home missionaries receive more or less aid over and above the sum paid them as salary. This aid is of two kinds, namely, gifts of money and boxes of clothing. The value of neither affects the appropriations made by the Board. It is sometimes alleged that special gifts and boxes of clothing cause a reduction in the amount given the missionaries by the Board. This is a mistake. The Board would state again what it has stated more than once before, namely, that neither special gifts sent through the treasury of the Board, nor the value of boxes of clothing, is ever deducted from the salaries of those to whom they are sent, nor do they influence the Board in making appropriations.

Aid in Money.—Gifts of money fall under three separate, but closely connected, heads. First, the annual interest of bequests made for that purpose. The late Governor Morgan, of New York, left $50,000 for the purpose of aiding missionaries who may have been brought into straitened circumstances. The Board has no control over the principal or the interest of this Fund. The heirs send annually to the Board for the names of a certain number of needy missionaries, and they usually ask for twice as many as they are able to aid. Out of the number sent they select as many as the means at command enable them to help. The Board does not know who those are, but it is certain that the help thus afforded proves a precious boon to all who receive it. The sum sent to each one ranges from $50 to $100. Second, holiday presents. A friend of the missionaries has left with the Board, three successive years, $250, to be sent in sums of $10 each as Christmas gifts. The letters that come from the recipients of these gifts tell in unmistakable terms their appreciation of such remembrances. Third, special gifts. Relatives send through the Board certain sums of money for the relief of the missionary and his family.

Aid in Clothing.—Boxes of good clothing are always acceptable and helpful in the missionary home. From the letters received the Board has gathered that the clothing received last year awoke the missionaries' liveliest gratitude. The good women who devoted their time and money to that species of benevolence may rest assured that their efforts have been fully appreciated. In consequence of the failure of the corn and wheat crops, of the fires in Wisconsin and Minnesota, and of the general prostration in business, a larger amount of clothing was asked than the churches were able to supply.

THEIR TRIALS AND DISCOURAGEMENTS.

As a body the missionaries of the Presbyterian Church are sensitive as well as sensible men. They are always affected by their surroundings. When these are pleasant and hopeful the work becomes light and easy. During the past year different circumstances conspired to try the patience and tax the courage of not a few. First, the loud and pitiable cry of destitute communities for Gospel privileges. Such a cry is trying to a sensitive nature, even when it has lost a good part of its pathos by a long journey across the continent. How much more trying is it to those who are near and familiar with the circumstances? Demands for men to preach the Gospel are pleasant to hear when favorable responses can be made. But during the last year the Board and the missionaries have been compelled to turn to all such demands a deaf ear. They have looked on many a new field of enterprise attracting multitudes of operatives without being able to send them a preacher; they have watched fields becoming white to the harvest without ability to send men to gather the sheaves into the garner. It may be alleged that this is only a personal feeling. True, but it wrought, nevertheless, depression and discouragement. Second, the financial distress experienced all over the land. Though the part of the salary promised the missionaries by the Board was paid more promptly than ever, yet, in many cases, the part promised by the churches was long left unpaid. The pecuniary pressure in many regions of country has not been equaled within the memory of the oldest citizens. Entire communities in Nebraska, Kansas and South Dakota were impoverished by drought. Even before it came many of the people were in debt for their farms, their agricultural implements and their merchandise. Well-to-do farmers, business men and mechanics expected to wipe out, or largely reduce, the mortgages on their property out of the proceeds of the expected crops, sales of land or exchange of commodities. Owing to disappointments in regard to these, whole communities were brought to the verge of bankruptcy. In these districts the missionaries felt the pressure as much, if not more, than any other part of the population. A few of them took their families back to the older States, and others contemplate imitating their example in the near future, and yet these men have, on the whole, weathered the storm with a moral heroism worthy the martyrs of the early Church. The third species of trials was the constant moving of the people from place to place. The prostration in business doubtless aggravated this evil. It may be emphatically said that an unusual number of the missionaries went forth last year literally "weeping, bearing precious seed."

THE DEATHS OF MISSIONARIES.

During the last year a number of the devoted missionaries of the Board ended their earthly toils and entered into their heavenly rest. Their names and places of late residence are found below:

Frederick C. Stoekle,	New Hampshire.
William Hall,	New York.
Samuel Dodd,	New York.
George Pierson,	Texas.
James Stuart Reed,	Colorado.
Benjamin Mills, D.D.,	Kansas.

Thus our faithful men pass from earth leaving their work to others.

The Work.

In reviewing the work of the year the Board has found much to call for sincerest thanks to Almighty God. The details given below will show that Heaven's approval has not been withheld from the agency selected to evangelize our land. But some of the most important results of the work are not matters of human record, or subjects of review by any ecclesiastical court. They are written only in the Book of Remembrance, to be disclosed and laid to the account of their authors at the last day. Then multitudes of the ransomed of the Lord will attribute their salvation to blessed influences, invisible perhaps to human eyes, set in motion by the missionaries of the Board.

While this is true, there are at the same time valuable and interesting details connected with the work which can and ought to be reviewed by this Assembly. Three or four features of this work are here set forth, namely:

ITS VARIETY.

Those who are acquainted with our mission fields know something of the manifold nature of the duties performed by our pioneer preachers. Their first and most important duty is, of course, to preach the Word. According to the nature of their calling they are heralds of salvation, proclaimers of the truth as it is in Jesus, but they are not able at all times to do this in a formal manner, or within consecrated walls. They have to do it often in a private house to a single family; at times to a company of young men at the mines; then to ranchmen from horseback; now and then to a few farm hands in a barn, and occasionally to a handful of idlers in a liquor saloon. They are not expected to let a single opportunity pass without pressing upon men and women the duty of seeking the salvation of their souls. They are commanded to seek all straying sheep and wandering prodigals in order to bring them all to the fold of Christ.

Still another duty of the missionary is to carry the comforts of the Gospel from house to house. Frequently the most effective way of pleading with men to seek their souls' salvation is in connection with a pastoral visit. The Bible is then read, prayer is offered, and kindly words are usually said. At such times the mind of the hearer is more open than in the public sanctuary. The directness of the address tells upon the intellect and the heart alike. Where no churches are found the minister is frequently invited to baptize the children in the home. On such an occasion the neighbors are invited to be present. This affords the minister a favorable opportunity to preach the Word both to parents and children. Nearly all, however thoughtless and godless they may be, desire to see a minister before entering into the presence of God. After their death friends usually secure for them a Christian burial. On these occasions men who are not accessible at other times can be reached, and the Gospel is proclaimed with a power and pungency not witnessed under other circumstances.

In cases of crop failure, destructive fires, or monetary troubles, the minister is in demand. He is expected to visit the victims of these disasters with sympathy in his heart, words of comfort on his lips, and means of relief in his hands. He is looked upon then as an angel of mercy by thousands who may not have in the past entertained any regard for his person or calling. They see him now that which he has always been, a man of humanity as well as a messenger of Jehovah.

Still another department of the missionary's work is to solicit funds and superintend the erection of a church edifice for the people whom he has gathered together. This may seem, at first sight, rather too secular a work, but it has to be done or the enterprise he is striving to advance will come to naught. Before a congregation can be regarded as permanent and able to send forth healthful influences in the community, it must have a house of worship, a sanctuary for the administration of God's ordinances.

ITS EXTENT.

The extent of the Board's work in square miles is easily told. It is carried on in every State and Territory in the Union except New Jersey, Georgia, Louisiana and South Carolina. This, however, is not its most important feature. The number of men employed, and the priceless blessings, both temporal and spiritual, which they carry to every nook and corner of our country, are very numerous. Not many even of our most benevolent contributors form any conception of the extent of the temporal blessings they are scattering through the agency of the Board. Under God, we are indebted as a nation to the Gospel for our individual, social, civil and political privileges. Among these may be specified the security of our lives, the sanctity of our homes, the safety of our property, and the civil and religious liberty we enjoy. The efforts put forth to evangelize the land may be looked upon as a premium for insurance, not, indeed, against the destructive element of fire, but against the power of rum, against the demoralizing influence of licentiousness, against the perils of socialism, and against the threats of anarchism which will some day, if not restrained, rob us of our possessions, desecrate our domestic hearths, and deprive us of our liberties.

Extensive as these temporal blessings are, the spiritual ones are still more so. The Gospel offers to every one pardon and peace; it offers communion with God and triumph over sin, Satan and the world; it offers light in darkness, comfort in death, and an abundant entrance into the prepared mansions. To carry these blessings to every one, the two thousand one hundred and twenty-two home missionaries and missionary teachers labor among our destitute native and foreign population in the great cities and the rural districts.

ITS IMPORTANCE.

Who can describe the importance of the work of Home Missions? Looked at from the viewpoint of the statesman, it is seen that our country will be in the future what the Church of to-day makes it. This allegation is made with the full knowledge of the oft-repeated declaration that religion is no longer a factor of any importance in the formation of our national character. Even those who write or utter such things ought to know that they cannot be true. The processes which religion adopts to reach its ends may not be accompanied with noise or clatter like that of commerce and trade, and yet it works untold changes. It transforms character and moulds whole communities. It seeks to enlighten the conscience, strengthen the principles, and to regulate the conduct.

Considered from a patriot's point of view, the work of the Board to those who shall come after us is beyond all description. Every church it plants becomes a city set upon a hill. Every Christian school it opens among our exceptional populations serves as a strong pillar upon which national greatness can rest and high moral characters be built.

Looked at from a pure Christian standpoint, the importance of the Board's work is indescribable. The members of the Protestant Church who are voters do not, according to statistics published by Dr. William H. Roberts, the Stated Clerk of this Assembly, exceed 4,658,000 in number, or thirty per cent. of all our voters. "Consequently, in view of the fact that one-fifth of those qualified to vote do not vote, the number of Protestant electors who do really vote is no more than from 3,500,000 to 4,000,000. It may be proved that the Protestant churches do not contain a majority of the actual voters in any one of the great geographical divisions of our country. Hence the untold importance of reaching by the Gospel the multitudes of these voters, who are also the statesmen and business men of our land, if we are to continue a people whose God is the Lord. In the States and Territories described above the Protestant males are only 7.3 per cent. of the total adult males, and this falls to two per cent. in Arizona, Utah and Nevada. Even in Washington and California it rises only to eight per cent., and in Oregon to eleven, while in Alaska it is but 1.3 per cent. Should the Catholic male membership be added to the Protestant living within these bounds, the total then would amount only to twenty per cent., showing that four out of five men in the region lying between the western boundary of Kansas and the Pacific coast are not members of any Christian Church."

The abnormal growth and abounding corruption of our great cities show also the importance of sending them the home missionary. In all of them may be seen social evil invading the peace and security of families, destroying household ties, estranging the child from the parent, and the parent from the child; wickedness assuming the revolting forms of defiance to law, and hatred towards every kind of constituted government, converting many a workshop into a political caucus, and honorable handicrafts into confederations against the peace and prosperity of the State; infidelity profaning all religion, and laughing at the idea of the supernatural; and immorality leading not only to Sabbath-breaking, profanity, intoxication, gambling, fraud, violence and assassination, but also to deliberate impiety, undisguised anarchy and scornful atheism.

The fetid pools found in all our large cities overflow and threaten to devastate the surrounding country. Perhaps thus far our rural districts are not seriously threatening our peace or our future prosperity. For in them we do not as yet encounter the active, loud-mouthed anarchy or the bold disregard of law and social order, or the vile political corruption that destroys the moral sense of the officers of the law in large cities. Neither do we witness as yet that calm ferocity of disposition which makes one shudder as if in the presence of a fiend in the great centres of population. One is not in special dread of the nightly robber or the dagger of the assassin. Men do not breathe infection from dwellings crowded with all that is loathsome and obscene. Nevertheless, even these rural districts, free as they are from many of the threatening evils of great cities, are in imperative need of the Gospel of Christ. For even there one encounters certain forms of evil not so extensively known in large cities and scarcely witnessed in commercial and manufacturing centres. The people in some places are full of superstition, bordering on the paganism of past ages. Their hopes and fears of immortality are equally inoperative. The glad tidings of salvation are as strange a sound to many of their citizens as if the name of Jesus had never been uttered in their hearing. The Sabbath is neglected by multitudes, except as it may furnish an opportunity for merriment or idleness. The Scriptures are seldom read, and are, to many of them, unknown.

The Finances.

The Board takes pleasure in informing the Assembly that the total receipts of the last year amounted to $934,259.75. They were larger than those of any preceding year except 1893. The legacy of the late Mrs. Robert L. Stuart caused the receipts of that year to exceed those of the year just past by $33,195.13. Notwithstanding this gratifying exhibit, which reflects great credit on the liberality of the Church, the Board's debt has never been larger or more crushing than now. A few words may be needed to explain this apparent contradiction. Owing to business prostration and the numerous disasters, both churches and individual givers were embarrassed so that they were not able to give as liberally as in preceding years. Of the $364,850.05 reported as the Board's debt, $144,502.37 was incurred by the Woman's Executive Committee in conducting mission-school work. The largest legacies that came into the treasury were intended for the permanent fund. Considerable money was committed in trust, but neither the principal nor the interest of such is available during the lifetime of the donors. The interest on last year's borrowed money ran up to $16,542. Indian work, involving an annual expense of $20,000, was transferred within two years from the Foreign to the Home Board, without any appreciable increase in receipts for that department. As a result of the Assembly's action in severing the connection existing between the Board and the Government in conducting Indian schools, more than $30,000 annually was sacrificed. These are the causes of the Board's heavy indebtedness, and not the falling off of receipts nor the enlargement of work.

THEIR SOURCES.

The first and most important source from which funds flow into the treasury of the Board is the churches. Those which come from individuals are of necessity intermittent, but those which come from the churches are perennial. Owing to the unprecedented demand made to help sufferers from crop failures and financial depression, the regular contributions of the churches fell off $25,181.44, as compared with those of the preceding year.

The second source of the Board's money supply is the Women's Missionary Societies. Most commendable efforts were made by these organizations to raise during the past year enough money not only to meet current expense, but also to cancel the debt which has for two years been crippling the mission-school work. Their efforts were not entirely successful, on account of the hard times and outside demands for money.

The third source of financial supply is the Sabbath-school. This as well as the church is expected to send its gifts into the Board's treasury without intermission. It is a matter of unspeakable importance to the future of our Church to train Sabbath-school scholars in all the departments of the Board's work. Since a Secretary for the Young People's Department was appointed more definite information regarding Home Missions has been given to our schools. Various objects have been taken up and large contributions sent in. The total amount received during the year was $39,798.51.

The fourth source of the Board's receipts is the Young People's Societies. The increase in our Church of such organizations has been well-nigh phenomenal. If all who occupy the place of leaders would wisely develop the possibilities of such a multitude of earnest young people, and train them aright in Christian work and systematic giving, there would hardly be a limit to what they might do or give. During the past year they have taken up many special missionary fields and supported them wholly or in part. The amount which they have contributed to the Board was $21,330.99 or $7723.82 more than that of the preceding year.

The fifth source of the Board's receipts is individual donations. It is encouraging to note that there is a large number of friends of Home Missions who, without being asked, send yearly to the Treasurer sums of money varying from five cents to eleven thousand dollars. The names of four or five of these are known only to God, and the names of a number more are known only to the members of the Board. Princely sums are credited every year to such names as "The Friend of Home Missions," to "California," to "One who is anxious to aid," to "A lover of his country," to "One whom the Lord hath blessed." The real names of these men and women are known in heaven, though they may not be on earth. The amount that came last year from these friends into the treasury was $47,390.04.

The sixth source of the Board's receipts is the bequests of the dead.

These, if possible, are more sacred than the donations of the living. They are deliberately set apart by men and women as they stand on the verge of eternity as an acknowledgment of God's blessings to them during life, and as a debt which they owe their country and those who shall come after them. Though dead, yet these speak in sweet tones of love to the wanderer and the despondent.

The last source of the Board's receipts is the interest from invested funds. This varies every year according to the additions made to the funds and the rate of interest. The amount received last year from this source was $13,746.49.

The Results.

The question of results is a perplexing one to every laborer in Christ's vineyard. The harvest he seeks to gather cannot be wholly brought into the garner until the day of final judgment. The modest missionary who toils from year to year in a difficult field like Utah or New Mexico, makes up his mind that he is doing no good, and enters into rest with that conviction weighing like a heavy burden upon his heart. But his successor is permitted to enter into his labors and to hear the cry from many a lip, "What shall I do to be saved?"

APPLICATIONS FOR AID.

The applications of churches for appropriations to aid them in the support of their pastors or stated supplies are the result of the perpetuation of life or of a new organization. When a church dies, or becomes self-supporting, it ceases to seek aid from the Board. A number of churches became extinct during last year, nevertheless 2132 churches have sent in their applications for aid. This number would doubtless have been larger had it not been published that the Board was burdened with a heavy debt and could not undertake new work. Notwithstanding, the Presbyteries went forward organizing churches in places where they believed they were imperatively needed.

CONVERSIONS.

There is an impression somewhat general that the chill of death is already creeping over the affections of multitudes of professed Christians, and that the gloom of unbelief is rapidly settling down upon the whole land. It is said that the ecclesiastical machinery is losing its efficiency, and that there is but a semblance of piety lingering in our sanctuaries after the reality is gone. This language applies more properly, perhaps, to churches in our large and wealthy cities than to those in our small towns and rural districts. But is it true of either? The spiritual condition of the majority of home missionary churches has been very satisfactory. No better evidence of this can be asked than the number which was received into their communion. According to the reports sent to the Board, 12,763 were received by confession of faith and 5757 by letter.

REVIVALS.

The law of compensation operates everywhere. There is, probably, no withholding of earthly good without the bestowal of something else. When God refuses a temporal blessing He frequently bestows something better in its stead. When worldly prosperity leaves the land, the Holy Spirit pours upon it of His gifts and graces. Our home missionary churches were very generally revived during the year past, though they were denied many temporal blessings. Places the least likely to enjoy an outpouring of God's Spirit, like Utah, New Mexico and the Indian Territory, have been visited. In speaking of the revivals that broke out in a certain district of Utah, one of our missionaries wrote that if the early Church witnessed a more signal manifestation of the power of the Divine Spirit on the day of Pentecost than they did it was to be congratulated. Souls have been brought to Christ by the score, and whole towns lifted above their low level of morality. In many places the entire face of society has been changed. The hard times have served to arrest multitudes in their hurry after gain, and to bring them to seek permanent riches.

But little has been heard in late years about gracious visitations of the Divine Spirit. As a consequence, many of God's own people are beginning to think that the days of revivals are over. The following from the pens of a number of our missionaries ought to correct this error. The Rev. D. McDonald writes: "I have just returned from Booneville, in the heart of the mountains of Kentucky, where I held a few religious meetings. God poured out His Spirit in a remarkable manner; over a hundred persons were converted. I baptized forty adults in one night, and organized a church with sixty members, and we are told that more are coming."

The Outlook.

The outlook of the Board's work is all that could be expected.

THE DEMANDS.

These come from every quarter and in such numbers as almost to overwhelm the Board. Large communities, not only beyond the Mississippi, but east of it, are laying foundations for extensive settlements that will, during this year, call for the Gospel. "When," says Dr. Sexton, "the rains come and the corn begins to grow, giving promise of a good crop, the people will have new courage; they will take hold of church work with fresh ardor, and will push it forward with better success. They have thirty-two students in the seminary at Omaha, some of whom will soon complete their studies, and will doubtless offer their services to the Board." "Between Del Rio and El Paso," writes Dr. Little, "a distance of five hundred miles along the Southern Pacific Railway, with forty towns and four stations, the Rev. W. S. Bloys has been until lately the only minister of any name preaching the Gospel there." "About twenty-five places in our Synod," writes Rev. James A. Menaul, "are now needing the Gospel, and we shall be derelict in duty if we fail to supply them with it at once." "At least," writes the Rev. W. R. King, "six places in the Indian Territory should be supplied at once with missionaries." "Many people in North Dakota," writes Rev. F. M. Wood, "never call for a preacher, and would not if they never had one. Rural districts are strangely indifferent. But they contain wandering sheep which the Presbyterian Church should go after." "There are many places in Montana," writes Dr. A. K. Baird, "that call aloud for the Gospel through their need, their want of religious ordinances and influences, that have no church, no preaching, no Sabbath, but little that is civilizing, and almost nothing that is Christian." "Seven missionaries," writes Dr. Wishard, "are needed at once in Utah." "Many places," writes Dr. R. N. Adams, "have been calling earnestly for help this year in Minnesota, and we have with difficulty put them off in the hope of better times in the near future. They must have the Gospel this year or they will become indifferent and godless." "There are half-a-dozen places in the Synod of Iowa," writes Dr. Bailey, "that are calling loudly for the Gospel, and we ought to supply them, and could supply them at an additional expense of only $1000." "The necessity of self-sacrificing men, animated by the same spirit which sends men to Africa, becomes," says Rev. D. McDonald, "more and more evident day by day in Kentucky." "We have been all these years playing missions. There are millions of unevangelized people around us, many of them in the commercial metropolis of Kentucky."

THE ENCOURAGEMENT.

Was there ever offered to the Christian Church a brighter field, or a more important work, than that which this country to-day presents?

With a sea-coast thousands of miles long; with a territory comprising about one-fourteenth part of the habitable globe; with a population of nearly 70,000,000 of enlightened, energetic people; with an increasing tide of immigration rolling like a mighty ocean from the Atlantic to the Pacific; with the almost absolute certainty that our population will, in another century, rise to 300,000,000 or more; with alarming errors coming in like a flood from every land on the globe, scattering the seeds of superstition and infidelity far and wide; with more than 100,000 Chinese heathen within our bounds needing only to be Christianized and trained to labor in their own vast heathen empire; with such a large share of our present population destitute of the preached Word; with our extended Territories open and waiting for means of grace; with the fact that God has committed this whole work solely to American Christians, and with the providential indication that through us as a people, in an especial manner, shall the Gospel be carried to the nations which are now sitting in darkness and the shadow of death, can our Church fold her arms and say, "A little more sleep, and a little more slumber?"

Synodical Sustentation.

Among other signs of special interest and progress in the work of evangelizing our land, the Board might mention the growing purpose in the older Synods to support, in whole or in part, their own weak churches. The time has come, in the judgment of the Board, when the larger Synods may and perhaps should take care not only of their own weak churches, but as far as practicable of all their Home Mission work. The Synods of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Baltimore, Ohio and Indiana have already inaugurated a plan by which they are supporting largely, if not wholly, the missionary work within their own bounds. In none of these Synods has been discovered disloyalty to the Board or indifference to the great work. Nevertheless, fears are entertained that such a diversity of plans may in time be adopted as will lead to complications in the relations which the mission work carried on by the Synod holds to that conducted by the Board. No doubt is entertained that what has been done so far has been done in the full conviction that the efficiency of the work will be promoted by bringing it closer to those who have a local knowledge or a local interest in carrying it forward. It would be detrimental to the most important work carried on in our land to allow any conflict, or even a misunderstanding, to arise between the several home missionary agencies of the Church.

It is admitted that each Synod, on the one hand, must arrange the details of its plan according to the requirements of its own field, but it ought not to adopt, on the other hand, anything as its fundamental principles that will tend to disturb a union of the whole. In the Board's opinion it would be wise for the General Assembly to inquire into this matter, and perhaps suggest some simple principles which will increase the efficiency without disturbing the unity of the work. The following are the principal ones:

1. That nothing in the form of principles or details be adopted that will diminish the interest now felt by any part of the Church in the entire work of the Board of Home Missions.
2. That Synods which are not self-supporting should not undertake the care of their own weak churches, unless they are willing to try the experiment without aid from the Board.
3. That those Synods which support mission work within their own bounds, should in no wise lose their interest in the general cause, or contribute less towards sending the Gospel to destitute regions beyond their own bounds.
4. That the regular collection for Home Missions be taken up as heretofore, and that a special offering be required yearly for Synodical Sustentation.

The School Work.

The School Work is a department of Home Missions. It was undertaken by the General Assembly to meet a pressing need for Christian training schools among our exceptional populations. The original purpose was to gain a foothold in districts of country in which ministers would not be received, thus reaching the strongholds of heathenism through the children, and preparing the way for the onward march of civilization and religion. As soon as these results are accomplished, schools of a higher grade will be established, whose object will be to prepare these converted heathen to become teachers, evangelists, and preachers to their own people. During the seventeen years of its existence, this work has resulted in the establishment of Christian homes, the preparation of scores of young men and women for active evangelistic work among their own people, in the organization of eighty-eight Presbyterian churches, and in the lifting up, morally and religiously, of many a degraded community. This department provides for all the structural work for which the Board is not authorized to make provision—such as the erection of chapel school houses, of teachers' homes, of manses for the use of the missionaries and the native evangelists connected with the missions. During the year ending April 1, 1895, twenty-two ministers, evangelists and laymen were employed in preaching, holding religious meetings, and conducting, with more or less regularity, religious services other than those connected with the schools, and were paid, in whole or in part, out of the funds collected by the Woman's Executive Committee.

The School Work is divided into five departments, viz.: The Alaskan, the Indian, the Mexican, the Mormon, and the Mountain.

THE ALASKAN.

With eight schools and thirty-seven teachers, the Woman's Executive Committee reaches eleven tribes of Alaskans, besides some hundreds of Esquimaux. During this year a building has been put up at Point Barrow —probably the most northerly mission in the world—for a chapel-school house and a teachers' home combined; and the building on St. Lawrence Island has lately been occupied for the first time by Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Gambell, who were safely landed on its shores last August by the U. S. Revenue Cutter Bear, under Captain Healy.

THE INDIAN.

The Indians appeal to Christians' sympathy and sense of justice as no other people of America do, because their wrongs have been greater than those of any others. The Woman's Executive Committee, by its twenty-four schools and one hundred and forty teachers, is reaching no less than thirty-one different Indian tribes.

THE MEXICAN.

The Mexicans are nominally Roman Catholics, but they are in reality no better than heathen. Yet they are American citizens, consequently patriotism demands that we should labor to prepare them for intelligent citizenship; and since they are a menace to evangelical religion it becomes the duty of American Christians to give them the simple Gospel of Jesus Christ. Among them the Woman's Executive Committee has twenty-seven schools with fifty-three teachers.

THE MORMON.

The Mormons, gathered largely from the poorest and most degraded of all lands, by being taught the peculiar and revolting doctrines of the Mormon Church, and by being subjected to the most rigorous and tyrannical form of government the world has ever known, have become the most bigoted as well as the most morally degraded and enslaved people in America. These things cause the work among them to be the hardest and the least hopeful. Yet, by persistence, earnestness and prayer, rich fruits are beginning to appear. In several places the children have been gathered into the schools, prejudices have been overcome, and the seed-sowing has gone steadily on until God's Spirit has at length been poured in Pentecostal effusions upon parts of the field.

The Mountain.

Mountain Whites, who are hardy people, claim our attention and call for our speediest help, not only on account of their deep poverty, but also on account of their ancestors, who were among the staunchest friends of liberty in the great struggle which made us a free nation. It is generally known that the first declaration of independence was promulgated by the Scotch-Irish people of the South. They have ever been loyal and patriotic, and their traditions and instincts are religious. Nay, more, they are thoroughly and on principle Protestant.

Salt Lake Collegiate Institute.

The Academy at Salt Lake City having now grown beyond a mission school, and having good hope of being soon made a college, has been transferred to a regularly constituted Board of Trustees, the property having been secured to the Presbyterian Church for educational purposes forever, and the institution is recommended to the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies.

Henry Kendall College.

The late experiment at Muscogee has become an important fact. It was with great anxiety and fear that the appeal from the Indian Territory for the transformation of the school there into a college was answered in the affirmative. It would have been transferred to the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies had that Board been in a condition to receive it and to carry on the work. God's richest blessing has rested upon this school from its inception. The enrollment of scholars has reached two hundred and thirteen, with upwards of seventy in the college department. A revival of unusual power has been enjoyed by the students, and a large number of them have been hopefully converted.

Abstract of the Fifty-eighth Annual Report of the Board of Foreign Missions.

The Board of Foreign Missions, as the appointed agent of the Presbyterian Church, acting under the great Divine Commission to evangelize the nations, herewith submits to the General Assembly the Fifty-eighth Annual Report of its endeavors and the results attained, together with the volume of its Minutes for the year. In doing so it would not fail to recognize the many evidences of the fulfillment of the gracious promise of the Divine presence and blessing accompanying the year's labors, for which grateful praise is rendered.

We regard it as of special Divine favor that the lives of all the members of the Board have been prolonged, and though some of our members are well advanced in age, only one has felt the necessity from impaired health of severing his connection with the Board. It was with sincere regret that the Board was constrained to accept the resignation of Mr. G. S. Coe, who had served the Church on this Board, and as a member of the Finance Committee, for a period of fifteen years, with great fidelity and usefulness.

Reëlection of Members.

By the provision of the present charter the members of the Board are to be elected by the General Assembly. The terms of the following members expiring on June 1 of the present year, it is respectfully recommended that they be reëlected, viz.: Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D., Rev. J. D. Wells, D.D., Mr. E. M. Kingsley, Mr. William A. Booth, Rev. John Balcom Shaw, D.D., Mr. Alexander Maitland, and Rev. David Gregg, D.D. By the resignation of Mr. G. S. Coe, a vacancy exists in the class whose term expires June 1, 1897.

New Corresponding Secretary.

The Board has elected the Rev. Arthur J. Brown, D.D., of Portland, Oregon, as a Corresponding Secretary, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the lamented Dr. Arthur Mitchell. Dr. Brown, who is expected to enter upon his duties June 1, of the present year, needs no introduction to the Church for which he has already rendered conspicuous service. His ripe experience in the affairs of the Church, especially in that portion of our country where interest in foreign missions is markedly on the increase, his many recognized high qualities of mind and heart, and the confidence with which he is regarded throughout the Church, make his accession to the working force of the Board at the present time an event of much gladness and hopefulness. The temporary office of Recording Secretary, created a few months ago to meet an emergency, and filled by the Rev. Benjamin Labaree, D.D., will be discontinued from May 31. The Board desires to place on record its high appreciation of the fidelity with which Dr. Labaree has fulfilled the duties of the position.

Home Department Work.

Rev. James S. Dennis, D.D., still generously devotes his time and his accomplished pen to the editing of the foreign mission department of The Church at Home and Abroad.

Mr. William Henry Grant has continued his valuable and gratuitous services to the development and wider usefulness of the Missionary Library, along with other important interests centring in it.

The labors of the Rev. Thomas Marshall, D.D., the Board's Field Secretary, have elicited the hearty appreciation and warm commendation of the many churches, Presbyteries and Synods where he has presented the cause during the year. Though he has been engaged principally in the Western sections of the country, yet at the urgent request of the Synod of Baltimore he was advised to spend several weeks in December in the Presbyteries of that Synod, which he did with marked acceptance.

SYNODICAL AND PRESBYTERIAL COMMITTEES.

The Board recognizes with much gratification the hearty coöperation of Synodical and Presbyterial Committees in fostering the foreign missionary spirit in the churches. Their thorough knowledge of the local conditions in the Presbyteries, with the official position accorded them, has enabled them in many instances to furnish to the churches within their bounds helpful suggestions calculated to deepen interest in the cause and to promote a more liberal giving.

NEW MISSIONARIES.

Forty-three new missionaries have received commissions from the Board and gone out to the several fields assigned them, of whom seventeen were men, fourteen were wives of missionaries, and twelve were single women. The whole number of foreign missionaries now under commission from the Board is 659. The number of native agents of all classes is 1943, including 188 ordained ministers.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

The financial depression which came upon the country two years ago has continued to bear severely upon the treasury of the Board. The gifts from churches for the year have decreased $8626.50; from Women's Boards, $14,064.27; and from miscellaneous, $1302.66. The gifts from Sabbath-schools have increased $2938.31; from Christian Endeavor Societies $1117.87, and from legacies $46,923.17. The increase in the last item is due largely to an unusual legacy of $47,500.

At the beginning of the year the Board decided that it would not be warranted in enlarging the work beyond that of the preceding year, and limited its appropriations to $1,015,000, the amount appropriated May 1, 1893. As time passed, and it became apparent that the gifts of the Church were not increasing, requests from the field for additional appropriations were very carefully scrutinized, and only granted in the most urgent cases. As a result, for the year these added appropriations were only $22,764.49, as compared with $77,308.85 in the preceding year. The Board also guarded very carefully the gain which was effected in exchange rates, owing to the fall in price of silver, enabling it to meet its obligations in silver currencies for a less amount of gold than was estimated in the appropriations. From this a large saving resulted.

Items of work, which for any reason could not be carried into effect, were also cancelled, and as a result the total expenditures for the year were $976,884.76, as against $995,921.70 for the preceding year, being $19,036.94 less than the expenditures for the year ending April 30, 1894.

In view of the impending heavy deficit at the close of the fiscal year, added to the large balance against the treasury with which the year began, the Board decided, upon the recommendation of its Finance Committee, who gave the conditions very careful study, to fix the limit of total appropriations for the year 1895-96 at $900,000, as against $1,015,000 for the year just closed. To bring the appropriations within this limit it became imperative to make heavy reductions on the estimates forwarded by the several missions. They were in a measure forewarned of such action by a carefully prepared letter sent to them all three months before. As a further meaus of retrenchment the Board has felt compelled to notify all new missionaries under appointment that so long as present conditions exist it could not send them to the field, reserving the right of making exceptions to this general rule where special funds shall be provided or where other special reasons may warrant a departure from it.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

With a view to ascertaining how far the methods of conducting the Board's work at home and abroad allow of modification and improvement, a committee of seven was appointed last December "to make a thorough survey and examination of the work of the Board in each of its missions in all its aspects, and also of its home administration, and to submit to the Board the results of their work, with such recommendations as are approved by them." This committee is pursuing its inquiries along the lines indicated, and it is hoped their conclusions will prove of great use to the Board and of much value in increasing the intelligent interest of the churches.

WOMEN'S SOCIETIES.

Some of the Women's Societies and Bands connected with the Board have attained the twenty-fifth year since their organization and are celebrating the anniversary with much gratitude to God for all the recorded and unrecorded blessings which they have been permitted to realize. To these and to all the efficient women's organizations of our Church the Board renewedly tenders its thanks for their loyal coöperation in its efforts to develop the missionary spirit at home and to extend the knowledge and power of Christ our Lord to the unevangelized nations.

SABBATH-SCHOOLS AND YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES.

The Board issued an illustrated Christmas exercise for the Sabbath-schools, of exceptional fitness as an educator in foreign missionary ideas. One hundred and fifty thousand were distributed to schools applying for them. Returns were received from six hundred and seventeen of these schools, the sum of them amounting to $7547.20. The aggregate of donations from the Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies for the year was $56,939.49.

AMERICAN BIBLE AND TRACT SOCIETIES.

The coöperation of the American Bible Society and of the American Tract Society on several of the fields has been of signal advantage in the prosecution of the great work.

CONFERENCE OF FOREIGN BOARDS.

It was the privilege of the Board to unite with the officers and representatives of some twenty different Foreign Mission Boards and Societies of this country in a third annual conference upon questions of large consequence relating to the common cause. Such meetings afford delightful evidence of the cordial relations existing between these organizations. But beyond this it is evident from the increased attendance that the various organizations engaged in the Foreign Mission enterprise place increasing value upon such opportunities for the comparison of opinions and experiences, and the investigation of the best methods for prosecuting the work. The whole Church cannot but be interested in such efforts to arrive at a true science of Christian missions.

REVIEW OF THE MISSIONS.

As we turn to survey the mission fields abroad where our more than six hundred missionaries are toiling in the name of Christ and the Church to evangelize the world, we are renewedly impressed with the magnitude and gravity of this Divine human undertaking. Probably never before, since the beginning of modern foreign missionary enterprise, have the various forms of religion which antagonize Christianity been so alert and so intense in their opposition as at the present. Buddhism, Brahmanism, and Mohammedanism are especially defiant in their tone. Under these circumstances it is gratifying to note in the reports from the field the ardent desires and efforts on the part of the missionaries to come into closer fellowship with their Divine Head. In several missions special meetings have been held for prayer and conference in the expectation of receiving some new measure of wisdom and spiritual power for their service, and grateful mention is made of the Holy Spirit's uplifting presence at these precious gatherings.

CHINA.

Naturally the most particular interest has centred during the year upon those nations involved in the war between Japan and China. Very general anxiety has been felt for the missionaries in China, where the conflict with Japan has aroused widespread suspicion and hostility towards all foreigners, which was fiercely aggravated in the Canton Province by the devastation of the plague. But it is with a sense of profound gratitude to God we record that no serious evil has resulted to any of our American brethren and sisters, though some of the native workers have suffered persecution and even death. The missionaries have gone bravely on with their work, rarely withdrawing, even temporarily, from their posts of duty when danger was most imminent. While the disturbances incident to the war have created barriers to the most successful proclamation of the Gospel, the results of the year's work are nevertheless in a high degree gratifying, the number of additions to the churches equaling the most prosperous year in the past.

JAPAN.

In Japan the excitement of war times has seriously interfered with that advance of the Christian Church which was desired. And yet the indications are, that the outcome of the national commotion will be for the furtherance of the Gospel in an eminent degree. The gain in church membership even in this year of turmoil is larger than in the preceding year.

KOREA.

Hopes of enlarged opportunities for missionary work have come to us from our Korean Mission also as a result of the conflict between Japan and China. The fruits of the year's activity are encouraging; the incoming to the Church largely exceeding any previous year. The evidence of the devotion of many of these converts is a cause of special joy. The increasing confidence of the Korean people in the missionaries as their wise and true friends should be a fresh stimulus to endeavors for bringing them to a loving faith in Christ.

SIAM.

The population of Siam is one of the most difficult to reach, largely a result of the influence of Buddhism. Wide areas of the country have been visited by the Gospel messengers during the year. Thousands of portions of the Scriptures have been sold. New and encouraging regions invite occupation, and plans are urged upon the Board for the establishment of advanced stations.

LAOS.

Among the Laos the work has suffered some temporary checks from the depletion of the missionary force, with here and there new forms of opposition. Still the churches are growing rapidly in membership and are developing in liberality and in a sense of responsibility for the advance of the Redeemer's kingdom. New churches are springing up at various outstations.

INDIA.

The Lodiana Mission has been blessed as seldom in any previous year in its history. Nearly every form of work seems to have enjoyed the Divine favor. Among the high caste and especially among the low caste peoples the power of the Gospel has been witnessed. More than five hundred souls have been baptized into the Christian Church during the past twelve months.

In the Furrukhabad Mission the Gospel is being pushed into the villages with persistent energy by both missionaries and native preachers, and the same is true of Western India. Hundreds of towns and villages, and many thousands of souls, have been reached by this evangelistic movement. The native churches are being pressed more and more here, as in nearly all our mission fields, to advance in the matter of their own self-support.

PERSIA. SYRIA.

In the quarter of a century that is just elapsing since the Missions of Syria and Persia came under the care of the Presbyterian Church, they have experienced a remarkable expansion. The native churches which have been planted, through the Divine favor, are yearly growing in numbers, intelligence and spiritual efficiency. But the resistance to the Gospel is tremendous. Bitter enemies surround them. The calamities which have recently overtaken the Armenian Christians have a sombre significance to their coreligionists in these neighboring lands, which at this time gives them special claim upon our sympathies and prayers.

AFRICA.

The Lord has seen fit to sorely chasten the mission located on the west coast of Africa by the death of two of its most useful and much beloved missionaries. But many favors have come from His hand to the little force on the field, for which His name is to be praised. Among these, special mention is due to the band of brave-hearted recruits who have lately joined the mission, undaunted by the conditions of African service, ready for any hardship for which the Master may call. The goodly number baptized into the Christian Church during the year is a proof of the adaptations of the Gospel to the spiritual necessities and capacities of these dusky heathen tribes, and create large hopes of an early day when those dark regions shall be flooded with the light of Christ.

ROMAN CATHOLIC COUNTRIES.

The progress of the Gospel in Roman Catholic countries has not met with any startling successes in the year under review. Encouragements are reported from almost every field occupied by our missionaries. In Mexico fresh methods and policies, new enthusiasm and confidence are to be noted as a result of the conference last year with the brethren on the field and the Board's visiting deputation. The question of self-support in the native churches is receiving increased attention, with an outlook that is good. In Colombia the paucity of laborers is a hindrance to any large measure of success. The overburdened men and women plead pathetically for help and for a force adequate to carry the leaven of a true Christianity into inviting openings before them. In Brazil the strong native church is gaining in numbers and power, in self-reliance and aggressive purpose, and it is believed also in a higher spiritual life. In Chile, too, the native churches seem to be grasping new ideas of self-help and self-propagation.

In all these facts we recognize the operations of the blessed Spirit of God given according to the promise of our Lord in answer to prayer and the faith that works by love, and find added responsibilities for larger and more devoted service in the cause committed to our trust.

The fiscal year of the Missions closes on April 30. At that date the accounts of the Treasurers on the field are made up, and any balance unused is reported to the Board. Owing to inability—because of death or other unforeseen cause—to carry out some form of work for which appropriation was made, a balance is left in each of the Station Treasurers' hands. As these cannot be accurately determined until after April 30, the total amount is entered in the year following that in which the saving actually occurs.

Report of Joint Building Committee of the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions.

The General Assembly at its last meeting having approved the plans of the two Boards for the erection of a new building at Twentieth street and Fifth avenue, your Committee, under the authority given by the two Boards entered into a contract with a responsible builder of New York city to put up the whole building at cost of materials and labor (all bills to be submitted to the Committee), and a bonus of $30,000; said builder guaranteeing that in no case would the total cost exceed $1,050,000.

Your Committee then negotiated with the Seamen's Bank for Savings of New York city for a loan of not exceeding $1,000,000 for ten years, secured by a first mortgage on the property; the amount loaned, however, in no case, to exceed fifty per cent. of the value of ground and building (the ground for this purpose to be valued at $700,000). The rate of interest to be 4½ per cent. per annum until the completion of the building, and after that time at 4 per cent. interest, payable semi-annually; the Boards to have the right to pay off not exceeding $100,000 any day when interest is due, on giving thirty days' previous notice of their intention to do so. The money thus arranged for to be paid to the Boards in installments as it may be required to meet the estimates as the work progresses.

In order to make this a first mortgage Mr. John S. Kennedy agreed to satisfy the purchase money mortgage for $340,000, which he held on the property, upon the Boards passing resolutions to apply the proceeds of the sale of the property, corner of Twelfth street and Fifth avenue, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to pay his loan.

Contracts were obtained on very favorable terms, and it looks as if the total cost of the building would come considerably below the limit. The work on the new building was pushed rapidly, and had it not been for a strike of about five weeks this spring the building would have been practically completed on May 1, 1895. This strike not only caused delay in finishing the building, but added somewhat to the expenses. The building, however, is rapidly approaching completion, and a few weeks will see it practically finished.

About twenty leases have already been made, mostly for small offices, aggregating an annual rental of about $19,600.

The annexed statement shows what funds have been applied to the new building. It will be noted that the bonus from Herter Bros. and the gifts received have much more than taken care of the interest on loans during the construction of the building:

From the estate of Mrs. Stuart,	$486,000 00
Borrowed from Mr. John S. Kennedy against property cor. Twelfth street and Fifth avenue,	340,000 00
Rent and bonus from Herter Bros., etc.,	43,950 00
Gifts towards new building,	44,000 00
Borrowed from Seamen's Saving Bank, B. and M.,	600,000 00
Total,	$1,513,950 00

The following amounts have been spent:

In payment for the land,	$670,000 00
Architect's certificates,	710,447 85
Interest on money borrowed,	36,555 82
Insurance and sundries,	1,600 25
Total,	$1,418,603 92

Abstract of the Seventy-sixth Annual Report.

The Board of Education, with gratitude to God, reports to the General Assembly that there has been no change in its membership by death or resignation during the year. At the annual election, on the eleventh of June, all the officers were reëlected, viz., Rev. George D. Baker, D.D., President; Rev. James M. Crowell, D.D., Vice-President; Rev. Edward B. Hodge, D.D., Corresponding Secretary; Rev. D. W. Poor, D.D., Assistant to the Corresponding Secretary; Jacob Wilson, Recording Secretary and Treasurer.

An early estimate was made as to the probable receipts for the coming year, and on the basis of the conclusion reached, it was determined and made known in June last that the Board could not venture to give more than eighty dollars to each college and seminary student, and seventy dollars to each candidate in the preparatory stage of study, and that the number of candidates must be limited to nine hundred. The applications were so numerous that at the first meeting in November, 1894, the Board was obliged to say that it dared not accept any new candidates except for such assistance as might be gotten for each individual case.

In the course of the year applications were received in behalf of 1075 men. Forty-three were refused as not coming within the rules of the Board, and the total number enrolled was 1032, the largest in the history of our Church. Three hundred and sixteen of these were new men, and 716 were men who had received aid in previous years. Forty-four were academic students, 448 were collegiate students, and 540 were theological students. Two promising men have died in the midst of their work of preparation during the year, and one or two have been reported to us as compelled to suspend their studies for a time on account of illness. The Board has felt it necessary to drop two men for failure to maintain a high enough grade in scholarship. Four candidates were married during the year and ceased to receive the benefit of scholarships, according to the invariable rule. A student in the San Francisco Theological Seminary has enjoyed the privilege of a year's course in a medical college, as an additional preparation for Foreign Missionary work, through the liberality of a member of the Board.

The Newberry Scholarship, established according to the terms of the will of the late John S. Newberry, of Detroit, Mich., yields an income of about $500 per annum. Its benefits are awarded, after a competitive examination, to a theological student to be enjoyed during a period of three years in succession. The Newberry scholar at present is Mr. Harry N. Wilson, who, after graduation at McCormick Seminary, has been spending a third year in post-graduate studies. The most gratifying reports have been received of his progress throughout his course. The next Newberry scholar will be selected from among candidates under the care of the Board at Auburn Seminary.

The Board has had one hundred and thirteen colored men under its care during the year, from whom, on the whole, the reports are of a very encouraging character. They are enduring many privations amidst deep poverty in order to get a thorough preparation for the work of elevating the needy colored people of this country, and also for the evangelization of Africa. Four or five recent graduates from Lincoln and Biddle Universities have given themselves to the work of the Gospel in the "dark continent." The Board has thirteen students under its care in the Presbyterian College of the Southwest, which is doing an excellent work in training candidates for the ministry taken from the Spanish-speaking people of that part of our land. Forty-one candidates have received aid in their preparation for work among the Germans. Particular attention is called to the experiment inaugurated by the Newark German Theological School in adding a fourth year to the curriculum, called the "pastoral year," to be spent under the direction of the Faculty in City Mission work, as a preparation for the duties and responsibilities presently to be assumed by the young men, and as an important supplement to the theoretical training of the class-room.

Has not the time come for considering the question of appointing all of the graduates of our Theological Seminaries to at least a year of missionary labor, in different parts of our land, for the gaining of experience and suitable preparation for the larger duties which may be awaiting them afterwards? It would be a great boon to most of our candidates to be assured that a place of labor was awaiting them at the close of their studies, and many would doubtless prefer to begin their ministry in places where "hardness" may be endured for a season. There is an urgent demand for more efficient measures for the caring for our numerous vacant churches and feeble congregations. The most hopeful plan is to send to them our newly-graduated men. It is but reasonable that those who have received the benefit of gratuitous education and the privileges derived from rich endowments at educational centers, should devote the beginning of their ministry to toil of this kind. Their success in such a year of preliminary work would constitute an excellent recommendation at its close for promotion to places of wider influence.

The year began with a debt of $5000 to the Permanent Fund of the Board. The year closes with this debt reduced to $3539.33. The income from churches and Sabbath-schools is nearly $2000 greater than the year before. The total from these sources, however, is only about $50,000. The Permanent Fund yields about $8000. Under these circumstances it has only been by cutting down the amount allowed to candidates to $80, and by special help procured for individual cases, together with the aid furnished by an unusual amount received from legacies, that it has been possible to accept and care for so large a number of men. A large increase in contributions is imperatively necessary, if we are not to be seriously crippled in the task of raising up a well-educated ministry for the work of the Church at home and abroad.

ABSTRACT OF THE FIFTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The year just closed (March 31, 1895), has been one of measurable prosperity in all the Departments.

I. SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT.

The work of this Department has been continued upon the same general plan as in past years. It has two main branches: (I) Missionary, comprehending the organization and development of Sabbath-schools in the strictly missionary field, and (II) Educational, comprehending the elevation and improvement of Sabbath-schools throughout our entire Church.

The duties of the Superintendent in these two branches are widely different, and are performed in respect of entirely different fields. In the missionary branch he has the oversight of Sabbath-school missionaries laboring to establish schools in the spiritually destitute portions of the country. In the Sabbath-school branch his work principally consists in personal effort to elevate instruction in existing schools throughout the entire Church.

I. Missionary Work.

1. The organization of Sabbath-schools in localities of our country destitute of the means of grace.
2. The upbuilding of weak and struggling mission schools in such localities.
3. The distribution of Bibles, hymn-books, books, tracts, lesson-helps, and Sabbath-school papers to churches, Sabbath-schools, families and individuals by grants and sales.
4. The visitation of families and individuals not reached by other Christian agencies.
5. Such other forms of evangelistic work as grow naturally from or are necessary to Sabbath-school missions.

1. Sabbath-school Organization.

The missionaries are grouped under two main classes—Synodical and Presbyterial. Both classes perform the general duties above described.

Synodical Sabbath school missionaries have the supervision of the Presbyterial missionaries working in their respective Synods, and they also perform the work of Presbyterial missionaries. They are under the supervision of the Synodical Committees on Publication and Sabbath-school Work, of their respective Synods, and also of the like Presbyterial Committees of the several Presbyteries within whose bounds they labor.

Presbyterial Sabbath-school missionaries labor within the bounds of particular Presbyteries. They are under the supervision of the Committees on Publication and Sabbath-school Work of their respective Presbyteries, and also of the Synodical missionaries of their respective Synods.

There are now in commission fourteen Synodical missionaries, laboring in the Synods of Atlantic and Catawba, California, Colorado, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas and Indian Territory, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Pennsylvania (Mountain Region, West Virginia), South Dakota and Wisconsin.

There are also in commission 69 permanent Presbyterial missionaries, laboring in 22 Synods, making with the Synodical missionaries a staff of 83 permanent missionaries. During a portion of the summer an auxiliary force of 12 missionaries was employed.

Review of the Year's Work.

An earnest effort has been made still further to systematize the work, both in the office and in the field. These improvements covered, first, the forms and methods employed by the missionaries in recording their labors and writing out their monthly reports; second, the office system of recording the statistics and conducting the official correspondence of the Department; and third, the plan of work connected with the observance of Children's Day and Rallying Day, and the effective management of the United Movement. In carrying out these improvements the expenses of the Department have not been increased, while the results secured have been highly satisfactory.

A still further improvement has been made in the line of a more thorough and systematic oversight and direction of the work upon the field. This will in future include special correspondence with missionaries and the gathering into our records not only of numerical returns, but also of full and accurate details of the work in the various Synods and Presbyteries.

Special attention has also been paid to the presentation of this work to the Young People's Societies of our Church.

ORGANIZATIONS.

Our missionaries organized during the past year 1084 new Sabbath-schools; the number organized under the standing offer of the Board to supply, free of cost, hymn-books, lesson-helps, papers, and Bibles to any person organizing a Presbyterian Sabbath-school, was 58: giving a total of 1142 new schools directly or indirectly organized by the Board during the year. Number of scholars gathered into our schools, 44,004.

REORGANIZATIONS.

Our missionaries have been explicitly instructed to report reorganizations as such. The number reported was 254.

ADDITIONAL FACTS.

The total number of teachers and scholars gathered into our schools this year was 49,499. The missionaries visited and otherwise aided 3738 Sabbath-schools; they delivered 11,689 addresses, and traveled 647,719 miles.

LEADING FEATURES OF THE WORK.

A special feature of the missionary work of this Board is that it receives a large share of its support from the offerings of Sabbath-schools.

A second principle is fidelity to the polity of our Church. Our missionaries labor under the supervision of the Presbyteries, and, wherever practicable, place new schools under the care of the Sessions of neighboring churches.

A third and vital principle is the exercise of genuine catholicity. Our missionaries are instructed whenever they find it impracticable to effect the organization of a school in connection with our own Church, to organize one if possible in connection with some other evangelical denomination, or on the union basis.

RELATION OF THE WORK TO THE CHURCH.

From its nature and by definite aim and intention, it is the pioneer of Home Missions; in actual results, it is materially building up and strengthening our Church, and increasing its usefulness.

The Board of Home Missions, in their last Annual Report, give the following unsolicited and valuable testimony to the missionary work of this Board:

"Acknowledgment is made of the ever-ready and fraternal coöperation of the Boards of Publication and Sabbath-school Work and of Church Erection in the common cause of evangelizing our land. The Sabbath-school missionaries of the former have organized Sabbath-schools and supplied a wholesome literature, and thus prepared the way for the organization of many churches. But they have, in many cases, done more. They have helped to supply vacant churches and neglected communities which we could not reach."

RESULTS OF SEVEN YEARS' WORK.

Number of Sabbath-schools organized by missionaries,	6,959
Number of persons gathered into these schools,	311,223
Number of Sabbath-schools reorganized,	1,277
Number of Sabbath-schools organized under offer of the Board,	748
Number of grants made to churches, Sabbath-schools, and individuals,	15,519
Number of pages of tracts, books, periodicals, and lesson helps,	103,257,164
Number of families visited by missionaries,	455,572
Number of volumes given away,	401,040
Churches grown (in five years) from Sabbath-schools organized by missionaries,	320

2. Upbuilding of Newly Organized Sabbath-schools.

PERMANENCY OF THE NEW SCHOOLS.

Under the peculiar conditions of the Sabbath-school missionary enterprise it is only reasonable to expect that there will be a varying amount of apparently wasted effort; but, on the whole, there is abundant cause for gratitude that so large a proportion of the work is permanent. The labors of the missionaries are, to a considerable extent, of course, experimental in character, and carried on with great drawbacks. It must further be borne in mind that a special phase of this work is the organization of "summer schools" in places where it is well-nigh or absolutely impossible to keep the schools in operation during the winter.

Missionaries are instructed to labor for permanency in results. They are forbidden to organize schools without the express authorization of the Presbyteries within whose bounds they labor. They are directed to place every new school under the care of the Session of the nearest Presbyterian church; or to commend it to the Committee of Presbytery. They are further directed to continue correspondence with the superintendents, and to revisit from time to time the schools they have established, doing all within their power to preserve and foster them. They are also instructed, when any of the schools which they have planted cease to exist, to use all their power to reorganize them.

ANNUAL CENSUS.

A census is taken each year of the schools organized during the preceding year. From the census last taken it appears that of the 870 schools organized from April 1, 1893, to April 1, 1894, 756 have been heard from, while no report has been received concerning 114. Of those heard from, 345 are alive and are continued during the winter; 205 are "summer schools," and 206 have ceased to exist. It also appears that from the schools of that year 50 churches have already grown.

3. Distribution of Literature by Grant and Sale.

The number of pages of tracts and periodicals distributed by our missionaries was 2,171,292; the number directly granted by the Sabbath-school and Missionary Committee was 15,186,434; total 17,357,726.

In addition to these grants there were distributed 46,553 volumes of Christian literature, of which 5202 were Bibles and Testaments. Of this number the missionaries gave away, other than Bibles, 28,193 and sold 2393. The number of volumes directly donated by the Sabbath-school and Missionary Committee was 10,765. The net value of the grants—that is, the exact cost to the Department—was $17,426.73.

4. Visitation of Families.

In this country vast numbers of our population are living in new settlements and in country districts beyond the preaching of the Word, or of any of the ordinary means of grace. The only organized effort put forth by our Church to reach families that are beyond the influence of minister, church, or school is the Sabbath-school missionary work of this Board. Our missionaries push the line of Gospel effort to the very front. Within the past year they visited 82,348 families.

5. Distribution of Clothing and Money.

The work of this Department does not end with organizing Sabbath-schools and supplying instruction to the spiritually destitute. Every year it acts as the almoner of hundreds of Christian people in the distribution of clothing and money. Last year, owing to the terrible forest fires in Wisconsin and Minnesota, the drought in Nebraska, Kansas, and Colorado, and the destructive frosts in Florida, there was far more than the usual demand for these benefactions. The value of the clothing distributed during the year by our missionaries was about $12,000.

III. Educational Work.

1. Normal Class Work, Sabbath-school Conventions and Institutes.
2. The Home Class Department.
3. Graded Supplemental Lessons.
4. The Westminster Catechism.
5. Systematic Beneficence and Interest in Missions.
6. Children's Day.
7. Rallying Day and the United Movement.
8. Statistics of Presbyterian Sabbath-schools.

1. Normal Class Work.

Part of the work of this Department is to encourage and promote the periodical holding of Sabbath school Conventions and Institutes in all our Presbyteries and Synods. The Superintendent attends Conventions and Institutes as far as time, and strength, and attention to other duties allow. It is also part of the duties of our Sabbath-school missionaries to hold such Institutes on their fields. Suggestions for the conduct of normal classes may be found in The Westminster Normal Class Outlines, junior course, and also in Vol. 1 of The Bible Teachers' Guide.

2. The Home Class Department.

Home classes are organized through the agency of visitors appointed by the school to take special charge of this branch of Sabbath-school work. Circulars and samples of outfit required have been prepared, and are furnished to all applicants by the Business Superintendent.

3. Graded Supplemental Lessons.

This subject is also attracting widespread attention. Several schools have reported the adoption of the plan, and testify to its practicability and success.

A small text-book of Supplemental Lessons for the Primary Class is already published, entitled First Steps for the Little Ones.

Text-books for the Normal Department have also been published, namely, The Westminster Normal Class Outlines, for the junior and middle courses, and Vols. i and ii of The Bible Teachers' Guide.

A brief outline, entitled The Westminster System of Graded Supplemental Lessons, and, also, text-books for the four years of the Junior Intermediate Department, are in the course of publication.

4. The Westminster Shorter Catechism.

The offer of the Board to give an Oxford, gilt-edged Bible to any child in any Sabbath-school connected with our Church who shall be duly certified as having committed to memory the Shorter Catechism has been fully carried out during the past year, and 1235 Bibles have been distributed on the above conditions. During the seven years that this rule has been in operation 11,488 Bibles have been awarded. The offer of these Bibles will be continued during the coming year. Blank certificates will be furnished to all pastors and Sabbath-school superintendents on application to the Secretary or to the Superintendent of this Department.

5. Systematic Beneficence and Interest in Missions.

It is part of the work of Sabbath-schools to study the operations of the benevolent Boards of our Church and to practice the duty of systematic giving. This department has endeavored to promote these important objects by the circulation of tracts and periodicals.

6. Children's Day.

The observance of this day is not limited to our Church, but is general among the churches of these United States. Its great educational value, not only in giving instruction, but in training our youth to systematic giving, is universally recognized.

It has been found necessary, in order to secure the full advantages of this day, to furnish printed exercises free to all the Sabbath-schools of our Church. This makes their use general, which would not be the case, by any means, if each school were expected to select and pay for its own supplies.

The contributions on Children's Day, 1894, to the missionary work of this Board amounted to over $55.000. This grand offering would not have been forthcoming but for the diligent and energetic use of the methods adopted by the Board.

7. Rallying Day and the United Movement.

Rallying Day has also become a permanent institution. The object in view is twofold—the formal gathering together after the summer holidays of teachers and scholars for the work of another season, and the systematic canvass for new scholars amongst the neglected youth of the respective neighborhoods. This canvass is what is known as the United Movement. This Department gratuitously supplies blank books for visitors, cards of welcome, and suitable literature bearing on the subject.

8. Presbyterian Sabbath-school Statistics.

This Department is charged by the General Assembly with the duty of collecting and tabulating the Sabbath-school statistics of our Church for publication in the Minutes of the General Assembly. The following is a synopsis of the statistics of the ecclesiastical year 1893–4, the full tabulation of which appears in the Appendix of the Minutes of the General Assembly of 1894:

MEMBERSHIP.

Number of reporting Sabbath-schools,	7,283
Number of officers and teachers,	106,558
Number of officers, teachers and scholars,	977,822

RELATION TO CHURCH.

Total number of scholars in full communion of Church,	171,511
Total number of baptized children and church members,	137,354
Number of scholars received during year into full communion of Church,	38,723

EDUCATIONAL.

Number of schools in which Shorter Catechism is taught,	3,759
Number of schools using Westminster Lesson Helps,	5,407
Number of books in Libraries,	927,730

CONTRIBUTIONS.

To the Boards of the Presbyterian Church,	$190,120
To other benevolent objects,	100,980
To support of the School,	412,490

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

There have been received for the current funds of this Department $129,989.58, of which $24,726.81 came from the Business Department, being two-thirds of the net profits of that Department for the year. The receipts from all sources were $5826.87 more than those of last year.

The total expenditures of the year were $137,964.16, or in excess of receipts for the year, other than those contributed by the Business Department, by $32,701.39.

PURCHASES.

The following are the amounts of purchases which have been made by this Department from the Business Department:

For grants:
Periodicals,	$13,032 86
Books and tracts,	4,393 87
For sales by Sabbath-school Missionaries,	403 79
Total,	$17,830 52

This sum is the net amount of grants made by the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department to Sabbath-schools on the recommendation of Presbyteries through their Committees. The Business Department sells its publications to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department at the lowest rates, and returns to the latter at the end of the year two-thirds of its profits.

MISSIONARY BIBLE FUND.

The balance in the hands of the Treasurer belonging to this Fund, April 2, 1894, was $1807.17; the receipts last year were $350 01; total, $2157.18. The amount expended was $2015.93, leaving a balance April 1, 1895, of $141.25.

The entire Fund is held for the purchase of Bibles that are to be gratuitously distributed, subject to the order of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department.

Periodicals.

Our periodicals continue to meet with increasing favor, not in our own country alone, but in Canada and beyond the sea; not in our own denomination only, but in many other churches. A few descriptive words will explain their character and purpose.

LESSON HELPS.

The Westminster Teacher is issued monthly. It is prepared specifically for the teachers and officers of Sabbath-schools, and is used also by many Bible-class scholars. It contains full expositions of the International Bible Lessons. Its aim is not merely to furnish critical notes, but specially to aid teachers in applying the truths of the Scriptures to the consciences and lives of the pupils. This magazine is published in octavo form, each number containing from 40 to 48 pages. Price, single copy by mail, per annum, 60 cents; school subscriptions to one address, 50 cents per copy.

The Westminster Question Book, though included in the list of "bound volumes," belongs also among lesson helps. It is a complete manual or hand-book for the study of the International Bible Lessons for the year. It contains Scripture Texts, Home Readings, Golden Texts, Lesson Plans, Shorter Catechism, Notes on the Lesson, Questions, Maps, and Practical Suggestions. Price, in quantities, 12 cents each, net; single copies, by mail, 15 cents.

The Westminster Senior Quarterly is adapted to older scholars, and is used also in advanced and Bible classes. It is issued quarterly, and each number contains full lesson-work for the three months, with Order of Service, Map, Bible Dictionary, Class-record for marking by scholars, Hymns and Tunes, and other valuable matter. It has been greatly enlarged and improved in all its features. Each number contains forty-two pages. Though so much enlarged and improved the price remains the same as before—School subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Intermediate Quarterly is a new periodical, the first number of which was issued July 1, 1894. Thus far part of the matter has been the same as that in the Senior Quarterly, but the questions and the working-out of the lessons are different—adapted to a younger grade of scholars. It has Order of Service, Maps and Music. It contains thirty-eight pages and is furnished at the same rate as the Senior Quarterly—School subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Junior Quarterly is adapted to the little people in the primary classes. Its name has been changed from Primary to Junior Quarterly, and it has been greatly enlarged and improved during the past year. Still further enlargement is provided for, beginning with the coming October–December number. School subscriptions to one address, 8 cents a year; single copies, 10 cents. In view of the great improvements to be made, the price of the Junior Quarterly will be advanced for 1896.

The Westminster Lesson Leaf is prepared with special reference to intermediate and younger scholars. It is issued monthly, but is so arranged that, if desired, the leaves can be separated and distributed to scholars weekly. Each leaf contains one lesson complete, with Scripture, Golden Text, Catechism, Lesson Story, Questions and Practical Teachings. School subscriptions to one address, 5 cents a year.

The Westminster Junior Lessons is adapted to the little people. It is issued weekly in the same form and at the same price as the Westminster Lesson Leaf.

The Westminster Lesson Card has already reached a great circulation. It contains a lithographic picture, illustrating the lesson of the day, with Lesson Title, Golden Text, Lesson Hymn, Lesson Story, and Questions. It is adapted in grade to the younger children and primary classes. The price for School subscriptions to one address is 12 cents a year, or 3 cents a quarter. Single sets, 20 cents a year.

The Westminster Question Leaf is a new lesson help, first issued January 1, 1895. It gives questions covering the principal points of the lesson, with full spaces for written answers by scholars. As it is necessary to use writing paper and also to make the pages large enough to receive written answers, the price cannot be as low as that of an ordinary Lesson Leaf. It is furnished at 5 cents a quarter, or 20 cents a year.

The German Lesson Leaf is prepared specifically for the Sabbath-schools of our German congregations. It is published monthly. The price is the same as the Westminster Lesson Leaf.

ILLUSTRATED PAPERS.

Forward is designed especially for young people in intermediate and senior grades, and is adapted for reading in the home. The name of the paper is suggestive of its general character, and fitly embodies its aim.

School subscriptions to one address, once a month, 15 cents, or twice a month, 30 cents a year.

It has been decided to make Forward a weekly paper, beginning January 1, 1896. It will be enlarged and improved in many ways, with special departments touching upon as many phases as possible of the life and work of young people. The help of the most successful writers in the country will be secured, and we shall endeavor to furnish each week the best and brightest things that can be gathered from the widest field.

The Sabbath-school Visitor is adapted to a younger class of readers than Forward. It is an illustrated four-page paper, each number containing attractive and interesting matter adapted to children. It is published twice a month. It may, however, be taken once or twice a month, as preferred. School subscriptions to one address, once a month, 10 cents, or twice a month, 20 cents a year.

The Morning Star is of the same quality, grade, and style as The Visitor, but is only half the size. It is issued twice a month, but may be taken once or twice a month, as desired. School subscriptions to one address, once a month, 5 cents, or twice a month, 10 cents a year.

Sunbeam is issued weekly, and is finely illustrated. School subscriptions to one address, 20 cents a year. No subscriptions taken for less than a month.

NEW HYMNAL.

The Board reports with gratification that the work upon the new Hymnal, which it was directed by the General Assembly to prepare, has now reached a stage so nearly approaching completion, that the publication of the book early in the coming autumn is assured. The Committee of the Board, to whom the details of the work were entrusted, have bestowed upon the task most conscientious and unremitting labor.

It is also confidently believed that in respect of intrinsic merit and adaptation to the varying requirements of our congregations, the book will fully justify the expectations of the Church and win for itself general acceptance.

Following the publication of this Hymnal, the Board contemplates the preparation of a smaller book, adapted to use in meetings of Young People's Societies and for Sabbath-school purposes, the details of which book are still under consideration.

III. BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

This Department conducts all the business operations of the Board. Of these the most important are first, the manufacture of books, tracts, and periodicals; and secondly, the placing of the publications on the market.

PUBLICATIONS.

There have been published during the year 1,412,718 copies of books and tracts, and 22,620,815 copies of periodicals, which, together with 8500 copies of the Annual Report,* make an aggregate of 24,042,033 publications for the year.

PLACING ON THE MARKET.

This work continues to be performed by advertising in the leading papers of our own and affiliated denominations throughout the country, and through the agency of the main store in Philadelphia, the depositories in Chicago and St. Louis, and seventeen branch houses, twelve of which are in our own land, four in British America, and one in England. These agencies, at the present time, are as follows:

DEPOSITORIES AND BRANCH HOUSES.

Albany, N. Y., The Leonard Publishing Co., 31 Maiden Lane.
Baltimore, Md., S. W. Harman, 320 North Charles Street.

*This refers to the number of copies of the Report for the year ending March 31, 1894.

Boston, Mass., H. D. Noyes & Co., 13½ Bromfield Street.
Buffalo, N. Y., Otto Ulbrich, 386 Main Street.
Chicago, Ill., Chicago Depository, H. S. Elliott, Manager, Association Building, 153–155 LaSalle Street.
Cincinnati, O., Western Tract Society, 176 Elm Street.
Cleveland, O., The Burrows Bros. Co., 23, 25 and 27 Euclid Avenue.
Denver, Colo., Chain & Hardy Co., 1609–1615 Arapahoe Street.
Montreal, Quebec, William Drysdale & Co., 232 St. James Street.
New York, N. Y., Ward & Drummond, 164 Fifth Avenue.
Pittsburgh, Pa., Board of Colportage, 706 Penn Avenue.
Portland, Oregon, 269 Morrison Street.
San Francisco, Cal., American Tract Society, 735 Market Street.
St. Louis, Mo., St. Louis Depository, Rev. J. W. Allen, D.D., Manager, 1516 Locust Street.
Syracuse, N. Y., George A. Mosher, 112 East Fayette Street.
Toronto, Ont., N. T. Wilson, 12 King Street, West.
Truro, N. S., D. H. Smith & Co.
Winnipeg, Manitoba, Russell & Co., 504 Main Street.
London, England, 14 Paternoster Square, terms on application.

These houses, with the exception of the one in London, furnish all our publications at the Board's catalogue prices.

Our periodicals are still further brought to the attention of churches and Sabbath-schools by circulars addressed to pastors and Sabbath-school superintendents. Our missionaries also bring all classes of our publications to the notice of those who dwell in missionary districts.

SALES.

The sales for the year in books and tracts were $88,525.32. This amount, as it includes credit sales, does not agree with the Treasurer's account, which account exhibits only cash received. The Treasurer's account includes cash received for the sales of the current year, and also cash received for the credit sales of preceding years.

The amount received during the year for the sale of periodicals was $178,779.04.

The aggregate of the preceding sales includes not only the ordinary sales of the main house, and of the depositories and branch houses, but all sales made to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department for grants, and all sales by Sabbath-school missionaries.*

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The receipts of the Business Department during the year from all sources, inclusive of those for The Church at Home and Abroad and the Missionary Bible Fund, were $291,717.69. To this should be added the balance in the Treasury at the beginning of the year, $122,672.89, making a total of $414,390.58. The expenditures during the year were $338,648.73. The balance is $75,741.85, of which $75,411.99 belongs to the Business Department, $188.61 to The Church at Home and Abroad, and $141.25 to the Missionary Bible Fund.

* The above statement relates only to amounts received and credited by the Business Department. In addition to the amount received by this Department from sales by missionaries, the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department received $193.58 from those sales. The Business Department sells all its publications to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department at "the highest rate of discount allowed on the same classes of publications to the most favored branch house in this country;" the missionaries are required to sell, for cash only, at catalogue prices; the excess inures to the benefit of the latter Department.

FREE LIBRARIES.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Assembly, the Board, during the year ending March 31, 1895, distributed 226 Free Libraries to needy ministers, churches, Sabbath-schools, and also to other deserving objects, in thirty-six States and Territories.

The value of these donations, at catalogue prices, was $8472.66, but, at the reduced inventory of old stock, was $4236.33.

NET PROFITS.

The net profits of the year were $36,799.84. Of this sum two-thirds, or $24,533.23, has been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly. The remaining third, or $12,266.61, has been added to capital.

CAPITAL.

This, at the beginning of the year, according to the balance sheet of the last Report, was $423,410.83. This amount was reduced, before the close of the year, to $347,489.22. The total reduction, amounting to $75,921.61, was the aggregate of—1. The further reduction in inventory values resulting from the continuance of the revision in the valuation of merchandise stock authorized by the General Assembly in 1891, amounting to $31,685.28; 2. The donation of Free Libraries valued at (reduced inventory) $4236.33; 3. The paying over of $40,000 to the Board of Trustees as part of the purchase money for real estate recently acquired as the site of the new Publication House.

In consequence of the addition of one-third of the profits of the year, or $12,266.61, the capital is now reported as $359,755.83.

Renewed attention is called to the fact that a large part of the capital is represented by the real estate of the Board, which yields no income, but is given up to the use of the various agencies of the Church, while the expenses of maintenance of the entire building are paid out of the earnings of the Board.

NEW PRESBYTERIAN HOUSE.

The inadequacy of the present Publication House to afford needed accommodations to the different departments of the Board and the several Presbyterian Boards, Associations and officers to which it gives a home, has been felt for several years. After long and careful consideration it was concluded that the time had arrived when a new and commodious house should be erected. An eligible lot has been purchased in the immediate neighborhood of the present building, and it is contemplated to commence the erection of a new Presbyterian House in the near future. The Board is now in communication with other Boards and organizations relative to the accommodations desired by them in the new building, and as soon as their requirements have been ascertained, plans for the building will be prepared. As these details have not been perfected, the Board is without accurate data upon which to base a statement as to the cost of the intended improvement. The Board, however, does not contemplate an expenditure in excess of the resources at its command, or which would result in the creation of a permanent debt. A portion of the building will be rented, under proper restrictions, for office purposes, and such of the funds of the Board as will be needed to supplement the moneys received from the sale of the present house will have a safe and profitable investment.

IV. THE CHURCH AT HOME AND ABROAD.

At the request of the Committee appointed by the General Assembly, the Board continues to be the publisher of The Church at Home and Abroad. The relations of the Board to this magazine are different, however, from those which it sustains to the other periodicals which it publishes.

The editor of the magazine is selected by the Assembly's Committee, and he works under its general direction, as does also the Board itself in this particular. The Board is an agent, rather than the principal, in its publication, and assumes no pecuniary responsibility in reference thereto.

No charge has been made by the Board for anything except actual expenditures directly on account of the magazine, and every effort has been adopted, through the machinery of the Board, to further the success of the enterprise.

The amount of receipts* on account of the magazine for the year was $17,033.01. The number of copies published were 207,464.

A balance of $188.61 now stands to the credit of this magazine in the books of the Treasurer.

* This includes the amounts received from the subscribers and from the several Boards.

ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTY-FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The year is rendered memorable by the bereavement of the Board in the death of its President, the Rev. Samuel D. Alexander, D.D., which occurred October 26, 1894.

Dr. Alexander was elected as a member of this Board in 1872, and in 1888, upon the death of Dr. Fewsmith, succeeded him as President. During these years his services to the Board have been many and continuous. Punctual and regular in his attendance upon the meetings, he presided with a dignity, an impartiality and a courtesy which made his presence most acceptable and helpful.

Upon November 26, 1894, the Rev. David Magie, D.D., for twenty years a member of the Board, was elected President, to succeed Dr. Alexander. In reviewing the work of the year, it is evident that it has been affected in a somewhat marked degree by the financial and business disturbances that have been felt throughout the country. These have not, indeed, greatly hindered the progress of the Church and the organization of new congregations. Because the times are hard it will not do to leave our new communities without the Gospel, and when the resulting churches are organized, there is as much need for church homes as if the business prospects were as bright as four years ago.

But a larger proportion of these new churches than usual are left in the precarious condition of having no such settled places of worship.

From all sources the total income of the Board during the past year has been as follows:

Contributions from churches,	$49,301 73
Individual contributions,	2,281 16
From Stuart legacy,	15,500 00
Other legacies,	13,098 47
Interest on invested funds,	8,298 53
Sale of church buildings,	5,356 80
Appropriations returned,	4,018 86
Receipts from insurance,	2,798 15
Special contributions,	2,741 64
	$103,395 34
Less amount over appropriations April, '94,	3,238 21
		$100,157 13
From Stuart legacy for Loan Fund,	$50,000 00
Installments repaid to Loan Fund,	4,634 97
Interest on Loan Fund,	8,597 93
		63,232 90
From Stuart legacy for Manse Fund,	$20,000 00
Contributions for Manse Fund,	1,858 20
Repayments to Manse Fund,	9,356 41
Interest Manse Fund,	1,195 66
Special Contributions Manse Fund,	49 76
		32,460 03

APPROPRIATIONS.*

1. The General Fund.—This is the fund from which the missionary and smaller churches are aided. The appropriations are either, as in most cases, absolute grants, or else small loans to be repaid, without interest, in the annual contributions of the church within a certain definite number of years.

From this fund appropriations have been made to 155 churches and to the aggregate amount of $79,585. Of these 119, amounting to $59,265, were actual grants, and 41, amounting to $20,320, were loans, to be repaid, as has been said, in the regular annual contributions to the Board and without interest.

2. The Loan Fund.—This fund is now established at $245,000, of which $86,225 is represented by mortgages upon church property to which loans have been made.

Thirteen loans, aggregating $26,075, have been made. Of these 3 have been in California, 2 each in Oregon and Minnesota, and 1 each in Pennsylvania, Nebraska, Iowa, West Virginia, Maryland and New York.

3. The Manse Fund.—This most beneficent fund has been increased by an addition of $20,000 from the Stuart legacy, and is now upon so substantial a basis as to give promise of being sufficient to meet the demands of this department for the present.

Forty-one loans, aggregating $16,891, and four grants, amounting to $600, have been made. That the average amount advanced is less than $400, sufficiently indicates how strictly the work is confined to the small churches, and so provides sorely needed homes for the families of their self-sacrificing pastors, otherwise in many cases literally without a place in which to lay their heads.

Summing up the work of the different departments of the Board it will be seen that the number of churches reached is 237, and the aggregate amount appropriated for their aid $125,981.15. The work can be traced in detail by an examination of the map, with its appended explanatory tables, alphabetical and synodical.

The aggregate of receipts in all departments was $205,568.79, and the disbursements, including loans from the Loan Fund and expenses of administration, were $132,184.31.

The unusual excess this year of the receipts over the disbursements is owing to the fact that included in the former is the balance received from the legacy of Mrs. Stuart. Ordinarily the receipts and payments almost precisely balance each other, and if the former were greater, the latter would increase in due proportion.

During the year there have been reported to the Board, as completed through its aid, without debt, 182 churches and manses, the total value of which is nearly $560,000.

Abstract of the Fortieth Annual Report.

THE ROLL.

The whole number enrolled under the care of the Board on recommendation of the Presbyteries is 785; that is, ministers, 310; widows of ministers, 419; orphan families of ministers, 29; women missionaries, 4; one widow of a medical missionary, and 22 have been provided for at the Ministers' House, at Perth Amboy, N. J. Of these, 83 are new names. Forty-three names have been removed from the roll by death—32 ministers and 11 widows. The withdrawal from our roll of other names (owing to a change in pecuniary circumstances or restored health rendering further aid no longer necessary), and the failure of some "renewals" by the Presbyteries to reach the Board before the close of the year, make the number of persons actually upon the roll, recommended by the Presbyteries and receiving a remittance in money or in lieu thereof a residence at Perth Amboy, as given above, 785, an increase of 31 over the number on the roll last year.

The applications of the Presbyteries show that, in the majority of cases, those recommended for appropriations represent not individuals only, but dependent families. This fact should be borne in mind when reckoning the full extent of the Board's ministrations. Meagre as is even the maximum allowance, it is shared with many who have no other means of support. Inadequate as is the provision made for these disabled and dependent servants of the Church and their families, all the more precious is the pittance which at least ameliorates their condition. No matter how great the crying need of special cases of hardship, the Board has no discretionary power to exceed the maximum appropriation of $300 to any family. The enrollment of the honorably retired veterans, under the New Rule of the Assembly (1889), has been enlarged by the addition of seventeen names. Only those are eligible to this list who are over seventy years of age and have served the Church for an aggregate period of thirty years as pastor, stated supply or missionary. The whole number of the venerable men availing themselves of this provision from the beginning of the roll is 139; and of these 54 died. The whole number now enrolled is 85. The eldest is 94 years of age; 31 are over 80; and their average of service is nearly 48 years. While entitled to the maximum of $300, many have applied for a less sum; the average of their allowance being $275; the total drawn during the year being $23,490. These patriarchs may well be honored as heading the host of the ministering servants of the Church, and as being in the van of those about to enter into rest. If the hoary head is a crown of glory when found in the way of righteousness, surely those who have grown gray in the service of Christ and His Church are to be tenderly revered and cherished until they are at rest.

THE TREASURY.

At the beginning of the year the problem of how to provide for all those under the care of the Board was never more serious. For each of the two previous years the total expenditures had exceeded the total receipts, and last year showed a grave deficit in the operations of the Board. For the four preceding years the contributions from the churches and Sabbath-schools had decreased, and, with one exception, they had decreased every year since 1887, the centennial year. In consequence of this deficit, which last year alone amounted to $19,358.12, the serviceable balance on hand since 1887 was almost exhausted, leaving in the treasury only $4548.95 with which to begin the year. The working balance on hand, heretofore, was all that saved the Board from the necessity of borrowing to meet the demands upon it during the earlier months of the fiscal year, when the contributions of the churches were not large. Nor was that balance large enough even for this purpose, and it was necessary to borrow from the uninvested Permanent Fund to meet the earlier appropriations, so that, even before the meeting of the Assembly last year, the meagre balance of $4548.95 reported, along with many times that amount of borrowed funds, was already expended. Thus it will be seen that the Board faced one of the gravest situations in its history. Should the contributions decrease as in the immediately preceding years, there was nothing in prospect but a disastrous debt, if the Board responded in full to the applications of the Presbyteries. It was felt, on the one hand, that if there were a reduction made in the remittances it would comply with the policy, indorsed repeatedly by the Assembly, that the distributions are not to exceed the contributions; moreover, such a course would doubtless prove remedial, as the Church would not fail to recognize the gravity of the situation when it saw the distress resulting from a failure to continue its provision to its aged, disabled and dependent servants and their families. On the other hand, it was deemed that this distressing remedy, though it might be effectual, would be too severe, and that the Board ought not to have recourse to it until every other means of arousing the Church to a sense of its duty to a cause really so dear to its heart was exhausted. In belief that the response to its appeals would justify its confidence, the Board adhered steadily to its determination to meet all demands upon it as heretofore, with the exception only of applications for increase of appropriation. Prudence required that however necessary the latter might be, action upon them should be deferred; but not without hope that a subsequent increase in the revenue would ultimately justify the payment even of these.

The Board is happy to announce, with thanksgiving to God, at the close of another fiscal year, that though its brightest hopes have not been fulfilled, its gravest fears have not been realized. As the year advanced, the Church showed its appreciation of the dire need of the treasury and responded generously so that the contributions of churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals exhibited a gratifying advance over the receipts from the same sources of the previous year. For the first time in a number of years the income from these sources showed an increase instead of a decrease. And while the receipts from all sources were not equal to the expenditures of the year, which has been the case for the last three consecutive years, they averted the danger of a heavy debt and enabled the Board to meet all its obligations in full. Although there was a balance on the wrong side of the account, the Board could not refuse the urgent applications for increased appropriations which had come to it during the year, and had been postponed until its close, and at its last meeting it ordered the payment of these deferred sums, although to do so increased its final indebtedness to $1977.86.

		1893–4.	1894–5.
(1)	Contributions from Churches and Sabbath-schools, ...	$78,262 90	$83,256 26
(2)	Contributions from Individuals, .	10,771 74	18,200 42
(3)	Interest from Permanent Fund, .	61,742 78	69,177 64
(4)	" " Deposits in Bank, .	789 30	479 10
(5)	" " Special Funds held by the Synod of Ohio and other Trustees, ...	437 13	500 12
		$152,003 85	$171,613 54

To the cash income should be added $5134.59, the estimated value of boxes sent to families on the roll by various churches and societies. The estimated value of similar contributions last year was $4758.23.

During the last year $48.255.19 were received by the Board in legacies, a detailed statement of which may be found on page 43 of the Annual Report. This is $30,531.15 less than was received from this source during the previous year.

OUTLOOK FOR THE COMING YEAR.

The increased contributions of churches and individuals are attributable, in large part, to an awakened interest in Ministerial Relief effected by the concurrent action of the courts of the Church. The Board has no field secretaries; moreover, the needs and claims of the cause cannot be proclaimed without wounding the sensibilities of those whom it is intended to serve. It is seemingly inconsistent, besides, to dwell on the wants of the beneficiaries of Ministerial Relief when strenuously insisting, as should ever be done, that the ministrations of the Church are due to them, on the ground, not of compassion and charity, but of just indebtedness and honorable compensation for service rendered. The Board must look to the Assembly, to the Synods and to the Presbyteries, and under them to the pastors and sessions, and especially to the ruling elders of the churches, for a due presentation of a cause which needs only this to awaken an unfailing response from the people.

The Board would also have the Assembly direct attention to the printed matter, reports, papers and circulars, which give all desired information concerning the cause of Ministerial Relief, and which may be used with great advantage by pastors and elders when advocating the cause. Among the latest of these is "A Symposium of the Synods on Ministerial Relief;" on the work of the Board, as shown by their printed Minutes last fall, its income and outlay, its needs and claims, its ways and means. These and other similar documents, in addition to the Report for 1894–95, may be had in any desired quantity by sending for them to the office of the Board.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WILLIAM C. CATTELL, Corresponding Secretary.

Abstract of Thirtieth Annual Report.

THE WORK OF THE YEAR.

This year our receipts from churches, Sabbath-schools, societies and individuals exceed those of the year before by $5270.27. This increase of receipts from these sources, together with what was saved by reduction of expenditures, enabled us notwithstanding a falling off in legacies, to end the year with a reduction of our debt to the extent of $4246.06. The debt in 1893 was $28,885.37; in 1894 it was $26,597.62; this year it is $22,351.56. The number of schools we maintained this year is only four less than last year, and this reduction has been made in the schools of lesser importance. Teachers' salaries were reduced on an average of about ten per cent. The total discontinuance of some schools is $8544.73. An exception to the general rule of retrenchment is the completion of the new dormitory at Biddle University, known as Carter Hall, built mainly with a legacy from the late Miss Laura Carter, of Geneva, N. Y. The structure is a substantial brick building costing $15,000.

The Mary Holmes Seminary at Jackson, Miss., was burned January 21. The entire plant, including additions and improvements, cost $27,000. We were insured for $15,000.

In our comparative statement of money expended on the field, there is a total decrease of $26,576.70. The total amount received during the year, not including $14,658.87 from insurance, was $173,050.16. The total expenditures during the year, not including payment of notes of money invested permanently, was $162,704.10. Corresponding expenditures during the previous year was $192,322.40.

ABSTRACT OF TWELFTH ANNUAL REPORT.

INSTITUTIONS AIDED.

Three institutions aided in 1893-4 were dropped this year because they would not conform to your requirement that indebtedness must not be incurred.

The total number of students is less by only 33, financial depression decreasing attendance less than was feared.

The number of college students increased by 127. If fewer new pupils entered our schools, those who had begun kept on.

Students in Classical Study (taking Latin and at least having Greek in view), increased by 24.

Students in Systematic Bible Study increased by 55. Pupils who take only music, art or commercial branches, and some of Roman Catholic, Jewish or other faiths, cannot always be forced into Bible study; some Southern schools which accept public school funds and pupils cannot teach the Bible to those pupils; three institutions having, after repeated warning, disregarded your directions to make the Bible a chief text-book, will be brought into line or dropped; but with these exceptions nearly every student is systematically taught the Holy Word. The results are manifest in the three items following:

The number of student Church members increased by 116. About one-half of all pupils, many of whom are in primary school grades, are now enrolled followers of our Lord.

The number credibly converted during the year was 250, an increase of 40. One academy of 51 pupils reports 20 conversions, and another of 295 pupils saw 58 of them confess their Saviour, while in several institutions every student has made the happy choice.

Students meaning to be ministers number 247, an increase of 22.

Clearly the blessing of God is upon this work.

The indebtedness of one academy has been paid by the Board's aid, and funds to pay two more are in the Board's treasury waiting for clearing of titles and execution of mortgages to the Board.

A college in Tennessee and an academy in Iowa have erected admirable buildings during the year without incurring indebtedness.

Two or three institutions in peril of debt through awful droughts in their regions, their teachers suffering for pay, ought to have instant succor which the Board has not means to afford. Two or three others, in peril of forced suspension or sale through unwise incurring of debt, have done admirable work for the Church and ought to be saved if they give evidence of repentance and amendment; but the Board has not means for the salvage.

PREVENTION.

The Board has this year prevented the starting of many Presbyterian schools, colleges and universities which had no sufficient reason (beyond real estate speculation) for coming into being, or which could not reasonably expect immediate support or future growth. Towns which expect to make themselves great by opening a small Presbyterian institution with a big name, and then reaping rich eastern financial fields, are visited and the futility of their project is proved to their business men. It is somewhat expensive to the Board, but seems a wise outlay for the Church's welfare.

The number of contributing churches was 2956; but 4431, or about three-fifths of our churches, omitted this important work. Their gifts, interest and prayers are needed.

The Western Synods, as showed by the Treasurer's Report, page 50, are doing a heroic portion of our Church's work for colleges and academies. Making such large gifts, in a year of great financial depression, Western Presbyterians testify, by their personal sacrifices, to the paramount importance of the work, and to their firm belief in the present value and future prosperity of our institutions; and they suggest that Eastern Presbyterians both could and would do great things for the work if they could see the need and value of it as those who are on the field see them.

The General Fund, from which appropriations for current expenses of institutions are made, needs large augmentation. The Board is able to give its institutions only about one-half what they should have to enable them to do good work, make reputation, win confidence and come to self-support; and it is obliged to refuse help to many schools, both old and new, which it would pay the Church to foster.

The Property Fund, from which aid is given in paying debts, erecting buildings and securing endowment, is not what it must be if the Church is to establish its work in the West. The Board does not contemplate the opening of more colleges perhaps for years to come: it dare not encourage the opening of academies needed in many regions; but it dares to hope that institutions now remaining (after the gradual disappearance of unfit and weak ones) may be strengthened, endowed and made permanent and self-supporting by large gifts coming to our treasury from far-seeing friends of Christ, who believe in an education for Western young people, that makes the Word of God the chief thing.

Large gifts of Presbyterian money continue to reach the hands of representatives of some Western educational schemes which the Board cannot approve, and are mostly lost thereafter to any useful purpose. The Board stands modestly ready to inform givers regarding Western Presbyterian institutions for which their gifts are solicited, and to do this without prejudice in favor of those which happen to be among its beneficiaries, regarding the interests of our great Church as paramount.

Education Day.

Education Day, appointed by the last General Assembly, was widely observed and profitably. It should, in the judgment of the Board, become a permanent appointment and be observed by all churches, Sabbath-schools and young people's societies.

Abstract of the Sixteenth Annual Report.

The Sixteenth Annual Report of the Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence is herewith respectfully presented to General Assembly.

During the year the Committee has been called upon to mourn the death of one of its members, the Rev. Charles S. Pomeroy, D.D. For seven years, 1884-91, Dr. Pomeroy was Chairman of the Committee. During this time the benevolence of the Church increased from $10,169,401 in 1884 to $13,961,211 in 1891. The average gift per member also increased, more than keeping pace with the growth of the Church. In 1884 it was $16.51 per member; in 1891, $17.30 per member. It was also during these years that Chap. vi was added to our Directory of Worship. The credit of these results was due in large measure to the indefatigable labors of Dr. Pomeroy. Since retiring from the chairmanship of the Committee, Dr. Pomeroy has remained one of its members, and aided in its work as time and opportunity presented. The Committee desires to record its profound sense of loss in the removal of so efficient a coworker, and its heartiest appreciation of the work he did in leading the Church towards a true, because a Biblical, beneficence.

For the first time since its organization in 1879, your Committee is obliged to report a decrease in the gifts of the Church to benevolent objects.

The decrease is much smaller, considering the crippled finances of the country and of the Church, than might have been reasonably expected. The total loss, as compared with the previous year, is $44,829. Four of the Boards record gains, viz.: Home Missions, $31,570; Foreign Missions, $23,566; Sabbath-school Work, $8036, and Aid for Colleges and Academies, $60,478—a total of $123,650. Against these we have to report losses as follows: Education, $24,937; Church Erection, $128,116; Ministerial Relief, $8471, and Freedmen, $6955—a total of $168,479, or a net loss of $44,829. We have abundant cause for thanksgiving to Almighty God that the loss has been so insignificant.

The large decrease in the receipts of the Board of Church Erection is due to the fact that last year it received in legacies the sum of $228,143.77. This year it received from this source $70,000—a difference in favor of last year of $158,143.77. Except for this difference we should be able to report this year an increase of more than $100,000 in the total receipts of the Boards. It speaks well for the Church and for the power of a living Christianity that such a record has been made during a year unparalleled for a generation in its financial distress.

We append the detailed table of the Turning to the receipts from the living Church, the figures for the year show a decided improvement. Five of the Boards report gains as follows: Foreign Missions, $75,758; Ministerial Relief, $12,422; Aid for Colleges and Academies, $4011; Sabbath-school Work, $3956, and Education, $3594. Home Missions loses, $28,446; Church Erection, $8772, and Freedmen, $717.

* Not including $24,533.23, two-thirds of the profits of the Business Department; $193.58, other profit; and $7744.36, interest. The figures for 1894 also omit these items.

RECEIPTS FROM CHURCHES AND INDIVIDUALS.

Even more strikingly than in the tables which have been given above, the loyalty of the Church is seen in the following table of the "Number of Contributing Churches." Here it is our pleasant duty to report a gain, with a single exception, in every Board, the largest increase being in the Board of Aid for Colleges, which heretofore has lagged in this particular far in the rear of the other Boards. The total gain in the number of contributions is 1577. Deduct from this the loss of 93 collections for the Board of Education, and we have a net gain of 1484. It is our belief that the wide circulation of The Assembly Herald has had much to do in bringing about this gratifying increase in the number of churches contributing to the needs of the Boards. We have personal knowledge of not a few churches being led by its influence to send offerings to their treasuries.

The following is the table:

Line upon Line.

At the risk of repetition it seems important to keep constantly before the Church the fundamental principles of Biblical beneficence. Conscientious and generous giving is not a natural growth. Inherent selfishness checks and dwarfs its development. Like any other fruit of the Spirit it needs cultivation. It must be built upon love, and supported upon the one side by principle and on the other by habit. We love God because He first loved us. We gladly consecrate ourselves, our lives, our time, our money to Him.

The principle is that of stewardship. We are the Lord's stewards. He has entrusted to us His goods. We are to trade with them for Him. He expects interest on His investments. This was the condemnation of the servant with the one talent. He did not put it to the exchangers to draw interest for the Lord. And yet even he, unfaithful as he was, did not deny (as so many seem to do in our day) his Master's ownership of the original talent.

The Scriptures clearly teach the method by which the interest is to be paid. It is by giving directly to the work of the Lord a sum generously proportioned to our prosperity.

Supported on one side by principle, which acknowledges the fact of our stewardship and recognizes that our giving to the Lord should be proportioned to the prosperity He sends us, Christian generosity should have upon the other side the support of habit. This is one of the benefits of weekly giving, especially when done on the Lord's day and in the spirit of worship. "Upon the first day of the week"—the day of sacred worship—"let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him" (1 Cor. xvi. 2). What a dignity does this inspired injunction lend to our gifts! Laying aside our worldly occupations we draw nigh to God. We have time to think upon His mercies conferred so bountifully upon us, and the measureless debt of gratitude we owe to Him. How can we show our gratitude better than, after repentance of our sins and consecration of ourselves to Him, by laying at His feet, to be used at His service, a generous portion of the prosperity He has bestowed upon us? Let the Church reverently study and devoutly adopt this, the divine, method of beneficence, and there will be no further need of special means and devices for the purpose of raising needed funds.

If the provisions of Chapter vi of our Directory for Worship could be introduced into every church, if Sessions and congregations would adopt the divine method of giving "upon the first day of the week, as God hath prospered," then the treasuries of the Boards would be full.

Apportionment.

The subject of apportionment has received during the past year unusual attention in our Synods and Presbyteries. In some instances it has been subjected to criticism, because it has not been understood. Here and there it has met with an adverse vote, because it has been regarded in the light of an assessment. From the first mention of the subject in one of the reports of Dr. Pomeroy, the statement has been constantly emphasized by this Committee that an assessment was neither intended nor desired. The underlying thought of the plan was clearly stated last year by the Assembly's Standing Committee on Benevolence, as follows: "General Assembly expects each of its Synods, Presbyteries and churches to give its just share of the funds needed to prosecute the work of the Boards of the Church."

The truth is, however, that many Presbyteries and churches are not doing their "just share." The fearful array of blanks in the statistical columns of the Minutes bears testimony to the fact that many churches are doing nothing. The deficits in the treasuries of our Boards are due to the failure of so many to recognize the manly, to say nothing of the Christian, principle of doing one's "just share." This failure, your Committee is convinced, would cease to exist, if each pastor, with the approval of his Session, would say to his people: "The General Assembly, the highest judicatory of our Church, after mature deliberation, has decided that $——— is needed to carry on, during the coming year, its great benevolent and missionary work. It is a privilege for us as a church to do our 'just share' in raising this amount. It is not much that we can do, but we can do at least our share; and less, I am sure, we would not be willing to do. With the best light at the disposal of Session the share for this church is $———. This sum, divided in accordance with the recommendation of the Assembly, would give to Foreign Missions $———, or 33 per cent.; to Home Missions $———, or 31 per cent.; to Church Erection $———, or 6 per cent.; to Sabbath-school Work $———, or 6 per cent.; to Freedmen $———, or 6 per cent.; to Education $———, or 6 per cent.; to Ministerial Relief $———, or 6 per cent.; to Aid for Colleges $———, or 6 per cent. These several amounts the Session is confident you will be glad to contribute as your offerings to the Lord's work during the present ecclesiastical year."

If the pastor could add that these were the amounts suggested by Presbytery for his church, the announcement would carry much additional weight.

The practical difficulty lies in the proper determination of what is the "just share" of each Presbytery, and the apportionment of that share among its several churches. At first it was suggested that the valuation of church property as per the census of 1890, reported in the Minutes of 1892 (pp. 751–754), be taken as a reasonably fair basis of estimate. The Committee believed that the Church would readily accept the principle of each Presbytery doing its "just share," and the apportionment be quickly made. But it takes time for a Church as large as ours to accept, and especially to put into practice, a new principle. Meanwhile the valuation of church property was constantly changing, with no means of ascertaining the extent of the changes. It is probable, therefore, that the amount expended in congregational expenses, which can be known from year to year, is a better basis upon which to reckon. But even on this basis there are local conditions which might make any unvarying percentage, even within the bounds of a given Presbytery, bear too lightly upon some and too heavily on other churches. Your Committee inclines to the belief that the wisest course would be to place the responsibility of making an apportionment for itself and its churches upon each Presbytery. Certainly this course would remove the objection that General Assembly is purposing to make an assessment. Your Committee would, therefore, suggest the adoption of the following, or some similar, resolution:

"General Assembly would repeat its resolution of last year, viz., that it 'expects each of its Synods, Presbyteries and churches to give its just share of the funds needed to prosecute the work of the Boards of the Church,' and accordingly urges each Presbytery, through its Committee on Systematic Beneficence, or in such other way as in its wisdom it may deem best, to undertake the raising within its bounds for the Boards of the Church such a sum as it considers, in view of its ability and their needs, its fair share of the whole amount required; and that each church be informed by Presbytery of the sum requested from it for each Board."

The principle of apportionment, besides being endorsed by General Assembly, has received the approval of the following Synods, viz.: Baltimore, California, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Missouri, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Washington, and possibly of others also.

The Assembly Herald.

By the action last year of your venerable body in establishing the Assembly Herald, your Committee found no further necessity of continuing the Christian Steward. For two and a half years it was published by this Committee without expense to the Church, having been self-supporting from its first issue. It was devoted exclusively to the subject of beneficence, and did a good work in educating the Church to Biblical views of giving. The Assembly Herald, thus far edited and conducted by two members of this Committee, allows a specified space in its columns for the continuance of this instruction.

Documents.

In addition to the above, the Committee has sent out during the year about 50,000 of its printed documents to the churches desiring them for distribution. This work the Committee hopes, if your judgment approves its continuance, largely to increase. Plans are already under way for the issuance of monthly documents to be put in the churches at a merely nominal cost, which will, we trust, prove a great stimulus to the churches and a considerable help to the Boards.

In behalf of the Committee, respectfully submitted,

ABSTRACT OF THE FOURTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

Your Permanent Committee on Temperance respectfully submits its Annual Report. together with the minutes of its meetings.

The Committee has, with regret, accepted the resignation of two of its members—Rev. Joseph B. Turner, whose removal to a distant field of labor prevents his attendance at our meetings, and Elder Robert C. Totten, who is precluded by pressure of business engagements from giving to the Committee's work the time and attention demanded. The place made vacant by Rev. Mr. Turner's retirement was filled by the election of Rev. William L. McEwan, D.D.

THE WORK OF THE YEAR.

The lines of work taken up have varied little from those of preceding years. It has been your Committee's aim and endeavor that the sound temperance teachings of the Presbyterian Church, so unequivocally uttered by more than forty Assemblies within the present century, should not be unknown or inoperative. The means by which we have sought to subserve these ends have been, mainly, correspondence both within and without the Church, the use of the printing press, and in a few instances addresses before ecclesiastical bodies and other public assemblies.

In 1890 the Permanent Committee was recommended by the General Assembly to send, free of expense, temperance literature to all applicants who should give assurance of its judicious distribution. In each subsequent year the printing and distribution of such matter to the amount of almost or quite 1,000,000 pages has been reported. The various printed documents thus sent forth during the year now closing will reach about the same aggregate, and we have on file applications for additional supplies to the amount of nearly 400,000 pages.

Several circulars have been issued and a Family Covenant Card suitable for hanging on the walls of the home; but of tracts or leaflets only one has been added to the list previously reported, viz., No. 39, Temperance Work for Girls, by Miss Rose Elizabeth Cleveland.

Of Tract No. 6 (Deliverances) whose distribution throughout the whole Church has been repeatedly urged by the Assembly, we have this year sent out a much larger amount than in any preceding year, but have still, through lack of funds, fallen far short of perfect compliance with the Assembly's behest.

In response to earnest appeals we have had the tract "Is There Room for Me?" translated into German, and it is now in the hands of the printer.

The printing press has been utilized in securing public attention and favor. We have in the past year availed ourselves more extensively of the use of the periodical press, our religious newspapers and in some instances secular papers also very courteously opening to us their columns.

In pursuance of the action of the last Assembly the Committee has labored to promote efforts for securing temperance education laws in Tennessee and Indiana. A circular emphasizing the importance of this work for the young was sent out. In both the States mentioned petitions were sent from our Synods and from many churches and communities asking their respective Legislatures for the enactment of the desired laws. In Indiana a scientific temperance instruction law has been secured. In Tennessee faithful work was done. The effort, though for the present unsuccessful, will be renewed.

We have also coöperated in an earnest effort in New York to secure a needed amendment to their temperance instruction law. The Synod of New York appointed a strong committee to petition and press the matter before the Legislature, where the question is now pending.

In Pennsylvania an amendment to the Brooks license law is before the Legislature, proposing to confer the right of local veto on every political division in the State. We have sought to forward this measure by sending forms of petitions, circulars, etc., to all pastors and to many others, by much correspondence and various communications to the public prints and by a visit of our Corresponding Secretary to the State capital in the interests of this legislation. The bill is still pending, with encouraging hope of passage.

A letter has been addressed to the President of the United States, presenting to his attention the reiterated expressions of our General Assembly of its desire to see the liquor traffic abolished in all our national domain. That which seemed to render such communication specially pertinent at this time was the fact that in the recent report of the Governor of one of the Territories to the Secretary of the Interior, the liquor traffic is arraigned as responsible for the prevalent disorders and the extreme financial embarrassment of the territorial government. No information has yet reached us of any movement towards the action sought.

While our National Government may claim exoneration from responsibility for the liquor traffic within the States, on the ground of constitutional limitation of its power, no such claim can be sustained with regard to the Territories and the District of Columbia. Nor in fact can it be justly claimed, so long as the United States revenue laws remain as they are, that in our conflict with this vampire trade in the States, the Federal Government maintains neutrality. The complaint comes constantly from prohibition States, that the liquor seller, outlawed by the State, is permitted to find shelter from merited odium under the Federal permit. And in districts where, by the operation of local option laws, or by remonstrance against license, the people have prohibited the traffic, the popular will is being constantly thwarted by this unjust intervention of the Federal States. Should the General Assembly wield such influence as it may, towards the amendment in this regard of the U. S. Internal Revenue laws, we are persuaded that such influence will tend directly and potently towards the banishment of the traffic from our land.

By the report of the Presbytery of Buffalo there is brought to the attention of the Permanent Committee the sad demoralization being wrought among the Corn Planter Indians on their reservations in Western New York. Within the past week, by a letter to the Secretary of the Interior, your Committee has asked for investigation and correction of the evils complained of.

THE TEMPERANCE NARRATIVES.

But a brief list of inquiries was sent abroad this year. Each Session was requested to report as to the exertion of influence towards securing the two objects aimed at by the Presbyterian Church, viz.: total abstinence for the individual and prohibition of the traffic by the State; and if such influence is exerted, how.

Another question was, "Have you taken measures, as urged by the last Assembly, to promote scientific temperance teaching in public schools?" And further, "Do temperance interest and effort seem to be growing or abating in your church and community?"

The number of Presbyteries heard from at this date is somewhat larger than in preceding years. The influence of our churches is everywhere being exerted for total abstinence. Large Presbyteries are able to report that every minister is an abstainer, and some churches tell that the same is true of all their members. Others, unable to make such report regarding their entire membership, deplore the fact and are laboring and praying for such results. The reports of several Presbyteries indicate that as to the prohibition of the traffic there is diversity of opinion among their churches, and one Session even questions whether the Presbyterian Church is committed to the policy of legal prohibition! By the very large majority, however, unequivocal declaration is made of hearty endorsement of the position of our Church, both as to personal abstinence and prohibition. To the inquiry how these ends are being promoted, the answers are such as follow, viz.: by preaching, prayer, example, Sabbath-school teaching, Bands of Hope, public meetings, circulating literature, placing temperance books of our Board and other publishers in Sabbath-school libraries, contributing money, the temperance covenant, through the Y. P. Society, by Temperance Committee of the Session, through the women's organizations, both Presbyterian and interdenominational, personal efforts for reclaiming the drunkard and for guarding him against relapse, by church and neighborhood temperance societies, and anti-saloon league, persuading and aiding inebriates to avail themselves of the "Gold Cure," seeking by petition and otherwise, prohibitory legislation, by remonstrance against license and efforts to promote enforcement of restrictive or prohibitory features of existing laws, by vote and influence seeking to put true men in office who will not be bought or dominated by the liquor power, etc.

Regarding physiological temperance instruction in public schools, many still make reply as last year, that "the State requires it," singularly oblivious of the fact that laws are not automatic in their operation. In Tennessee and Indiana our people have shown deep interest by petitioning their legislators for the enactment of such laws, and in New York for needed amendment of the existing law. Though Florida has no such law as yet, one Presbytery reports that in several counties the Superintendents have been petitioned and have directed the introducing of such instruction.

In making reply to our inquiry as to whether temperance interest and effort seem to be growing or abating, the tone of some of the reports is extremely despondent; and it must be conceded there are facts here most painful to contemplate—Iowa surrendered again to the saloon; the South Dakota prohibitory clause to be resubmitted; the same threatened in Kansas. If Elijah, elate with the confident assurance of the triumph of prohibition, was so cast down that he asked to die when he saw Baalism still regnant, the discouragement of some of the Lord's prophets now is not surprising. These watchmen are witnesses of the ravages of intemperance in the land, in the family and in the Church of God.

Crime is rampant, and yet these reports tell us that many officials, elected and sworn to protect the innocent, are seen, with brazen effrontery, to join hands with the poisoner-general to whom our woes are so largely due.

And sad complaint is made in these narratives of prevailing indifference. The apathy, the unconquerable inertia of the Christian public regarding a peril so awful and so imminent, is appalling.

But despite all this, the number of our brethren who seem to have succumbed to the paralyzing effect of discouragement is not large. The great majority of these reports are pervaded by a different spirit. The writers, if not jubilant, yet show purpose to work till the Master comes.

More than five-sixths of these reports represent the interest as growing. Growing very slowly some think. Growing in the Church but not in the community two Presbyteries say. Others speak emphatically. "Yes!" "Yes, decidedly." "Manifest growth in the last four or five years."

United efforts against the saloon are being prepared for in various States. The Anti-Saloon League in Ohio is rapidly growing in strength. The same movement has also made more or less progress in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, etc.

The good people of Indiana are rejoicing over the success attendant on their efforts for more effective anti-liquor legislation.

From Colorado, Montana, Utah and New Mexico no Presbyterial reports have yet reached us. The narratives from Washington, Oregon and California like the others are variegated with light and shadow. From Portland we hear of sad hindrances but also of recent movements of much interest. "The moral wave has struck Portland. I have never seen the moral sentiment more thoroughly awakened against the saloon and all its infernal appendages. The pulpit speaks out in thunder tones. The Young People's Societies have taken the lead. A petition of 15,000 presented to city councils and backed by vote of all churches demanding enforcement of laws against the saloon."

In Michigan, which took the initiative in the movement for a temperance Sabbath, notice is sent through the mails calling attention of pastors and Sessions as the day approaches. Five or six Synods besides Michigan last year reiterated the Assembly's recommendation of this observance.

Hopeful efforts are now in progress, especially by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, to make this custom, so auspiciously inaugurated by our Church, a world-wide observance. In a communication just received by the Permanent Committee, the earnest request comes from the World's W. C. T. U., seconded by the London Sunday-school Union, that in the interest of a world-wide uniformity in this matter, the day which shall be recommended by our General Assembly be the fourth Sabbath of November, or such proximate day as may be found most convenient. The International Sunday-school Committee having in its schedule provided for a temperance lesson on that day.

A pastor in Pennsylvania, in his report asks, "Why not have a committee on stealing, one on gambling and another on lying, as well as on temperance?" The Presbyterial Temperance Chairman to whom the question comes makes reply that so soon as in social life and in legislation the same attitude shall be assumed towards intemperance and the liquor traffic as is now maintained towards other crimes and vices the Church may dispense with her temperance committee.

In more than one report there are indications of the existence of an apprehension on the part of some, that in its action on the temperance question the General Assembly has been introducing politics into the Church. Such a purpose the Assembly utterly repudiates. The effort is not to introduce politics into our religion, but to introduce the principles of religion into politics—a wholly different thing.

For thirty years the Presbyterian Church has taught that the traffic in intoxicating beverages is wrong, and that engagement in this business is to be regarded as a bar to Christian communion. If the civil government, which should be "a terror to evil doers," grants indulgences—sells for money the privilege of prosecuting this nefarious trade, and if political parties espouse such a policy, could our Church consistently refrain from bearing her testimony on the subject? Were a railroad company or manufacturing company thus by its influence to protect and promote some evil and pernicious institution the duty of the Church to reprove, rebuke, exhort such offenders would be conceded. The Church is Christ's bride, and it is to be hoped that knowing the depths of Satan she will never permit herself to be tricked into abandonment of her prerogative or neglect of her duty.

Of course from the South your Committee can receive but few Presbyterial reports. Personal correspondence brings some information as to the progress of the cause, especially as to South Carolina. In that State and in the Gulf States we are informed that among the colored people intemperance is prevalent and the deplorable effects are sadly manifest. Earnest appeal is made that our Church shall attempt special temperance missionary work on their behalf.

We are aware that no adequate representation is being here given of the year's work. As is justly remarked in one of these reports, "the influence exerted by the Church and Christian people in a community touching moral questions, is so quiet and subtle in its operations, and the results so intangible that they cannot be fully and definitely measured and reported." Our aim is to convey to the Assembly, as accurately as we may, the impression produced by a careful examination of these documents.

ANTI-LIQUOR LEGISLATION.

Perhaps nothing more important to the cause of temperance has ever been passed by Congress, than the following, enacted just before the recent adjournment: "The Commissioner of Labor is hereby authorized to make an investigation relating to the economic aspects of the liquor problem, and report results thereof to Congress." The value of this action to the cause, will of course depend on the thoroughness and fairness of the investigation. It is believed that Congress has committed this duty to honest and capable hands.

In several States, notably Maine, North Dakota, Kansas and New York, determined assaults of the liquor power have been successfully repelled.

WHAT OF THE NIGHT?

Though to the eye of the watchman no sign of promise were discernible through the gloom, yet surely trust in God's promises should banish fear. We know that the morning cometh. But even the eye of sense may now discover some tokens of coming dawn.

Temperance is becoming more and more a part of the recognized work of the Church. All Protestant churches are moving against the saloon, and even from the Roman Catholic Church the piratical craft has received heavy broadsides.

The very general and enthusiastic espousal of the cause by the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, with its 2,000,000 members, is a fact of most cheering import. And in connection with this we note the extraordinary interest recently awakened in municipal reform—hardly a city without its league or club for the promotion of good government.

Mighty must be the influence exerted by the vast number of noble and devoted Christian women now enlisted in this work.

An interesting indication of the trend of public sentiment among business and professional men, as to social drinking, is the fact that at some of the great banquets in our large cities no intoxicating beverages have been served. This is unprecedented in the history of the country.

Some of the great labor organizations have given expression to their conviction that rum is an enemy of labor by refusing to admit to membership any man engaged in the liquor traffic. Many of the great railway companies insist on total abstinence in employés. One of our reports from a Western State tells of the discharge of thirty engineers because of drinking habits.

All Christian philanthropists must also regard with deep interest the work of such institutions as the New York Christian Home for Intemperate Men, in which, the alcohol and opium habit being regarded and treated only as sins, the endeavor is made, under the most favorable circumstances attainable, to apply the Gospel remedy. More than one-half of all who have been treated in that institution give good evidence not only of recovery from the drink habit, but of true conversion to Christ.

Of most auspicious augury are the increased efforts for concerted action among all friends of temperance. Dissension in the temperance camp has been the reproach and bane of the cause. The slightest token, therefore, of progress towards harmony, and of a growing spirit of forbearance and charity among those who differ, is to be noted with gratulation, and we hopefully recall the fact that the disciple who became preëminently the apostle of love and kindly forbearance, is that same John who once reported, "Master, we found one casting out devils in thy name, and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us."

Your Committee beg that you shall bid the people be of good courage, and quit themselves like men, in Christ's name fighting with all their might this cruel and relentless foe.

Appended hereto will be found an abstract of the Fourth Annual Report of the Presbyterian Woman's Temperance Association, whose excellent work in behalf of the cause we commend to the favorable notice of the General Assembly.

The statement of the Treasurer is also presented, showing that there has been contributed for the work of the Permanent Committee the sum of $1358.38.

The term of service of the following members expires at this time, viz.: Ministers—R. D. Wilson, D.D., and C. W. Wycoff; Ruling Elders—George Irwin and R. C. Totten. To fill the place of R. C. Totten, we suggest the name of William C. Lilly.

All which is respectfully submitted.

APPENDIX.

THE FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE PRESBYTERIAN WOMAN'S TEMPERANCE ASSOCIATION, FROM APRIL, 1894, UNTIL APRIL, 1895.

During the year regular monthly business meetings have been held on the last Wednesday in each month, except during June, July and August. At these meetings reports are given, plans of work projected and the best means for furthering the work are discussed. Those who attend are encouraged by hearing reports of work accomplished by personal effort on the part of members of the Executive Committee.

While death has come into the homes of some of our members and removed dear ones, we thank our Heavenly Father that he has spared the lives of the members of our Committee and given strength and grace to bear their trials with fortitude.

A resolution of the Executive Committee, proposing that a public evening meeting for women, in connection with our work, be held during the sessions of the General Assembly, in Pittsburgh, was most heartily approved and endorsed by General Assembly's Permanent Committee and the Synodical Committee of our own Association, and we pray for good results from these meetings.

Being desirous that the new Hymnal now being compiled for the use of the Presbyterian Church, should contain some hymns on the subject of temperance, the Executive Committee secured a number and forwarded them to the Committee on Hymnal, asking that they might be inserted.

Protests were sent to the Senate and House of Representatives, respectively, against a bill to license the selling of liquor in Fairmount Park; also a letter to the Presbyterian Ministers' Association, asking that similar protests be sent by them.

There are reported seven Synods and thirty-nine Presbyteries organized.

The Woman's Temperance Committee of the Synod of Colorado reports as follows:

Boulder Presbytery—"Every minister interviewed personally or by letter concerning temperance work. Eighteen letters of instruction and as many petitions sent to ministers or preaching points. Literature from the Permanent Committee distributed. Several local committees appointed and the directions carried out in several churches. In one church monthly temperance meetings held, with good results."

Pueblo Presbytery reports, "through the Woman's Committee, several churches organized and committees appointed. The First Church of Pueblo organized a local committee, public meetings have been held, literature distributed, Sabbath-schools visited and committees formed in three other churches. The First Church of Colorado Springs reports a collection forwarded to Permanent Committee, pledges distributed—ninety-eight signed in Sabbath-school and thirty adults."

We would urge upon all Synodical, Presbyterial and Church Committees that they forward reports to Corresponding Secretary, so that all work may be reported.

The Chairman of Presbyterian Woman's Temperance Committee in West Jersey Presbytery reports: "Petitions and church constitutions, together with a personal appeal, to forty-five churches in the Presbytery, replies came from twenty-four. Definite information as follows: Committees formed in Bridgeton—First, Third and Fourth; Cedarville—First and Salem, which reports one meeting held each month; seven hundred and sixty-six pages of literature, including twenty-two temperance catechisms, distributed; seven sermons by pastor. A conference of Presbyterial Committee in Salem in October, 1894. Bridgeton—Second, temperance introduced through mothers' meetings. Cape May City, Clayton, Cold Spring, Pittsgrove—Temperance Committees in Christian Endeavor Societies. Woodstown—Organized, committee appointed and effective work accomplished through Sabbath-school, sermons preached and literature distributed. Collection of $14.30 forwarded to Permanent Committee."

We say to all Presbyterial Committees, "Go, and do thou likewise."

In the Synod of Pennsylvania and the Presbyteries of Philadelphia and Philadelphia North, we have much to encourage during the past year. Synodical President has written many letters and distributed hundreds of pages of literature. More interest manifested by missionary workers. Among the many churches in which deep interest is taken, we mention a few—the Walnut Street Church, Patterson Memorial, Trinity Church, Frankford, Hollond Memorial Church. West Spruce Street Church reports enthusiastic meetings in connection with Junior C. E. Society, literature and pledge cards distributed. Temple Church reports definite and earnest temperance work.

Four churches organized in Presbytery of Philadelphia North and six others where literature is distributed. The Committee of the First Church, Germantown, secured and distributed literature specially adapted to Sunday-schools, and made efforts to secure the coöperation of teachers and superintendents; also sought coöperation of all churches in protest against licensing of liquor selling in Fairmount Park.

Presbytery of Pittsburgh—Woman's Temperance Committee reports monthly meetings held in which members of Synod's Committee join them. Return postals sent to eighty two pastors; twenty-seven reported, showing temperance sermons preached, 22; churches using temperance Sunday-school lesson, 19; temperance committees in C. E. Societies, 14; churches organized for temperance by Committee of Session or of women, 2; collections, 12, amounting to $149; letters and postals written, 174; a large amount of literature and pledge cards distributed.

Our Superintendent of Literature has distributed 43,730 pages, 1667 pledge cards and 40 pledge books.

During the year about sixty-seven postals and eighty-six letters have been written in the interest of our work; twenty-two packages of literature, consisting of cards, sessional petitions and church constitutions, and printed addresses, amounting to about eight hundred pages, have been sent out; one hundred and twenty-five catechisms distributed.

We desire to thank the Permanent Committee for supplies of literature, also the editors of our religious papers for the notices of our meetings they have so kindly given.

Having no membership fees, we depend entirely upon collections at our monthly meetings and the contributions of our friends for funds to carry on our work, we thank all who have contributed to our work during the past year.

In conclusion, we desire to recommend the appointment of Synodical, Presbyterial and Church Committees where such do not exist; also, that the Temperance Day appointed by General Assembly be observed in our churches and Sabbath-schools, and a collection taken on that day be forwarded to the Permanent Committee.

Feeling thankful for what has been accomplished in the past, we desire to go forward, hoping and praying for still greater success in the future.

Respectfully submitted,

SARA S. STERRETT,

Philadelphia, April 17, 1894. Cor. Sec. P. W. T. A.

The Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, respectfully report to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in session at Pittsburgh, that during the past year the following legacies have been received, and duly credited to the trusts for the purposes designated, viz.:

For the Board of Ministerial Relief:
Estate of Collins Woodruff, deceased, late of Geneseo, N.Y., dividend of 40 per cent. on account of residuary legacy,		$1,517 23
Estate of Mary S. Leslie, late of Geneva, Ohio,		140 30
Estate of Elizabeth Tehault, late of Southampton, L. I.,	$1,000 00
Less collateral inheritance tax,	50 00
		950 00
Estate of Jane Holmes, deceased, late of Allegheny county, Pa., specific legacy,		5,000 00
Estate of Jane Holmes, deceased, on account of residuary legacy,		5,289 86
Estate of Jane T. Walton, deceased, late of Cassopolis, Mich.,		608 21
		$13,505 60
For the Trustees of the General Assembly:
Estate of Mrs. Ruth G. C. Coleman, deceased,		$100 00
The following amounts were received for the Board of Missions for Freedmen, under the will of Jane Holmes, deceased, late of Allegheny county, Pa., being a specific legacy of $20,000, and a payment on account of residuary legacy under said will of $5289.86, making		25,289 86

The legacy of Jane Holmes has been paid over to the Board of Missions for Freedmen.

The sum of $113,000 in mortgages has been received from the executors of Phineas M. Barber, late of the city of Philadelphia, deceased, the income from which is to be "used for the erection of churches and maintaining of needy ministers of the Presbyterian congregations of colored people in the United States of America, as seems best in the judgment of the General Assembly aforenamed."

As directions from the General Assembly will be needed in reference to this legacy, a full copy of the provisions of the will and a statement as to the legacy is annexed hereto, and made part of this Report.

The Annual Report of the Treasurer is herewith submitted (in accordance with the requirements of the ninth section of the Charter), which exhibits "the exact state of the accounts of the corporation." It is accompanied by the Reports of the Committees of Finance and on Accounts, with their usual certificates as to the state of the finances and investments of the funds of the General Assembly in charge of the corporation.

The interest upon the various investments has been regularly received, and is not in arrears; and, from time to time, has been paid over to the various beneficiaries in accordance with the requirements of the several trusts for which the same are held, as will appear by the accounts annexed to the Treasurer's Report.

Barker Gummere, LL.D., one of the Trustees, died on April 21, A.D. 1895. The vacancy thus made should be filled by the Assembly.

Respectfully submitted, on behalf of the Board,

GEORGE JUNKIN, President.

JACOB WILSON, Recording Secretary.

BARBER LEGACY.

Phineas M. Barber, of the city of Philadelphia, who died November 4, 1891, by his will, dated January 17, 1890, and which was duly admitted to probate, after giving certain legacies, disposed of the residue of his estate in these words, viz.:

"After the foregoing legacies are paid as provided, I give, devise and bequeath all the residue of my estate to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, who shall first pay yearly from the proceeds of the estate:

"1. An annuity of fifty dollars ($50) to Mrs. E. M. Barber during her natural life.

"2. The sum of one hundred dollars ($100) each year for twenty years to the Presbyterian Church in Derry Township, Montour county, Pa."

These annuities had been given in the will previously. The will then proceeds:

"The residue of my estate shall be held by the aforenamed Trustees as a special fund, which fund shall be called the Barber Fund; and the annual proceeds shall be used for the erection of churches and maintaining of needy ministers of the Presbyterian congregations of colored people in the United States of America, as seems best in the judgment of the General Assembly aforenamed."

The executors are then directed to invest the residue "in real estate securities, always selecting first securities with ample margin of security, and as invested then turn over the securities to the Trustees of the General Assembly as provided."

"I further request of the agents of the General Assembly who determine what churches and ministers shall receive benefits from the interest accruing from this Fund, shall grant the requests of my wife during her lifetime, if her requests are not positively at variance with the judgment of the Committee in majority."

These are all the provisions of the will, which in any manner relate to the legacy in question. Mrs. Margaret M. Barber, the widow, elected to take against the will, and received one-half of the estate.

The executors have already transferred to the corporation good and well-secured mortgages, being first liens on real estate, to the amount of $113,000. The estate is still unsettled; and there may be upwards of $100,000 yet to be handed over.

The will seems to suggest that the General Assembly would commit to agents the determining "what churches and ministers shall receive benefits from the interest accruing from this fund." It is for the Assembly to consider; and determine,

1. Whether it will itself, annually, make distribution of this Fund "as seems best in its judgment;" or whether it will

2. Commit this distribution to some agent or Committee or this Board, under such general instructions as to the same as in its judgment may seem best.

Several communications have been received in reference to the distribution of this Fund, which are herewith submitted to the General Assembly for its consideration.

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING MARCH 31, 1895.

The following amounts of Principal stand to the credit of the respective Trusts named:

FRANK K. HIPPLE, Treasurer.

The undersigned, having examined the Cash Account of Frank K. Hipple, Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, from April 1, 1894, to March 31, 1895, inclusive, and compared the vouchers with the payments charged, find the same correct; leaving a balance in the treasury of twenty-nine thousand eight hundred and sixty-six dollars and ninety cents ($29,866.90), of which twenty-two thousand one hundred and twenty-one dollars and eighty-two cents ($22,121.82) is principal, and seven thousand seven hundred and forty-five dollars and eight cents ($7745.08) is income, verified by deposit in bank.

SAMUEL C. PERKINS,
B. L. AGNEW,
JOHN H. CONVERSE,
} Committee on Accounts.

The undersigned have examined the Bonds and Mortgages and other evidences of property belonging to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as set forth in the Treasurer's statement herewith, and find the same in proper order, and amounting in the aggregate, at the close of the fiscal year, March 31, 1895, to six hundred and fifty thousand four hundred and thirty-eight dollars and seventy-four cents ($650,438.74), adding to which twenty-two thousand one hundred and twenty-one dollars ($22,121.82) cash balance of principal for investment, makes total permanent fund on hand at close of fiscal year six hundred and seventy-two thousand five hundred and sixty dollars and fifty-six cents ($672,560.56).

The investments are registered in the name of the corporation, excepting $8000 in corporation bonds, which are coupons, being securities specifically bequeathed to the corporation, and which are kept in the vaults of The Real Estate Trust Company of Philadelphia.

CHARLES M. LUKENS, ANDREW BLAIR, R. DALE BENSON, Committee on Finance.

The Committee on Finance, in compliance with the first item of Article iv of the By-laws, respectfully report to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, the state of investments, as set forth in the foregoing table.

BLACKBURN UNIVERSITY.*

There is properly no Theological Department in this institution. Only enough is taught to preserve inviolate our chartered obligations and to accommodate such young men as are not able to take a full course at a regular seminary.

During the past year five lines of study were pursued by seven special students, no one, however, taking all these branches: (1) Hebrew; (2) New Testament Greek, including Biblical Introduction and Exegesis; (3) Christian Evidences, embracing a study in Comparative Religions; (4) Church History Outlines; and (5) Systematic Theology. These were taught by the President in connection with the college courses in Philosophy to which the ministerial students had access.

The two years of my administration have seen a marked improvement in many respects—more extended courses of study, better material equipment, improvement of our buildings, more economical management, increase in income and the introduction of stated religious services conducted by the faculty, together with lecture courses and systematic Bible study.

The attendance this year was an increase of twenty-five per cent. over last year and the grade and standing of students marked an encouraging advance. We need more endowment and more buildings. We are in a very important territory where many young people need education and our eyes are continually toward our enriched Church with prayer and hope that she will soon, through her generous sons and daughters, furnish Blackburn the aid we have so long needed. The future is bright and we anticipate a prosperous year.

JAMES E. ROGERS, President.

V. Miscellaneous.

I. THE MILEAGE AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

SPECIAL attention is called to the Mileage and Contingent System adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, and amended by the General Assemblies of 1875, 1877 and 1884. As amended it is as follows:

"The Committee to whom it was referred to consider and report a uniform system of Mileage, whereby full provision may be made for the traveling expenses of the Commissioners to our General Assemblies, and to meet the contingent expenses of each Assembly, respectfully report:

"It is affirmed, Form of Government, Chap. xxii, Section 3, that, 'in order, as far as possible, to procure a respectable and full delegation to all our judicatories, it is proper that the expenses of ministers and elders, in their attendance on these judicatories, be defrayed by the bodies which they respectively represent.'

"The principle is thus established, that provision should be made for the payment of the traveling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly. This provision should be made by the Presbyteries. As far as possible, the feebler Presbyteries should be aided in this matter by the stronger. It appears just and reasonable, and so has been found by experience, that the estimated contingent expenses of each Assembly, and the traveling expenses of the Commissioners in coming to and returning from the Assembly, should be fully met by the apportionment of the whole amount among the several Presbyteries, according to the number of their communicants respectively.

"It is therefore recommended—.

"1. That the Standing Committee on Mileage, annually appointed, be instructed to present an estimate of the probable amount that will be needed by the next General Assembly, in order to meet their contingent expenses and the traveling expenses of their Commissioners, with a statement of the per capita rate, based on the number of communicants, that will be needed to secure the amount.

"2. That the Presbyteries, at their Stated Meeting next following the adjournment of the General Assembly, apportion the amount required of their churches as they deem best.

"3. That the churches be instructed to pay over their respective apportionments at the Stated Meeting of their Presbyteries next preceding the meeting of the General Assembly—the whole amount due from the Presbytery to be forwarded to the Assembly by their Commissioners.

"4. That, as early as the fourth day of the sessions of the Assembly, the apportionment of each Presbytery be paid in full, and a bill of the necessary traveling expenses of its Commissioners be presented to the Standing Committee on Mileage.—N.B. It is understood that Commissioners, both in coming to and returning from the Assembly, will avail themselves of any commutation of fares that may be offered in season; and that in other cases they are to take, when practicable, the most economical route; no allowance to be made for extra accommodations on the way. Also, that no one will charge for return expenses unless he intends to go back to his field of labor; and that no one on a business tour, or excursion of pleasure, will make a convenience of the meeting of the Assembly and expect payment of his traveling expenses from the Mileage Fund. Also, that Commissioners, as soon after their arrival as practicable, are to report themselves to the Committee of Arrangements, and have their respective places of abode assigned them.

"5. That the Mileage Committee, after appropriating from the whole sum an amount sufficient to meet the estimated contingent expenses of the Assembly, be instructed to audit these bills and pay them pro rata (if found in accordance with the preceding regulations), as far as the funds will permit.

"6. That, in order to avail themselves of the proceeds of this fund, the Presbyteries must contribute their full proportion to it according to the per capita rate.

"7. That every minister, and every vacant church contributing to this fund, connected with the Presbyteries thus complying with the provisions of this plan, be entitled to a copy of the Annual Minutes of the General Assembly.

"8. That the Commissioners from Presbyteries in foreign lands receive their necessary traveling expenses, pro rata, from their place of residence in this country."

In accordance with this system, every Presbytery is requested to pay in full, next year, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, a sum equal to four cents for mileage, and one and one-half cents for Contingent Expenses, or in all five and one-half cents for every communicant under the care of their churches, as determined by their Statistical Report, herewith printed. This will entitle their Commissioners to a full share in the apportionments for necessary traveling expenses. It is expected that these expenses will be fully met, if the Presbyteries comply with the recommendations of the Assembly.

They are expected, also, to provide for an

ENTERTAINMENT FUND.

In addition to the Mileage Fund, the Assembly of 1877 made provision for a "Supplemental Contingent Expense Fund." to "be used for the purpose of meeting the expense of entertaining such Commissioners as are not otherwise provided for." Each Presbytery is requested to contribute to this fund a sum equal at least to one and one-half cents per church member, and to forward it, with the Mileage Fund, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. It is to be disbursed by the Committee of Arrangements, whose bills for entertainment the Stated Clerk, as Treasurer, is authorized to pay, after they have been approved by an Auditing Committee.

☞ See, also, Minutes of 1894, p. 180.

II. THE ANNUAL MINUTES.

The Minutes for 1895 will be supplied at One Dollar per copy, postage included. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery and of every Synod; also (in the case of every Presbytery that has paid its full apportionment to the Mileage and Contingent Funds of the Assembly), to every ordained minister, and to the Session of each contributing vacant church, whose address is known; also to every ordained missionary of the Foreign Presbyteries.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk of every Synod; in which are to be stated the number and names of the Presbyteries within their bounds; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangements of their Presbyteries; the names of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries; the place and hour of the next annual meeting; and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod. A blank will be sent to the Stated Clerk of every Synod, near the close of the calendar year, which should be filled up, and forwarded, without delay, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly:

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 385 of the present Appendix; a printed blank for which will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Presbytery, for the year ending April 1st. A blank for the Narrative was adopted by the General Assembly of 1891, and a copy will be forwarded to every Stated Clerk. By order of the Assembly of 1880, a blank for a Tabulated Statement of facts will annually be forwarded to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery, to be filled properly, and duly reported to the Assembly. This Tabulated Statement should be sent to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly at least ten days before the meeting of that body. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the details of particulars, such as will aid the Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of the Church. The blank for the Congregational Narratives, ordered by the Assembly of 1885, can be had from the Board of Publication.

V. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.*

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following RULES be strictly observed:

(1) Carefully copy the blank form and order of columns, etc., on page ☞ 355, Minutes, 1895, if a blank has not been received.

(2) Record ministers in the order of their MINISTERIAL AGE, with their CHRISTIAN names in full, without abbreviations, and their address on the same line, in the adjoining column.

(3) ☞Place the name of every Church and Mission Chapel opposite the name of its Pastor, or Stated Supply; never opposite the name of any other minister; if the Church is Vacant, place it at the foot of the roll. If the Church uses in worship a language other than English, indicate the fact by words such as German, Welsh, etc.☜

(4) Place, after the name of every minister, an abbreviation, denoting his occupation; e. g., P., for a Pastor; P. E., for a Pastor Elect; C. P., for a Colleague Pastor; A. P., for an Associate Pastor; S. S., for a Stated Supply; H. M., for a Home Missionary; D. M., for a District Missionary; C. M., for a City Missionary; T. M., for a Tract Missionary; S. M., for a Synodical Missionary; S. S. M., for a Sunday-school Missionary; P. M., for a Presbyterial Missionary; F. M., for a Foreign Missionary; Pres., for the President of a College; Chan., for a Chancellor; Prof., for a Professor of a Theological Seminary or College; Prin., for the Principal of an Academy, etc.; Sec., for a Secretary or Stated Clerk; D. Sec., for District Secretary of a Benevolent Institution; Ag., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; Ev., for an Evangelist; H. R., for a Minister honorably retired; Col., for a Colporteur; Com., for a Commissioner; Supt., for a Superintendent; Libr., for a Librarian; and W. C., for other Ministers without charge.

(5) Place after the name of every Church the abbreviation P., for one that has a Pastor; P. E., for one that has a Pastor Elect; S. S., for one that has a Stated Supply; and V., for one that is vacant.

*These rules were adopted as a whole by the General Assembly of 1891. See "Minutes," p. 181.

(6) If a Church fail to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants, denoting the fact.

(7) In the Additions to the Church, distinguish between those on examination and those on certificate; in the Baptisms, between the adults and the infants; and be careful to observe the order of the columns in which these particulars are recorded.

(8) In the report of "Funds" contributed, observe the order of the columns, and the directions of the Assembly of 1871 (p. 589) as modified by the Assemblies of 1873, 1874, 1883 and 1887, as follows:

1. Home Missions. To include all moneys collected, whether for the Board, or for any Home Missionary operations, including Presbyterial Mission Schools, value of boxes, Ladies' Societies, etc.

2. Foreign Missions. To include all contributions for the spread of the Gospel in foreign lands.

3. Education. To include all that is given for the education of Candidates for the Ministry, whether to the Board or otherwise; and for Theological Seminaries.

4. Sabbath-school Work. To include all moneys contributed to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work for their Missionary work, Sabbath-schools included, and for Synodical and Presbyterial Depositories.

5. Church Erection. To include all contributions for Church Erection, outside of the congregation, whether through the Board or otherwise.

6. Relief Fund. To include all moneys contributed for the support of disabled Ministers, and Missionaries, and in aid of their families.

7. Freedmen. To include all moneys contributed to the evangelization and education of Freedmen, whether through the Board or otherwise.

8. Synodical Aid. To include all Contributions to the Synods for Synodical Sustentation.

9. Aid for Colleges. All given for Presbyterian Colleges, Academies and Schools, whether established for the education of males or females.

10. General Assembly. To include all given for ecclesiastical expenses, whether in Presbytery, Synod, or General Assembly.

11. Congregational. To include all moneys contributed for the congregation, the salary of the minister, the support of the Church Sabbath-schools, the relief of the poor of the congregation, building and repairing churches, liquidation of debts, and current expenses.

12. Miscellaneous. To include all other collections, for Bible and Tract Societies, etc., and for general benevolence.

Be sure to omit the fractions of the dollar, except in the General Assembly column.

(9) The names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column, with their Address in the next column; but of the candidates—including all who are studying for the ministry under the care of the Churches of the Presbytery—the number only is to be given.

(10) ☞ADD UP☜ and verify every column of figures, and Authenticate the Report with your signature.

(11) Annex a Statement of the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolutions of pastoral relations, organizations, receptions and dissolutions of Churches; also, any changes in the names of Churches; and the decease (with age, date and place) of Ministers since the last Annual Report.

(12) Avoid erasures and interlineations, make names and numbers distinctly legible, and punctuate properly.

(13) Affix no extraneous matter, such as memoranda, explanations, or orders for the delivery of the printed Minutes of the Assembly; let these be given on a separate sheet; also, every Overture to the Assembly.

Revise your Report, and find out its defects. Put in the commas and periods that are wanting; fill out the abbreviations; supply the Christian name of every minister (an initial letter is not a name); and see that every name and figure is perfectly legible.

☞ Forward the Statistical Report by April 25,* but if anything should prevent the forwarding of the Statistical Report in time for the meeting of the General Assembly, let it be sent at the earliest date possible to the STATED CLERK OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D.

* See "Minutes," 1890, p. 37.

IX. STANDING ORDERS AND RULES.

1. The General Assembly meets invariably on the third Thursday of May, annually, at 11 o'clock A.M.

2. The credentials of Commissioners and Delegates are to be presented at a previous hour of the same day, or of the preceding day, according to public notice, to the Stated and Permanent Clerks, acting as a Permanent Committee on Commissions.

3. The Lord's Supper is to be celebrated by the Assembly on the evening of Thursday, the first day of its sessions.

4. The evenings of the days of session are assigned to popular meetings in the following order:

The evening of Friday, the second day, to the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work and the Sabbath-school interests of the Church.

The evening of Monday, the fourth day, to Missions among the Freedmen.

The evening of Tuesday, the fifth day, to the Home Mission Work.

The evening of Wednesday, the sixth day, to the Foreign Mission Work.

The evening of Friday, the eighth day, to the cause of Temperance.

The evening of the second Sunday to Aid for Colleges and Academies.

5. The reports of the Standing Committees shall be considered at the times herein designated, viz.:

Ministerial Relief, Saturday, at 10 o'clock A.M.

Freedmen, Monday, at 10 o'clock A.M.

Education, Monday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

Home Missions, Tuesday, at 10 o'clock A.M.

Aid for Colleges and Academies, Tuesday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

Foreign Missions, Wednesday, at 10 o'clock A.M.

Publication and Sabbath-school Work, Wednesday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

Church Erection, second Thursday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

Benevolence, second Thursday, at 7.30 o'clock P.M.

Temperance, second Friday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

6. That the Standing Committees on Home Missions and Foreign Missions have each two and a half hours; and those on Education, Publication, Church Erection, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Temperance and Aid for Colleges, have each one and a half hours. That the Secretaries and the Chairmen of the Standing and Special Committees be requested to make their statements within the limits of half an hour.

7. The Stated Clerk shall receive all Memorials, Overtures, and other miscellaneous papers addressed to the General Assembly, shall make record of the same, and then deliver them for distribution or reference to the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures. All complaints and appeals, however, shall be transmitted by the Stated Clerk directly to the Judicial Committee.

8. All Special Committees appointed by one General Assembly to report to the next Assembly, shall be ready to present their reports on the second day of the session.

9. The Stated Clerk shall have printed and ready for distribution, so far as practicable, on the morning of the day fixed for their consideration, the resolutions appended to the reports of Special Committees appointed at previous Assemblies to report at that meeting.

10. The Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk shall be a Committee to revise the phraseology of all papers sent down to the Presbyteries to be voted upon, provided that in no case shall this Committee so change the phraseology as to alter the meaning [1886, p. 113].

11. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to supervise the publication of any and all editions of the Constitution, hereafter issued by the Board of Publication, and also of the Rules for Judicatories [1886, p. 113].

12. Each Board and Permanent Committee is instructed to send up its minutes with its report, that these minutes may be reviewed by the Assembly on the report of the appropriate Standing Committee [1885, p. 690].

13. A sufficient number of the Reports of the Boards and Committees shall be forwarded by them to the place of meeting of each Assembly, prior to the day of meeting; and a complete file of the same, stitched together, shall be delivered to each Commissioner [1886, p. 77].

14. In all regions where, through the organization of Union Presbyteries, there are no Presbyteries in connection with this Assembly, each mission organized as such under our Board of Foreign Missions may send to the General Assembly an ordained missionary, or ruling elder, as a delegate; and the Standing Rules of the Assembly are hereby so amended that such delegate is entitled to sit as an advisory member in the Assembly, and to speak, under the rules, on all questions, and that his expenses from his domicile in this country to and during the Assembly and return, shall be met as those of Commissioners, out of the funds of the Assembly [1887, p. 247].

15. No person shall serve as a member of a Board who is an executive officer or employé of said Board, or a member of any other benevolent Board of the Church; and no more than one ruling elder from the same congregation shall serve on a Board at the same time [1887, pp. 51, 108].

16. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of any of the Boards of the Church during the interval between the Assemblies, may be filled until the next succeeding meeting of the Assembly, by the Board in which such vacancy may occur [1887, p. 128].

17. The Moderator is authorized to fill by appointment any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees [1892, p. 209].

18. All resolutions for the appropriation of money, outside the Boards, should be brought before the Finance Committee, before action by the Assembly [1892, p. 199].

19. The recommendation of any particular congregation to the benevolence of the denomination, by the General Assembly, is not to be understood as creating either a legal or a moral obligation upon the Assembly for the payment of the amount recommended to be contributed by the churches [1892, p. 36, 1893, p. 41].

20. All Overtures must be presented to the Assembly not later than the fifth day of its sessions.

GENERAL RULES FOR JUDICATORIES.

[The following "General Rules for Judicatories," not having been submitted to the Presbyteries, make no part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church. Yet the General Assembly of 1871, considering uniformity in proceedings in all the subordinate judicatories as greatly conducive to order and despatch in business, having revised and approved these rules, recommended them to all the lower judicatories of the Church for adoption. The rules were amended by the General Assemblies of 1885 and 1887.]

I. The Moderator shall take the chair precisely at the hour to which the judicatory stands adjourned; and shall immediately call the members to order; and, on the appearance of a quorum, shall open the session with prayer.

II. If a quorum be assembled at the time appointed, and the Moderator be absent, the last Moderator present, being a commissioner, or if there be none, the senior member present, shall be requested to take his place without delay, until a new election.

III. If a quorum be not assembled at the hour appointed, any two members shall be competent to adjourn from time to time, that an opportunity may be given for a quorum to assemble.

IV. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, at all times, to preserve order, and to endeavor to conduct all business before the judicatory to a speedy and proper result.

V. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, carefully to keep notes of the several articles of business which may be assigned for particular days, and to call them up at the time appointed.

VI. The Moderator may speak to points of order, in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose; and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the judicatory by any two members.

VII. The Moderator shall appoint all committees, except in those cases in which the judicatory shall decide otherwise. In appointing the standing committees, the Moderator may appoint a Vice-Moderator, who may occupy the chair at his request, and otherwise assist him in the discharge of his duties.

VIII. When a vote is taken by ballot in any judicatory, the Moderator shall vote with the other members; but he shall not vote in any other case, unless the judicatory be equally divided; when, if he do not choose to vote, the question shall be lost.

IX. The person first named on any committee shall be considered as the chairman thereof, whose duty it shall be to convene the committee; and, in case of his absence or inability to act, the second named member shall take his place and perform his duties.

X. It shall be the duty of the clerk, as soon as possible after the commencement of the sessions of every judicatory, to form a complete roll of the members present, and put the same into the hands of the Moderator. And it shall also be the duty of the clerk, whenever any additional members take their seats, to add their names, in their proper places, to the said roll.

XI. It shall be the duty of the clerk immediately to file all papers, in the order in which they have been read, with proper indorsements, and to keep them in perfect order. The Stated Clerk shall receive all overtures, memorials and miscellaneous papers addressed to the judicatory; shall make record of the same and deliver them to the Committee on Bills and Overtures for appropriate disposition or reference. This committee shall have the floor on the reassembling of the judicatory after each adjournment, to report its recommendations as to reference of papers, and this right of the committee shall take precedence of the Orders of the Day. This committee shall report the papers retained by it as well as those recommended for reference to other committees, and no committee shall report on matters which have not been referred to it by the Judicatory.

XII. The minutes of the last meeting of the judicatory shall be presented at the commencement of its session, and, if requisite, read and corrected.

XIII. Business left unfinished at the last sitting is ordinarily to be taken up first.

XIV. A motion made must be seconded, and afterwards repeated by the Moderator, or read aloud, before it is debated; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Moderator or any member require it.

XV. Any member who shall have made a motion, shall have liberty to withdraw it, with the consent of his second, before any debate has taken place thereon; but not afterwards, without the leave of the judicatory.

XVI. If a motion under debate contain several parts, any two members may have it divided, and a question taken on each part.

XVII. When various motions are made with respect to the filling of blanks, with particular numbers or times, the question shall always be first taken on the highest number and the longest time.

XVIII. Motions to lay on the table, to take up business, to adjourn, and the call for the previous question, shall be put without debate. On questions of order, postponement, or commitment, no member shall speak more than once. On all other questions, each member may speak twice, but not oftener, without express leave of the judicatory.

XIX. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein arranged; and the motion for adjournment shall always be in order.

XX. An amendment, and also an amendment to an amendment, may be moved on any motion; but a motion, to amend an amendment to an amendment, shall not be in order. Action on amendments shall precede action on the original motion. A substitute shall be treated as an amendment.

XXI. A distinction shall be observed between a motion to lay on the table for the present, and a motion to lay on the table unconditionally, namely: A motion to lay on the table, for the present, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, the effect shall be to place the subject on the docket, and it may be taken up and considered at any subsequent time. But a motion to lay on the table, unconditionally, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, it shall not be in order to take up the subject during the same meeting of the judicatory, without a vote of reconsideration.

XXII. The previous question shall be put in this form, namely, Shall the main question be now put? It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present; and the effect shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the body to a direct vote: First, on a motion to commit the subject under consideration (if such motion shall have been made); secondly, if the motion for commitment does not prevail, on pending amendments; and lastly, on the main question.

XXIII. A question shall not be again called up or reconsidered at the same sessions of the judicatory at which it has been decided, unless by the consent of two-thirds of the members who were present at the decision; and unless the motion to reconsider be made and seconded by persons who voted with the majority.

XXIV. A subject which has been indefinitely postponed, either by the operation of the previous question, or by a motion for indefinite postponement, shall not be again called up during the same sessions of the judicatory, unless by the consent of three-fourths of the members who were present at the decision.

XXV. Members ought not, without weighty reasons, to decline voting, as this practice might leave the decision of very interesting questions to a small proportion of the judicatory. Silent members, unless excused from voting, must be considered as acquiescing with the majority.

XXVI. When the Moderator has commenced taking the vote, no further debate or remark shall be admitted, unless there has evidently been a mistake, in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the Moderator shall recommence taking the vote. If the House shall pass the motion to "vote on a given subject at a time named," speeches shall thereafter be limited to ten minutes. Should the hour for adjournment or recess arrive during the voting, it shall be postponed to finish the vote, unless the majority shall vote to adjourn; in which case the voting shall, on the reassembling of the House, take precedence of all other business till it is finished. Under this rule the "yeas and nays" shall not be called, except on the final motion to adopt as a whole. This motion to fix a time for voting shall be put without debate.

XXVII. The yeas and nays on any question shall not be recorded, unless required by one-third of the members present. If division is called for on any vote, it shall be by a rising vote, without a count. If on such a rising vote the Moderator is unable to decide, or a quorum rise to second a call for "tellers," then the vote shall be taken by rising, and the count made by tellers, who shall pass through the aisles and report to the Moderator the number voting on each side.

XXVIII. No member, in the course of debate, shall be allowed to indulge in personal reflections.

XXIX. If more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the member who is most distant from the Moderator's chair shall speak first. In the discussion of all matters where the sentiment of the House is divided, it is proper that the floor should be occupied alternately by those representing the different sides of the question.

XXX. When more than three members of the judicatory shall be standing at the same time, the Moderator shall require all to take their seats, the person only excepted who may be speaking.

XXXI. Every member, when speaking, shall address himself to the Moderator, and shall treat his fellow-members, and especially the Moderator, with decorum and respect.

XXXII. No speaker shall be interrupted, unless he be out of order; or for the purpose of correcting mistakes or misrepresentations.

XXXIII. Without express permission, no member of a judicatory, while business is going on, shall engage in private conversation; nor shall members address one another, nor any person present, but through the Moderator.

XXXIV. It is indispensable that members of ecclesiastical judicatories maintain great gravity and dignity while judicially convened; that they attend closely in their speeches to the subject under consideration, and avoid prolix and desultory harangues: and, when they deviate from the subject, it is the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call them to order.

XXXV. If any member act, in any respect, in a disorderly manner, it shall be the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call him to order.

XXXVI. If any member consider himself aggrieved by a decision of the Moderator, it shall be his privilege to appeal to the judicatory, and the question on the appeal shall be taken without debate.

XXXVII. No member shall retire from any judicatory without the leave of the Moderator, nor withdraw from it to return home without the consent of the judicatory.

XXXVIII. All judicatories have a right to sit in private, on business, which in their judgment ought not to be matter of public speculation.

XXXIX. Besides the right to sit judicially in private, whenever they think proper to do so, all judicatories have a right to hold what are commonly called "interlocutory meetings," in which members may freely converse together, without the formalities which are usually necessary in judicial proceedings.

XL. Whenever a judicatory is about to sit in a judicial capacity, it shall be the duty of the Moderator solemnly to announce, from the chair, that the body is about to pass to the consideration of the business assigned for trial, and to enjoin on the members to recollect and regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they are about to act.

XLI. In all cases before a judicatory, where there is an accuser or prosecutor, it is expedient that there be a committee of the judicatory appointed (provided the number of members be sufficient to admit it without inconvenience), who shall be called the "Judicial Committee," and whose duty it shall be to digest and arrange all the papers, and to prescribe, under the direction of the judicatory, the whole order of proceedings. The members of this committee shall be entitled, notwithstanding their performance of this duty, to sit and vote in the cause as members of the judicatory.

XLII. But in cases of process on the ground of general rumor, where there is, of course, no particular accuser, there may be a committee appointed (if convenient), who shall be called the "Committee of Prosecution," and who shall conduct the whole course on the part of the prosecution. The members of this committee shall not be permitted to sit in judgment in the case.

XLIII. The permanent officers of a judicatory shall have the rights of corresponding members in matters touching their several offices.

XLIV. The Moderator of every judicatory above the Church session, in finally closing its sessions, in addition to prayer, may cause to be sung an appropriate psalm or hymn, and shall pronounce the apostolical benediction.
